

"We will cling to the Pillars of the Temple of our Liberties, and if it must fall, we will perish amidst the Ruins."

We are again requested to state, that in consequence of the continued absence of a number of the members of the "Edgefield Debating Society," who were taken part in the debate of last evening, the meeting, which was to have taken place, was postponed until Friday evening next, the 29th inst.

We call the attention of our readers to the Address and Resolutions of the Central Committee, to the Democratic Republican Party of this State, which we publish upon our first page to-day. We request all to give them a careful perusal, as we feel satisfied that their merits, will amply repay them for their trouble. In our opinion, the course proposed by the Committee, relative to sending Delegates to the Baltimore Convention, is the correct, and only one, under present circumstances, that they could have suggested, so as to avoid the charge of inconsistency being made upon the Democratic Party of this State.

The Hon. JOHN C. CALHOUN, passed through this village on Monday last, on his way to Washington City, to accept, we understand, the office of Secretary of State.

The Weather.—Since our last publication, we have had all sorts of weather—rain, snow, sleet, hail, thunder, lightning, &c. &c., in fact, such a variety, in so short a time, is rarely witnessed, and we feel no hesitation in saying, that March has, at least tried, to gratify the whims of all the Old Maids and Bachelors, in these parts, by giving them the "spice of life." If we may be allowed to judge, from the appearance of Monday and yesterday, we think that winter has made its exit. The fruit in this vicinity, are nearly all destroyed, as they, before the last heavy frosts, were remarkably forward.

Distressing Accident.—On Saturday evening last, between five and six o'clock, Mr. D. W. Tibbetts, a worthy, industrious mechanic of this village, whilst in the act of painting the roof of a house belonging to Dr. R. T. Mims, was, from some unknown cause, thrown from the roof into the yard, a distance of about twenty feet, thereby receiving an injury which caused his death in about one hour. Mr. Tibbetts was much respected in our community, being an upright, honest man. He has left a wife and child, with other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely end.

We acknowledge the receipt of a number of public documents, from the Hon. A. Burt, during the last week.

Through the politeness of a friend, we have received a Catalogue, in handsome pamphlet form, of the Officers, Alumni, and Students, of the University of Alabama, for the year 1844. The University at this time has 101 students.

The Hon. John Y. Mason, has arrived at Washington City, and entered upon the duties of the office of Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. CLAY, (says the Savannah Republican,) arrived in that city on Friday evening last, about six o'clock; he was escorted to his lodgings by upwards of three hundred persons on horseback and in carriages, and that the streets were lined with spectators to witness the procession.

Cotton.—Our exchanges give the following as the prices of Cotton in their respective markets: Charleston, Mar. 23, 7 a 9 1/2 cts; Hamburg, " 19, 7 a 7 1/2; Augusta, " 21, 6 1/2 a 8 1/2; Columbia, " 20, 6 1/2 a 8 1/2.

Office of Assayer.—The Charleston Courier of the 23d states, that "Mr. T. Lawrence Smith, a gentleman of scientific attainments, has been appointed Assayer for South Carolina, under the act passed at the last session of the Legislature, creating that office, and directing the Bank of the State to carry out its objects. The Bank of the State has invited the other Banks to a conference to mature the arrangements; and a portion of the Banks have agreed to receive the bars or ingots at the rate of 101 3-10 cents per pennyweight of pure gold; the balance of its value being deducted to cover the cost of sending to the mint, interest, insurance, &c."

Secretary of State.—The Baptist Advocate contains the following paragraph upon the appointment of Mr. Calhoun: "The appointment of Mr. Calhoun to the office of Secretary of State, is an event worthy of congratulation. The peculiar views which he entertains in relation to certain matter of party politics, are to us of little account, in comparison with his general character for honesty, intelligence, skill in business, and gentlemanly bearing. His appointment we regard as auspicious to the settlement of the Oregon question."

Fatal Epidemic.—The Raleigh Register states that an Epidemic is raging in Rockingham co. N. C., and that "all accounts concur in representing it as fever of highly malignant character, accompanied with congestion, in some cases of the brain, in others of the lungs, liver, or bowels. In some families, it has appeared as the congestive scarlet fever, and the number of deaths from the epidemic in the county, since Christmas, is estimated at from 250 to 300."

The Rev. Messrs. Clites, Abney, Hill, and other Preachers, are expected to be in the Village on Saturday next, at the Ministerial Conference, and will preach on Saturday Night 30th, and Sunday 31st inst.

Mr. Calhoun's Acceptance.—The Charleston Patriot of the 19th inst. contains the following paragraph relative to the acceptance by Mr. Calhoun, of the office of Secretary of State: "The following extract of a letter will show that Mr. Calhoun has accepted the distinguished post to which he has been called by the unanimous wish of the country. In the present crisis of our foreign relations the circumstance is hailed with peculiar satisfaction. The honor and interest of the country will be safely committed to his hands. In being called to the exercise of diplomatic functions, in the existing condition of things, he will stand as the umpire and mediator between the East and the West. His position will be one of power, because it will be one of neutrality, between the cautious policy of the former and the war-feeling of the latter—between calculation on the one hand and enthusiasm on the other. The question of the Western boundary is less complicated, in some respects, than that of the North Eastern, but is entangled with some peculiar embarrassments, rendering it, perhaps, more difficult of being brought within diplomatic arrangements. Let what will come out of negotiation, the spirit that should preside over it ought to be one of calmness, of rational concession, of enlightened forecast, of straight forward sincerity, and not that which suggests the artifice, the indirection and double-dealing of diplomacy. In the possession of the above qualities we believe Mr. Calhoun will come fully to the mark, as would appear to be strikingly indicated and generally believed, by the unanimous and flattering approval of the Senate, a thing unknown in our annals since the day when party strifes were momentarily extinguished in the administration of Mr. Monroe."

"PENDLETON, March 16, 1844. "The mail to-day came freighted with letters to Mr. Calhoun from his friends, urging his acceptance; you will be gratified to learn that he could not resist this call of his country upon his patriotism, and that as early as practicable he will pass through the old City on his way to Washington. "The Greenville Mountaineer of the 22d inst. says:—"We are happy to learn, as we do through a private source, that Mr. Calhoun has accepted the office of Secretary of State, recently tendered him by the President, and unanimously confirmed by the Senate.—No appointment was ever made in this country that gave such universal satisfaction.—Indeed, we have not heard of a single press, newspaper writer or other person, having expressed any thing but gratification at the selection, and a wish that he might accept the post, tendered with such marked confidence and respect. The present lowering aspect of the Foreign horizon, calls loudly for a skillful helmsman in the ship of State, and men of all parties, in all sections of our wide spread country, seem willing to trust the experience, sagacity, firmness and talents of John C. Calhoun."

William Timmons, jr. Esqr., has been re-elected Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, for Beaufort District.

Annexation of Texas.—The Madisonian of the 18th inst. says "We have authentic advices from Texas showing that, with the exception of one member, the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the Republic are unanimous in favor of "annexation." We have also advices of the same authentic character, containing assurances that "ninety nine of every hundred of the citizens of Texas are in favor of the measure." We have likewise intelligence that if Texas be not annexed to the United States it will immediately become a Dependency of England, and an instrument to ruin the commerce and manufactures of the New-England States.

If the Executive of the United States should send in to the Senate a treaty of "annexation," we make bold to say, for the special benefit of the Intelligencer, that he will be wholly influenced by patriotic motives. He will entertain no sectional or party considerations. When sent in, should the treaty be made, it will be for the Senate, and the Senate only, to ratify or reject it. The Senate will doubtless act with a full knowledge of its duties and responsibilities, whether a treaty annexing Texas, or one asserting our title to Oregon, or both, be laid before them. And if it be improper to agitate the subject of the latter in advance of Executive action, the Intelligencer must permit us to say that it is equally so to prejudice the former."

Mill Burnt.—The Winyah Observer states that the valuable pounding mill of Ralph W. Izard, Esqr., on Pee Dee was destroyed by fire last week, together with a quantity of clean and rough rice. This is the fourth pounding mill lost by fire in this neighborhood within the last six years. Mr. F. M. Lance's, Mr. Allison's, and now Mr. Izard's. No incendiary act can be traced as the cause of either, and the impression appears to be general that the fire in each case was produced by friction.

Execution.—On Friday last, the negro boy Peter was hanged, about 14 miles East of this place, in accordance with the sentence of the Court which tried him, for the recent murder of his master, Mr. John Jones. We understand that the culprit expressed great penitence for the crime he had committed, and acknowledged the justice of his punishment. He was about 18 years of age. It is somewhat remarkable that there has never been a white man executed in this District—and we believe there had not been a negro hanged in the District during the last 18 or 20 years, until last week. Whilst upon this subject, we will take the liberty of suggesting to our Legislators the propriety of passing a law for all executions to take place in the jail yard, in the presence of only a few public functionaries. This is now the law in several States, and we have no doubt but it will be in all of them, before many years have elapsed. The effects of a public execution upon the crowd, which generally convenes to witness such a revolting scene, are decidedly deleterious, and calculated to harden and demoralize the minds of men, rather than deter them from committing crime. These facts are observed and acknowledged in almost every community at the present day, and we hope the time is not distant, when our Legislature will remedy the evil complained of.—Greenville Mountaineer.

A new Post Office has been recently established in the upper part of Greenville District, called Highland Grove, and Lewis H. Dickey, Esq. appointed Post Master.

From the Pendleton Messenger. We observe the following paragraph in the Charleston Courier: "Mr. Calhoun.—The Washington Correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, makes the following statement relative to the acceptance of the office of Secretary of State by Mr. Calhoun:—"Mr. Calhoun's readiness to accept the appointment was known before the late melancholy catastrophe. For it was in contemplation to nominate Mr. Henry Wheaton, now our Minister in Berlin, to the vacant Judgeship, and to appoint the late lamented Mr. Upshur Minister to Prussia. Mr. Upshur only wished to retain his office of Secretary of State till the arrival of the treaty with the Tariff league, which he expected in about four weeks."

So far as this relates to Mr. Calhoun, we feel authorized to say, that in its entirety unfounded. We learn that his intention he had of his intended nomination was by letters received from Washington dated the day after the catastrophe on board the Princeton. His answer was not waited for but the nomination sent in and unanimously confirmed, without hearing from him on the subject. That he leaves his retirement with great reluctance, we know. Nothing but the importance of the questions at issue and the manner in which the appointment has been tendered by the constitutional authorities and received by the people, would induce him to do so. And we believe he accepts, with the express understanding, that he is to be at liberty to retire immediately on the adjustment of the Texas and Oregon questions; or so soon as it shall be ascertained that they cannot be adjusted by treaty.

In proof of Mr. Calhoun's reluctance to give up his agricultural pursuits, and enter again on public life, we have recently learned from Washington, that the distinguished gentleman who now fills his place in the Senate, and who was once a political opponent, on hearing regrets expressed at Mr. Calhoun's retirement, whilst so many great questions were yet pending magnanimously proposed to resign, in order to permit Mr. Calhoun again to enter the Senate. To this, Mr. Calhoun positively refused to assent. The proposal to relinquish office under such circumstances, exhibits a generous disinterestedness on the part of the Senator, of which few men are capable. And we are gratified to learn from the same source from which we derived the above, that Judge Huger is universally esteemed at Washington, and "well sustains the dignity and character of a South Carolina Senator."

We learn that Mr. Calhoun will probably leave home to-morrow for Washington.

From the Charleston Courier. THE CASE OF THE PHENIX BANK OF COLUMBUS.

Mr. Frederick Martin, President of the Phoenix Bank of Columbus, was arrested and committed to goal, in this city, on Tuesday evening last, under a warrant issued by Thomas Martin, Esq., Magistrate, on the affidavit of a gentleman acting under the authority of the Governor of Georgia: The affidavit alleging that Mr. Martin was President of the said Bank, and that the Bank had become insolvent—and had fraudulently failed to redeem its notes, according to the law of Georgia. The Georgia law on the subject, enacts that any Bank which shall become insolvent, or fail to redeem its bills, in specie or current notes, shall be presumed to be guilty of fraud, and makes the President and Directors liable to indictment for the same, and on conviction, to be put to hard labor in the Penitentiary, for not less than one, nor more than ten years, unless they can prove that the Bank's failure occurred without fraud on their part.

Mr. Martin left Columbus for New York some time in February last, and about three weeks after, while he was in New York, the Phoenix Bank failed. Proceedings were immediately instituted in Georgia against Mr. Martin and others, and an Executive requisition prepared by the Gov. of Georgia on the Governor of N. Y. for the arrest and surrender of Mr. Martin. The agents of the State of Georgia, finding Mr. Martin here, on his return from New York, had him arrested at this place, as above stated. On Wednesday morning Mr. Martin was brought before his honor, Judge Wardlaw, on habeas corpus, and his discharge was claimed chiefly on the grounds—1. That the alleged offence against Mr. Martin was a mere misdemeanor, and the Constitution of the U. States only authorized the arrest of fugitives from justice of another State in cases of "treason, felony or other crime." 2. That the prisoner could not be held a fugitive from justice, as he had left the State of Georgia three weeks before the commission of the alleged offence. His Honor took time to consider the questions, and yesterday morning refused to discharge the prisoner, ruling 1. That the alleged offence, although but a misdemeanor, was a very grave one under the laws of Georgia, and sufficient to warrant the detention of the prisoner. 2. That the absence of the prisoner from the State, at the time of the commission of the offence was not sufficient to exempt him from arrest, especially as an affidavit had been submitted, stating that the causes of the Bank failure had existed anterior to the departure of the prisoner from the State.

The order of his Honor was that the prisoner should be remanded to jail for two weeks to await the expected requisition from the Governor of Georgia on the Governor of this State. It is likely, however, that Mr. Martin will not await these terms, but at once return to Georgia with the agents of that State.

For the prisoner R. Yeaton. Contra J. L. Pettigru, Esq.

Important from the Sandwich Islands.—We have "The Friend," a paper printed at Honolulu, under date of January 1, the following.

Admiral Du Petit Thouars arrived at Tahiti, on the 2d November, with the "Reine Blanche" and "Daune" of 50 guns each, and the "Tranie" of 64 guns. Mons Bruat the director in the government of the protectorate, accompanied the Admiral. On the 6th the Admiral deposed the Queen, and formerly took possession of the Society Islands, for the throne of France, giving as a reason for so doing, that the Queen had refused to hand down her flag which had been presented to her by Commodore Nicholas, of the English razee Vindicative. Mons Bruat had razed his functions to that of "Governor of the French possessions in the Pacific." Mr. Pritchard the English consul, had struck his flag. The Admiral had landed about 300 troops, who "with about 100 operatives and artisans were at work erecting fortifications, &c. N. Y. Express.

The New York Commercial Advertiser copies the above and remarks:

This is a rather startling piece of intelligence and seems almost incredible; and we have no data on which to question its accuracy. We had accounts, some time ago, that Admiral Dupetit Thouars was expected at Tahiti, having been summoned by the captain of the Boussole, in consequence of a collision between that officer and Captain Nicholas; but it seems scarcely possible that for so slight a cause as the one assigned Admiral Thouars would take a step so important, or that it would be submitted to by Captain Nicholas, if he was present. On the other hand, it seems improbable that he would leave the Islands knowing that the French Admiral was coming.

Our latest previous advices from the Sandwich Islands, were to the 22d Dec. and made no mention of this occurrence at the Society Islands; but these two groups are about 2000 miles apart, it is very possible that the intelligence may be true, though it had not reached Honolulu at that date.

HYMENIAL.

MARRIED. On the 21st inst. by the Rev. Wm. Watkins, Mr. JAMES STILL to Miss VARY MURKELL, all of this District.

On the 17th inst., by the Rev. H. A. Williams, Mr. DAVID WAITES to Miss MARY CARTER, all of this District.

Commercial.

HAMBURG, March 19. Cotton.—Our market is about as dull as can be. There is nothing doing worth naming, and but little coming in. The late news has rather depressed prices, instead of raising them. Holders of Cotton, need not look for higher prices, and in our opinion, they had better slip. Prices range to-day from 5 to 8 cts—principal sales 7 to 7 1/2 cents.—Journal.

AUGUSTA, March 21. Cotton.—The receipts during the week have been very light, and almost altogether by rail road. The market has been characterized with a little more animation than has prevailed for several weeks. Some sales have been effected, though at a reduction of fully three-eighths of a cent from last week's quotations. Holders, however, have generally withdrawn from the market, preferring to await further developments rather than submit to the decline. We quote the extremes of the market at from 6 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents.—Constitutionalist.

COLUMBIA, March 20. Cotton.—There is no alteration in the price of our staple since our last quotations. The supply is very limited and that not strictly of a fine quality. On Saturday last a lot brought 8 1/2 cent, and a very fine article might now bring 8 1/2 to 8 cents. We quote again extremes at 6 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents.

THE FIFTH VOLUME OF THE Hamburg Journal.

FOUR years have nearly elapsed since the Journal first made its appearance before a generous public; and although having met with a due portion of support, the Editor would at this time, invite the attention of his old friends, and those who may feel a desire of sustaining his efforts, and extend additional encouragement, to lend a helping hand towards the commencement of a new volume. We make an earnest appeal to our friends in South Carolina, as well as those in other States, to assist us in the circulation of the Journal, and clear away those weeds that have grown around the Old Palmetto Tree. Now that we have preferred Henry Clay to Martin Van Buren, we can only expect a desperate effort to be made to crush us, and consign the Hamburg Journal to oblivion. Though we fear not those who would injure our interest, because the more we are trampled on, the better we will thrive; still, we wish to have the consolation of knowing that our course meets with response from the hearts of freemen. We content a Press in South Carolina in opposition to the established mandates of those who dictate, is like treading on the forbidden ground of some eastern mosque—no christian dare pass it, unless barefoot. Yet we have dared to make a venture on this land, and ferret out that which should be removed. And now we leave our cause in the hands of our friends, and present our efforts to their consideration, to say, whether we must be disappointed or be supported with liberality and kindness. The Journal is published once a week, at the very low price of two dollars per annum, in advance, and contains at least twelve columns of reading matter. Will our brother editors, of either party, extend a friendly act, by giving the above a few insertions? J. W. YARBOROUGH. Hamburg, S. C., March, 1844. March 27 1t 9

Miss C. DRAPER.

THE co-partnership heretofore existing under the name of ROBERT & REMER, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be conducted by E. C. Remer, who will settle all business of the firm. M. D. ROCHE, E. C. REMER. March 6-13 1t 7

ECONOMY! ECONOMY!

THE SOUTHERN MEDICAL POCKET BOOK.

THE Subscriber having anticipated the publication of his MEDICAL POCKET BOOK, prepared expressly for the Southern States, but, being disappointed in publishing it as a book, now proposes to issue the work in sheets, twice a month, until the whole work shall be completed. Each number will comprise 32 duodecimo pages, on excellent paper, making, when completed, about 300 or 350 pages. This method has been adopted because it is the cheapest and safest mode by which the work can be delivered to subscribers. The Principles of Medicine, Disease, Practice, and theory, so far as relates to the Botanic remedies, are full and comprehensive. In fact, the Medical Pocket Book is so arranged as to render every man, or head of a family qualified to act as their own physician. In urging the POCKET BOOK upon the public, he deems it only necessary to state, that (not as heretofore,) the work will be free from mysterious Technicalities—and, that all the light within the reach of comprehension of the writer, has been plainly set forth. Disease, with the various treatments, preparations for, and application to, are rendered so easy no one who reads can fail to comprehend. This course has been pursued in all the divisions of the work, particularly in Anatomy, which is condensed from volumes of seven and eight hundred pages, down to a compass of, perhaps, between thirty and fifty pages—embracing the minor, and most important functions, internal and external, of the human frame. It will be found to answer the purpose for which it is designed, and its adaptation to all classes, ages and sexes—and will prove to be a companion to all who may consult its pages either theoretical or practical.

The following is the order in which the several parts of the work will appear, and the different subjects that will be therein contained: viz.

- 1. Preface, History and Theory of the Botanic Practice.
2. Practice of Medicine.
3. Botanical Materia Medica.
4. Compendious Anatomy.
5. Obstetrics, abridged.
6. Dispensatory.
7. Popular and valuable Recipes, between 100 and 200.
8. Surgery, abridged.
9. Compendious Glossary.
10. Index, arranged for each part separately.

The first form of the work will be issued about the first of May. Those who wish to avail themselves of the work will forward their subscriptions, through their respective post offices.—Postmasters are authorized to forward letters containing money for a publication of this kind, free of postage.

The work, when completed, can be bound in any style to suit the taste of the purchaser. Terms.—For a single copy, $2 50. Five copies, $10. Ten copies, $17. Twenty copies, $30. The postage will be the same as our newspapers. Each number will be carefully folded in an envelope, and forwarded to each subscriber separately.

Address, free of postage, F. S. BRINSON, LaGrange, Ga. Those editors who receive this prospectus will confer a favor by publishing it in their columns for a few weeks. The numbers of the Pocket Book will be sent to all who publish as requested. March 27 1t 9
