[CIRCULAR.]
To Planters & Merchants.
BEG leave to inform you, that I continue the WAREHOUSE and COMMISSION BUSINESS at my old stand, known as the WATER-PROOF WAREHOUSE. Detached as it is from other buildings, its location renders it nearly as secure from fire, as if it were fire-proof. The floors have been elevated above the high water mark of the great freshet of May, 1840.
Planters will thus be secured from the possibility of loss and damage by freshets.
I avail myself of the present occasion, to return my thanks to my friends and patrons, for their liberal support during the past season. I solicit from them and the public generally, a continuance of this confidence, and assure them that in return for their patronage, I will use my best personal efforts to promote and protect their interests, committed to my charge. In addition to this assurance, I pledge myself that I will in no case purchase a bale of cotton, directly or indirectly. I will attend personally to the sale and forwarding of cotton to Savannah or Charleston; also, to the sale of Bacon, Flour, &c. &c., and to the receiving and forwarding of goods to the up-country. Having a fine wharf attached to my Warehouse, no wharfage will be charged on cotton to my care, either for sale or to be forwarded to Savannah or Charleston.
My commissions for selling cotton, will be 25 cents per bale, and 12 1/2 cents for forwarding. I will also attend to the buying of goods per order.

I hope those who patronize me, will not forget, upon sending their jobs, to send the money, as I shall, without respect to persons, retain all work until I receive the cash, as I had better work for half the amount Cash, than never to be able to collect what I earn, or to lose more time running after it, than it took to earn it.
All those indebted to me, are requested to call and pay their accounts, as I am in want of money, and must have it. This will be the last warning.

Dr. Champion:—Dear Sir, I have been a great favorite of Dr. Sappington's Pills, and until last fall had not heard of your pills. Your agent has left some in this country, and I have used them in my practice to a considerable extent, and I can with pleasure say, that as far as my knowledge extends, they are much superior to any medicine I have used in cases of fevers. I am so fully and in person convinced of the efficacy and all important effects of your pills, that I am extremely anxious to have you make an agent in this vicinity. There can be a large amount sold here for cash.
Yours truly,
H. P. LEONARD, M. D.

DALLAS Co., Ala., April 4, 1843.
Dr. Champion:—Dear Sir,—Of the pills which I received from you, I have found some for a considerable quantity. I think that it will be sickly here in consequence of the wet spring. Your pills give such general satisfaction here, that I am persuaded by my neighbors to write to you for a large supply of both kinds. It is now known that I keep them, and people will come 30 or 40 miles for them. Please send them soon, as I expect to sell all that I have written for by the time your agent is around in July.
Yours with much respect,
BENJAMIN KING.
