WHY DO WE LOVE?
I often think each tottering form.
That limps along in life's decline.
Once bore a heart as young, as warm.

Of that one being whom we take
From all the world, and still recur
To all she said, and for her sake.

Nature's Nobleman.—The New Orleans Herald relates an anecdote of one of their wealthy citizens. A gentleman informed us yesterday, that after he was burned out on Saturday, he went to John Hagan, Esq., and asked him to rent him a house. The reply was "No, sir, I have no houses to rent to the sufferers; but go to my agent, and ask him for the key of any house I have vacant, and take possession of it." Such acts of kindness and generosity redeem the whole race.

Tried Brandy.—At the last Gloucestershire adjourned sessions, a girl was placed at the bar charged with stealing a pint of brandy (it was produced in court) from her master. The girl was acquitted, but the jury, with exemplary impartiality, not only tried the girl but the brandy too; for they conscientiously emptied the bottle. The liquor being drunk, the jury appended to their verdict, "below proof."—Punch.

successful operation, with comfortable improvements, and several tenements and small improvements on different parts of the place, 500 acres of land suitable to the cultivation of Grain, Corn, Rice, or Cotton, part swamp and clay foundation. The plantation is in good repair, with an Orchard of good Apple trees. On said premises is also a good ROCK QUARRY, which has been worked for for public and private use, and is inexhaustible. The situation of the timber on said land, for Saw Mill interest, is inferior to none in the District, it being handy, easy of access, and thorough to supply one saw for many years. It is also one of the largest bodies of timber containing water privilege now between it and Hamburg.
The situation of this Mill in a commercial point of view, is most advantageous, commanding not only the custom of Hamburg and surrounding country, but all the up country trade in Lumber, by a route which brings the Mills on the public road leading from Hamburg to Abbeville, &c. The location is healthy and convenient to market, being 10 miles to Hamburg, 14 to Edgfield C. H., 10 to Aiken, and 4 to Vauchuse Factory, with good roads leading to each. The place abounds with excellent springs. The range for stock is unsurpassed.
Adjoining is a large body of pine land belonging to the estate of Fox, deceased, which can be had at some future time.

Also.—The crop of Corn, Jodder, and Grain; 100 head of tame Hogs; 30 head of Cattle, 3 yoke of Oxen; 1 Carry-log; 2 Ox Carts; 1 Horse Cart, and the Sawyer, together with all the Plantation Tools, &c.
The titles are indisputable, made by the heirs, and the executors of Fox, dec'd.

of Fox, and judgment creditors; the balance of one of one, two and three years, if wished, with approved security.

ferred to W. S. Howard, who resides on the place, and will take pleasure in showing or will be given at any time desired. The Grave Yard, and the land on which the Church stands is excepted.
