

A short time since the papers contained an account of the capture of the Argentine Squadron, by Capt. Voorhees of the U. S. Navy. This was done as supposed on account of an outrage offered to an United States vessel. The subject is in relation to this matter.

Latest from Buenos Ayres.—By the Catherine, at Baltimore, we have received dates from the above place to the 20th of October inclusive. The British Packet of the 19th, contains a bitter invective against Captain Voorhees, of the United States Navy, for his share in the capture of the Argentine squadron, by the Congress and other vessels under his command. In comparing the transaction with that of Tahiti, the Packet speaks of it as a gross outrage accompanied by a gross indignity. The Editor also rejoices in the meanwhile to hear that no attempt is made on the part of the U. S. Agents in this country to extenuate the heinousness of Capt. Voorhees's offence, and trusts that the Government of the United States, viewing the affair in all its bearings, will hasten to make that reparation which it cannot withhold without seriously compromising the honour and rectitude of the Republican character. What causes this grievous outrage to be more sensibly felt by the people of this country, is the nationality of the perpetrator. However the United States might have acted in regard to the Falkland Islands, and with respect to Mexico, they have always been looked upon as possessing a natural sympathy for these countries, and it has never been suspected that an officer of the North American Navy would dare to attempt to debase the flag of a sister Republic. Sadly, has that confidence been belied!

Extract of a letter from a subscriber to the Editor dated, JANUARY 6th, 1845.

Dear Sir: I embrace the present opportunity of sending you some money in order to help you fill your greasy wallet, of which you spoke. As a new year has come in I think it is time for the Editors, Blacksmiths, Preachers, and all those who labor for the useful, to have their wallets full. I hope that the subscribers to the Advertiser, will all pay up their scores, so that the Editor will be encouraged to set in with renewed vigor. We hope that the Editor will stir up the minds of his subscribers by way of remembrance, telling them that the Farmer, Blacksmith, Mechanic, Merchant, School-master and Preacher, are all anxious to have their wallets filled, and that with Money.

Remain yours.

Counterfeit Bill.—A counterfeit twenty dollar note of the Bank of Charleston, was shown yesterday, which was detected in Columbia by the Teller at the Commercial Bank at that place, and being well executed was handed in without bills at the Bank of Charleston, where it was again discovered not to be genuine. On comparing the plate, we find the figures of 20 are somewhat higher than in the original, as also the female figure to the left. The eagle vignette, on the upper right hand corner is well executed, but the shading is also light. The signatures of "J. Hamilton," President, and "A. G. Rose," Cashier, are much better done than is usual in spurious notes, and would require a practised eye to discover the counterfeit. This bill is dated Nov. 13, 1835, payable to "T. Street," letter C, and numbered 558. The paper of the counterfeit is of an inferior quality.

Southern Agricultural.—The number for January, 1845 has been handed us by the publisher, Mr. A. E. Miller. The following is the table of contents:—"Report on Manures, read before the Black Oak Agricultural Society, by F. A. Porcher, Esq.; Address delivered before the Agricultural Society of St. John's Colleton, at their meeting Sept. 9th, 1844, by J. Jenkins Mikel and published by order of the Society; Use of Marl in raising Corn, by Fras. S. Holmes; Fences and Fence Laws, by A. B. McCarthy's Cotton Gin; Sugar and Molasses; Silk yet to be grown in the South; Hemp; Vineyard and Nursery at Brinkleyville, N. C.; Improved Farming in Virginia; Madder; Profit of growing Mustard Seed; The Young Farmer's Catechism, by J. T. P.; The Disease in the Potatoes in this State; The Sunflower; Tobacco—Medical Testimony; Indian Corn in Edgefield; Irrigation, &c. by William Jenkinson; Salt for Fruit Trees; Rowell; Pickle for Hams; New Variety of Wheat; The Wolf Trade; How to sustain Agricultural Societies; A speedy way of raising a Blister.

Emancipation of the Hebrews.—A Hamburg letter Nov. 22, says: The Senate and College of the Ancients have just declared in favor of emancipating the Jews. What principally decided our two highest in the state to consent to this act of justice is the immense sacrifices which the Jews of Hamburg have made to succor the numerous victims of the fire of 1842, and the spirit of patriotism and charity with which that body has been animated for a long series of years. The emancipation of the Jews will be, it is said, complete, except that they cannot form part of the Senate; which indeed would be impossible for all the solemn and public acts of the Senate are intimately combined with religious ceremonies, in which no one could take part without belonging to the predominant religion—namely, the Confession of Augsburg; so that even Christians of other confession are in fact excluded from our Senates.

The factory girls of Lowell talk of establishing a large factory to be worked by themselves, and of which they shall be the joint stock proprietors.

The Cincinnati Atlas of the 23d ult. states that in consequence of large masses floating ice, vessels can hardly navigate the Mississippi any higher up than the mouth of the Ohio.

A bill has been introduced into the Illinois House of Representatives, repealing unconditionally the whole of the Mormon charters, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary by a vote of 108 yeas to 4 nays—two of the four voting in the negative were Mormon representatives.—N. Y. Jour. of Com.

Interesting from Hayti.—The Marian Gage, Capt. Collins, arrived yesterday from St. Domingo.

Among the passengers in the Marian, are Joseph Billio and Dr. Camiano, commissioners from the Spanish part of the Island to the United States. This section has been declared independent of the Haitian Government, and has been recognized as a separate Republic.

These commissioners have visited America to open a trade between their "Republics Dominica," and the United States. They seek a recognition, by our government, of their independence, and wish to negotiate a treaty of amity and peace with us.—N. Y. Herald.

Fish.—A friend who has just returned from the sea shore of New Jersey, informs us that the whole for thirty or forty miles, is covered with dead fish, cast up by the sea. They are of all kinds, from the smallest perch, to the largest sturgeon, some rock fish, weighing forty or fifty pounds, and rich sea bass. Many of the fish are washed up before they are dead. So great is the number, that a gentleman computed that on Learning's Beach alone, there must be ten thousand bushels. What has happened among the fish, we cannot tell as we do not know to what unwholesome influences they are liable in the deeps below, but something extraordinary must have been in operation to produce an evil so extensive. Was it a volcanic eruption?

Expedition Business.—Electro Magnetic Telegraph.—Last evening Messrs. Parsons & Preston, booksellers, whose establishment adjoins the Electro Magnetic Telegraph Office, were asked by a person in Washington, through the Telegraph the price of certain certain books. An answer was returned in a few minutes, which proved satisfactory. An order for the books was the result; and they were despatched by the train of cars which left soon after for Washington.—All this was done in the space of a few minutes, with as much accuracy and satisfaction to the purchaser as if he had been present.—Baltimore American.

A French physician visited Damascus with a view to settle. Seeing the luxuriant vegetation around it, he exclaimed, "Ah, this is the place for me—plenty of fexer." Entering the town and noticing the abundance of water he said, "More fever—no place like Damascus." "But what building is this?" he asked. "A bath." "And what is that?" "A bath." "And that other building?" "A bath." "Curse on the baths!" said the doctor. "They will take the bread out of my mouth. I must seek fever practice elsewhere." So he turned back and hid him elsewhere.

The Hamburg Journal of the 1st inst. says: We rejoice when we say that during the past holidays, our city has not been interrupted, but in a very few instances, with revelry, dissipation and wanton immorality.—To the man of pleasure appearances were dull, but with our own sober, sedate citizens, everything had a pleasing, and satisfactory face.—The fun loving portion enjoyed themselves as well as possible, and the distant ones contented their minds by a good fire, and tall eating.

We learn, from a letter to a gentleman in this city (says the Savannah Sun,) that in St. Peter's Parish, Brauford District, S. C., a rencontre took place between Robert Marr and Mr. Bolden, on Christmas day, in which Marr stabbed Bolden to the heart with a knife, causing almost instant death.

The Charleston Patriot of Dec. 20th, says: The venerable Moses Dawson, of Cincinnati, while sitting talking with a friend on Monday evening, was seized with apoplexy, and instantly expired. He was for many years connected with the press of that city.

Admission of Slaves into Missouri.—As some doubt seems to exist among those who are about emigrating to Missouri, as to whether they will be permitted to introduce their slaves into that State, we have been requested to publish the following extract from the Constitution:—"They (the Legislature) shall have no power to prevent emigrants to this State from bringing with them such persons as are deemed slaves by the laws of any one of the United States, so long as any person of the same age or description shall be continued in slavery by the laws of this State: Provided, That such person or slave be the bona fide property of such emigrants; And provided, also, That laws may be passed to prohibit the introduction into this State of slaves who may have committed high crimes in other States."

Post Office Bill.—We have a copy of Mr. Harding's new Post Office bill. According to it, the rates of postage are thus defined. Five cents for prepaid letters, for a distance not exceeding five hundred miles, and for a greater distance ten cents for double letters, double postage; for triple letters, triple postage; for quadruple letters, or one ounce weight, quadruple postage, and an additional single postage for each half ounce. And double these rates if the postage be not prepaid. Newspapers to be sent in the country in which they are published free of postage and if not more than 1250 square inches to be charged half cent, sent not over 100 miles or to any post-office in the State wherein printed, and over 100 miles, or if out of the State, one cent, with an addition of 4 cent for each additional 250 or part of 250 sq. inches. Publishers to send their papers if they wish, by other than mail conveyances. Double these rates for papers sent to other than subscribers or to news-vendors. A pamphlet of 16 pages 10 by 6-60 sq. inches in the State where published, one cent; for 100 miles, or more out of it, two cents; with a proportional decrease of postage on the size. The President and Ex Presidents, members of both Houses &c., free correspondence, $750,000 to be appropriated for sustaining the present mails, and increasing them as required. After five years all the departmental correspondence, except the Post Office Department, to be charged with ordinary postage. These are the main provisions of the bill.

Southern Medical and Surgical Journal.—The first number of the new series of this Journal, from the press of Mr. Jas. McCaffery, has been laid on our table. Of its intrinsic merits as a work devoted to the science of Medicine, we cannot of course be expected to speak. We deem it sufficient to remark in this regard, that it is under the editorial conduct of Prof. P. F. Eve and J. P. Garvin, of the Medical College of Georgia, and the entire Faculty are numbered among its contributors.

The enterprise addresses itself to the members of the profession at the South, and to them we deem it unnecessary to dilate upon the advantages with which they are so familiar of a work devoted to the diseases peculiar to the Southern climate and constitutions. The great want of such a medium of communication has been long felt, and should, now that it is under token under favorable auspices, be liberally sustained by the profession.

The number before us, for January, is a neat octavo volume of 48 pages, of medium sized type, reflecting credit upon the Printer. It is furnished to subscribers at Three Dollars per annum.—Chron. & Scintill.

Cotton.—Our market has been very dull the past week but little Cotton arriving, and that with a few exceptions, stored, buyers being apparently careless about purchasing, especially since the receipt of the news by the Acadia, which caused a reduction of from 3/4 to 1/2 from our last quotations. At 12 M., to-day, the extremes were 3 1/2 to 4 1/2; principal sales 4 1/4 to 4 1/2, but a prime article might bring 4 3/4 cents.

Grain.—The market still continues well stocked, at former quotations. Our river still continues boatable, but will not last long in that condition, should the present weather reason for any length of time.—Republican.

AGUSTA, Jan. 4.
Cotton.—The unfavorable accounts from Liverpool by the last Steamer had so depressing an effect on the price of this article, as to cause much cotton that was previously offered, to be withdrawn from the market, and the demand having increased in consequence of the extremely low prices at which some sales were made, the decline which these accounts produced, has been nearly or quite recovered. There is however very little cotton offering, and the demand outruns the supply. The sales making, are at rates varying from 3 1/2 a 4 1/2 cents, but a choice article in square bales would bring 4 1/2, perhaps 4 3/4, but there is very little about fair to be found for sale.—Washington.

Edgefield Male Academy.
AFTER twenty years absence, the undersigned has resumed the charge of this Institution.
He will commence his duties on the first Monday in January. Thirty years experience, he hopes, will enable him to give satisfaction to his employers. A strict and uniform discipline will be observed, and a constant application to study, at appointed hours, day and night, rigidly enforced. All complaints or consultation with the Teacher should be made confidentially, otherwise the confidence of the Pupil and the influence of the Teacher will be equally impaired. Premiums will be awarded to every pupil, on the attainment of a certain number of points, ascertained by the merit roll kept by the Teacher, and a quarterly report of the standing of each scholar sent to the parent or guardian.
The rates of tuition per session of 22 weeks will be $2, 14, 16 and $18, according to the branches of study pursued, and payable in advance.
A few pupils can be boarded in the subscriber's family, and private instruction, at stated hours, given gratis. For the morals and manners of his boarders he will hold himself responsible.
For further particulars enquire of the teacher.
