From the Camden Journal. WAYNESBOR'O, BURKE Co. Ga., ? May 6th, 4845.

Mr. Editor :- In the discharge of my duty at this place, my attention was called to a group of persons who were all attentively listening to the reader. The subject matter was " That one wheeled Sul key."- I very soon discovered the paper to be the "The Camden Journal"-my mind at once recurred to former things, and I listened attentively to the remarks of my friend S. N. T., as also the remarks of yourself, for which you will both please accept my warmest thanks. And while I recur to the past, I trust nothing personal shall be considered, while at the same time I be permitted to touch on, as I proceed. After I had finished I procured it, (the Journal of the 30th ult.) I perused it, and found that those who once derided me and with sneers and contempt ridiculed my invention, are now making "amende honorable" for the past, and coming up in a Carolina spirit to my help.
While I sojourned with you, the happiest days of my life would have been spent upon the classic ground of old Camden, had it not have been that I ever aroused the curiosity and doubts of those that I had ever invented " That one wheel Sulkey." But I met with obstacles almost, insurmountable-the frowns of the self important the wisdom of self conceit, the jeers and taunts of ridicule, the laugh of the ignorant, and the contempt of the Lord-like aristocracy, which, together with pecuniary embarrassment, drove me to another section to seek protection, respect and a livelihood. Had a contrary course been pursued towards me by those to whom I allude, and a friend had been found who would have stood by me, and have responded to my want of pecuniary means, it would have enabled me to have carried out my invention, and I should now have been confortably living upon the result of my success, and would now have occupied the position to which I am enti-That however is fortunately passed. and that I am the original inventor of "The one wheel Sulkey," my future action will show. 'Tis true, and I am proud of it, that there was found by me many liberal, high minded friends too, in the community, who looked into this invention with much interest, and many were actuated by motives of curiosity, to all of whom I neverrefused an explanation-but alas, many of these were, like myself, poverty was their only crime-were it not so. I could have procured the necessary assistance and have completed my invention with credit and success amid all the excitement, doubts and cavils of the wise of that day.

I however concluded that amid all the embarrassments and perplexities which crowded upon me at that time, that

"Sweetare the uses of adversity. "Which like a Toad ugly and venomous, " Wears yet a precious jewel in his head."

and Hooked forward to that day, when I should ride successfully over them, in "That one wheeled Sulkey"-establish my claims, and as it now is, dispute my right successfully, with this said "Reamington" of Virginia. Now sir, this vehicle was put in operation by myself in miniature, tested by a friend who now sleeps from accident at Camden, originally from Charleston." About 3 or 4 months ago I made a collection of such materials as are necessary to again put this vehicle in motion-but again was I frustrated by the necessities of my dependence, and I left to attend the various courts contiguous to the city of Augusta. When one morning after my return, on looking over the exexchange papers. I perceived with astonment that a "Mr. Reamington of Virginia." letter to my old friend J. R. McK. Esq. | into the Catholic and Protestant Cautous. I was however, responded to by yourself | The annesty reterred to will cost the other with a " S. N. very proper Editorial.

Suffice it, I have obtained "legal ad vice" on the subject-my course is a plain one-I shall dispute every inch of ground with "Mr. Reamington" in due time. The principle and invention of the one wheel Sulkey is mine-the data of invention and origin are with me.

The causes for my procrastinating its accomplishment are numerous and cogent. The most insurmountable, unfortunately for Mr. Reamington, was my want of time as well as my poverty-and still while I nursed this invention with care, about its parliamentary success was set at and often sighed for its accomplishment. I have lived to see myself temporarily anticipated by one who (perhaps) has borrowed my original invention, in order that he might drive off with the credit of leading, in order that I might overtake.

Of which, I do hereby forewarn all persons throughout the United States that wheel Sulkey." and that it is my determination to test the merely "prima facia" evidence of letters Patent (if obtained) by a proper course and application of my higher tribunal.

Yours &c. with respect.
A. G. WILLIS.

New York Legislature .- Call of a Convention .- This body adjourned on the 17th instant, after a session of more than unusual interest and importance, as far as the number of Acts is concerned, having passed only 387.

One of the most important bills of the session, is the Exercise law, which authorizes the submission to the people of each town the question of license or no license -excepting, however, the city of New York .- South Carolinian.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15. The Convention .- The convention terminated its labors yesterday, for although the adjournment sine die will probably not take place until to-day, nothing remains save the enrollment of the Constitu-

It was determined that the new constitution should be published within twenty days following its adoption, to wit-in N. O. Benjamin and Wadsworth, took part in favor of the city, and Mr. M. Taylor on the opposite side. An appeal from the decision of the chair was taken, but the President was sustained by a small maority. So it was finally determined that the seat shall be removed from New Orleans, and shall not be fixed within sixty miles of that dreaded city. The Convention then proceeded to vote upon the final adoption of the Constituion. This solemnity occupied about one hour, as nearly every member considered himself bound to specify at some length the reasons for his vote. The tollowing was the result.—Yeas 55, Nays 15.—Bee.

The Weather .- During the past week we have been blessed with seasonable and most abundant rains, which have greatly improved our agricultural prospects. For three days, although the sun appeared in his full splendor, the nir was so cool, as to render fires and winter clothing not only agreeable, but actually necessary to comfort, in the morning and evening. Our principal field crops look promising, with he exception of wheat, which is pretty generally injured by frost and drought .-Cheraw Gazette, 20th inst.

Hamburg Republican Eatra, May 23d. By this evening's mail we were put in possession of the N. Y. Express, of Tuesday last, containing the news brought by the Britannia, which arrived at Boston on the day previous. The dates are to the 4th inst. inclusive. The absolute state of the Cotton market is not published in the Express, but by extracts which they publish from "Wilmer & Smith's' journal, it appears that the Cotton market has advanced since our last advices one farthing per pound. The prices of iron had fallen. The political news contained nothing relative to the differences between his country and Great Britain, in fact, from the view we take of the Parhamentary proceedings received by the Britanma, the Oregon question has either been laid over for further discussion, or dropped. Perhaps, in our hurry to lay before our patrons, such portion of the news as might most effect their interests, we may have overlooked something of importance, if so, they may depend upon it being attended to, in time for the next mail.

From the N. Y. Express, May 20. The Britannia arrived at Boston Monday at 5 A. M., with news sixteen days later from England and the Continent. There is no important news from Switzerland, and affairs remain there in statu quo. The terms of the amnesty have been had carried out my original design and arranged, and Lucerne has promised to invention, "That one wheel Sulkey." I discharge her prisoners. Rumors prevail immediately set down and addressed a that the tederation is about to be divided

The Dublin Corporation have passed resolutions begging the Queen to honor her Irish subjects with a visit.

The news man Brazin had advanced the duty of British manufactured cotton 20 per cent. beguer than the old tarill, has caused some vexation, but very little surprise.

The Maynooth College question had not been finally disposed of. All doubt rest by the unexpectedly targe majority which passed the second reading-147.

The repeal Association, whose proceed ings of fate have engendered apathy, is now an object of some attention, arising from the prominence which Irish topics bear in the Imperial Parliament. Mr. O'Connell is grateful for the Maynooth I am the original inventor of " That one Grant, and the new Irish Banking Actbut he is sore at the terms in which Mr. Macaulay spoke of the resistance which all parts of England will offer to the Repeat of the Union, and he hurled some rights and justice, to the Judiciary or a of his sterotyped defiances into his teeth.

From Witmer & Smith's Times.

The demand for almost all kinds of Produce has received a great impetus by the relaxation of duties, the plentifulness of money, and general employment and prosperity of the country generally. In Sugar, Coffee, and other great staple articles, the demand has been very great; and although the market has not been quite so brisk during the past week, yet We believe there will at present be no great reaction.

The Cotton market has been bouyant of late, and, in some descriptions, the improvement has reached a farthing a pound. The threatened rupture with America has caused this advance, and as the share market has been pretty well cleaned, parties, speculating on the rupture, are disposed to invest their capital in the stable. If President Polk will listen to reason, those persons, with the new crop staring them in the face, will assuredly burn their fingers; but if he will not, their gain will be great; and as the affair seems pretty much like a game of chauce, they reckon that the risk is worth the outlay. In the present temper of the market, and with the excitable topics that have been recently before Parliament and the country, the least move in the right direc tion-right, we mean, for the speculators, the provision requiring the lacgislature to deeply injurious as the result, whatever tion remove the seat of government at least 60 form it might take, would be for both | ket with unexampled rapidity. Every account from the United States is most auxiously looked for, and will continue to increase until it is seen whether "the little cloud in the West" has grown bigger, or has disappeared.

LATE FROM MEXICO.

The New York Journal of Commerce of Tuesday 3 P. M., has the following intelligence from Mexico:

We learn from Capt. Baker, of the barque Falmouth, which lest Mantanzas. May 9th, that the English mail steamer from Vera Cruz arrived at Havana 7th inst., with despatches for Mr. Crawford, the British Consul, advising him that the boundary line of Texas had been defined and settled, and her Independence guarantied by a convention between England, France and Mexico. Accounts by the same arrival state that Santa Anna has been reduced to the alternative of ten years' banishment, or a trial for mal-administration.

The above intelligence must have left Vera Cruz on the 2d or 3d inst., which is ten days later than our previous advices.
This joint guarantee of Texas Independence, with a specification of boundaries, is a more definite form of the proposition sent to Texas from Mexico, some weeks since, pe rBr. frigate Erudice. The Texan government objected to that proposition, that it specified no particular boundary; but intimated that if this objection were obviated, and a liberal boundary specified, the proposition would be presenten to the people for adoption or rejection, simultaneously with the annexation project. We presume the line has been placed pretty far West, in the hope of inducing the Texans to acquiesce; but it will be in vain,-they are almost unanimous for Annexation, and Annexation will be the result.

HAMBURG, May 21. Cotton.—During the past week there has been but little of the staple arrived, and sales from various warehouses have been but trifling. The market was firm at our last week's quotations, until Monday morning, since when buyers have appeared unwilling to lay hold, unless at a shade lower-but the transactions have been of so small a nature, that we deem it advisable to quote our last week's quotations. #### To the Physicians of Edgefield ibistrict.

GENTLEMEN: - Believing that the honor and dignity of our profession may be seriously af-fected, and is even already much injured, particularly in the country, by a want of that uniformity of conduct among the members of the profession, which is so essential to its maintenance: and teeling it to be the duty of the members of the profession to remove as far as possible any cause which have a tendency to detract from the respectability, honor and digmity of that profession, we feel ourselves sustained in calling the attention of the Physicians of Edgefield District, at least to the considera tion of a subject which must be looked upon as one of the great causes in producing the effects above alluded to—the want of a regular fee bill, a uniform system of charges, by which all shall be governed.

The dignity, the respectability and the honor of the profession require the adoption of such a system, and it is due the people, that a fee bill be adopted in accordance with the times. We therefore, call on the practising Physicians of Edgefield District, to meet at Edge-field Court House, on the first Monday in July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on that day to assemble together in some suitable room, and adopt such a bill of charges as the times and circum stances require.

After which, the meeting might take into consideration other subjects. And one which will be well worthy of its consideration is, the propriety of establishing a Medical Society or Societies in Edgefield District. The utility of which, if properly coonducted, both as regards advancing the science of Medicine and the benefits to the community, must be acknowledged by all.

We flatter ourselves that the importance of the subjects will be sufficient to induce every member of the profession in our District to take a deep interest in the meeting, and to attend, prepared for the 'transaction of the business above mentioned.
