

MARY STUART'S FAREWELL.

Translated from the French, by Beranger.

Adieu, sweet land of France, adieu All cherished joys gone by ! Scenes-where my happy childhood grew, To leave ye is to die!

Adopted country ! whence I go Anjexile o'er the sea, Hear Mary's fond farewell, and ob, My France, remember me ! Winds rise ; the ship, is on her track : Alas! my tears are vain : There is no storm to bear me back On thy dear shores again.

Adieu, sweet land of France, adieu All cherished joys gone by ! Scenes where my happy childhood grew To leave ye is to die !

When, in my people's sight, I wore 'The Lily's royal flower. Ah ! there applause was offered more To beauty than to power. Nor gloomy Albyn's throne in vain Awaits thy slow advance; I only would be queen to reign O'er the gay hearts of France.

Adien, sweet land of France, adieu All cherished joys gone by ! Scenes where my happy childhood grew, To leave ye is to die !

Love, Glory. Genius .- ah !- too dear .-Have dazzled all my prime. My fates shall change to cold and drear In Scotland's ruder clime. My heart, my heart, with sudden awe. Feels a vague omen's shock ' "Sure, in some ghastly dream I saw A scaffold and a block !

Adieu, sweet land of France, adieu All cherished joys gone by ! Scenes where my happy childhood grew, To leave ye is to die !

Oh. France! in all her woes and fears The Stuart's daughter, she, As now she greets thee thro' her tears, Shall ever turn to thee. Alas! too swift my bark has flown Beneath these stranger skies; N ght as her hurried veil comes down, Conceals thee from my eye.

Adien, sweet land of France, adien The cherished joys gone by ! Scenes where my happy childhood grew, To leave ye is to die!

TRIENDSHIP LOVE AND TRUTH SONG.

BY SAMES MONTGOMERY.

When 'Friendship, Love and Truth' abound Among a band of brothers, 'The cup of joy goes gaily round. Each shares the bliss of others ; Sweet roses grace the thorny way Along this vale of sorrow, The flowers that shed their leaves to day,

Shall bloom again to-morro

HESE PILLS wherever they have been fairly tried have established an enviable celebrity, and are daily superseding all other preparations in curing the diseases for which they are prepared. The following certificate is from Judge Forest, a gentleman of the first respectability in Jefferson-co., Alabama. Jonesboro', Ala., 4th Feb. 1844.

I certify that in the summer of 1842 I had : severe attack of fever and ague, and was for ometime under the treatment of a physician, but ireceived no benefit from his prescriptions -my disease continuing to increase in the frequency and severity of its attucks. I at last had recourse to Dr. Hull's Fever and Ague and Anti-Fever Pills, and in using half a box was entirely cured, and have remained in good health ever since. I afterwards had in my family several cases of fever and ague, and have in every instance made use of Hull's Pills, which have always immediately effected J. F. FOREST.' a cure. # INVALUABLE Famly Medicines. DR. SPIENCIER'S VEGETABLE PILLS

"Prove all things, and hold fast to that which is good."-Paul.

HESE Pills are no longer among those of doubtful within. They have passed away from the thousands daily launched on the tide of experiment," and now stand higher in reputation, and are becoming more extensively used, than any other medicine ever pre-pared. They have been introduced into every place where it has been found possible to carry them, and there are few towns, or villages but contain some remarkable evidences of their good effects. But it is not necessary to advertise them at large, or to say any thing further of them, than to LI caution those wish ing to purchase Autibillious Family Medicine o be particular to enquire for SPENCER'S VEGETABLE PILLS, as there are numer nos preparations put on sale almost every day, of doubtful efficacy. To satisfy the world of the inestimable worth of this Medicine, 1 would simply observe that, it has been long used by some of the leading lights of the pro-fession in their extensive practice, and is now prepared with great care, and upon scientific and chemical principles, for general use, by thepresent proprietor only. The imputation of Quackery therefore cannot be affixed to this Medicine, since it is the preparation of regular practising Physicians, who have made the healing art their profession, and whose pharmacentie preparations will ever be held in the highest estimation.

TESTIMONIALS.

Read the following certificate from Mr. O. C. Kelsey, a popular merchant of Tomp-kin's Bluff, Ala.. and thousands of a similar character might be given if necessary to prove the efficacy, popularity and usefulness of this medicine.

Tompkin's Bluff, Ala., Jan 4, 1843. Dr. A. Spencer-Dear Sir: I wish you to forwaed me a large supply of your pills; I don't think 300 boxes too large a quantity to send they most popular pill in this place. For billious complainte, sick-headache, dyspepsia, cos tiveness and such like diseases, they are considered almost an infallible remedy. I have been agent for Dr. Peter's Pills, and formerly sold a large amount yearly; but I now sell three dozen of your pills to one of his. My custom ers think them superior to Peter's or any other

N a state of hearth the interver whose may be compared to a river whose waters flow over the adjoining land, through the channels nature or art has made, and im prove their qualities ; and to keep up the comparison of the river, so long as it rans on smoothly the channels are kept pure and heal-thy; but if by some cause the course of the river is stopped, then the water in the canal is no longer pure, but soon becomes stagnant. There is but one law of circulation in nature. When there is a superabundance of numorial fluid (scrosity) in the intestinal tubes, and cos-tiveness takes place, it flows back into the blood vessels, and infiltrates itself into the circulation. To establish the fiee course of the river, we must remove the obstructions which stop its free course, and those of its tributary streams. #### PROSPECTUS OF The United States Journal, BY J. E. DUN & CU.

The first number of our new paper will be issued this (first) day of May, with auentire new dress-new type, fine white paper, with other important alterations . and improvements. The paper will be devoted to a learless exposition of Dem, cratic principles; it will zealously and unremittingly oppose each and every effort to establish a mammoth monarchy bank and other mischievous corporations and consolidations of wealth, which subvert the rights of the people and undermine the pillars of the Republic; it will oppose an oppressive and anti-republican tariff system, the assumption of the State debts by the General Government, and all other Federal principles which have an inevitable tendency to destroy public property as well as individual happiness. Against all such political delu ious, we shall wage unchanging, uncompromising war.

The Farmer and the Mechanic who produce all the real capital of the nation, will find mour paper an unavailing champion of their inalienable rights; the long cherished principles of the editors are too well known to the public to require any pledge upon this point. To the miscellaneous Department particular attention will be devoted; the Ladies will always find in our columns a choice selection from the current literature of the day, as well as original contributions from the most talented writers of which our country c'n boast. A general summary of Foreign and Do mestic news will be turnished, a regular price current and a correct list of the pri ces of stocks will also be given. The conductors have already secured the aid and co-operation of a large number of the most distinguished literary and political writers of the day, arrangements will also be made, at the earliest periodpossible, to embrilish our columns by the coniributions of correspondents from abroad. With this brief and imperfect outline of our plan, we very respectfully submit our claims to an extensive patronage to the consideration of a generous public.

PROSPECTUS OF The Carolina Baptist.

I is proposed to publish with this title a Periodical, at Greenville, S. C.; under the editorial conduct of Rev. T. W. Haynes.

PLAN AND OBJECT.

The New Testament Church-its membership-its government-its officers-its order-its ordinances-its union-its genins-its laws-its spirit-its morals-its doctrine, as understood and maintained by Banti-ts, will claim primary attention in the original articles of the Curolina Baptist. Our aim will be to develope, first, the christian, and secondly, the Bapist, and neither to merge the christian in the Baptist, nor to be less christlan because Bapist, in our editorial bearing. Dignified christian courtesy to all men and towards all denominations of christians will be studiously maintained, while a manly, frank and independent avowal of our cherished views of revealed truth will be no less marked. The golden mein betwist bigotry and latitudinarianism will be our aim. The Carolina Baptist will, as far as its size, form and period of issues will ad-mit, be a Baptist Family Newspaper and Library of Useful Knowledge to patents, children, farmers, ministers, deacons and churches, as well as other classes of our readers. Its plan and object is to propagate truth.

Terms-Size-Form. The Carolina Baptist will be issued monthly, neatly printed on new type, in quarto form, with three columns on a page, ipon a double medium sheet, each num.

ber containing 16 pages, with a nearly executed colored cover, with an index toeach number and to each volume. This form is suitable for binding. Single copies for one year, $1 25 each, payable on the receipt of the first number. Twenty-five copies one year, $25. A similar discount to Churches, Ministers or Agents.

I he first number will be issued as soon as 1000 names shall be reported to the Publisher's office, if done promptly. No payment expected until subscribers shall receive the first number. Let those who procure subscribers, simply make a list of their names, written plainly and in full, with the name of the Post Office, District or County, and State, and request the P. Master to farward, under his frank, and thus save the charge of postage.

Addresses. All letters referring to the business department must be addressed to O. II. Wells, Proprietor ; and those designed for publication, the Rev. T. W. Haynes, Edior-always free of postage to them.

Agents. All Baptist Ministers, Clerks of Churches and Deacons, and all Post Masters, are authorized and requested to act as Agents.

To Baptist Churches. It is respectfully submitted to Churches whether they might not, as Churches, instruct their Clerks to order any number of copies desired for circulation within their respective limits.

Alsey Mobley, Lewis Mobley, Declaration

How grand in age, how fair in youth, Are holy 'Friendship, Love and Truth '

Un halevon wings our moments pass, Life's cruel cares beguiling ; Old time lays down his scythe and glass, In gay good humor smiling ; With ermine beard and forehead grey, His reverend front adorning, He looks like Winter turned to May, Night softened into mouning. How grand in age; how fair in youth, Are holy Friendship, Love and Truth."

From these delightful fountains flow Ambrosial rills of pleasure ; Can man desire, can heaven bestow A more resplendant treasure ? Adorned with gems so richly bright, We'll form a constellation, Where every star with modest light Shall gild his proper station. How grand in age, how fair in youth, Are holy 'Friendship, Love and Truth.'

To cleanse Gloves without wetting .- Lay the gloves upon a clean board, make a mixture of dried fulling earth and powdered alum, and pass them over on each side with a common stiff brush ; then sweep it off, and sprinkle them with dry bran and whiting, and dust them well ; this, if they be not exceedingly greasy, will render then quite clean, but if they are much take out the greese with crumbs of soiled, toasted bread, and powder of burnt bone: then pass them over with a woollen cloth dipped in fulling earth or alum powder, and in this manner they can be cleaused without wetting, which frequently shrinks and spoils them.

The best way to cook Eggs .- Break them into hot, not boiling water, and let them remain in till the yolk is sufficiently cooked-then put on butter, pepper and salt, and you have done your utmost to eggs. So says the Prairie Farmer.

A Sound Opinion .- I positively never knew a man in the country who was too poor to take a newspaper ; yet. even many respectable people read no papers but what they borrow-as I speak generally, I hope to offend none. If I do, the greater the necessity to speak out. Every man is able conveniently to take a paper. The cost is five cents a week. How many, who think themselves too poor to take a newspaper, pay as much daily for mere trifles ?- Dr. Franklurs
