Timby's Patent Union WATER WHEEL.

THIS Wheel is adapted to SAW MILLS, GRIST MILLS or other Machinery, requiring water power, and to all heads of water. It will move Machinery with more power and with a less quantity of water than any wheel now in use, (except an overshot under an extreme high head.) It has been thoroughly tested with different wheels in many parts of the United States, (several cases in this State,) and in all cases has proved superior.

The Subscriber is prepared, at any time, to test it still further, with any wheel in this State. It is not liable to be clogged or injured by sticks passing through, or impeded by backwater, so long as there is a head above it. It is made of Cast Iron, is very simple and durable.

The subscriber being authorized to sell Rights of the said Wheel in Edgefield District, is prepared to sell to suit purchasers, on terms that cannot fail to give satisfaction and if required will apply them to Mills.

Letters addressed, post paid, to the subscriber, at Edgefield Court House, promptly attended to.
[COPY.]

This will certify, that I have recently had put in operation on my place, one of Timby's Patent Union Water Wheels, upon a very small stream, and am very well satisfied with the performance of the same. Discharging about 160 inches of water, it cut during one day's imperfect trial about two thousand feet. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a highly useful invention.

W. L. LEWIS,
St. Matthews Parish, June 17, 1846.

[COPY.]
This will certify, that I have tried Hotchkiss' Patent Reaction Water Wheels, and Timby's Patent Union Water Wheels, and that I greatly prefer the latter, having abandoned the former after a six months trial of them. I have now the Union Water Wheels applied to my Grist and Saw Mills, which operate to my entire satisfaction.

WILLIAM J. TAYLOR,
Kershaw District, July, 1846.
This is to certify, that after having used a Flunter Wheel for a long time, in a Saw Mill, I have since had Hotchkiss' Patent Reaction, and have since had a pair of the UNION WHEELS applied, by Mr. Chapin, and found them far superior to either of the former.
ALEX. R. TAYLOR,
Columbia, May 7, 1846.

The Subscribers have tried what was called Hotchkiss' Reaction Wheels, on the Columbia Canal, since which they have substituted Timby's UNION WHEELS, and find from experience, that the latter are far superior to the former.

SALEM WITCHCRAFT OUTDONE.

Mr. T. Rowand—Dear Sir—For four or five years I have suffered greatly from Rheumatism in my head, which during the last year became worse and worse. For four or five weeks previous to the 15th inst., I had suffered without intermission, my general health was much impaired, my sight injured, and my head so sensitive, that I could scarcely rest it upon the pillow. Two days since, a single application of your "MAGIC LOTION," relieved me entirely in two or three minutes. I have applied it occasionally since, and the soreness is nearly gone! So great and sudden was the change, that I can scarcely realize that I am the same man.

I have also cured one of my children, and a female friend of headache in two or three minutes.

So great is my confidence in the "MAGIC LOTION" that I would not be without a bottle for "fifty times its cost."

Yours respectfully,

Dr. Jayne's Alterative.

We have been informed by Mrs. Ross, of a cure performed on her by Dr. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, which proves its superiority over every other remedy of the kind. She has been afflicted for the last sixteen years with Necesses or White Swellings, attended with ulcerations and exfoliation of various bones, during which time many pieces have been discharged from the frontal bone of the cranium, from both her arms, wrists and hands, and from both legs, and from the left femoral bone, and from the right knee, besides painful ulcers on other parts of her person, which has baffled the skill of a number of the most eminent physicians of our city—during most of the time her sufferings have been excruciating and deplorable. About three months since she was induced to try Dr. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, which has had an astonishingly happy effect upon her, by removing all pain and swellings, and causing the ulcers to heal, while at the same time her general health has become completely restored, so that she now weighs some 25 lbs. more than she did before she commenced the use of this truly valuable preparation—Notice Eagle.

Saddlery and Harness ESTABLISHMENT.

I take great pleasure in returning to my patrons and friends in general, my sincere thanks, for their very liberal patronage during the past year. I would also, take this opportunity to inform them, that I shall still continue to carry on my business at my old stand, at the first door above Presley and Bryan's brick store; where may be found, at all times, all kinds of HARNESS, SADDLES, BRIDLES, and all other articles generally kept in such establishments.

Military equipage, made to order in the most approved style, will also be promptly furnished at my shop.
All persons wishing to buy, I hope will give me a call. I shall endeavor to put all my articles as low, as in justice to myself, I can possibly afford to do.

Dr. Brandreth's Pills.

A Scientific Medicine.
GREAT experience and judgment are required to make a valuable, and at the same time innocent purgative. This is possessed only by few.

The great majority of the remedies advertised of this class, are manufactured by persons who have no idea of the relative or individual powers of the drugs they use. It is this cause, more than any other, which occasions the injurious effects, produced by advertised Purgatives. And hence the general prejudice which prevails against them. Now, the great object of medicine in this respect, with regard to the pills made by Dr. B. Brandreth and consequently their superior claims upon the public. Each of the articles composing the Brandreth Pills, are prepared in that way which will secure their beneficial effects to the system in the safest and easiest manner. For instance, some ingredients have to be prepared in the vacuum; that is, the air is exhausted in the utensil, and remains so until a combination is effected with other ingredients, which afterwards prevents the air from acting injuriously upon the medicine. Again, the proportion for ingredient depends upon its multiplying power upon other ingredients. For the power of different vegetable purgatives upon each other, is governed by similar laws that govern the power of figures by multiplication. Nine added to nine, makes eighteen; but nine times nine, makes eighty-one. So it is with some vegetable purgatives. By adding nine parts of one ingredient, and nine parts of another ingredient together, the power is increased, not to eighteen, but to eighty-one. For example, either of the articles to produce any purgative effect, would have to be used to the extent of eighty-one grains; by combining them only eighteen grains have to be used. Again, another ingredient is found to multiply this power again, which in a proportion of two grains, would have no effect upon the animal economy, but which, added to eighteen grains of a compound of two parts of nine grains, each of two ingredients, will again multiply the power which they have gained of eighty-one, to one hundred and sixty-two. So again, the mixture of twenty grains can be again multiplied by an addition of two grains, to the power of one hundred and twenty-four grains. Of the original power of the two first ingredients. Here we have twenty-two grains, which as a purgative contain the power equal to three hundred and twenty-four grains of either of the articles alone; nevertheless, also so powerful after being thus combined, are safe in any quantity; always having a beneficial effect, and in no case capable of doing injury, of which thousands bear ample witness.

From the Temperance Advocate.

COMMENCEMENT AT ESKINE COLLEGE.

The Commencement of this young, but flourishing Institute, took place on the 16th ult. in presence of a large concourse of persons, from the surrounding country, and of the friends and patrons of the Institution from a distance. The fact that the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was to meet at that place on the 18th, attracted a large portion of the church, to witness the exercises on commencement day.

The exercises were opened by a solemn and appropriate prayer by the Rev. Dr. Thornwell, of Columbia, after which, six of the young gentlemen, graduates, proceeded, in order, to the delivery of their speeches. And we believe we speak the universal sentiment of competent judges of such exercises, that they were without exception of a very high order. They were marked by vigor of thought, force of illustration, a masculine diction, and withal, in perfect accordance with the strictest rules of correct taste.

The speeches being ended, the President, Rev. E. E. Pressly, delivered a short but exceedingly appropriate Baccalaureate, and conferred the Degrees on 13 young gentlemen, members of the Graduating Class.

In the afternoon, the Anniversary Oration before the Literary Societies, was pronounced by Col. J. L. Orr, of Anderson. His theme was primary school Education. We were pleased with the general sentiment of the Oration, yet it occurred to us at the time, that it bore evident marks of haste in its preparation, and as wanting, to some extent, in the graces of elocution.

The exercises were closed with an address by W. A. Lee, a former graduate of the Institution, in presenting the Society's Diplomas to the members of the Euphemian Society of the Graduating Class. It will be sufficient to remark in regard to this performance, that it was of the very highest order—a finished production. It was rich in thought, sparkling with classical allusions—class and elegant in diction, and pronounced with animation, gracefulness, and ease.

Thus ended the Commencement exercises of Eskine College. She is taking a high stand among Southern Literary Institutions, and the recent commencement, cannot fail to add to her constantly increasing reputation.

BETA.
Oct. 13, 1846.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 14. VIOLENT STORM.

The city and its vicinity were yesterday visited by one of the most severe storms of wind and rain that we have had for many years. As the wind blew directly upon the coast, we fear we shall hear of considerable damage among the shipping.

The canal boat New York, of Canajoharie, laden with 2500 bushels of rye, 500 bushels of flax seed and a quantity of meal and whiskey, sunk at pier No. 4 East River.

The new barque Afon, of Eastport, lying at the foot of Broad street, had her stern and side stove, and was badly chafed.

The packet ships Garrick and Roscius parted their moorings—the latter received some damage in her stern. The schr. Larch also was damaged by the R. drifting about of her. Several other vessels received damage in the East River.

The Br. schr. Margaret, lying at No. 6 North River, lost her bowsprit and main boom. At the foot of 14th street, North River, the Br. schr. Collector lost her anchors and cables; also a new schooner from Lubec, lost her anchors, and was badly chafed, but works gone, &c.

The brig Prince de Joinville, lying at pier No. 8, North River, came in contact with the Br. brig St. Margaret, carrying away her big boom, bowsprit and shrouds, and was much chafed.

We hear of no damage done to the shipping at quarantine ground. Several of the vessels dragged their anchors.—Among the vessels there were the packet ship Virginia, for Liverpool; Atlas, for do; barque Candace from Canton; Saracac, from New Orleans; brig Leonora and brig Savannah, for Savannah. The south side of the quarantine dock was broken up and damaged about 1000 to $1500.

At the new landing at Stapleton, Staten Island, a brick store, just completed for J. DeForest, had the roof blown off, and the walls partially knocked down.—The shore road was much damaged by the sea breaking over it.

The Brooklyn South Ferry boat New York, one of the largest and finest boats belonging to the company, as she left the Brooklyn side, late in the afternoon, had the roof of the gentlemen's cabin blown away. It struck the smoke pipe with such force as to carry it off, even with the deck. The boat had just left the wharf. There were few on board other than the crew, and no body was hurt.

The sea wall on the Battery was broken up for nearly one hundred yards. Several willow and other trees were torn up by the roots, while others had large branches torn off.

A number of trees in the Park are prostrated, and the hickory sapling, the sight of which animates the faithful when they assemble at Tammany Hall, was broken off.

The two steeples of Calvary Church, corner of Twenty first street and Fourth avenue, were blown down. The steeples were unfinished, the frames only being completed.

New York, Thursday Evening, Oct. 15.

We are now three days without a Southern Mail below Richmond. This is especially interesting, but, probably, owing to the severe storm of Tuesday, which seems to have swept southward with terrific violence, and committed extensive ravages upon property. The Telegraph wires, too, are broken up in all directions, and New York is an "isolated magnet." Our Park and streets, suffered severely in regard to the demolition of trees—many of our finest and largest ones, being either torn up by the roots, or decimated, branch by branch, by the violence of the wind.—The shipping has, of course, suffered greatly, and not a place in the vicinity that does not show evidence of the devastating progress of the tempest. But you have interminable columns of details in the papers, from which you can fill just as many columns as you please.

Influence of Comets and the Moon.—In a paper recently read before the French Academy of Science, Mr. Arago referred to the results of the investigation undertaken by the natural philosophers and astronomers, regarding the influence of the moon and of comets on the changes of the weather. He said: "These results clearly show, in my opinion, that the influence of both these bodies are almost insensible, and therefore, that the prediction of the weather can never be a branch of astronomy, properly so called. And yet our satellite and comets have, at all periods, been considered as preponderated stars in meteorology."

Mr. Shuck, the Missionary, and Miss Sexton, were married last night in the Baptist Church, and we heartily wish that in the future enjoyment of their matrimonial sweets, they may not have occasion to exclaim "Oh Shucks!" Sing us a Song was also at Church to witness the ceremony of the marriage of his friend; the thermometer was at about 50, but our heathen friend had his fan! It is astonishing how education may influence our habits! This "poor heathen" did not know any better, and his travelling friend should have told him that such outlandish ways in Marion would be—observed.—Marion News.

Credible Witness.—Two claimants for one dog lately appeared before a justice of the peace, in a town near Boston. Several witnesses swore positively to the ownership of each litigant, when the sagacious magistrate directed the plaintiff to take his place on his right and the defendant to occupy a corresponding position on the left; the dog, in dispute being remanded to a distant part of the room. The parties were then commanded to whistle, when the dog made for the defendant.

"Mr. —," said the justice, to the clerk, "record the decision for the defendant, the dog is the only credible witness in the case."

Munificent Bequest.—The late Mr. George Holloway, of Abbeville District, S. C., has bequeathed to the Trustees of Cokesbury School, under the direction of the South-Carolina Conference, and to become available upon the demise of his widow, an estate which will exceed in value twenty thousand dollars. The object of this munificent donation is, to educate and board at the Cokesbury School, the sons of deceased travelling preachers of the Conference, who are in necessitous circumstances.

Superior Corn Bread.—In stopping at Bennett's American Hotel in Albany, a few weeks since, I do not know when I relished any food better than I did some excellent corn bread, which I found on his breakfast table. I was so well pleased with the article, as well as with the general character of his house, that I begged of him to furnish me with a recipe for making it, which is as follows:

Take 3 quarts of milk, a little sour, 7 eggs, 2 ounces of butter, 1 teaspoonful of saleratus, and mix with Indian meal, to the consistency of a thick batter, and bake with a strong heat. The pans used for baking are of tin, 8 inches in diameter, 1 1/2 inches deep, and a little bevelled. The above is sufficient for seven loaves.
A TRAVELER.

Accident.—This morning about 6 o'clock as a dry laden with goods was crossing the Augusta Bridge, the abutment gave way, caused by the rottenness of one of the sleepers, and precipitated the horse, dray and merchandise below—a depth of 20 feet. Fortunately the draymen succeeded in clearing himself of the dray and of thus saving his life. The horse also, miraculously escaped with but little injury.

Such culpable carelessness and inattention on the part of the owners of the Bridge should not go unpunished, as the sleeper at the place broken was entirely rotten, and from its appearance must have been in that situation for some considerable time.—Hamburg Journal.

If you wish to be happy, keep easy. Idleness is harder work than ploughing, a good deal. There is more fun in sweating an hour than yawning a century. Few people, however, will believe this, yet it is true. Indolence is not easy—neither is wealth happiness.

"Wife," said a married man, looking for his bootjack, after she was in bed, "I have places where I keep all my things, and you ought to know it." "Yes," said she, "I ought to know where you keep your late hours."
