The discomfiture of Pennsylvania with the new Tariff, is alleged by the democrats to be the cause of their defeat; and that cause will not, in their opinion, have an influence, after the new system shall have been tried.

But this view is unsatisfactory, because the Pennsylvanians being nearly Tariff men, could have elected their Tariff democrats, as well as Tariff whigs. They chose to elect the latter, and it is an evidence that they seek a change of men...

Violent Storm at the North.—From the New York papers we learn, that a violent storm visited the city of New York, and many other towns on the 1st of October.

Rail Road Meeting at Abbeville, C. H.—We learn from the Abbeville Banner of the 21st inst: "That a large number of the citizens of that District, assembled in the Court House on yesterday to take into consideration the project of connecting Greenville with Charleston, by a Rail Road passing through Anderson and Abbeville, and to unite with the contemplated road from Edgefield to Aiken at Edgefield Court House."

The Chairman on taking his seat explained the object of the meeting and pointed out in a few able remarks, the practicability of the enterprise and the great results to grow out of it.

On motion of J. F. Marshall, a committee of nine were appointed by the Chair, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, whereupon the following gentlemen were appointed: J. F. Marshall, Dr. S. V. Cain, E. Trible, Dr. W. T. Jones, Dr. H. H. Townes, T. B. Byrd, J. C. Sprowl.

Whilst the committee were preparing the resolutions, J. P. Reed, Esq., of Anderson, was called upon to make some remarks upon the occasion, which he did in an eloquent and forcible style.

The Committee after a short absence returned and submitted the following resolutions, which being read and put to the meeting separately, were unanimously adopted.

1. Resolved, That we regard the project of connecting Charleston with the mountain regions of this State by Rail Road, as entirely practicable, and of the utmost importance to our whole people, pecuniarily, socially and politically.

2. Resolved, That we look forward with delight and fixed confidence to the ultimate accomplishment of this great work, and that we will contribute to the success of the enterprise by every means in our power, consistent with a due regard to our individual interests.

3. Resolved, That we recommend to our fellow citizens of this district, to subscribe to the capital stock of said Road, with characteristic liberality, believing that the investment will at least be safe, if not profitable, and productive of advantages to us as a people that are not to be estimated by dollars and cents.

4. Resolved, That it is the judgment of this meeting, that a direct route from Greenville, passing through the districts of Anderson and Abbeville, connecting with the Aiken Road, at Edgefield, is the most practicable as presenting fewer obstacles to the completion of such road.

5. Resolved, That whilst we concur with our fellow citizens of Anderson and Greenville districts in the desire to connect Newbury Village with the proposed Rail Road, in our judgment the most practicable mode of doing so, will be by running out a branch from the main trunk at some suitable point.

6. Resolved, That fifty delegates be appointed to attend the Convention to be held at Anderson, C. H., on the 3d Monday of November next.

The Courts.—The Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions commenced its sittings for Marlborough District on Monday, 12th instant. In charging the Grand Jury, Judge O'Neal justly observed that the nuisance of carrying weapons required their special attention. It was time that public opinion was concentrated and directed against this foolish and dangerous practice.

Georgia.—In this State the Democrats and Whigs, have each elected four members of Congress. If the next election for President of the United States should be decided by Congress, the vote of Georgia will be lost.
