Female Beauty-Culpable Neglect ..

It has been observed by visiters from all other countries, as well as by persons of the best cultivated taste in this that in no country is there a larger class of female heauty and excellency, than in this city. Yet, while the shoe-fitter, dress maker, and milliser are engaged in adorning "nature's best gift to man," one part appears almost totally neglected-The Hair. How often do the ravages of disease tay waste the delicate oform of the fair and beautiful, and though restored to health again, yet those flowing locks, which once adorned their heads, fall off; and never again return to their original beauty. It is inconceivable how any person, more especially a lady, can manifest so much neglect on this point, when a "never failing remedy" can be obtained at No. S South Third street, and asking_for Dr. Jevne's Hair Tonic, which will perfectly restore this only neglected part of female beauty.

What is a dollar or two to complete the crowning point of female beauty?

Although the public have been often imposed upon by patent medicines, yeroccaionally a really useful and beneficial medicine is despised. neglected, merely because "found in bad company." I am led to these remarks by a conversation with a friend a few days since. She had been afflicted for several years with a disease of the heart, which had apparently brou'ht her near the grave.
