

the flood tide set in; the other boats were got out and loaded with as many men as they would safely carry, and despatched to Clatsop shore, with orders to return again on the ebb, to relieve those who remained on board. After the boats left, the masts were cut away, and before 1 A.
M. we were completely water-logged.

Lieut. Schenck, Midshipman Davidson and 21 men remained with me on the wreck—the flood tide gradually crowding us into narrow limits, until the bowsprit and the two quarter deck houses were the only habitable spots on board, and these were frequently washed by the heavy swell.
Each man was secured to the vessel by a cord passed around him—a precaution which may have saved some lives, for, toward daylight, the surf began again to set in heavily; the boats however soon came off, and we were relieved from our perilous situation. The conduct of the officers and men, during the whole of this trying occasion, was mostly praiseworthy, and to their cool exertions and orderly manner of carrying on the duty may be principally ascribed the preservation of our lives. The wreck was completely unobtainable an hour after she was finally abandoned, and by 3 P. M. not a vestige of the poor Shark was visible.

The victories of Gen. Taylor at Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma, and the ratification of the Oregon Treaty, were celebrated by the Oregonians, by firing a salute of twenty-one guns, from an old 12-pounder, the only piece of ordnance owned in the territory.

The Commercial Advertiser says—"By the same arrival from California we have Sandwich Island papers to the 16th of January. The Polynesian of that date is mainly filled with accounts of our warlike doings in Mexico and California. It announces, however, the arrival of fifty barrels of flour from Oregon, which it says came in good time—the numerous men-of-war in the Pacific were 'eating the Sandwich Islanders out of house and home.'"

EDGEFIELD C. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 21, 1847.

Our Rail Road.—We understand that our Rail Road Central Committee are very actively engaged in their duty, and from the returns already received, from the sub-committees, they are in possession of enough to guarantee them in stating, that the subscriptions to the stock, at this time, amount to about one hundred and twelve thousand dollars. There is a number of sub-committees yet to hear from.
We feel justified in saying that one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars worth of stock will be taken upon the opening of the books, and before the first of October there will not be a share to be bought, for love or money.

Our Rail Road.—A gentleman residing in another District, writing to us says, on the subject of our Edgefield road: "I am a good friend to Rail roads, and am therefore always pleased; whenever I hear of one. It is quite certain, I think, that all the owners of real estate, will be benefited." There are strong doubts whether the road from Columbia to Greenville will be built. If not, the road to your village will be the best stock in the country; for you will have the whole up country trade, and from the superior locality of your village, will do a far heavier business than was ever done by Hamburg."

Southern Cultivator.—We have before us, the seventh number, volume fifth, of the Southern Cultivator, published at Augusta, Georgia.
This number contains the usual amount of valuable matter, original and selected. Since the death of Mr. Canby, the late editor, the proprietors have not yet obtained another, but will in all probability soon procure the services of a competent person. The work is still conducted by them. The number before us has several good articles, from which we may hereafter make some extracts.

The Fannin Advertiser.—This is the name of a gallant volunteer company which went from Georgia to the Mexican war. After a long service, thirty survivors, out of nearly one hundred men, the original number, have returned.
A banner was recently given to them at Griffin, Geo. Col. Jackson, of the Georgia Regiment, was present and addressed them and the audience present, in a feeling and eloquent manner.

The Literary World.—The Postmaster of this place, has handed us a number of the Literary World, a gazette for authors, readers and publishers. It is published in New York, at three dollars per annum. Besides advertisements of new works, it contains much interesting literary matter. This paper is published weekly, and is of the size of at least sixteen quarto pages.

The Western Continent.—We have upon our table, a number of the Western Continent, or Southern Family Journal, devoted to Literature, Science, Agriculture and general intelligence. It is published in the city of Baltimore, at the low price of two dollars per year. It is conducted by Wm. T. Thompson, formerly connected with the "Mirror," which was published at Augusta, Geo. Mr. Thompson then acquired a high reputation as a writer, and has since written a number of humorous sketches, which have been extensively read and admired.
The number of the Western Continent before us, is full of excellent articles, original and selected on various subjects. A part of it is devoted to humorous sketches, and to translations from foreign works. Besides its literary merits, this paper has peculiar claims, especially upon the Southern community. It is an able advocate of Southern rights, and is strongly opposed to the schemes of abolitionists, and to the odious "Wilmot Proviso," which would restrict the extension of slavery in territory hereafter to be acquired, or States hereafter to be formed. We have not the pleasure of numbering this paper among our exchanges, but we heartily wish it success and would be much pleased to see it extensively circulated.

Matter of Reflection.—A Washington letter says—"Gentlemen may cry peace; but there is no peace." A line of occupation, or a war of annihilation, appears now to be the only one or two alternatives presented. Meantime, the sword and the pen, persuasion and coercion, are to be conjoined in the prosecution of the war as heretofore; and if a peace be not secured before the meeting of Congress, then we do expect that Congress will adopt one of the alternatives indicated in a specific enactment.

Recall of the Brazilian Minister.—This event, strongly foreshadowed for some time past, has actually taken place. On the 9th inst. Mr.
Lisboa presented to the Secretary of State, Mr.
Felippe Pereira Leaf, late Secretary of Legation and Charge D'Affaires from the Court of Brazil;—thereby sundering the ties, official and social, which have bound him to the citizens of the United States. The Washington Union is announcing his recall takes occasion to compliment the Chevalier on the dignity with which he has filled his position, and remarks that it knows of no foreign gentleman who will carry with him more of respect and attachment of our countrymen.

The Union says that though Mr. Lisboa has recalled no passports were offered to Mr.
Wise, and it cannot doubt but that frank and mutual explanations between Mr. Tol, our new Minister, and the Brazilian Government will restore former relations.

The Pendleton Messenger of the 16th inst., says—"We have had heavy showers of rain, almost every day, since our last, greatly we apprehend, to the injury of the oat crop which has just been cut. A good deal of wheat still remains in shocks in the field, and must be damaged, farmers having been too busily engaged in conflict with the grass in the corn and cotton fields to get it housed."

From the South Carolinian.
LIMESTONE SPRINGS, July 8.

A. G. SUMNER, Esq.,
Editor of the South Carolinian: I transmit you herewith, for publication an extract of a communication recently received by His Excellency the Governor, from Col. PIERCE M. BUTLER, commanding the Palmetto Regiment, in Mexico—with a report of the deaths, discharges and transfers in the Regiment for the month of May last.

By order of the Governor, B. T. WATTS, Executive Sec'y.

PUEBLA (Mexico) June 3.
GOVERNOR—Enclosed is an exhibit of the deaths that have occurred in the Regiment, during the month of May. They are most cases of long standing, and diseases contracted in the low country. We have over one hundred and fifty left at Vera Cruz and Jalapa, but we have every reason to hope that they, or the most of them, are convalescent, and will soon join the Regiment with an officer who is behind and will conduct them up so soon as they are able to travel. Although, at this place, the sick report is a large one, yet but 2 cases are regarded by the Doctor as dangerous.

Death of Col. A. H. Pemberton.—It is with deep and unfeigned regret that we have to announce the death of Col. A.
H. PEMBERTON, the former Editor and Proprietor of the South Carolinian. Mr. P., died at his residence near this place, after a protracted illness, in which he suffered much.

Mr. P. had been connected with the press both in this State and Georgia, for a number of years. As a writer he was bold and fearless, and an able exponent of the principles of the Democratic party, to the advancement of which he had for many years labored. A large circle of friends and acquaintances, have to mourn the loss of one bound to them by many ties. The crowded state of our columns, and the lateness of the hour prevents a more extended notice at this time.

South Carolinian.

Suicide in Barnwell Village.—This heinous crime was perpetrated on last Friday, by a young man named Samuel Simmons, a resident of that village. The unfortunate wretch had been apprehended, tried and convicted of the offence of vagrancy by a Magistrate's Court, and being unable to give bond with sufficient security for his good behaviour, according to the requirements of law, he was sent to jail, there to remain until the session of court in October next. On the evening of the above mentioned day an unusual noise was heard in the apartment where the unfortunate man was lodged, and the jailer supposing that he had a convulsive fit, hastened to the door of his cell, where he found him weltering in his own blood—he had severed his throat to the bone with a razor. The deceased (it is supposed) committed the fatal deed while in a paroxysm of despair. This example may be a warning to the many offenders against our public economy, and we hope they may profit by it.

Letter from Mr. Calhoun.—The following is a copy of the letter addressed by Mr.
Calhoun, in reply to an invitation to attend the celebration of American Independence at Calhoun's Mills, in this State. Like every thing emanating from the distinguished son of the South it breathes the most fervent patriotism, and is plain, perspicuous, and to the point.

Fort Hill, June 15, 1847.
Gentlemen:—I am in the receipt of your note of the 7th inst., inviting me, in the name of the members of the Abbeville Artillery Company, to attend a dinner, to be given by them at Calhoun's Mills, on the 3d of next month, in celebration of the Anniversary of our Independence.

I regret exceedingly, that I am compelled, in consequence of my engagements, to decline an invitation, coming from those I have so many reasons to respect, and tendered in a manner so kind and acceptable.

No public man ever has had stronger reason to be attached to his native District, and devoted to the state, of which he is a citizen, than I have; for so one, who has passed through so many and such trying scenes, and been on the stage of action for so long a period, has ever been more uniformly and warmly sustained by his early friends and supporters, and the citizens of his state at large, than I have been. I have cause to be proud of the support I have received. It was won, not by management, trick, party combination, or party reaching, Patronage, battery, subserviency, or deception, but by the observance of a rule; to endeavor on all occasions to understand what duty demanded; and when my mind was made up, to discharge my duty fearlessly—the only way, in my opinion, it can be won with honor, both to those, who bestow, and him, who receives.

In adopting this plain and simple rule for my guide, I had entire confidence in the intelligence and patriotism of those I represented. I believed that nothing more was necessary to obtain and retain their support, but to deserve it. I have not been deceived. It has been my fortune to take a prominent part on many and trying occasions in the long period since I first entered public life. I have in many of them been obliged to act in advance of public opinion, and in some, in opposition to it.
I never hesitated to act in conformity to my rule. I never doubted but you would give me a fair and impartial hearing; and that you would sustain me, if I assigned satisfactory reasons for the course I pursued; and I have never been disappointed in a single instance.

For a support so honorable, I would be a monster not to be deeply grateful to the State, and especially to my native District, whose confidence and preference first brought me to the notice of the State and the Union, in whose service most the greater portion of my life has been spent.
That the Union, with our institutions and liberty, may be long preserved; that our beloved State may ever be one of the brightest stars in this glorious constellation of States; and Abbeville one of its most prosperous and flourishing Districts, will ever be my ardent prayer; and this I offer you as my sentiment on the occasion of your celebration.

With great respect, I am, &c. &c.
J. C. CALHOUN.

To H. H. Townes, and others of the Committee.

From the Correspondence of the Chas. Courier, WASHINGTON, July 8.

The recent accounts from Mexico do not much favor the idea that we are to have a speedy peace. There are some who think the intelligence very favorable, for they believe it is to be the policy of the peace party, in Mexico, to put Santa Anna and the army again into such a position as to ensure their total destruction. To the next defeat of Santa Anna, and the capture and occupation, by Gen. Scott of the capital, will it be thought, bring the peace party undisputed power, and a speedy peace must be the result. There would be better ground for these speculations if Gen. Scott had with him a force sufficient to impress the Mexicans with a belief in our ability to conquer and subjugate them.
They are slow to believe that eight millions can be conquered and held in subjection by an army of six thousand men.
Gen. Scott is probably put on the defensive, and will have difficulty in sustaining himself. Should he meet with a serious check, it will revive the spirit of the Mexicans and animate them with a desire for revenge as well as with a determination for resistance. We shall hear no more of the peace party in Mexico. It is to be regretted, perhaps, that Gen. Scott was sent forward to the capital without an adequate force. This movement was justified by the promises of the Government, but not by any support that has actually been sent to him.

More than six weeks ago, the President said here, in conversation with a military man, that Gen. Scott was then, at that moment, in the city of Mexico. This officer, in reply, assured him that he was mistaken, and that Gen. Scott would do well to get to Mexico by the 1st of January next.

A very important Treasury order appears to day, relative to the apprais-ment of goods in the different parts of the United States. It was objected to the ad valorem system that it would render duties unequal in different parts. The new order will prevent this evil. The President has returned, in excellent health and spirits.

Banished!—It is stated that Mr. Guidin, an officer in the royal household of Louis Philippe, has been banished to America for cheating in cards.

From the Cape Verde Islands.—The Roxbury Gazette published the following extract of a letter from an officer of the Navy, dated Port Praya, May 27:—

The revolution in Portugal has not been without its effect in these islands.
An insurrection is hourly expected at this place, but as the partisans of Don Miguel numbered to one of those in favor of Donna Maria, it will probably take place with little or no bloodshed, unless it should break out in the night, when throat-cutting and plunder will be the order of performances for the occasion. The officers of the garrison are nearly all for Don Miguel, and have been sent out here for political offences against Donna Maria; this fact will probably tend to keep down any serious disturbances; but there are great numbers of convicts on the Island, who, of course, are on hand for a riot of any description. The Governor General received his appointment from Donna Maria's government, and will be obliged to "cut his stick" as the Yankees elegantly express it.
We are to sail on our leeward cruise to the coast in a few days, and will go as far south as Benguela. I suppose there will be a similar revolution in the Portuguese province of Angola, as soon as they learn of the change at home.

From the New York Express.
THE FRENCH STEAMER UNION.

Is one of the finest steamships ever seen in our harbor. The crew is composed of 54 sailors and boys, 18 firemen, three cooks, a baker, a chambermaid, and six servants, also four machinists, having rank of masters; three masters, the two other masters of the crew, one furniture maker.

The form of the Union is elegant and bold. Her masts slim and strong, and tapering; the figure which stands at her head represents a golden eagle terminating in a dragon's tail. The machinery which has been cast at "Le Creusot" foundry, possesses great beauty of design, is carefully finished and moves with the utmost ease and facility.

The only rooms we find on deck are occupied by the captain, the superintendent, and the surgeon. A small parlor with a divan is in the middle of these rooms, fronting them the wheel, compass, &c.
&c.

Under the deck are the cabins occupied by the passengers. They are divided into two long sections along the ribs of the ship, and end with the dining room. In the middle of these rooms are two small square blocks, in which are also rooms and a parlor for the ladies. The dining-room, instead of being like those of other steamers —longitudinal—occupies the whole breadth of the ship, in an oblong way; and along the ribs of the steamer are two large French windows, which may be entirely opened, when weather allows it, and permits the fine breeze to enter.

The long table of the dining-room, of mahogany, is pierced with holes, in which are placed elegant silver castors, containing each a bottle of wine, a tumbler, a bowl, a pepper two wineglasses, and a decan-ter. The entire service of the table is of silver gilt inside.

The bread is made every day on board of the Union, and we were shown an apparatus for changing salt water into a sweet beverage.

The Union is rigged with three masts.
On the foremast she carries three yards, main-top and royal. The mainmast in consequence of its proximity to the chimney, which is immediately forward, carries no square sails, but occasionally a spencer or stay-sail. The mizen is furnished with a gaff and spanker. She carries a jib and a flying-jib.

"Chambre de 2de Classe" (second price cabin). This room is as well distributed at the first one, excepting the meals, which are not perhaps as good. In the main cabin the arrangements are as comfortable as in the first. There are 84 beds in the first cabin; five rooms are furnished with four beds each, one with six, and the others with two, like the other steamers. All the furniture is made of mahogany, carved in style, and the chairs, armchairs, and bureaux are of a magnificent model.

These last pieces are covered with red crimson velvet, which looks simple and very elegant. The bedding is as soft and good as desirable; and the berths are as airy as possible.

The Union will sail for Europe on the 24th of this month.

A Pollar overlook another of his tribe of the road, and thus accosted him—"Hallo, friend, what do you carry?" "Rum and Whiskey," was the prompt reply. "Good," said the other, "you may go ahead; I carry gravestones."

IT HAS PERFECTLY CURED ME
PHILADELPHIA, December 1837.
To Dr. J. Jayne Dear Sir—The astonishing and miraculous beneficial effect your valuable EXPECTORANT had on my neighbor, the Rev. Mr. Rushing, made so favorable impression on my mind, that after consulting with several friends, and learning that you were a regular Practitioner of Medicine, I called upon you, and purchased half a dozen bottles, and told you that if I lived to take them, you should have a good report from me.

I am alive and well this day!—Thanks to a merciful God, and your Expectant; and now I come forward cheerfully to fulfil my promise.

For twenty long years I had been a constant sufferer from the effects of a hard, dry cough, pain in the breast, and difficulty of breathing; the fast fire of which, chills and fevers, every spring and fall, added to my misery. I was spare away to a mere skeleton; with the great difficulty only could I get up and down stairs; my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me, that my friends were persuaded I could not survive many weeks, unless I obtained relief. Indeed, sir, my situation was so perfectly miserable to myself, and so distressing to my family, that I felt willing to die whenever it should please the Master to take me home. But I heard of your medicine, and relief came. Yes! it proved the "Balm of Gilead" to my poor afflicted body. Before I had taken one BOTTLE, I experienced a mitigation of all my symptoms, and to my great joy I found in the continued use of it the happiest relief. In short, sir, IT HAS MADE A PERFECT CURE OF ME—and I can truly say, I have no desire to be better.

Head Quarters,
LIMESTONE SPRINGS, 1st July, 1847.

The following Regiments will parade for Review and Drill, at the times and places as follows, viz:

The 39th Regiment of Infantry, near Ruff's

Male & Female Academies,
IN GREENWOOD, ABBEVILLE DIST.
(Under the control of the Baptist Denomination.)

THE Board of Trustees would take this opportunity to express their high gratification at the success with which their efforts have met in endeavoring to establish the above School. Having labored under much inconvenience the past session for want of comfortable buildings in which to accommodate the Instructors and their pupils, they are happy in being able now to announce to the former patrons of their school, and to the public generally that the large and commodious building, situated in a convenient part of the village and on a most delightful spot, which they have created, is ready for the occupancy of the Female School; the past session having closed in it.
The Male school will also be conducted in it.
The Board would be most pleased to have the present opportunity of returning their most cordial thanks to the friends who have so liberally patronized them, and solicit a continuance of their patronage. At the same time, with great pleasure, repeating, what they have on a former occasion announced, viz—there entire confidence in the high moral character and literary qualifications of the several Instructors in both departments of these schools.
