

The Cholera.—By the last arrival from Europe, we learn that the cholera had made its appearance on one of the Greek Islands (Skiathos.)

At Smyrna on the 27th of last month the cholera was raging to an alarming extent, principally among the lower classes of Turks and Jews. The number of persons attacked was about 200 per day, and the deaths ranged from 80 to 100. The barques Iosao and Catalpa, of Boston, were in port and were unable to discharge their cargoes on account of the general alarm. The brig Osmali of Boston, was also at Smyrna waiting for new fruit.

The cholera was drawing to an end at St. Petersburg. On the 27th of August there were only 26 new cases and 18 deaths; on the 29th, only 22 new cases and 6 deaths; the next day 370 cases remained under the treatment. At Moscow also the cholera had nearly ceased. On the 17th and 18th Aug. 58 persons were attacked, and 24 of them died. On the 19th there remained 376 cases. At Riga, from the 19th to the 22d ultimo, 220 new cases and 68 deaths. On the morning of the 23d, 407 cases were under treatment. At Helshfors, the capital of the Grand Duchy of Finland, the cholera, from its first appearance up to the 24th ult., attacked 48 individuals, 29 of whom died 5 recovered, and 16 remained ill. At Berlin, from 12 o'clock on the 5th of September to the same hour on the 7th there were 81 new cases. The total number of persons who up to 12 o'clock, on the 16th were attacked in that capital was 627; of whom 389 died, 72 were cured, and 166 were under treatment. At Stettin up to the 4th there were in all 625 cases of cholera, 94 cured, 441 deaths, and 90 cases were under treatment on the 5th. At Magdebourg up to the 5th, the cholera attacked 65 persons, of whom were cured, 24 succumbed and 36 were under treatment.

Daniel Webster on Abolition.—Hon. Daniel Webster said in a late speech: "I say that all agitators and attempts to disturb the relations between master and slave, by persons not living in the States, are unconstitutional in their spirit, and, in my opinion, productive of nothing but evil and mischief. I countenance none of them. The manner in which the government of those States where slavery exists, are to regulate it, is for their own consideration under their responsibility to their constituents, to the general laws of propriety, humanity and justice, and to God. Associations formed elsewhere, springing from a feeling of humanity, or any other cause, have nothing whatever to do with it. They have never received any encouragement from me, and they never will. In my opinion, they have done nothing but to delay and defeat their own professed objects."

The Ice Machine.—It will be seen from the following, which we copy from the Cincinnati Gazette, that it is quite likely that we will soon become one of the states in which the manufacture of the country when will wonders cease?

"The announcement of the discovery of a successful process for manufacturing ice, is by many persons regarded as a joke. But it is sober earnest. The experiments which led to the grand result, have been continued for months in this city; and the machinery has been made here; and lastly, the ice itself has been produced, in quantities which show that the thing is neither a humbug nor a chimera. Jack Frost's occupation's gone most indubitably."

The Cincinnati Commercial, commenting upon the above says: "We can assure our readers, upon the highest and most respectable authority, that it is no joke, whatever may have been thought when the article was seen in the Gazette. A gentleman informs us that he has seen large blocks of ice which were manufactured by this machine in a few seconds! Individual ownerships in all the mines in Mexico would not ensure greater wealth than this same patent to the ingenious proprietor."

Caving In.—The Point Coupee of the 7th inst. says: "The banks of the Mississippi, are caving by 'wholesale,' there has been within the last three weeks, in the neighborhood of the Grand Levee, five large caves; two at the Grand Levee, by which Mr. Narcis Carmouche lost 40 or 50 cords of wood; and also about 800 barrels of corn, that had been placed on the bank to be transported across the river to his plantation on Cat Island."

Wholesale Extermination.—It was stated recently by the Rev. Mr. Chinguy in a public meeting at Montreal, that he had a list of fifteen families, once among the wealthiest of Montreal, who have all been destroyed by intemperance. Their aggregate fortunes, a few years ago, amounted to eight hundred thousand dollars. Now they have disappeared entirely, root and branch, solely through the influence of intoxicating liquors. He had another list of fourteen families, of various occupations, whose aggregate fortune amounted to $1,200,000, who have also disappeared from the same cause; another list of 517 families, who resided in fourteen parishes, and were all once comparatively wealthy, but are all now destroyed by liquor, except remnants scattered through the States and elsewhere. It is thus that intoxicating liquors destroy the human race.

Human nature is not so much depraved as to hinder us from respecting goodness in others, though we ourselves want it.—This is the reason why we are so charmed with the pretty prattle of children, and even the expressions of pleasure or uneasiness in the part of the brute creation. They are without artifice or malice; and we love truth too well to resist the charms of sincerity.

The Loss of the First Born.—We have read of a young mother who had newly buried her first born. Her pastor went to visit her, and on finding her sweetly resigned, he asked how she had attained such resignation. She replied, "I used to think of my boy continually, whether sleeping or waking—so he seemed more beautiful than other children. I was disappointed if visitors omitted to praise his eyes, or his curls, or the robes that I wrought for him with my needle. At first I believed it the natural current of a mother's love. Then I feared it was pride, and sought to humble myself before him who resisteth the proud. One night in dreams I thought an angel stood beside me, and said, "Where is the bud thou nursest in thy bosom? I am sent to take him away! Where is thy little harp? Give it to me! It is like those which sound the praise of God in heaven." I awoke in tears; my beautiful boy drooped like a bud which the worm pierces; his last wailing was like the sad music from shattered harps; all my world seemed gone; still in my agony I listened, for there was a voice in my soul, like the voice of the angel who had warned me saying, "God loveth a cheerful giver." I laid my mouth in the dust and said, let Thy will be mine; and as I arose, though the tear lay on my cheek, there was a smile also. Since then this voice has been heard in the duties of every day—methinks continually, "the cheerful giver."

Napoleon Bonaparte having one day visited a school, said to the scholars, on leaving them, "My lady, every hour of lost time is a chance of future misfortune." One of his biographers, Bourienne, adds that these remarkably words afford the maxim which formed in a great degree the rule of his conduct. Well did he understand the value of time; even his leisure was attended with some exertion of mind.

Do not allow your thoughts to dwell upon the injuries you have received, or the provoking words that have been spoken to you. If you would be happy, learn the art of neglecting injuries, and allow them to grow out of your mind.

Is Poverty a Crime?—Certainly it must be so, for we see the rich (perhaps) rascal courted his offences forgotten, while the poor man, with no stain on his character, but poverty, is shunned and of no repute. There is redeeming grace in gold, which hides iniquity. As the gold leaf, applied to postules of the small pox, prevents their leaving a pit, so does the same gold, in the shape of current coin, restore the wounded reputation, leaving not a scar behind.

Making Wounds Worse.—A man strikes me with a sword and inflicts a wound. Suppose, instead of binding up the wound, I am showing it to every body; and after it has been bound up, I am taking off the bandage continually and examining the depth of the wound; and making it fester till my limb becomes greatly inflamed, and my general health is materially affected; is there a person in the world who would not call me a fool? Now, such a fool is he who by dwelling upon little injuries, insults, or provocations, causes them to agitate or inflame the mind. How much better were it to put a bandage over the wound, and never look at it again? [Simeon's Life.]

The Honest and Good Heart.—It is humble because it feels how far its goodness is from extending unto God, and how much there is that belongs to the unprofitable servant even in his best services. It is submissive because he that is of God heareth God's words, and receives them with implicit faith and thankful acquiescence. It glories not in its attainments, or its spiritual progress, because it is written, that it is God that maketh it to differ from another's; and that he resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

Curious Facts.—The greatest number of insane people in proportion to the population, is in Rhode Island. There is one crazy person to every 503, and the least number is in South Carolina, where there is only one insane person to every 6,158. In the whole of New England, there is one insane person to every 600.

Miss Leonora Fidora Angelina Jones, just from the boarding school in descending upon the vulgarity of common people in their language, thus eloquently defines "to eat."—"To insert unwholesome pabulum into the denticulated orifice situated just below the nasal protuberance, which being masticated, perigrinates through the cartilaginous cavities of the larynx, and is unavoidably domiciliated in the membranous receptacle of digestible particles."

Evil Speaking.—That you may not speak ill of any, do not delight to hear ill of them. Give no countenance to busy bodies, who are running from house to house, and love to talk of other men. Those who delight to hear ill of others, will soon fall into the habit of speaking ill of them. When busy bodies run out of matter of fact, they will soon resort to conjecture, and idle stories to please those who are fond of hearing others spoken against. Such characters are common nuisances, often destroying good neighborhoods and the fellowship of old friends. If we endeavor in good earnest to mind ourselves, we shall find work enough, and but little time to talk of others.

Potatoes and other roots of that class should be put away for future use, in barrels or boxes with sand or loam closely packed around them. They can be preserved in this way for years.

Rail Roads beneficial to the Health of Cities.—It is the opinion of some physicians that the Rail Roads have been highly beneficial to the public health in Boston, in consequence of the facilities they afford for a residence and excursions in the country. We have not a doubt of the correctness of these views. They not only enable people, who are engaged in business in the city, to live in the country, but they furnish those who reside in cities with opportunities to take excursions and to have better food. —Rail Road Journal.

Business before Pleasure.—A man who is very rich now, was very poor when he was a boy. When asked how he got his riches he replied;—"My father taught me never to spend money until I had earned it. If I had but half an hour's work to do in a day I must do that the first thing, and in half an hour. After this was done, I was allowed to play; and I could then play with much more pleasure than if I had the thought of an unfinished task before my mind. I early formed the habit, to which I owe my prosperity." Let every boy who reads this go and do likewise, and he will meet with a similar reward.

MARRIED. On Tuesday evening the 21th of October, at Fruit Hill, Edgefield Dist., by the Rev. James M. Childs, Mr. J. W. TOMPKINS to Miss ELIZABETH E. ALLEN, daughter of Major John C. Allen.

On the 23th of October, by the Rev. D. D. BRUNSON, Mr. P. H. ELAM to Miss MARY ELIZABETH, eldest daughter of Thomas Garrett, all of this District.

OBITUARY. On Tuesday the 24th of October, at 4 past 11 o'clock A. M. departed this life in the full hope of a better world, Mrs. SUSAN ANN CHATHAM, the wife of Thomas Chatham Esq., of Greenwood in Abbeville District.

Mrs. Chatham, the daughter of Mr. Joseph and Mrs. Parthenia Griffin, of Edgefield District, was born on the 24th of August 1811, and was consequently 37 years and 2 months of age, when it pleased the Almighty to call her to himself—a call for which she had been long preparing, and which she obeyed with all the confidence and resignation of a true child of God. She made a profession of the religion of our blessed Saviour, and joined the Baptist Church at Sister Springs about 18 years ago, and, from that period, maintained a consistent and pious walk and conversation, the effects of which she beautifully manifested in every relation of life. An affectionate and faithful wife, a found yet judicious mother, a sincere friend and a real neighbor. Her loss must long be severely felt by her bereaved family, and perhaps as lastingly by a community who truly deplore her departure from their midst. She has left a deeply sorrowing husband and six children, five of whom are far too young not to need a mother's tender care; the youngest was born on the 31st of August last, since which time Mrs. Chatham scarcely left her bed; yet throughout her long and painful sickness, no repining murmur ever escaped the lips of the departing Christian, and her grieving family may well remember, for their consolation, that our Father has said, "blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; ye shall rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Rev. 14: 13.

Graniteville HOTEL.

THIS Establishment is now open for the reception of Visitors, and no pains will be spared by the Proprietor to render all comfortable who may favor him with a call. There has recently been a road opened from Graniteville to the Old Wells, which makes the way direct to Edgefield Court House, and the distance five miles shorter than either Hamburg or Aiken. It will thus be perceived that Graniteville is the point for persons from the up-country to take the Rail Road for Charleston. The superior road surface and short distance will soon satisfy all that this is the place to which produce and merchandize must come in passing to and from Charleston, and the curiosity to witness the extensive manufacturing work, busy population and beautiful Town of Graniteville. It is hoped will tender it a favorite resort for those taking the Rail Road. Persons leaving here for Charleston will have an early breakfast and be put in readiness for the morning cars. Connected with the Establishment are extensive Stables and good Grooms for the accommodation of Horses, Carriages and Horses at all times to hire.
