From the Baltimore American. Congressional.

WASHINGTON, August 5. Mr. Cass' resolution in favor of a law pro-

in civil affairs was taken up. Mr. Jefferson Davis replied at great length, to Mr. Houston's remarks of a former day, concerning Gen. Taylor's operations on the Rio Grande Mr. Davis vindicated Gen. Tayfor from Mr. Houston's animadversions.

The subject was postponed. Mr. Pearce rose and said he had prepared a bill to settle the boundaries of Texas. He made some remarks in explanation of it .--The great obstacle to our progress was the question of boundary, and it was the cause of the defeat of the compronsie bill. It seemed to him right and politic that each measure should be judged of by itself. It would have more strength singly than in a combination with others. It was a question that involved the peace and Lappiness of the United States. He had intended in his proposed measure to deal liberally with Texas. The boundary which he proposed would not suit every one, but he believed that it combined many advantages. The billyas partly based on the bill offered carly in the session by the Senator from Mis-souri. (Mr. Benton.)

He went on to describe the boundary which he had chosen.

The bill was read. It is a bill proposing to Texas a northern and western boundary, and a relinquishment of certain claims. 1. The bill provides that if the proposi-tion is agreed to by the Legislature of Tex-as by the 1st of December next, it shall be obligatory on the United States and Texas. 2. The northern boundary to commence at the intersection of the 100th degree of West longitude, with the parallel of 36 degree 30 minutes North latitude; running thence on that porallel to the 103 degree of West long-inde; then South to the 32d parallel of North Initade and along that parallel to the Rio Grande; and thence down that river to the Gulf of Mexico. 9 3: Texas to relinquish all claims to territory North of Loundary proposed, and also nil claims under articles of annexation. 4. The United States, in consideration of the above, to pay Texas ten millions of United States stock. 5. Five millions reserved to meet payment of Texas bounds issued upon the faith of custom duties. The subject was laid over.

The California Bill was then taken up, and reported to the Senate. The question was on engrossment. Mr. Poote despaired of obtaining any amendment of the Bill favorable to the South. The fuilure of the Compromise bill had destroyed all hope of this.

His duty was discharged except to vote according to his instructions as he understood them.

Mr. Builer made some explanation. Mr. Foote proceeded, in reply, to show that the line of 36 deg. 30 min, would have been adopted if the other portion of the bill could be sustained.

After some remarks from Messrs. Soule, Mason, Foote, Yulee. Dayton, Badger, Atchison, and Dawson, the Senate adjourned.

Correspondence of the Courier.

WASHINGTON, August 6. The Senate will meet to-day, with an anxious d'sposition to pass some bill fixing the souls." Texan boundary, or providing for its adjust-ment. Mr. Prote is to bring forward a bill combining the above object with the estab-a house and before I could commence asking e.e., also proced. Mexico.

Mr. Pearce will introduce a different bill, but having in view the same object. Nei.h-er of these will succeed. Among the number were many sword on one of the sovereign States of the Union : and he Mr. H. would never vote for a settlement of the controversy while the sword was thus suspended over Texas, and Mr. Cass' resolution in favor of a law pro-hibiting the interference of military officers, He then declared the Message to be a total misrepresentation of the whole history of the controversy, and that it studiously omits the most important items. It was altogether of the age. Mr. Morse followed on the same side, and hoped the Message would be referred to a Special Committee, to decide whether such doctrine as it contained should go out in a gride up to vesterday has increased, and printed form from Congress in the nine centh century. It was a document which militated against every State right, and made them the mere instruments of the Federal Government. Never since the alien and sedition laws had there ever been so complete an effort aimed at State rights.

Under the operation of the previous question, a motion to refer the Messago to a Committee of the Whole, and to priat it. was carried by a large majority. It has caus-ed a great deal of excitement, but many of the Northern and Western members declare that nothing could be more conciliatory, and that Mr. Fillmore could not have said less than he has. It will probably come up for debate to-morrow, when some heavy blows will be dealt. 2000 THE COTTON CHOP-Papers and lefters from the interior speaks encouragingly of the crop at this time. The plant is about three weeks behind time, but the warm dry weather is very favorable. With a late fall twothirds of a crop will be made, where there has been no overflow. An early frost will reduce the crop to one-half or one-third. We shall expect letters written by the Duches. gents of foreign houses will have the effect f knocking down the prices; but this will only be for a short time. The market will open and be maintained by the highest rates of the last season. Can not the papers through the Cotton region puplish the quantity produced in their counties, for a series of years, and learn from the oldest planters and best judges, the prob 1ble crop of this year ? We know it is too much the habit for the sellers to underrate the pro-duct, and the buyers to overrate it. Bat it would be for the interest of to know at the commencement of the senson, what is likely to be the ruling price. An accurate knowledge of the actual condition of the plant from month to month, is of the utmost importance to all. We shall be glad if genilemen of the interior will give us the prospects ruins.
