LEWIS' STRAW CUTTER.

THE undersigned takes this opportunity of stating to the public, that he will have another lot of his Machines ready for market, in the course of a few days. Persons wanting these Machines will do well to send in their orders early so as to ensure their being filled.
He refers to the following Certificates, of the many which he has received, for additional testimony in their favor.

WM. LEWIS,
Hamburg, Oct. 1, 37

Certificates.
WYON, (Penn.) Jan 29d 1851.
Mr. LEWIS.—The Patent Straw Cutter which you invented, and are now offering to the public, is a most excellent article and deserves public favor. Two years since I purchased one and have had it in constant use—it has never been out of repair in any respect, answering all the purposes you recommended it for. I most cheerfully commend it to farmers in all sections, and could not be induced to part with the one I have, without the prospect of obtaining another, for five times its cost.
Respectfully,
V. E. PIOLLET,
AUGUSTA, (Ga.) Sept 16, 1851.

Mr. LEWIS.—Dear Sir: Some time since I used one of your Straw Cutters to cut roots for my preparation of Georgia Sarsaparilla. Some of the roots were very hard and tough—I am happy to say your Straw Cutter has far exceeded my expectations. The public need not fear of its getting out of order by cutting straw or fodder, or by accidentally getting hard substances in it.
Yours, respectfully,
J. DENNIS.

EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 10, 1851.
Mr. Wm. Lewis—Sir: In your letter you ask how I like the Straw Cutter I bought from you. I say it exceeds any thing of the kind I have ever seen, and I could not be induced to part with it, without the prospect of getting another, for any common consideration.
W. M. BUTLER.

EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 18, 1851.
DEAR SIR: I have been using one of your Straw Cutters for some three or four months, and am satisfied that its advantages over all others, are such that it will recommend itself to every observer. Its adaptiveness to cutting all kinds of grain, in any desirable length, its security to the operator, the minimum of power required to keep it in operation, the dispatch with which it executes its work, combined with its simplicity and durability, must make it invaluable to every one that may have use for them.
A. G. TEAGUE,
To WM. LEWIS, Esq., Hamburg S. C.

BUSINESS.
THE Subscriber begs leave to return his thanks to his friends for the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed on him, and would solicit a continuance of the same for the ensuing season.
He has taken charge of the large and commodious WARE-HOUSE, recently purchased by a company, and formerly occupied by SIZLY & USIA.
The location being immediately on the river, and entirely above the great May Freshet of 1810, making it as desirable as any other in the place, having a good Wharf attached which will be free to all Cottons received by the river.
The rates of Storage for selling, shall be as low as charges of any regular establishment in the place.
Liberal Cash advances made on all produce Consigned to or Stored with me, and the lowest charges made, in regular conformity with the usages of the place.
Hoping by close application, and strict attention to business to merit a liberal share of patronage.
