MATRIMONIAL JOYS. Dear readers, I'm a married man, My joys I'll tell to you, Unlike the lonely bachclor, I'm happy, hale, and true.

I like a dozen mouths to feed, I love to see them fed, A wife is just the thing I need She often kneads my bread.

She is the best of all my friends, Indulgent, kind and true, My pantaloons she often mends, She mends my monners too.

Oh, 'tis a lovely sight to see, My lilly wife within, Unlike the lillies of the field, Cook, labor, toil and spin.

I'd own "Lott's wife" by looking back, Perhaps when she ought not, Made salt enough to fill a sack, And lost her chosen Lot.

My wife from meddling's very free, She's free from any fault ; I know that for no guilt will she Turn to Turk's Island salt.

If business calls me out of town, She stavs at home alone, And never greets me with a frown, Whenever I come home.

Why, a man's but half a pair of sheares, That never takes a wife, Though he might breathe one hundred years He lives but half a life.

He's often out of humor, health-And oftener, I believe, Though he may be a man of weal.h He's out at knees and sleeves.

He seeks the bowl to find relief, His last act is the best, He dies, and like the punished thief, Is warning to the rest.

How different 'tis with him that leads A maiden to the altar, And ships his neek, along with her's, Into the marriage halter.

A man that gets a pretty wife, Need have no other " erony," So all 'twould lead a happy life, Must join in matrimony.

SONG FOR THE PEOPLE.

Take the spade of Perseverance, Dig the field of Progress wide, Every root of rotten Faction Hurry out and east aside; Every stubborn weed of Error, Every seed that hurts the soil, Tares, whose very growth is terror-Dig them out whate'er the toil!

Give the stream of Education Broader channel, bolder force : Hurl the stones of Persecution Out, where'er they block its course; Seek for strength in self-exertion; Work, and still have faith to wait; Close the crooked gate to Fortune; Make the road to Honor straight l

Men are angels for the future! As they work, so ages win Either harvest of advancement Or the product of their sin! Follow out true cultivation-Widen Education's plan : From the majesty of Nature, Teach the majesty of MAN!

Yankee Inquisitiveness.

A correspondent relates the following anecdote, illustrative of the dominant passion of all Yankeedom: In one of my solitary piscatorial wanmeadow in which a couple of juveniles were making hay. One of them left his occupation and came towards the brook where I was fishing. The following remarkable conversation ensued, we being strangers to each other: Boy .- Fishing, ain't ye?

Snooks .- Y-a-a-s, something of that Boy .- Got many? (he lifts the lid of the basket,) oh, creation! what a lot! Where did ye get them all?

Snooks .- All up and down the lot.

Boy .- Guess ye know heow! what kind of pole's that; powerful handsome one, ain't it ?-What is it made of? Snooks .- (Finding he had awakened an inquisitor.) Very handsome, indeed-you have to ask? Rusticus, Junior, looked amazed the while I rattled off, with the volubility of a Caleb Quotem, the above inventory of facts and recollections; and, to my great surprise, seemed to take the hint that I would deem further inquiries superfluous. Happy in having furnished one individual at least with a quantum sufficit of information, I turned about to renew my sport

Scarcely had I inserted my fishing line in the brook, when this vision was broken up by my rustic friend inquiring in an earnest tone:

I felt completely flummoxed; and I did not leave myself the time to reflect, and hardly felt myself secure from the infliction of another round of merciless interrogatories, until at least one-fourth of a mile had been measured between me and the insatiable querist .- Yankee Notion.

A Good ONE .- The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun relates the following story:

"The freshest story of the season runs thus: Last night, as the passengers from the cars were rushing into one of our principal hotels, a man attired as a traveller, announced himself as a newly elected Member of Congress from one of the far-off States. He was soon surrounded by the friends of a certain candidate for the clerkship, and his vote solicited. The stranger intimated that he thought pretty well of that gentleman from what he had heard of him, but as h · had just arrived, could not say anything positive till he had change I his d ess and refreshed himself. Besides, his finds were out, and as he could not Jamaiea draw his mileage until to-morrow, he must seek some friend to help him, and Black, Hysen, Gunpow-Variety of Fancy that $50 dollars would answer for the present. The arrangement was quickly made to put the member into funds, and 50 dollars were handed to him-but on the following day, behold! the assumed member was amongst the missing, and has not been heard of since."

THE PUZZLED DROVER .- The Wheeling Argus tells the following anecdote: A gentleman who has been driving horses | Mackerel, No 1, 2, 3, for twenty years or more, from the West to our Eastern market, came into town | Pickled Shad, with a drove of fine horses, a part of Dried Cod Fish, which were lost on the sinking of the Fresh Claims, unfortunate New York, on the 24th ult. He drove his animals to the livery stable here, and on counting them missed one of Goshen Butter, the number. WYSON, (Penp.) January 22d 1851. MR. LEWIS .- The Patent Straw Cutter which you invented, and are now offering to the public, a most exceilent article and deserves public favor. Two years since I purchased one and have had it in constant use-it has never been out of repair in any respect, answering all the surposes you recommend it for. I most cheerfully commend it to farmers in all sections, and could not be induced to part with the one I have, without the prospect of obtaining another, for Augusta, (Ga.) Sept 16, 1851. Mr. Lewis,-Dear Sir : Some time since] used one of your Straw Cutters to cut roots for my preparation of Georgia Sarsaparilla. Some of the roots were very hard and tough, -I am happy to say your Straw Cutter has far exceeded my expectations. The public need not fear of its getting out of order by cutting straw or fodder, or by accidentally getting hard substances in it. Yours, respectfully, J. DENNIS.

EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 10, 1851.

Mr. Wm. Lewis,—Sir: In your letter you ask how I like the Straw Cutter I bought from you. I say it excels any thing of the kind I have ever seen, and I could not be induced to part with it, without the prospect of getting another, for any common consideration.

EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 18, 1851. Dran Sin: I have been using one of your Straw Cutters or some three or four months. and am satisfied that its advantages over all others, are such that it will recommend itself to every observer. Its adaptedness to cutting all kinds of grain, in any desirable length, its security to the operator, the minimum of power required to keep it in operation, the dispatch with which it executes its work, combined with its simplicity and durability, must make it invaluable to every one that may have use for them.

There is a lady in this county who cays she would not be without this Planer for five hundred dollars a year. The swelling and pain had extended up nearly to the armpit, and occasionally she could scarcely breathe. "SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said, "Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon week systems." More Evidence the best family newspaper published in the United States, says, of these valuable Bitters:

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the ficeulty itself."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its tavor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver. Complaint and Dyspep ia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious ad seases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time." States, says, of these valuable Bitters:

reliable benefit at any time."

This medicine has attained that high character which is necessary for all medicines to attain to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived. LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACK-SON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.
