EXTRAORDINARY PERFORMANCE OF A LOCOMOTIVE.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company are now working a locomotive up a grade of 520 feet to the mile. This grade occurs at the great tunnel, where a temporary track has been laid over the mountain, for the purpose of transporting material for the road beyond, in advance of opening that work. The locomotive used weighs twenty-four tons, and the ordinary load attached to it, in addition to its own weight, is twelve tons. This grade has thus far been worked with regularity and safety. The whole power obtained is in the ordinary adhesion of the driving wheels.

This feat is so far in advance of the commonly received opinion in reference to the capacity of locomotive engines, that it would hardly be credited without practical proof of the fact. It shown conclusively that the maxium grades on the road, after it shall be completed, will oppose no serious obstacle to a profitable traffic.

The tunnel is nearly completed, and will be in readiness for use in a few weeks. Some twelve or fifteen miles of the track are laid west of it. Every part of the line is being urged forward with the greatest energy, and no doubt is expressed of its being opened to Wheeling by the first of January proximo.—Railroad Journal.

A BONELESS BODY.—The London papers describe an inquest held by the Coroner, on Elizabeth Vigors, aged 5 years. The body presented a horrible spectacle, being one lump of flesh, twisted and distored. Deceased's father stated that soon after her birth, a girl threw deceased over her back to the ground. Since the occurranced she assumed a curved position, could eat nothing but bread and butter—and when touched her bones appeared to snap. She had been under medical treatment for a long time, without deriving the least benefit, he found her dead in bed. Mr. Harrison, surgeon, made a post mortem examination. There were no bones in the body; the limbs were were purely of grisle. It was an aggravated case of what was called "rickets."

ANOTHER CUBAN EXPEDITION.—There is said to be no doubt of the organization of another Cuban expedition at the South. The "Lone Star Association," at New Orleans, is alleged to be busily at work in arranging affairs, with a view of making the expedition in every way successful. A letter to the New York Express says:—"Before many months pass away you must not be at all surprised to hear that the star-spangled banner waves victoriously over the walls of the Moro!"
