O for a resting place Of tranquil, calm repose, Far from this dizzy maze, This weary world of woes; To search from pole to pole, And rest you cannot find-Rest for the weary soul, The troubled, burdened mind.

I shall not always stay On this cold, dreary shore; The hope of a better day Bids me sigh and grieve no more. It bids me patiently endure The ills of this short life, And then I shall a rest secure From its turmoil and strife.

It points me to a land Where all are pure and blest-Where the wicked cannot stand, And the weary are at rest; No tears are there, or sighs-'Tis the spirit's blest abode, A mansion in the skies, The paradise of God.

T CAN'T MAKE UP MY MIND, MAMMA. I can't make up my mind, Mamma, In such unseemly haste, Nor pick from all my dying swains A husband to my taste.

There's gay Sir Charles, a charming man, Most affable and kind, Who loves me most devoutly-but I can't make up my mind.

And next, there's frank Sir Harry West, So fond, so true, so elever, Who, though I scold him all the day, Adores me more than ever.

There's Roger Snipe, the pink of beaux, Or else your daughter's blind, And yet when Snipe grows serious, I-Can't make up my mind.

There's lawyer Keen and Poet Good, Exemplers of their sort, Still, still, I can't make up my mind-There's no accounting for't.

"Yes, yes, there is," stern Truth replied, "Your vanity imparts That false delights in flattering tongues, Which forfeits loving hearts."

On purpose to make up her mind, So long this virgin tarried, Her lovers, loathe to hang themselves, Sought other maids-and married!

And though mamma is growing old, Her daughter looks much older, E'er since her coquetry and pride In the old Maid's Corps enroll'd her.

Not so Slow .- There is a progressive chap, around Philadelphia, who lives by his wits, and from their quality, we guess he won't starve soon. On a rainy day, he goes boldly into a bar-room, or barber's shop and seizing upon, the first umbrella handy, he very angrily says:

"Ah! found it. D- pretty note, to go and steal a man's umbrella in that way!" and away he goes. . 'Tother day he marched up to a gentleman in Chesnut street, and grabbing at the umbrella in his hand, says he: "That's mine, sir; where did you git it?"

"I beg pardon," says the man, "it was loaned to me to-day by an acquaintance. If it is yours, take it, sir." "Mine? Of course it is, sir!" says Diddler, and he took it. He'll do. CURLING A Dog's TAIL .- A funny incident came under our notice the other day. While waiting our turn at the barber's, a fellow "poked his head in," and asked if they did curling there. He was answered in the affirmative, when stepping inside, and calling after him a most villanous looking cur, he pointed to it, saying: "I would like to have you curl that dog's tail, then." In nowise abashed at the burst of laughter which greeted him, the barber stepped forward and fetched the dog a lusty kick, pointed to the continuation of the now yelping owner, tightly coiled between his hind legs, and then demanded his quarter for the job. Doggy and his master left, amid the yells of the excited bystanders, while the knight of the lather brush unconcernedly called for the next customer.

PRESIDENT PIERCE AND GENERAL SCOTT. - It is said, in the Crystal Palace, last Thursday, when President Pierce met General Scott, he shook him warmly by the hand, and said: "Ah, General, I never expected to meet you on the same platform!" Of course, both laughed heartily at the joke.

VARIETY OF CLIMATE .- It is now the third of June," said a Massachusetts paper of that date, "and the apple trees are full of blossoms. A few such days as this will bring the corn up full." On the same day, a gentleman, writing from Mississippi: "It is now the third of June: my early apples have been fit to cook for some time, and peaches are ripe and good. My corn is well filled. A few such days as this will make it fit to grind."

EDUCATION is a companion which no misfortune can depress-no crime can destroy-no enemy can alienate-no despotism enslave. At home, a friend-abroad, an introduction-in solitude, a solace-and in Society, an ornament. It chastens viceit guides virtue-it gives at once grace and ornament to genius-without it what is man? A splendid slave-a reasoning sav-

ONE OF THE HENS .- The Woonsocket Patriot editor makes merry over the mistake of an old Shanghai hen of his that had been setting for five weeks upon two round stones and a piece of brick! "Her anxiety," quoth he, "is no greater than ours to know what she will hatch. If it proves a brick yardthat hen is not for sale."

"I DON'T say, Mr. Judge, that the defendant was drunk. No, by no means; but this I will say-when last I seed him he was washing his face in a mud puddle, and drying it on a door mat. Whether a sober man would do this, in course I cant sav." The court thought he wouldn't. The consequence was, the defendant went up for "My son, why do you chew that tobacco?" "To get the juice out, old codger," replied the youth.

FARMING INCONSISTENCIES.—Farmers dig their gardens two feet deep, but only plow their lands five inches. They take especial care of their nag horses in a good warm stable, but expose their farm horses and cattle to all weathers. They deny the utility of drainage in strong tenacious clays, but dare not dig an underground cellar in such soils, because the water would get in. They waste their liquid manures, but buy guano from Peru to repair the loss; and some practical men who are in ecstacies with the urine of the sheepfold, bave been known seriously to doubt the benefit of liquid manure. But, it may be asked, "Where is the capital to come from for all these improvements !" The reply will be, "Where does the capital come from to make railways and docks, to build steam vessels, to erect a whole town of new squares and streets, and to carry out every other useful and profitable undertaking ?"

QUAREL TOAST .- "This is from me and mine to thee and thine. I wish when thou and thine come to see me and mine, that me and mine will treat thee and thine as thou and thine have treated me and mine." This is a new version of the old compliment, which runs something after this wise: " wish thee and thy folks, loved me and my tolks as well as me and my folks love thee and thy folks. For sure there never was folks since folks, that ever loved folks half so well as me and my folks love thee and thy

"I agree with you perfectly, ma'am," was the reply, "for bachelorism certainly is a

A NEW temperance drink is described by the San Francisco Herald, composed of three parts of root beer and two of water gruel, thickened with a little soft squash, and strained through a cane-bottom chair.

CALIFORNIA CROPS .- The wheat crops promise abundantly. It is said there will be some 40,000 bushels on the Stanislaus river. In Calaveras, the wheat crop is said to be over 7 feet high, with heads 61 inches long.

CONSUMPTION. MANY YEARS of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unmistakeable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate. substantiate and maintain the reputation it enjoys.
While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures afflicted they can fever torget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While is is a fraud on the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the CHERRY PECTORAL does not dant proof that the CHERRY PECTORAL does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log-cabin of the American Peasant, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and in many foreign countries it is coming to be extensively used by diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and in many foreign countries it is coming to be extensively used by their most intelligent Physicians. In Great Britain, France and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, CHERRY PECTORAL is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Alms Houses, Public Institutions, and in dornestic practice, as the surest remedy their attending Physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of the lungs. Also in milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual to cure. In fact, some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have timonials we receive have been from parents who have a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is scaled and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulty with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should commend itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual, which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength to a ford sicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results, and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do.

To Phoresson Holloway, Sin: I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, he result of two or three accidents at Gas Works, accompa-nied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even odd that the leg must be amputated, yet in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Fills and Ointment, and therefore gave them trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia. THEIR power over the above discuses is not excelled—fequalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the ratification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most scarching powers in wezkness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, sofe, certain and pleasant. Read and be Convinced! The editor of the "Boston BEE," said in his paper of the

The editor of the "Boston Eze," said in his paper of the 23nd of June last:

Dr. Hoopland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our cliow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent care of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stoments with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"Score's Wirkin," one of the best Literary papers put "Scoot's WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers pul: "SCOOT'S WIEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said,— Dr. Hoopland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As auch is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon week systems."

More Evidence The Hon. C. D. HINELINE, Mayor of the City of Camden

The Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden N. J., says:

"Hoopland's German Ritters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it everts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied these would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemies generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspensia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calority.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsian, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in ALL BILIOUS DISEASES—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to females or infants with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Messus. Scovil. & Mead, Gentlemen: The Hebrew Plaster is becoming popular in this section. There is a lady in this county who says she would not be without this Plaster for five hundred dollars a year. She was afflicted for some time with an enlargement of the spleen, which gave her a great deal of pain. The swelling and pain had extended up nearly to the arm-pit, and occasionally she could scarcely breathe. She was confined for a considerable time, during which she was attended by some of our best physicians, but they gave her no relief.
She procured a box of the Hebrew Plaster, and it relieved her almost immediately, and now she keeps a supply of it on hand constantly. These facts you are at liberty to use as FEVER AND AGUE CURED BY DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Mr. JONATHAN HOUGHAM, of West Union, Park County, Illinois, writes to the proprietors that he had suffered greatly from a severe and protracted attack of Fever and Ague, and was completely restored to health, by the use of the Liver Pills alone. These Pills unquestionably possess great tonic properties, and can be taken with decided advantage for many diseases requiring invigorating remedies; but the Liver Pills stand pre-eminent as means of restoring a disorganized Liver to healthy action; hence the great celebrity they have attained. The numerous formidable diseases arising from a diseased Liver, which so long baffled the skill of the most emident physicians in the United States, are now rendered easy of cure, thanks to the study and perseverance of the distinguished physician whose name this great medicine bears—a name which will descend to posterity as one deserving of gratitude. This invaluable medicine should always be kept within reach; and on the appearance of the carliest symptoms of diseased Liver, it can be safely and usefully administered.
