On vegetables it is only safe to use it in a liquid state, and were we to speak our whole mind, it is only fit to use in a liquid state in a Southern climate on any crop. It is urged by those who advocate its use, that the two past seasons have been unfavorable to the development of its wonderful virtues. Grant it-and we contend that any fertilizer that is so costly and precarious should not be introduced on

It is again urged, that there is much of it sold that is not genuine. This we believe, and the Southern cultivator that has his own interest at stake, should look well to the domestic guano before he spends his money and loses his time and crop on a worthless imported article. Every farmer or gardener that can afford to buy a ton of guano, can, by a judicious use of the same money, make two tons of a better fertilizer for Southern soils. The great virtue of guano is said to be in its containing all the liquid and solid excrements of birds. Who saves the liquid manures of the South? Another great virtuein guano is its phosphates. Who saves the bones about his premises? Were we as anxious to save money as to spend it, our yards, streets and dwellings would be much cleaner, sweeter and healthier; for we should convert all the offal and filth into an inodorous and fertilizing food for plants. A manure that is so uncertain in its operations, so liable to adulteration, even were it laid at our door free gratis for nothing, is not worth the attention of Southern gardeners; but when we take into consideration its costliness, it must be a gold-bearing crop that can bear it under the most favorable circumstances. This is our experience in the matter of guano .- Soil of the South.

In Utah, on the death of a man, his property descends to the Mormon church, his wives and children not being recognized as heirs. The church is the sole heir of all property.

HYMENIAL.

MARRIED, on Sunday the 22d inst., by S. Posey, Esq., Mr. Thos. J. HARRIS and Miss MARY, second daughter of Mrs. S. B. Cloud, all of this District. May long life, good health and abundant success crown the efforts of our young friends. Independent Press will please copy.

OBITUARY.

DIED, at Ridgewood on the 21st inst., SALLIE Manly, eldest child of James II. and Sarah J. in the sixth year of her age. " Thy will, Oh God! not ours be done !"

The uncommon leveliness of disposition, which was developed in one so young, can only be appre-ciated by that parental love which-mourningbreathes this simple tribute to her memory. 'God took this precious bud of ours-

Too pure for earth, too sweet, too rare,-To Heaven's eternal, blissful bowers, To live and bloom immortal there.

Ir becomes our melancholy duty to record the death of two citizens of this District, a husband and his wife, who were called to their reward within a few days of each other. Mr. EDEUND B. BELCHER departed this life on 29th September, and Mrs. Many BELCHER, on 7th of October, each in the 73d year of their age.

Of these two persons it might almost be said, as was of Zacharias and Elizabeth, "And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.' In December 1809 Mr. B. was baptized upon a profession of his faith in Christ, and became a member of the Bethany Church; the September following Mrs. B. was baptized and joined him in his pious march towards the heavenly world.

They raised a family of daughters, whom they lived to see members of the Church; two of whom survive them. In Mrs. B. the graces of the Holy Spirit, "love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, meekness, temperance," shone in an emi-nent degree. And she was a model of female piety. Mr. B. was indeed a remarkable man-remarka ble especially for his moral excellence. Possessing a conciliatory spirit he was a "peace maker," both amongst his brethren, and his neighbors. Blest with a benignant heart, cultivated under the influ-ence of divine grace, he seemed to love all men and to be loved by all who knew him. I would suppose, if ever a man lived, and died at his age, in the District, without an enemy, that Mr. EDMUND BEL-CHER was that man. He served the State as a District officer, and the Church as deacon several years, with entire satisfaction. How true the language of Solomon, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver The Church at Bethany adopted the following preamble and resolutions, as expressive of their feelings in reference to his death. WHEREAS, In the dispensation of an all wise Providence, our aged and much esteemed brother

E. B. BELCHER has lately been removed from our midst by the hand of death, therefore " Resolved, That whilst we bow in humble sub-

we yet mourn the loss of one in whose life and pious walk, the character of the true Christian has been patiently exemplified. "Resolved, That in the death of our brother

BELCHER the church has lost a faithful officer and an exemplary member, the neighborhood a good citizen and one whose general good qualities endeared him to all by whom he was surrounded.
"Resolved, That in memory of this long tried and faithful servant, these resolutions have a separate page on our Church book, and that a copy of them be handed to his afflicted family."

J. M. C. DIED, on the 14th August 1854, Mr. Ambrose RIPLEY, in the 85th year of his age.

He was born in the State of Virginia, and emigrated to South Carolina when about five years of age. He lived from that period till his death in this State, and for upwards of fifty years on the same place, where he closed his earthly existence. When sixteen years of age, he took up arms in defence of his country during the Revolutionary war. He was stationed near Charleston, and remained in the service till the close of the war. He was ever regarded as an upright and honest man, maintaining a good reputation throughout his life. He left a number of highly respectable descendants, all of whom it is believed remain in South Carolina.

DIED, on the 31st August 1854, Mrs. MARY RIPLEY, in the 83d year of her nge. She was the wife of Mr. Ambrose Ripley, with whom she lived nearly seventy years, and who preceded her but a very short time to the tomb. She was a remarkably kind mother, a dutiful wife, and ministered to the comfort of her and husband themployed his the comfort of her aged husband throughout his

COMMERCIAL.

HAMBURG, Oct. 25. Corron-We have had quite an animated demand for the past three days of the week ending to-day, and prices tend upwards. The receipts have been light, owing in a great measure to the prevalence of the Yellow Fever in our neighboring City. We are pleased to assure our country friends that our Town has never been more healthy than at present. Our Merchants have heavy Stocks of Goods, and are anxious to buy produce, and sell goods low. We quote as extremes 7 to 9 gets. D.
