All Marcs sent will be considered by the season, unless some instructions to the contrary shall accompany them. Season to end 10th June. GAMBLE was bred by Col. Celerity's dam was Patty Puff by Pacolet; Patty Puff's dam was Rosa Clack. For pedigree and performances GAMBLE will compare with the best horses of his day. He combines strength and action with fleetness and endurance. He ran in Charleston in February 1853 the best race of two mile heats ever run over the course, and but for an unavoidable accident would have distinguished himself as a four miler. I will feed and pasture Mares at forty-five cents a day, but will not take upon myself any responsibility for accidents or escapes. THOS. G. BACON.
