For the Advertiser. Mr. Epiron: The following letters have been blaced in my hands with liberty to publish them. I am, &c., CONSERVATISM.

> GREENWOOD, ABBEVILLE DIST., S. C.) February 24, 1856.

My DEAR UNCLE: I have been confounded, in looking over a recent number of the new paper started at Edgefield Court House; to see so many views put forth, at such variance with all the notions you have taken so much pains to instill into my mind, and I, on my part, have taken so much care to treasure up as lessons of wisdom. I am but a The regular course of my studies; but your kindness the 55th year of his age. out of the record, while writing you so many letters, and as I am now nearly prepared for College, your of the State, at Columbia.

Is it true, that the South Carolina College is so badly managed, as to be a mere political machine? It never occured to me, that it had any influence in the Legislature, when we used to spend our winters in Columbia; and as to the College boys, I never heard one of them open his mouth to a member of the Legislature, on the subject of politics or Legislation. Indeed I never heard a Professor or Exchange our Cotton market has declined in the a Judge do the like. But I did hear some of the last week I cent. We quote as extremes 84 a 104 Judges say, that the members of the Legislature ets. The receipts have been light. scarcely ever deigned to confer with them, even on | Corn and Bacon are also declining. Corn 50 a the nicest alterations of the law; and I think I 60 ets. Bacon 10 a 121 ets. heard some of the professors say, that their opinions were seldom consulted, and hardly ever adopted in regard to the repairs of the College itself. I never could see such mismanagement in the College either, and in its finances, as the Informer has published abroad. Is it true, that the Legislature has spent ($45,000) forty-five thousand dollars a year on so small an institution of learning? Is it possible that the people have been so heavily taxed without complaining? As it possible that every graduate of the Coffege has cost the State ($8,000) eight thousand dollars, and you have not found it out before? 1 was astonished, I say, to see these statements written out in figures, in the paper referred to, and approximation, on Friday the, 14th March, when Dr. H. parently without hesitation, or even qualification.

Informer, that poor old Dr. LEIBER, who fought and bled at Waterloo, and who wrote on "Ethics." men of this Battalion, and all who are favorable to " Hermeneutics," (God save the mark!) and "Ci- the Kansas aid movement generally. vil Liberty," was actually slighted in the recent election of Mr. McCay, and expelled the college, in his old age and gray hairs, on account of his political principles, or because he was in favor of giving the election of Presidential electors to the people? Do you believe that a majority of the Trustees of the College have been selected by the Legislature from political considerations, or if they have been, but they are so mean as to abuse their trust in or der to subserve their selfish ends of ambition! Is every aspiring man necessarily forced to lie and cheat for position? And what improvement do you suppose would result from adopting the viva date for a Seat in the House of Representatives at Of all sizes from a one to a six horse Wagon. roce method in choosing the Trustees of the Col. its next Session.

so poorly patronized by the people of South Carolina, of Edgefield District at the next election. as to appeal to one single stranger, Mr. McCay, as stated in the Informer, to swell the Catalogue of its. JONES, Esq., as a candidate for re-election for pupils? Or is it the fact, that the South Carolina Col- Sheriff of Edgefield District. or the larger portion of its students hall from other or Edgetical District at the next election. States?

Is it true, that Dr. Thounwell is a proscriptive fanatie? The College boys have always spoken to me, of his character, with great love and reverence; A. CONCORDIA LODGE. But, my dear Uncle, it really seems to me, that Colleges, and professors, should, themselves, well understand the English language, and know some attempt to use it. Is it not a rule in the Latin Grammar that adjectives agree with their substantives in gender, number and case ? Is alma mattes a correct expression?

By answering these few questions, you will greatly oblige, Your affectionate Nephew,

JIMMEY JOHNSON.

[The reply to the above letter of " JIMMEY'S" was received at the same time with his, but in consequence of its lergth, we are forced to defer its publication until next week |- ED.
