The Busy Bee.

A Paper just issued in Charleston, South Carolina, devoted to the promotion of Literature, Fine Arts, Science, and Industrial Pursuits, and particularly to the encouragement of Native Talent.

To be published regularly, and embellished with Original Tales, Poems, Amusing Sketches, &c. &c.; all of which will be illustrated by cuts and designs, both beautiful and numerous. It is also to be extended to the other States, both South and North, and will afford a rare opportunity for Advertising. Only a small portion of the paper, however, will be devoted to Advertising; but those who advertise will have their notices set forth to the best advantage, with suitable cuts and designs, on very reasonable terms. Persons desirous of seeing the paper, can call at Mr. J. PHINNEY'S Printing office, in the rear of 48 Broad street, and obtain copies, by paying 6¼ cents. Those at a distance can enclose a Post Office Letter Stamp, and it will be forwarded.

Terms—$2 per year, half payable in advance.

The South Carolina Agriculturist.

THE Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society of South Carolina having selected the subscriber to edit their paper, a prospectus is now issued in compliance with their instructions. This journal will be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, Natural Science, Rural Taste, Architecture and Art, the Mechanical and Manufacturing interest, and all the pursuits pertaining to general improvement. It will also contain a faithful transcript of the organization and proceedings of the Society, Essays and communications from the best writers in the State, and a monthly summary of the spirit of the Agricultural press. All subjects devoted to the improvement of the mind, the soil, stock, and domestic comfort, will find ready admission into its columns, and such contributions are specially desired. The work will be printed in beautiful, new and fair type, on fine white paper, with a tinted cover, and will contain thirty-two pages per month. The publication will commence on the 1st of May, 1856. There will also be published an additional advertising sheet as a supplement, in which a limited number of advertisements will be inserted.

TERMS—$1.00 per annum. No paper sent unless the money is paid in advance. Life Members to the State Agricultural Society will receive the paper without cost.

Papers interested in the cause of Improvement will please publish this prospectus, and notice the same editorially. An exchange is solicited.

EDGEFIELD DISTRICT.
IN ORDINARY.

BY W. F. DURISOE, Esquire, Ordinary of Edgefield District:

Whereas, G. W. Landrum hath applied to me for Letters of Administration, de bonis non on all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of Jesse Limbecker, late of the District aforesaid, deceased.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular, the kindred and creditors of the said deceased, to be and appear before me, at our next Ordinary's Court for the said District, to be holden at Edgefield C. H., on the 24th day of April inst., to show cause, if any, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand and seal, this 8th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six and in the eightieth year of American Independence.
