tf Dec 23 WILLIAMSTON MALE ACADEMY.

HE Exercises of this INSTITUMION will be resumed on the 4th Monday in Janary next, under the control of J. MANLY WALKER, with a competent Assistant. The Trustees are flattered in again having secured the ser-vices of Mr. WALKER for the ensuing year. The Institution has finely prospered under his charge ; and from experience, we can recommend him as a gentleman and teacher of high character and worthy of patronage. Students will be prepared to enter a respectable Class in any College of the State.

Williamston is a healthy and flourishing Town, in Auderson District. The Greenville & Columbia Rail Road passes through the place, by which Students from abroad can find an easy access. The place is more pleasant and desirable, on account of the celebrated Mineral Spring, which is near the ACADEMY.

A New Year at Hand !

The season has again arrived when every one is expected to settle up all arrears. I therefore give timely warning to all indebted to me, either by rote or open account, to come forward and settle up without delay, as I do not intend to be riding or sending an agent all over the country, and paying a high per cent for co lecting. I now want my money and must have it. No excuse for bad crops.

You can settle with me until the first February, after that time with my Attorney. JOHN COLGAN.

50 6t Dec 24

Fair Notice.

A LL Persons whose claims against the Estate of C. J. Giover have not been settled will please call immediately on H. T. Wright, Esq., who is fully authorised to settle all of the said claims. And all those whose claims are not settled by Thursday after sale day in February next, will meet me in the Commissioner's Office on that day as I intend to make a final settlement of the Estate at that time. All those indebted to me will call on Mr. Wright and settle with him. Those who don't pay by Thursday after sale day in February will be uncondition-ally sued.

Now, gcntlemen, by attending to the above you will oblige me—and if you don't I will oblige you. JOHN RAINSFORD, Adm'or.
