Positive Sale.
HAVING arranged to write my planting interest in Mississippi, I will sell, at a very reduced price, my LANDS in Abbeville. They are situated in the "Flat Woods," ten miles from the Court House, the same distance from Vienna, (river navigation), and immediately on the proposed route of the Savannah Valley Railroad. Being susceptible of division, they will be sold, if desired, in parcels of 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, or 1000 acres, more or less, respectively. The first five tracts are separately enclosed and adjoining, and would make two or three pretty little plantations, affording suitable sites for quarts, with wood and good spring water convenient to the same.
The above lands are offered at private sale, and if not disposed of by the second MONDAY in January next, will be put up to the highest bidder on that day. The sale to take place on premises. At the same time and place will be sold, about 3,000 bushels of Corn, 100 Oats, Rye, Peas, a quantity of Fodder, Shanks, Cotton Seed, Wagon, Cart, Wheelbarrows, Ploughs and Plantation Implements generally; one of Hussey's Reaping Machines, a McCormick's Wheat Drill, fine Wheat Fan, and Eastman's Cutting Knife, an improved Corn Shelter. Also, the stock of Cattle, Hogs, 14 Mules, 20 Horses, and several yokes of Oxen. Persons disposed to purchase can consult me at Camden until a week before the sale, when I will be on the premises. The corn will be shelled and in sacks to suit the convenience of purchasers. Terms on the day of sale.

COMMISSIONER'S SALES.
THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EDGEFIELD DISTRICT, IN EQUITY.
Patricia Abney, Mary Williams and others, vs. Joel Abney Jr. Nanciss Nunn and others. Bill for Partition.
BY Virtue of an order from Chancellor Wardlaw in this case, I will proceed to sell at the first-mentioned of the tracts given below, on Wednesday the 21st of this month, the following lands, negroes &c.
1. A tract of land, situate in Edgefield District, containing five hundred and twenty seven acres, more or less, and adjoining lands of William Coleman, Edward Coleman and others. This is the tract of which Joel Abney, Sen'r., late of this district, died seized and possessed.
2. Another tract of twenty-five acres, adjoining the former tract, and upon which are Merchants Saw and Grist Mills. This property is upon Selder river, is exceedingly valuable, and ought to command the attention of all persons seeking safe real-estate investments.
I will also sell at the same time and place, the following negro slaves, viz: Primes, Phil, Jack, Mourning, James and her child Ben, Edie, Josh and Wade; And all singular the other chattels on said premises held in common by the parties here interested, or by any two or more of them, consisting of three mules, one horse, a stock of cattle and hogs, household and kitchen furniture, corn, fodder and oats, one four horse wagon and gear, two sets of Blacksmith's tools, and various implements of husbandry.
TERMS OF SALE.—A credit, as to the land, of one year and two years, and as to the personality of one year from the day of sale, with interest from date of sale, except as to so much as may be required to defray the costs of these proceedings, which will be punctually paid in cash.
The purchase money is to be secured by Bonds, with ample personal sureties. And purchasers are to pay extra for titles. A. SIMKINS, c. e. d. Dec. 2, 41 47

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EDGEFIELD DISTRICT, IN EQUITY.
George A. Addison and E. J. Mims, vs. Emma L. Addison, et al.
