

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!
New Store in the New Building.
WILLIAM R. HUDSON takes great pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Edgefield Village and District, (especially the Ladies) that he is now receiving and opening in the large Store Room under the Masonic & Odd Fellows' Hall, an

ENTIRE NEW STOCK
of RICH and BEAUTIFUL GOODS, comprising every article usually offered in a well conducted Village Store. His shelves will be well laden with an excellent and fashionable variety of
DRESS GOODS, EMBROIDERIES,
Trimmings, Bonnets, Bonnet Ribbons,
Jewelry, Gloves, Hosiery, Yankee
Notions, Domestic Goods, Hats,
Caps, Boots, Shoes,
Groceries, Crockery & Hardware,
&c., &c., &c.

The above Stock of Goods are all direct from the finest importing Houses in Charleston and New York, and as they were bought at low prices will be disposed of at astonishingly LOW PRICES. All I ask is an examination of my Goods and prices. I know what will be the result.
Try the new Store, New Goods, and new Merchant, on and after next Saturday, and get bargains whilst they are to be had.
W. R. HUDSON,
Edgefield, April 29

NEW DRY GOODS STORE!

GRAY & TURLEY, (successors to GARY BROTHERS), beg leave to inform the public that they are now receiving their large supplies of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRY GOODS,
At the Old Stand of Gray Brothers, 290 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga., to which they would respectfully invite the attention of the public.
As young candidates for public favor in the Dry Goods Trade, they deem this a fitting opportunity to make known the leading principles upon which they intend to deal. In order to be able to take advantage of the rise and fall in the market, by having cash on hand to do so, we intend to sell

ENTIRELY FOR CASH.
To every one, thereby saving at least the annual expenses of a book keeping, and all other expenses and losses consequent on a credit system, which is no small item, as must appear obvious to the most unexperienced. All these losses and expenses have to be realized out of the customers, as no reasonable person will dispute. We intend reducing the prices of goods corresponding to the reduction in expenses above stated, which we think will entitle us to a large share of patronage from a discriminating public.
In addition to this, we have secured the services of a most experienced purchaser, who will reside North, and devote his entire energies to the selection of our stock, both for here and away. In good quality and cheaply, which is in good style and desired by all. With such facilities for selecting and receiving our regular supplies, we think we can do nothing in asserting that we can sell Goods as CHEAP here in Augusta as they can be elsewhere. We are prepared to examine for yourselves, goods will be freely shown, and only one positive price asked.
We would again most respectfully invite the attention of the public to an examination of our Stock.
