SUT LOVEGOOD'S SHIRT. BY S-L, OF TENN.

The first one I met was "Sut" (after crossing the Hiwassee,) "weaving along" in his usual rambling, uncertain gait; his appearance at once satisfied me that something was wrong. He had been sick—whipped in a fight, or was just outgrowing one of his big drunks. But upon this point I was soon enlightened.

"Why, Sut, what's wrong now?" "Heap's wrong; durn my skin ef I haint most dead. Lite off that ar hoss, George, an take a horn, while I take two, (shaking that everlasting flask of his at me,) and plant yer-self on that ar log, an I'll tell ye ef I kin, but its most beyond tellin. I reckon I'm the darndest fool outin' Utah, scept my dad, for he acted hoss, an I haint done that yit-allers in some trap that cudent ketch a sheep. I'll drownd myself some day, see ef I don't, jist tu stop a family dispersition to make dfools on themselves."

"How is it, Sut; have you been beat playing cards, or drinking, which is it?"
"Nara one; that can't be did in these parts. but seein its you, George, I'll tell you; but I swar I'm shamed-sick, sorry, and-and-mad,

"Ye know I boards with Bill Carr, at his cabin on the mountain, and pays for sich es I gets when I heve the money, and when I hevent eny, why he takes one third of it outen me in cussin; and she, that's his wife Betts, takes tother two thirds with the battlin stick, and the intrust with her tung, an the intrust's more'n the princip'l-heap more. She's the cussedest 'oman I ever seed eny how fur jaw, breedin an pride. She can scold a blister onto a bull's face rite on the curl two minits. She out breeds ever thing the river—an' patterns arter every fashun she hears, till on from bussils to briches. Oh! she's one of em, and sometimes she's two or three. Well, ye see, I'd got some made cotton truck to make me a new shut outen, and coaxed Betts tu make it, and about the time it wur don, here cums Lawyer Johnson along an axed fur breckfus-I wish it had pizened him, durn his hide, and I wonder it didn't, fur she cooks awful mixins when she trys. I'm pizen proof myself, (holding up his flask and peeping thro' it,) ur I'd been dead long ago."

"Well, while he wur a eatin, she spied out that his shut was stiff and mity slick; so she never rested till she wormed it outen him that a presparation of flour did it, and she got a few particulers as 'bout the perceedings tu, outen him by 'oman's art—I don't know how she did it, perhaps he does. After he left, she sot in and biled a big pot ove paste, nigh onto a peck of it, and souzed in my shirt, and let it soak awhile; then she took it and ironed it out flat and dry, and sot it up on its aidge agin the cabin in the sun. Thar it stood as stiff as a dry hoss hide, an it rattled like a sheet ove iron, it did. It wur pasted tugether all over. When I cum tu dinner, nuthin wud du but I must put it on. Well, Betts and me got the things open arter sum hard work, she pullin at one of the tails, and me at tuther, an I got intu it. Durn the everlastin new fangled shut I say. I felt like I'd crawled inter an old bee gum, and hit full ove pis-ants; but it wur like Lawyer Johnson's, an I stud it like a man, an went tu work tu build Betts a ashhopper. I worked powerful hard and swet like a hoss, an when the shut got wet it quit its hurtin. Arter I got dun, I tuck about four fingers ove red eye, and crawled up intu the cabin loft to take a "Well, when I waked up I that I was ded, or had the cholery, for all the jints I cud move were my ankles, wrists and knees-cudn't even muve my hed, and skasely wink my eye. The cussed shut wur pasted untu me all over, from the pint of the tails tu the pint of the broadax coller over my years. It sot to me as clost as a poor cow dus her hide in March. I squirm'd till I got it sorter broke at the shoulders an elbows, and then I dun the durndest fool thing ever did in these mountains. I shuffled my briches off an tore luse from my hide about two inches ove the tail all round, in much pain and tribulation. Oh! but it did hurt. Then I tuck up a plank outen the loft, and hung my legs down thru a hole, and nailed the aidge ove the front tail tu the aidge of the loft before. and the hind sail I nailed to the plank what sot on. I onbuttoned the collar and ristbands, raised my hands way up abuv my head, shot up my eyes, said grace, an jumped thru tu the Here Sat ruminated sadly.

"George, I'm a dernder fool than ever dad was, hoss, hornets an all. I'll drowned myself sum ove these days, see ef I don't. "Well, go on Sut; did the shirt come off?" "I___think__it__did, I hern a noise sorter like tarin a shingle ruff off ove a house, all at onst, and felt like my guts an bones wur all that reached the flure. I staggered tu my feet an tuk a look up at the shut. The nails had all hilt thar holt, and thar it wur, hanging arms down, inside out, and stiff as ever. It looked like the map ove Mexico jist arter one of the wust battles-a patch ove my hide about the size of a dollar and a half bill here; a bunch of my har about the size ove a bird's nest thar; then some more skin; then sum paste; then a little more har; then a heap ove skin: then more har, then skin; an so on all over that darned new fangled, everlastin, infernal cuss ove a shut. It wur a picture tu look at-and so war I. The hide, har and paste wure about ekucally divided atween me and hit. Wonder what Bett's, durn her, that when she cum home and found me missin. Spect she thinks I crawled into the thicket and died ov my wounds. It must av skarked her good, fur I tell you it looked like the skin of sum wild beast torn off alive, or a bag what had carried a load ove fresh beef from a shootin match. Now, George, ef I ever ketch that Lawyer Johnson out, I'll shoot him, an ef an 'oman talks about flatnin a shut for me again, durn my everlastin picter ef I don't flatten her. "It's a rit-ribution, sartin, the biggest kind ove a preacher's rit-ribution. Du you mind my drivin ove dad thro' that hornet's nest, an then racin ove him inter the kreek?"

"Well, this is what cums ove it. I'll drown myself sum of these days, see ef I don't, ef I don't die from that orful shut. Take a horn, and don't you ever try a sticky shut as long as

A DUEL OF PROFIT.-An Englishman fought a duel with an American. The conditions were that but one shot should be exchanged and that the precedence should go by lot. The Englishman got the first chance, but failed to hit his adversary. As the Yankee lifted his weapon, the other called out:

"Hold! I will buy your shot!" All were astonished at so strange a proposition, but the opponent answered: "What will you give?"

" Five hundred pounds!"

"Nonsense," cried the Yankee, taking aim again. "I am a good marksman—you set too low a value on yourself!" "You estimate me at too high a price; but I will give you a thousand pounds."

"Agreed!" cried the Yankee, and the duel was at an end.

"Sister, are you happy?"

"Yes, Deacon, I feel as though I was in Belzebub's bosom?" "Not in Belzebub's." "Well, some one of the patriarchs, I don't

SELLING A HORSE.

A good clergyman wishing to be rid of his horse, and try for a better one, directed his old negro man to sell his beast for what he would fetch, or to exchange him for another, adding at the same time an anxious caution not to deceive the purchaser and even enumerating the faults of the animal, lest one should be over-

"Remember, Pompey he has four faults."
"O, yes, massa, I take care."

Pompey, jogging along the road and conning over the list to himself, as the old lady did her uggage, "big box, little box, band box, bundle," was overtaken by a man on horse back, who entered into conversation, and among other topics, made inquiries about the horse. Pompey told his story; said that his master and charged him to tell the horse's faults to the purchaser without reservation.

Well, what are they?" said the stranger, who had a mind for a swap.

"Dere is four, massa," said Pompey, "and I don't remember 'em all very well just now,

"And the next." "Why, when he comes to a brook, he will put his nose down and blow in the water, and nassa don't like dat."

" What next?" "I can't any how remember de oders," said Pompey, peering up into the clouds with one eye, reflectingly. The stranger concluded to strike a bargain and exchange his own horse, which had not quite so genteel an air as the parson's for this nearly unexceptionable animal. It was not long before the clerical steed stumbled and threw his rider into a ditch. Picking himself up as well as he could, he examined his new purchase a little more closely, and discovered that the horse was entirely blind. Finding Pompey again without much difficulty, his wrath burst forth in a torrent of reproaches: "You black rascal, what does this mean? This horse is broken kneed, and as blind as a

PURIFY THE BLOOD! MOFFATT'S LIFE PILLS

PHOENIX BITTERS,

FREE FROM ALL MINERAL POISONS.

THEE great popularity which MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHOENIX BITTERS have attained in consequence of the extraordinary curse effected by their use, renders it unnecessary for the proprietor to enter into a particular analysis of their medicinal virtues or properties. Having been more than twenty years before the public, and having the united testimony of more than THREE MILLIONS of persons who have been restored to the enjoyment of perfect health by them, it is believed that their reputation as the Best Vegetable Medicine now before the public, admits of no dispute. In almost every city and village in the United States, there are many who are ready to testify to their efficacy in removing disease, and giving to the whole system renewed vigor and health.

In cases of SCROFULA, ULCERS, SCURVY or ERUPTIONS of the skin, the operation of the LIFE MEDICINES is truly astonishing, often removing in a few days, every vestige of these loathsome diseases, by their purifying effects on the blood. FEVER and AGUE, DYSPEPSIA, DROPSY, PILES, and in short most all diseases, soon yield to their curative properties. No family should be without them, as by their timely use much suffering and expense may be saved. Prepared by WILLIAM B. MOFFAT, M. D., New York, and for sale by TUTT & PELLETIER, Sole Agents,
