VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE! THE Subscriber being still desirous of making a change in his business, offers at private sale, his VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND, located on the public road, three miles from Edgefield C. II., and containing, Fifteen hundred and forty-four Acres. Edgefield, known as the Bushnell Carriage Shop A minute description of these Lands is deemed Lot, including the Brick Store House, containing, unnecessary-suffice it to say, they are well adapted to the culture of Cotton, Corn and small grain. The place is well watered, every field containing a sufficiency of running water, and a good supply of most excellent springs. It has between two and three hundred acres of low grounds, together with a large portion of fresh lands, cleared within the last four or five years, and now in a high state of cultivation. A large portion of this Tract abounds in NATIVE FOREST, covered with a heavy growth of timber.

The improvements are good-the most of the buildings have been put up in the last few years. An excellent opportunity is now offered to persons wishing to purchase a splendid settlement. The above land will be sold in a body, or if desired, I will divide it to suit purchasers. I will take pleasure in showing the land.

Terms made easy and accommodating.

JOHN H. HOLLINGSWORTH. P. S. I will also sell, my Village unimproved Lots, adjoining the Odd Fellows' & Masonic building, and fronting the public square.

FOR SALE! The subscriber offers for sale, that VALUABLE COTTON PLANTATION known as the McCullough place, containing EIGHT HUNDRED AND THIRTY-THREE AND ONE QUARTER ACRES, lying on the waters of Horn's Creek, seven miles below Edgefield Court Touce, and sixteen miles from Hamburg, and adjoining lands of Washngton Wise, Mrs. Swearengin, Dr. Hord and Mrs.

On the premises is a Two Story Dwelling House Also an Overseer's House, a large and excellent Stable, fine Gin House, Screw, &c. A large portion of the land is in NATIVE FOREST. About two hundred and fifty acres cleared and in cultivation. The balance in brier patches and pine thickets, which were never much worn. Captain Ryan, the first proprietor, worked a large force on the place. Since his time the force employed on it has been comparatively small, and the fences have been moved in until a which are exceedingly productive.

The quality of the land can be judged of from the growing erop which has been made, with bad seasons, under unfavorable circumstances, and with-out one ounce of manure of any kind. The location is remarkably healthy. The present Tenant has not lost a single day's work from sickness this year. The neighborhood is as desira ble as any person could wish.

There is no place in the District of equal health, so convenient to market, and so desirably located, as suitable for making large Cotton crops as this. Comparatively, a very few acres planted in the branch bottoms will make an abundant supply of provisions for the plantation. S. S. TOMPKINS.
