THE WINEBERRY REGISTER says that Major J. H. Rion, who recently killed Mr. Player, had himself arrested on Sunday. He went to Newberry, and obtained from Judge O'Neal an order for bail, and on his return recognized in the sum required.

THE RENE (Miss) GIPPER says: "There is an immense emigration from Georgia, South Carolina, and East Tennessee, to Arkansas. Near a hundred wagons have passed through this place in the last ten days, the larger portion of which were from Georgia."

THE NEW YORK HERALD says "It is an alarming spectacle to see a sturdy fellow with a spear in his mouth, which cost as much as a loaf of bread, inscribed with words and every banner with the inscription, 'bread or war'."

OUR old friend, S. G. EARLE, kindly sends us a package of the seed of the Beardless Barley. We shall sow it with care and give half of what we raise to the planter who best cultivates it during the next six months with the least agricultural art not to exceed a column in length, subject to be selected by the writer. This barley is not only very rare, but of high merit as we have heard from several sources.

THE MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE. This body meets on Monday next. The Session will be a highly interesting one. If any of our fellow-citizens desire to see the capital of the State in its most attractive phase, let them go down this season. We will warrant to them a most gay and pleasant time; and this not only to gentlemen but to ladies too. It is a fine thing, to have people from all parts of the State brought together once a year.

THE FAIR AT COLUMBIA. The accounts are that the State Fair was hugely attended, and that the Exhibition was very respectable. We congratulate the State Society upon the result of their annual meeting. Col. J. T. MARSHALL'S address on the occasion is an admirable one, and we hope to lay it before our readers at an early day. The indefatigable and high-spirited President of the Society, Col. ANDREW P. CALDWELL, is also reported to have delivered a fine speech during the continuance of the Fair. His zeal and ability have doubtless had much to do with the complete triumph of the Society. It is now, we trust, an established thing; and its annual Fair will in future be looked to with confidence and receive the support of the whole people. That Edgfield has been remiss in this, we confess with some degree of mortification. But her excuse is, her want of railroad facilities and the consequent heavy trouble and expense to her citizens, in rendering in their quota of contributions. Nevertheless, it is our belief that hereafter she will be found endeavoring to do her part. She shows the cause of home industry, and the safety of the State Agricultural Society never goes less!

AGRICULTURE KILLING TIME. The last Chattanooga Advertiser says: "We understand that on yesterday, the 11th inst., four hundred hogs were killed at the slaughtering house of Chandler & McCune's. As yet, we have not been informed as to what will be the probable price in Kentucky and Ohio; however, we incline to the opinion that hogs will not command more than three and a half to four cents gross."

FROM THE ATLANTA INTELLIGENCER & EXAMINER, Nov. 10. HOE TRADE.—We have been kindly allowed to make the following extracts from two letters received by one of our largest houses in the commission business here from reliable and responsible parties in Tennessee, gentlemen who have every facility to ascertain, as near as possible, the quantity and the probable price of mowing, for six months. On the 10th of Nov. 1857, we have looked into the hog market, and my opinion is, a man would not be safe in buying hogs at more than three cents gross. Our farmers' views are considerably above that price. There has been offered here from four and a half to five cents gross, for hogs weighing from two hundred and twenty-five to two hundred and fifty pounds, and some sales made at the above figure. My opinion is a man had better hold off and see how things go. I think there will be more bacon put up by the producers this season than ever before.

SHELBYVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5, 1857. "Gentlemen: As you requested, I promise to keep you posted up in regard to the movement of our pork market. This is to inform you that there was a sale of fifteen hundred hogs this week at five cents net or four cents gross, on sixty days time. The hogs are driven to Alabama, Miss. The offering price in Nashville, is four and a half cents. As yet, the farmers are not disposed to take that price, though I think they will do so soon. From Morganton, East Tennessee, there will be considerably more bacon put up in this section this season, than was last year."

THE NEW YORK HERALD says: "Among the persons who the present troubles have forced to suspend we hear of many, nearly one-half, who are already making preparations to resume business on a prudent and contracted scale. They delay their decision in order to follow the banks, if possible."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

GEN. WILLIAM WALKER.—A telegraphic dispatch from New Orleans, of the 11th inst., in the Nashville papers, says: "General Walker is off. He ordered before the District court this morning and gave bail to appear for examination on the 17th. This afternoon himself, said, and over three hundred men embarked on board of the Mobile mail boat. 'The steamer Fashion, Capt. Caughlin, with a portion of his men and a large quantity of arms, munitions and provisions, set out at two o'clock this morning, having first submitted to a search by the United States Marshal. 'The Fashion cleared for Mobile, but will intercept the mail boat outside, when the whole party will embark on the Fashion for Nicaragua. 'Capt. Passynow remains here. 'Gen. Henningson is expected this week."

THE CLEVELAND, East Tennessee, Banner says that in that market corn is being sold at from thirty to thirty-five cents a bushel, and good wheat commands seventy-five cents.

RUFUS W. PAGE, of Wake county, N. C., has been appointed Secretary of State of North Carolina.

OUR Session Paper.—As usual (says the South Carolina) we will send the Daily South Carolinian for the session to subscribers, postage free, for one dollar. We have made arrangements for furnishing a daily report of the business of the Legislature, and of all matters of interest at the Capital.

THE Washington correspondent of the New York Herald states that Mr. Mason has sent his resignation to the President, to take effect in January next; but that he will be requested to remain until Spring, when his successor, Mr. Sibley, will go out.

RAIN.—Rains have fallen in the Boston market to $2.25 per box for fresh Malaga. Last year, at this time, they brought $4.25, and the consequence was that plum puddings and mince pies were very scarce at Thanksgiving.

THE PRINCE OF SIAM, now on a mission to England, is charged to offer to Queen Victoria several superb presents, and among others a throne in massive gold, set with jewels.

MANY of the mills and factories in New England are now resuming work—among them the Union Manufacturing Co., of Norfolk, Ct., the Chicopee (Mass.) mills, the Rolling and Nail mills, and the Massachusetts Flour mills, at Fall River. The American Print Works at Fall River, it is believed, will also soon commence running.

THE Anderson Gazette greeted its readers last week in an entirely new outside dress, which added much to its general appearance, and the Editor truly remarks that it is "in point of appearance and typographical execution, inferior to none of its contemporaries." We are happy to see this evidence of prosperity so brightly exhibited in our cotemp's pages.
