MARRIED, on the 18th inst., by John Quattlebum, Esq., Mr. JOSEPH PARKMAN and Mrs. MARTHA MAY, all of this District.

OBITUARY.

DIRD, at his residence in this District, on the 20th inst., of a violent attack of Inflamation of the Brain, Mr. JOHN TIMMERMAN, in the 30th year of his age. The deceased was an upright, industrious citi-sen, and an affectionate husband and father. He leaves a devoted wife, three children, and a large cir-cle of relations and friends to mourn their loss in his untimely departure. But while they are thus be-reaved, they have every reason to hope that their loss is his eternal gain.

A FRIEND.

DIED, on the 19th February last, at his residence in this District, near Saluda River, of Inflamation of the Stomach, Mr. JAMES B. COLEMAN, in the 53d year of his age.

Mr. C. could but be admired for his many stirling qualities of head and heart, plain and unassuming as he was. At his cheerful fire-side we were ever received with a warm and hearty welcome—such a welcome as only friends can give. It was there we found combined in him all the many and noble traits which ever characterized him as a true and upright man. In his death his sorrow-stricken wife and chil-dren have sustained the loss of a devoted husband and an affectionate father, and the community mourns the demise of one of its most esteemed and worthy

DIED, in Caddo Parish, La., on the 6th inst., Mr. BLIAS LAKE, in the 53d year of his age.

The deceased emigrated from this District four years ago, and to those who knew him here or in his new home in the far West, no eulogy is necessary. If ever a good man received his reward, surely he, whose whole Christian life was so consistent and devoted; whose unwavering kindness to the poor and suffering so generously extended; whose every relation in life so faithfully discharged, has heard the blessed plaudit, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

He had been a professor of our holy religion from his youth; and not only did he show his devotion to his Lord and master in the merely nominal duties of whose whole Christian life was so consistent and de-his Lord and master in the merely nominal duties of attending the house of God and bearing the name of professor, but in the exemplification of that true and vital religion which "is to visit the widow and fatherless in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

In his dying moments, he calluly bid farewell to his sorrowing wife and children and servants, imploring them to meet him in that better world, the radiance of whose glory he already felt reflected in his dying bosom. Beside his immediate family, he leaves three brothers in Edgefield towards whom in their orphaned youth he had acted the part of father, inselor, and friend; and who were united to him by all the bonds of kindred, gratitude, and a perfect veneration for his high and spotless character. Many other relatives and friends are left to mourn the loss, which to him is everlasting gain. "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

ONE WHO KNEW HIM WELL.

COMMERCIAL.

AUGUSTA, April 24. Corrox.—Our market has worn a quiet appearance to-day, but without any duliness or depression being exhibited. The limited transactions are caused by the light stock of good Cottons now offering, together with the continued difficulty in money matters. The sales to-day were 360 bales, principally at 11½ to 12½ cents, as follows: 6 bales at 9, 1 at 9$, 1 at 10, 5 at 11, 141 at 111, 21 at 114, 5 ut 117, 8 at 117, 91 at 12, 3 at 121, 39 at 121, 30 at 121, and 18 at 122 cents. Receipts to-day 408 bules.

FLOUR.—The increased stock and absence of any general demand, has depressed prices since our last, and we quote Country superfine Flour $4,75 per barrel; City Mills $5; Extra $5,50 @ $5,75; Extra Family $6,50 @ 6,75. Bacon .- The receipts of this article have been fair during the week, and trade rather active. Prices for good meat are full. We quote: Shoulders 9c; hams 10½ to 12; hog round 10½ to 10½ cents.

LARD.—This article is more plenty, and in demand, at 11 to 11½ cents in bbls; in cans, 12 to 12½ cents.

NASHVILLE, April 20. Bacox has already declined half a cent since our last quotations, and still has a downward tendency. Clear Sides 9c.; Hams 7½; Shoulders 6½; Sc. for hog LARD is worth 81 @ 9c.

GREAT desideratum in the way of LIGHT A is accomplished. An illuminating Oil is prepared from Coal, called KEROSENE OIL, which for Brilliancy and Intensity of Light Is unsurpassed by all other artificial lights. It is not explosive—will extinguish fire if poured on it—and last, though not least, it is very little more expensive than sunshine. A small Lamp, giving he Light of six Candles, will not cost excee ing half a cent an hour, which can be graduated so as o give less light at a much less expense.

We have the exclusive Agency for the KERO-SENE OIL and LAMPS in this place, and will sell them at Charleston prices and terms, which are exclusively for Cash. A. G. & T. J. TEAGUE.
