HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, on the 6th inst., by J. F. Powell, Esq., Mr. SAMUEL BONHAM and Miss POLLY LITTLE, all of Shatterfield, Edgfield District.

OBITUARY.

DIED, in this Village, on the 5th inst., after a lingering and severe illness of Scarlet Fever, MARGARET UTOKER, daughter of JOHN and ELIZA D. MALOY, in the 5th year of her age.

This darling child was a precious little idol in the household that has been made desolate by her early and untimely death. But, fond parents, your dear babe is now free from pain, and sorrow, and care,—and is happy with Him who hath said "suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not." Therefore, dry up your tears and murmur not; but live with a "hope of a better time coming," when, through Faith, you may meet your "loved and lost," in the upper and better world, where God reigns on high, and nought but eternal bliss is known. X.

DIED, in Edgefield District, on the 11th inst., JOSEPH GALLITON BUSSY, infant son of JAMES and MARTHA BUSSEY, aged seven months and ten days. Dear afflicted friends, weep not for the babe! It is gone to Heaven!

"First our flowers die —— and then
Our hopes, and then our fears —— and when
These are dead the debt is due,
Dust claims dust —— and we die too."

W. L. H.

Truly a good man has fallen! Died at his residence in this district on the 1st of March inst., after an illness of nine days, Captain DAVID SEIGLER, in the 40th year of his age. He has left an aged mother, a devoted wife and five interesting children, two sisters and three brothers, besides a large circle of other relations and friends to mourn his; loss but they mourn not as those without hope; for, although he had made no public profession, of religion, his demeanor was orderly and upright, and for many years he was looked upon by the community in which he moved as a christian; and during his illness, which he bore with christian fortitude, and without a murmur, he was heard to tell his family that he had made peace with his God.

He arranged his worldly affairs with calmness and composure and seemed to be conscious of his approaching disolution. But death was no terror to him, for he could speak of death with that serenity of mind which only a christian can do.

He was a dutiful son and an excellent citizen and neighbor; a devoted and affectionate husband; a fond and indulgent Father; a kind and humane master, and in all his transactions with his fellow man, he was strictly upright—and, in the humble opinion of the writer, no man was more honest than the deceased.

As the ways of God are mysterious and past finding out, we would only say to the bereaved and stricken family, look up to thy Father in Heaven, and say "thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven," for his strength alone is sufficient to sustain you in your afflictions. T.

DEPARTED this life, on the 5th inst., at the residence of her son-in-law, WM. H. CLEGG, in this District, Mrs. MARY OUZTS, consort of JOHN OUZTS, deceased, after a long and tedious spell of complicated disease, in the seventy-third year of her age.

Mrs. Ouzts was born in Germany, and, in her youthful days, emigrated to America, and located in Augusta, Georgia. Soon after she removed to this District, where she spent the remainder of her days.

The deceased lived an orderly life, was kind and affectionate to all with whom she associated, and thereby gained the esteem of all with whom she was acquainted. She died seemingly in full triumphs of faith, expressing full confidence in her acceptance with her Creater,—leaving at the same time, a large circle of relations and friends to lament her departure.

A FRIEND.

DEPARTED this life in Edgefield District, on Wednesday morning the 9th of March, LEVI H. McDANIEL, son of FREDRICK and EMILY McDANIEL, in the twenty-ninth year of his age.

The deceased came to his death by a pistol ball fired from the hands of James H. Jones, a native of North Carolina, the ball entering the left side about the region of the heart, which produced death in less than half an hour.

The writer of these lines was informed by the widow of the deceased that on a certain night, a short time previous to his death, he was unusually troubled in mind, and impressed to live a better life; and his mind was drawn to many of his relatives which were dead, among the number his little MARY, who was then sleeping under the clods of the valley. He expressed a desire to lie by the side of his departed child, and said he would be willing to die if his father-in-law would forgive and be friendly with him, for nothing gave him so much trouble. He then requested his wife to pray for him, stating that he believed that the feelings he then had were a warning of some future event.

The deceased has left a widow and four children to mourn their loss. We deeply sympathize with them, together with his devoted parents and numerous relatives and friends in their affliction. But we bow with resignation to an Allwise Providence, who holds life and death in his own hands. W. L. H.

COMMERCIAL.

HAMBURG, March 14, 1859.

Cotton.—Our market has been rather dull the past week in consequence of the very light receipts. Notwithstanding, prices have advanced full ⅛ on the better qualities. The principal sales during the week were at from 10 to 12 cents.

Prices now quoted are from 8 to 12¼.

CHARLESTON, March 11.

Cotton.—There was a very active demand for this article to-day, which resulted in the sale of upwards of 3,400 bales, at full prices. The quotations range from 8 @ 12¼ cents.

NEW YORK, March 11.

Sales of Cotton to-day 4,500 bales, at ⅛ @ ¼ cent advance; Middling Uplands, 12½ cts. Flour firm, with sales of 19,000 bushels. Corn firm, sales 20,000 bushels; mixed 90 cents, and yellow 87 to 90 cents per bushel. Spirits of Turpentine firm, at 51½ @ 52½ cents. Rosin steady, at $1 71 @ $1 73½.

CHATTANOOGA, March 10.

Bacon.—Stocks fair—sales of country cured from the banks at 9½ @ 9½ cents, hog round. Sales of city cured at 10 cents.

Lard.—Sales 11½ cents—supply light.

Corn.—Little doing—purchases have been made during the week at 50 cts, without sacks.

Flour.—No change—selling at $3 ℔ sack. Moderate stocks.

CINCINNATI, March 10.

Flour very dull. Whisky—sales 1,200 bbls., at 24¾. Mess Pork $19 50. Lard in bbls., 11¼—sales 1,400 bbls. Sugar dull at 7 @ 7½. Molasses 35 @ 36.

AUGUSTA, March 11.

Cotton.—Sales this forenoon about 1,500 bales, at very full prices. The principal sales were from 11½ to 12¼ cts. The latter price was paid for a large lot of very fine cotton.

LOUISIANA SUGAR CROP.

The New Orleans True Delta, of a late date, sums up the sugar crop of 1858 at 326,482 hhds, of which 181,621 have already been received, leaving 144,861 yet to go forward. Of the number received 85,516 hhds. were shipped by sea from Franklin and New Orleans, and 96,105 up the river. Assuming that the balance of the crop will be shipped in the same proportion, the True Delta calculates that the amount of the crop yet to come up the Mississippi is 74,000 hhds. sugar, and 150,000 bbls. molasses.

☞ The increase in the receipts of Cotton at all the ports up to the 14th inst., was 871,769 bales.

NOTICE.

I wish it understood that if I sell a GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE, which fails of working well, it can be exchanged at my sales room for one that will do good work.

Printed instructions for working the machine accompany each one, but, if preferred by the purchaser, I will send a person to learn any member of the family the use of it FREE OF CHARGE. Or, if desired, will have a servant instructed so as to work the machine well, if the owner will send them to my house and let them remain two or three days.

The machines are very simple, and can be understood and worked by children twelve years old; but a little practice is requisite to do the most difficult work, as all who sew by hand must first learn.

☞ Prices from $55 to $125.

I have also for sale cheap machines from ten to thirty dollars, but these I do not warrant, and advise all who want a good and reliable machine, to buy none but Grover & Baker's.

MORGAN HORSE.

THE celebrated Morgan Stallion CHALLENGE, will stand the Spring season of 1859, at Edgefield Court House. CHALLENGE is a beautiful black with long and wavy mane and tail, 15½ hands high, and weighs 1000 pounds. He was 4 years old last June, and was sired by Black Hawk, by Sherman Morgan, by Justin Morgan. Dam by White Mountain Morgan, by Sherman Morgan, by Justin Morgan. Grand dam by Woodberry, by Justin Morgan. He covers on both sides as much Morgan blood as any other horse now living.

He is well broke to harness, and can trot his mile in 3 minutes, without training.

He was bought by the subscribers in Vermont at a heavy expense, and will be at Edgefield Court House by the 20th March. The Spring season will commence about the first of April.

TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT.

This is perfectly reasonable, and compatible with common sense and all MERCANTILE EXPERIENCE. If the public will simply bear in mind a few of the leading facilities which we have of obtaining GOODS, and the principal points by which our Business is governed:—in the first place, we make no Bad Debts, as our business and consequently have not to make up such losses on Good Cash Paying Customers.

IS STRICTLY CASH!

Secondly, recollect the great leading fact of keeping Money always Turning Over; we remit to our purchaser, and receive from him therefore turning our money over at least twenty-five times a year,

WEEKLY SUPPLIES,

REALIZING MORE

AT THE END OF THE SEASON, EVEN AT THE Small Profits of Five Per Cent.,

than if we were to make fifty per cent., on a stock purchased twice a year, besides the losses incurred from having to buy so largely at one time, incurring the risk of Changing Styles, &c. THEN THE GREAT ADVANTAGE of having a thorough Judge continually in market, who is always posted to a shade, in the rise or fall of DRY GOODS. If these few plain truths are properly weighed, it will be readily perceived the great advantage in purchasing from such fresh supplies, at UNQUALIFIEDLY LOW PRICES!

THE HOO SUNG.

THIS Plant is said to be an excellent substitute for Asparagus. I have now in store a few dozen papers of the seed, and as it does not cost much to make the experiment, I would advise those who are fond of Asparagus to give the Hoo Sung a trial.

Mr. La Taste, of Augusta, says: "Having given the Hoo Sung a fair trial, I am prepared to say that it is really a delicious vegetable. As a substitute for asparagus, I consider it superior to that plant."

And Mr. Dennis Willis, writes to the Northern Farmer as follows:

"I have cultivated for some time the Hoo Sung plant which I think worthy of being generally known. It is a species of lettuce and may be used as such when young. But its chief merit is in its being an admirable substitute for asparagus. When the plants are nearly ready to flower the stalk is quite tender, and from half to three fourths of an inch in diameter and on strong soil sometimes three feet high—it may be cut up and cooked as asparagus. The cultivation is the same in all respects as lettuce. The soil cannot be too strong—the richer the better. Sow quite thin, or the stalks will be small. It will yield ten times more on the same space of ground than asparagus.
