PINE BLUFF ACADEMY.

WE, the undersigned, having secured the services of Mr. H. I. BIRD, as a Teacher for the ensuing year in the Literary Department, and as Professor of P. MOSES in the Manual Department, will open a School on the first Monday of January next.

Our purpose is to establish a permanent School, for the purpose of general education and preparing Young Men for College.

The Academy is one of comfort, convenience and retirement; and moreover, possessing a delightful and healthy location.

Mr. BIRD is well known throughout a large portion of the District to be a young man of deep moral worth and of literary attainments.

Professors MOSES has spent the last four years within the limits of this District, and during that time he has clearly shown himself to be a master both of the science and art of Music, an efficient teacher, and a high-toned gentleman.
