Wm. Youngblood. NECESSITY compels me from this date to adopt THE CASH SYSTEM. W. Leek, James A. May, NOTE .- Most of the members of the Company are very young men; few being over thirty, and many under twenty-five years of age. In one in-stance we have in our ranks four brothers, in another three, in thirteen instances we have two, and in one father and son. We have had the maxi-mum limit viz: One hundred men, but the Comcustomers who have so liberally patronized me, and who are now indebted to me will make paypany unanimously agreed that the emergency did not yet demand the services of the old, and begwill be promptly attended to, and GOODS SOLD gone? It seems to be a rare chance nowadays to get a pair of any respectable durability. Especially in the article of Misses' Walking Shoes is this a sad and (to us) a rather perplexing fact. The other day we bought a pair apparently stout and ' taut ;' and before a week's moderate use one of the soles came off "bodyaceously." Our merchant did'nt cheat us in the transaction, -by no means :- but he was most "oudsciously tuck in' by his merchant, certain. Where, we repeat, are all the good shoes gone?

Butter .- An article hard to get in these parts and not much account when it is got. The best we have tasted in one or two years was at the Augusta Hotel last week. Really it was delicious,-firm, yellow, sweet and racy. We rather think it came from Dontic's over the way. Gosh en butter generally is an arrant 'cheat; but this was like gold, genuine and sound. Some good yellow country butter would be thankfully received and paid for at this office.

SCHOONER FIRED UPON FROM A LOUISIANA FORT .- The New Orleans Crescent, of the 16th, has the following:

Latest from Fort St. Philip.-Private Ju lius Elbe, of the First Company Chasseurs 'Pied, came up from Fort St. Philip yesterday morning. He reports that at 9 o'clock the night before, a schooner came up the river and anchored opposite the fort, and that, being hailed and giving no answer, she was fired into from the Fort. They were unable to make her out. Capt. St. Paul sent Sergeant Legendre up to the city with dispatches ordering the remainder of his company down to the fort at once; and these men were to leave on the steamer Empire Parish last evening.

DEATH OF LOLA MONTEZ .- Lola Montez died a few days since in this city and was buried on Thursday last. This celebrated person was born about 1820. She appeared in raris in 1840, and soon after went upon the ment in writing to the Brigadier General showing the result of the election nich, where her relation wit Bavaria gave her notoriety.
