From Virginia. RICHMOND, May 5 .- New York, Philadelphia and Boston, reported to be in a wild state of excitement, owing to an alarming report which bad gained currency that go organised plan was laid to burn those three thes. Special guards were immediately placed over all those places. The Northern papers urge an immediate attack on Harper's Ferry, Alexandria and Norfolk, before the people of Virginia have time to ratify the ordinance of secession.

The Maryland Legislature has appointed five Secessionists on the committee to superintend the arming of the State.

Gen. Wool has been ordered from New York back to Troy by Gen. Scott, in a brief, sharp and snubbing letter. Wool is requested not to interfere with Scott's orders.

He intends to complain to his Government of the outrage. Major Anderson was the bearer from New York of four million of dollars in gold for the Treasury in Washington. A bill establishing a Secession Committee of Safety, met such resistance in the Senate of Maryland on Saturday, that it was finally recommitted. The papers all agree that on Monday begin the offensive operations by Lincoln. Norfolk, Harper's Ferry, and Alexandria, are points designated. The New York Tribune, of Saturday, says " On Monday, at farthest, let the country be prepared for a proclamation from the President. He has determined upon active, instant, decisive and comprehensive action. The time has arrived when, in accordance with the doctrines announced in his

It is reported that the English and French Min isters at Washington have protested to the Montgomery Government against the issuing of letters of Marqe. The impression was general in diplo matic circles that the Confederate Governmen would not take such responsibility against their General Harney reported that he received courteous treatment from the Virginia authorities, and it is rumored that he will be put in command of the troops at Washington.

ALEXANDRIA, May 5, 10.30 P. M .- Lincoln issued another proclamation on Priday, calling for an additional force of forty-two thousand and thirty-four volunteers to serve three years. This force is designed to increase the regular army with eight regiments of infantry, one regiment of eavairy, one regiment of artillery, and twenty-two hundred and seventy-one additional sermen. Lincoln promises to divulge the views and plans of the Administration to the forthcoming Congres on the fourth of July. The course of Maryland is still in doubt. No h-

A large crowd assembled in front of the Custom House to witness the fing-raising. A toflag-staff was creeted over the portico, and at precisely quarter to twelve, Capt. Frazier, a veteran sea captain, who was assigned the honor, drew up the flag, which, as it spread to the breeze, was greeted with tremendous applause, waving of hats, and cheers for the Union and the old flag. The crowd then joined in singing the Star Spangled Banner.

Movement of Troops .-- Blockade of Mobile.

Monney, May 3,-The Continentals, numbering one hundred and sixty men, left Mobile to-day for Montgomery. Several resigned Federal military officers from Texas are en route to Montgemery to offer their services to the Confederate States. Nothing of any interest from Pensacola, It is reported that Mobile will be blockaded to-morrow.
