BY SIMKING, DURISOE & CO.

Is the War " Almost Over ?" Every week since the war began, every Abolition office-holder and newspaper advo-cate of the Administration's negro policy has liberally assured the people that " the war is almost over." The precise truth in the watter is just this: Restore the Government to honest and patriotic hands, and the war then in fact would be "almost over." Continue the Administration in the hands of these men who are fighting for the subjugation of the States and the abrogation of State institutions, and the war is to be relentless and perpetual.

A military victory here and there does not

A military victory here and there does not end the war. W. may take Charleston as we have taken Norfolk; we may take Mobile as we have taken New Orleans; we may take all the Southern stronghelds, and that is but the very beginning of a war of abolition and applying the mandage not like the contract of the mandage part likes. subjugation. The man does not live who will ever behold the end of the war and the conever behold the end of the war and the con-struction of a Union upon the principles of the sectional party which now rules over us. Those principles can never command the popular assent of the South, and, until that popular assent is gained, there is and can be no peace and Union.

What have we done? The war has been fought for nearly three years. We have loaded the nation down with forrowand debt. Hundreds and thousands of our brave and patriotic men have been slain. And yet it is God's truth, that the Government can command less freswill support in the Southern States to day than when its armies were first hurled against the enemy. Every month of war, under the proclamation and for subjugation, has tended to cement, perpetuate and traditionalize batted of the North in every South ern household; and as to everything which makes a real Union and a real peace, we are further off from the goal to-day then two years ago. The sooner the people get rid of the shall Tow and fallacious notion that conquest meanspeace—the sooner shall we regain the lost blessings of a real Union.

We have now some military victories. We have conquered Norfolk, but there is no Union there. We have subjugated New Orleans, but there is no Union there. We have reduced Vicksburg, and Donelson, and subjugated various other cities and towns-but none of them are re-annexed to the Union. We have simply subjugated men who hates us and our policy. Even where our arms prevail, war, perpetual war, exists. Theorder which reigns in these localities is the order which reigned in Warsaw when the Russian chieltain proclaimed the subjugation of the Pelish capital, and the peace we have gained is the peace of Poland and Hungary under Russian and Austrian power—a peace to be hated alike by sub-jugator and subjugated.

We might have had military success with

Union, We might have captured citities and restored them. Whole States migut have reprined to the Union, and have sent their representatives to Washington. We see none of these results now. The Administration stands at the door clubbing back every State which would re-unite with us under the Constitution. It is restoration of the old Union which the Administration dreads. It hates the old Union, because with its restoration perishes forever the Administration and its party.-Freemau's Journal.

FORT SUMTER:—A Yankee correspondent, writing of the bumbardment of Fort Sumter,

Perhaps no greater example of stern, stub born resistance exists in si. modern warfare than the persistent holding of this point by the rebels—certainly history does not record one. * * To describe the appearance of Fort Sumer, in a few words, it is like a huge honey-cound. The only part of the fort which bears any traces of identity is the South wall, exposed so long to our fire, is a mountain of pulverized brick and mortar. The Eastern or sea-tace, which is exposed to the fire both of our ship and shore batteries, is s the most demolished of al.; battered and hunged, and crushed worse than the countenance of any prize-fighter. * * The walls are now periectly able of being scaled, from two to two and a half feet having been shot away within the past eight days. "he defence of Fort Sumter Cannot fail to stir in the hearts of our men that leeling of the bills that the same are receivable in pay-Frespect which the true soldier always has for ment of all public dues, except such as are a brave and determined foe:

SATING STOCK .- In impressing beef and and hogs for the army, an eye should be had to the importance of preserving a sufficiency of stock for breeding purposes. In some sec. tions of the country nearly all the miles cow-have been taken for beef cattle and in others searcely a hog is to be found. If the war continges two or three years longer—as it proba-bly will—the great mass of the people will be compelled to live on little or no meats; and in order to do this they ought to plant; out orchards and vineyards, cultivate Chinese sugar cone extensively and devote great care to the raising of poultry of every description. We are in for a long and wasting war, and to come out of it successfully those who are not fit for field service must determine to live fragally, and to spare noefforts to feed and clothe the soldiers who have to do the fighting.

The Cincinnati Inquirer, publishing an account of the great Lincoln ball, follows it up with this sensible remark:

Negro fiddled while Rome was burning. entertainments while the country is in the and a falling back upon their dignity would last three of dissolution, and while the people take place. The country might "go to pot" Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln give gay and expensive are taxed to their attermost to sustain the policy which is destroying it. "Nearly all the generals in the army were there!" "It cost thousands of dollars"—while hundreds of thousands of widows and orphans, made such by this war, are suffering for the want of the common necessaries of life, and mourn are taxed to their attermost to sustain the ing, in their poverty, the absence of their husbands and fathers, who sleep their last sleep in Southern graves. So it goes, "On, on with the dance ?"

A gleam of truth now and then appears in the Yankee accounts of things South. From a jetter to the Port-Royal New South, dated Morris Island. 29th Oct., we take the following admissions: changed within the past month. The lotty tower which the rebels had at that point has lated by those of the latter, for such is not place. So far they have not been brought to bear against us, but when the fleet goes in it is to be presumed that their guns will be directed upon the ironclass.

"DESCREATE YINKERS."—We saw the expression "degenerate" applied to the Yau-kees in an exchange the other day. Now, we hold it as impossible for a Yankee to degenerate as for a born idiot to make a fool of himself. The Yankee is already as low as he can get. If he wishes to get lower, he must dig for it.—Rich. Dispatch.

The Bank Convention at Augusta. This body which held its deliberations in Augusta, Ga., adjourned sine die on the aftetnoon of Luesday the 18th. A con mittee tetnoon of Tuesday the 18th. A committee of a glacen stream ted a report emb dying substantially the plan of the South Carolina banks, published in our last issue. Mr. Wm. Gregg, of South Carolina, proposed tumendments which were lost. Mr. Torbett, of Tennessee, from the minority of the Committee, offered a substitute, which was likewise lest. Mr. J. G. Holmes presented some resolutions, which failed to be sustained. The Committees's report was then taken up by sections and adopted. The following is the report, to which we direct the especial attention of our readers :

Whereas, experience has demonstrated that the dues to be collected by the Government and for which Treasury notes are made recrivable, are inadequate to absorb a sufficient amount of the notes, to prevent the exils of ar excessive paper currency, and it is decined es sential to the interests of the people and of the Government, that measures be adopted by the Government to redeem or fund the entire amount of the said issues, or so much thereof as shall reduce the sum of the currency to two hundred millions or less. For the accounplishment of this object the following measures are recommended to the country and the Government by this Convention:

1. That a new issue of Coupon Bonds be made to the amount of one thousand millions of dollars. The bonds bearing six per cent interest-the coupons payable annually in coin; and that, in future, to meet the wants of the Confederate Government, the policy of issuing Treasury notes be abondoned, as far as practicable, and a tax sufficient for all the requirements be adopted as the true policy to fustain the credit of the Confederacy.

2. That an Act be passed levying a tax of sixty millions of dollars, to be collected annu ally during the whole period of the said loan, for the payment of the interest on the above bonds, and that the good faith of the Government be pledged for the continuance of such tax until the maturity of the said loan; and that the said tax shall be paid in coin, and that the coupons of the above bonds be received in the payment of this tax in lieu of

3. That before the bonds shall be offered for sale in any other manner, or at a price above pur, they shall first be apportioned among the States of the Confederacy, and that a Commissioner shall be appointed for each State to make known to the tax payers in each collection district, the necessity of providing themselves with a sufficient amount of bonds to pay this specific tax, and who shall sell at par, to the tax payers in each district, the amount of bonds required to provide coqpons for the payment of their taxes; and that all bonds herecolore issued by the Government and Treasury notes of all issues be received in payment for the said bonds; and that the said payments shall be required in convenient instalments to suit the circumstances of persons of moderate means; but the privilege of paying in full at any time shall be accorded to all.

4. That all existing distinctions between

Treasury notes of different issues and dates, he abolished.

5. That the interest on the stock of the fifteen millions loan be paid by checks on the Treasury, and that the said checks be received in payment of the export duty on cotton in the same manner as the coupons on the bonds of the same loan.

6. That a five per cent, call loan be established similar to the first or original call loan, and that all Treasury poles be received at the Treasury therefor, and that the present five per cent. and four per cent. call loans be apolished.

7. That the right of the holder of Treasury notes, which upon their face are fundable in eight per cent. stock; ought to be recognized. and an eight per cent. at a short period pro-vided for that purpose, and also that all the privileges attached to the original six per cent, call loan be restored to the holders of all outstanding certificates of that loan.

8. That an increased duty be levied on all imports and exports during the continuance of the war, and that the same be collected in coin or approved bills on England or France, or in the interest on the fifteen million look 9. That an Issue Department be created by the Government and kept separate from the Treasury Department, whose duty it shall be to supply a new issue of Treasury notes in exchange for the amount that may remain in circulation of the present issue; and that the new issues shall express on the face of specifically required to be paid in coin.

10. That there should be an is-ue of bills of a large denomination, viz; $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000 sufficient to facilitate the transmission of funds and the settlement

A WORD AGAINST WHITTLING .- In leaving the Yankees we should leave off their disgusting peculiarities. Chief among the little traits that have distinguished the Yankee, and have enabled all observers to det et a Yankee however disguised in gentlemanly apparel, is the vile practice of whittling, of which an exchange

Whittling .- It is surprising to think of the amount of voluntary labor expended on this popular occupation. The chairs, benches and tables in all our places of popular resort dis-play ample marks of that untiring industry which works for nothing and boards itself. This occupation is generally followed by young gentlemen who would feel degraded by being offered pay for their labor. It these gentlemen whittlers were called upon to cut up sticks or old furniture for the benefit of the State or the Confederacy, what an uproar, for them before they would enlist in a whit-

A Sudden Denth.

We were pained to learn, on Saturday last, that Mr. Alexander W. Black, formerly a suitping master of Charleston, and whose tame) have been restuted in Greenville for some years, had nied during the previous night. He was in usual health on the day previous, and retired with ne symptoms of his approaching end. In the morning be was found in his bed, with life extinct. An inquest was hold upon the body, and a verdict reulered that he came to his death by the "visitation of God."

Mr. Black was well known and highly re spected in Charleston, and had gained many friends among his acquaintances in this place. His bereaved family have the sympathies of the community.—Genville Patriot & Mountaineer, 19th inst.

Hood AND HIS MEN .-- A correspondent of the Aflanta Confederacy, writing from Bragg's army. says:

As a pleasant relief to all the jarring and discord that we have had since the battle in regard to our Generals, I will give you an evidence of the good feeling that exists between the gailant Hood and his men. As soon as ue was pronounced convalescent by his surgeon, that portion of his old brigade that still remained with him, namely, the First, Fourth and Fifth Texas Regiments, started a subscrip'ion through their camps to provide the "Sergeant" with a cork leg. A limit of twenty dollars was plated on it, and in one day the handson stim of thirty-one handred dullars was subscribed and paid in.

IMPORTANT DECISION IS REGARD TO TAX IN KIND.—The Secretary of War has made the annexed important decision in regard to perisable articles coming into the posession of the Confederate Government in the collection of the tax in kind?

In localties where tithed sweet potatoes cannot be readily transported to the troops, or transferred to the medical' department, with the assent of the producer; they may be commuted at assessors' valuation, or be exchanged for grain, peas or bean. If, when collected, there is fear of rotting before they can be transferred for use, they will be sold at pub. lie auction."

"Pray, my lord," said a gentleman to a rather whimsical judge, " what is the distinction between law and equity courts?"

"Very little, in the end," replied his lord-ship; "they only differ so far as time is concerned. At common law, you are done for at once; in equity, you are not so easily disposed of. The one is prussic acid, the other laudanum.
