The Gallant Fight at Grahamville. From the Charleston Merengy, 3d inst. .

The results of the fighting on Wednesday near Grahamville, were most gratifying.

The enemy, as stated in our last issue, hav ing lauded his troops from the fleet of transing lauded his troops from the fieet of transports in Broad river, advanced rapidly to wards Grahamville. His force consisted of about 5,000 infantry (chiefly negro troops) and 1,500 artillery (all whites)

Their advance was marked by an energy that indicated their resolve to cut their way to the rail ad at all hezards and with the least possible delay. The Confederate forces. dese at hand, were speedily concentrated to check the advancing column, and, under the command of Major-General Gustus W. smith, of the Georgia State troops, were placed in position and prepared for battle. At eleven o'clock Wednesday morning the enemy's advance, supported by sixteen pieces of artillery, playing on our lines, attacked Gen. Smith at a place called Honey Hill, three miles east of the village of Graham-ville. Our strength, at that time, consisted of fourteen hundred muskets and seven pieces of artiflery. We had some few embrasures for open batteries, and slight entrenchments on the right and left, but our line was necessarily extended; owing to the superiority of the enemy in numbers, and much of it was both light and unprotected. This, however, only emboldened our men to greater deeds, and they fought the battle throughout with an energy and resolution worthy of

The fight lasted until dark, and the enemy made several desperate charges against our line, but it stood firm, and repulsed every attack, finally driving back the enemy's right and centre, but their left stood unmoved at the close of the action. For six hours our men maintained the fight without relief. Late in the day, Gen. Robertson arrived with the 32d Georgia, a battery of artillery and a company of cavalry, in time to render most effective aid. Night came in to close the engagement, which was conducted with vigor on both sides.

The repulse of the enemy was complete. The enemy's losses exceeded five hundred killed and wounded, while, on our side, they were less than one hundred-between ten and fifteen killed, and about eighty wounded Nearly all of our casualties occurred amongst the Georgia State troops, who, by the way, constitut d the built of the force engaged on our side, and acted throughout the fight with conspicuous bravery.

The Latest News from Sherman. From the Constitutionalist of the 4th.

Latest accounts represent that the main body of the enemy is rigorously pu hing through Millen shaping his course for the

The Yankees near Grahamville have made no further demonstrations, but are fortifying under cover of their gunboats. The Charles ton Mercury states that the infantry engaged on the Federal side, in the recent engage-ment, consisted of four regiments of white, and four of colored troops. The slaughter of the assailants was much greater than at first reported. An officer counted two hunared of their dead, and between eleven and twelve hundred wounded left on the field. Well may gallant Georgians and others who took bast in the conflict be proud of their from all reliable sources, Sherman. seems to have halted recently in order to grind corn. As he tends towards the barren counties of the South, it became necessary to make the proper provision. His foraging parties are constantly driven in by our cavalry and com-pelled to hug the main body. His forage is reported to be short.

On vesterday morning, Waynesboro was approached by a small force of mounted infantry or cavalry. The telegraph operator at that place took wais bed and-walked in Hardee, at last reports, was trying to worry the enemy at Grahamville into another fight.

Gov. Brown and his Officers of State have made Macon, for the present, the seat of Government. The Governor's Headquarters are at the City Hall.

The Situation in Georgia.

From our Augusta exchanges of late dates we gather the following intelligence from

The two wings of Sherman's army united at Milledgeville where they staid three days. In their route they destroyed as far as posshe all mills, cribs, and gin houses, cotton serews, and gins, cotton, implements, etc., and carried off all stock, provisions and ne-

When their horses gave out they shot them.
At Eatanton they killed over one hundred.
At Milledgeville they only destroyed the Arsenal, Depot and Penitentiary. They did not burn the Factory near that place. Along their route the road was strewn with ead negro women and children.

At Monticello, the Federals hung a man by the pame of Smith, but life was not extinct when he was cut down. The farmers having devoted a large share of their attention this fall to syrup making, there is a large quantity of corn yet ungathered in the field, which was left by the federals. But there is not a horse or ox in the country, hence the saving of the corn will be a difficult matter.

THE THE SPIRIT .- We learn that in response to the appeal made by the military authorities to the people of Augusta and the vicinity Mrs. C. E. Hammond, of Beach Island, sent to Gen. Fry thirty-one negroes, eight mules, three horses and two wagons to be used in construction of the defences. Had there been more of such patriotic spirit Sherman would never have penetrated so far into

- GEN. ROBERTSON.—This glorious cavalry officer, wounded near Waynesboro', is now in our city. When shot, he was fifty yards in advance of his men. He had killed six Yankees with his revolver and sahered four others. Aftempting to shave another still, he was fired upon and hit, in passing. Brave for the young Texan and a quick recovery ! A FAITHFUL NECRO.—During their visit to Warren county, the Federals halted a carriage on the road and attempted to force the negro driver to shoot his master. Presenting a musket at his head they told him they would blow his brains out unless he killed his owner. Sambo with his eyes as big as saucers stattered out " can't do it, massa. L F Paised taking out the horses, cutting up the harness, and some homespun, took their departure, leaving the carriage in the road.

FROM NEWTON COUNTY, GA .- A gentleman from Newton County states that several of the large plantations in that section were completely destroyed by the Federals, swept clean of every thing, and all the houses thereon burned—except those occupied by negroes.
Emory College, Oxford was also destroyed, and all the buildings connected with same, together with their contents. This college was the property of the Methodist church one belonging to the college socities, besides the the property burned. Also a large and ex-tensive Mineralogical cabinet, fine chemical apparatus, &c.

As the Federals approached the town they were fired upon and one of their party killed. The college was burned in retaliation.

It is estimated that the property cost near ly half a million before the war. It is said that during one of the skirmishes between Wheeler and Kilpatrick, that the latter was so hard pressed that he lost his hat and escaped only because he had a fleeter horse than his pusruer. The Yankee General certainly had a narrow escape.

REPAIRS.-The Central Railroad Company have gone to work in carnest, with a large force, to repair their road, which is now in running order from Macon nearly to Gordon.

We learn that is the purpose of the com pany to go to work immediately and fepair the West Point Railroad, which it is thought can be completed in one month's time. The Etowah Iron Works will also be re-estabished at once.

Negro troops are now stationed at all the principal towns between Louisville and Henderson.

- The Situation.

The main body of Sherman's army is reported by the Augusta papers to be in the neighborhood of Millen-making way steadily to the coast. Large bodies of veteran troops have already been concentrated in Georgia and South Carolina, and our Generals, Beauregard, Bragg, Smith, Hardee, Taylor, linve made wise arrangements for the overthrow and destruction of Sherman. The day is near at hand when Sherman and his master, Lincoln, will wish they had not so far conquered their way into the heart of "rebel" Georgia. "There is life in the old land yet;" and deeds will soon be enacted to make the croakers and reconstructionists acknowledge that we are still very far from being whipped.

Reliable news has reached us this (Tuesday) morning that a body of Yankees, an off-shoot of the main army, was seriously worsted at Waynesboro on Sunday. All excitement and apprehension had subsided in Augusta.

In the late fight at Grahamville, on the Charleston & Savannah Railroad, Gen. G. W. Smith of the Georgia Militie, took the starch out of Foster and Dahlgreen in the most summary manner. A'gentleman writing us from Gfahamville since the fight, says the enemy lost from five to six hundred; our loss was six killed and about fifty wounded

The Governor's Message.

We publish, to-day, in full, Governor BONDAM'S Message to the Legislature lately convened in Columbia. The document is characterized by that carnest patriotism which to eminently distinguishes our honored Executive. It is impossible to know him without being impressed by the sincere and truthful character of the man. His truthfulness and sincerity are the real secrets of his great popularity. This message will rank with the wisest and most patriotic State papers which have appeared since the opening of the war. In it Gov. BONHAM appears as a bold and marked defender of State-rights. Some papers are criticising him-not severely however-for his fearless warnings to the Legislature against the aggressions of the Confederate Government, In doing this, he has only done his bounder duty -and in a manner at the same time bold, gentle, and upright. If there is a recommendation in this message not wise and well considered, we have failed to discover it. The rights of the State, the privileges of the people, the departments involving the financial prosperity of the commonwealth, the welfare of the Confederacy, the furtherance of our great cause, have all found in our present Executive a vigilant, faithful, and efficient protector.

Exodus of Horses.

On Thursday last, there was a grand exedus of horses from our town. On the day before, there was a general and indiscriminate impressment. All the handsomest and mest valuable borses of Edgefield and its vicinity are by this time (or ought & be) in hot pursuit of SHERMAN and Kilpatrick-bestridden by the dashing dragoons of Wheelek and Young.

Public Documents. We return many kind thanks to our courteous and popular Representative in Congress, Hon. W. D. SIMPSON, for valuable public documents.

FEDERAL PRISONERS .- Two hundred Yankee prisoners, captured from Sherman's army, were brought to this city from Augusta yesterday morning. Among them were six or eight officers. Quarters were assigned them.

We copy the above paragraph from the Colum bis Guardian, and must be excused for remarking that in all probability, some fifty head of these same beasts will be in Edgefield Jail before another week passes by; or at all events, prowling about the District. On Wednesday last, a squad of sixteen, after a four days sweet-potato carnival in our jail, departed from among us, to enter again into their house of bondage in Columbia-which by the by seems to be to them anything but a house of bondage. On the following Saturday another squad, six in number, departed in like manner. The rest and peace of our Ehrolling Officer and his Supporting Forceto say nothing of our Jailor, and our people at largo-are in "jeopardy every hour" from the wenderings to and fro of these wretched and unfriendly vagrants. Police and Patrol. "On Monday, the 5th inst., our citizens hold a meeting with a view of establishing some permanent and efficient system of Police and Patrol. On account of due notice not having been given of this meeting, it was somewhat slimly altended, and was adjourned until Saturday the 10th inst. On Saturday then another moeting for this all-important purpose will be held in the Court House at 12 o'clock, M. A'l citizens of the Town, and those residing within a radius of seven or eight miles, are very urgently requested to be present on the occasion. The importance of this matter cannot be over estimated. We live in troublous times, and it behooves every man to be wary and watchful. The safety, ho rand welfare of our women and children depend not only upon the seldiers at the front, but upon the men at home. The duties of the rear an quite as important as those of the front. The legislation of the past week has n the accomplishment of no important bisiness. The military bill, authorizing the Governors when in his judgment he deemed it necessary, to call out the people en massee from 16 to 60, was still under consideration on Friday laste but had been somewhat amended since coming from the Committee. As soon as final action is taken on this important measure we will publish it in fall.

From Vitginia.

Petersburg, December 2.-Yesterday about noon, the enemy having made a long detour on our right with infantry, artillery and cavalry, attacked and captured the garrison at Stoney Creek, at present the Northern terminus of the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad, twenty miles below here, consisting of about 700 men. They burnt the derot, conthining some Government and private stores, and also the railroad bridge at that point. Our forces were quickly in pursuit, but the enemy soon retired, after a slight skirmish with our forces, in which we captured some prisoners and inflicted upon them some loss n killed and wounded.

This morning, Gen. Gracie was killed by a shell, while inspecting his lines. The same shell killed a captain and private. Gen. Lee did not demand Roger A. Pryor's release. Gen. Wilcox, in front of whose lines gard to his capture to Gen. Grant, and asked his release. Grant referred the application to Meade, who refused it. Pryor was cap-tured violating the order of both armies, and as retaliation for Burbridge's capture by us, and could not be released.

Gen. Rosser at Work on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

MARKET, December 1 .- Gen. Rosser captured New Creek and Piedmont Stations, on the Bultimore and Ohio Railroad, with eight hundred prisoners, eight pieces of artillery, two hundred wagons and ambulances, a number of horses and mules, eight hundred small arms, and moving stock of all kinds.

NEW MARKET, December 2.—Gen. Rosser's captures arrived here to-day-fifteen hundred horses, fifteen hundred head of cattle, eight stands of colors, besides other plunder. The Fifth and Sixth Virginia Yankee cavalry and their colors were captured by the Fifth and Sixth Virginia cavalry, of Rosser's brigade.

Lieut. Baylor, of the 12th cavalry, captured Charlestown, on Tucsday night with thirteen prisoners, and thirty-six fine horses.

From East Tennessee.

Great results are anticipated from the present movements of Gen. Breckinridge. Having driven the enemy beyond Strawberry Plains, on the 9th inst., he has since been improving his time in planning a campaign, which, it is no longer contraband to state, will soon make the historic ground of Kentucky ring once more with the shouls of our gallant men under the leadership of her chivalrous son. Bent upon redeeming that down-trodden State, he will strike a telling blow ere the winter's snows whiten her broad rich fields. On the 18th inst., Gen. Breckinridge visited Abingdon, and after inspecting the positions of the troops in that section returned to the front, and ere this has com-meneed his march. By what route he will overcome, flank or evade the blustering Burbridge, remains for that very great general to find out. Already the latter may have felt the flashing steel of his -victorious foe; if he has not the blow is, nevertheless, inevi-table, for Breckinridge is master of the situation there, and strike when or where he will, it will be to conquer.-Richmond Enquirer, 29th.

COLUMBIA, TENN .- According to Northern apers, Hood at last accounts was massing his forces at Columbia, Tenn. This town is the capital of Maury Co., and is situated on the south side of Duck river, about forty-two miles sout' west of . Nashville. Before the war it was a place of considerable importance and contained about three thousand inhabi tants. Jackson college, an institution foun-ded in 1830, is located at this point.

A correspondent of the Constitutionalist, says : "While in Milledgeville, Sherman made his headquarters in the Executive mansion. Our informent saw, and was catechised by Gens. Jeff. CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER.-The chooner Bertha, Captain Tenbrook, from Nassau, was taken by a Yankee vessel sent out from Fort Pulaski Saturday morning. It appears that she succeeded in passing the blockading squadron and Fort Pulaski safely Friday night, but hove in sight of vessels for the exchange of prisoners lying at Venus' Point, three miles above Fort Pulaski, when the Captain, in the darkness of the night, taking them, for Yankee men of-war, and supposing that Savannah had fallen, left his vessel at anchor, and taking a boat, rowed into the marsh. His vessel remained at ancher where he had left it, unmolested, until Saturday morning when she was discovered by the garrison at Fort Pulaski and a vessel ent out to tow her down.

There is no truth in the report which was current on the streets yesterday, that Colo-nel Mulford, on discovering the vessel Saturday morning sent out a transport and had her towed down to Fort Pulaski.—Savannah Republican.

The New York Herald says Sherman will meet at Augusta the Governors of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and North and South Carolina, and will confer with these gentleman there in relation to the terms upon which those States can repudiate their soveral ordinances of secession, and be once more peaceful members of the great family of States.
