From the Coast. [From Charleston Mercury, Saturday.]

In the present state of affairs, it is by no means an easy matter to obtain any trustworthy news from Savannah.

[From Charleston Courier, Saturday.]

At Savannah remained quiet at last accounts, and a better feeling prevailed.

The number of prisoners captured at Fort McAllister is reported to have been seven hundred.

All was quiet along the line of railroad Friday.

For McAllister was carried by assault at three o'clock on Tuesday morning, 13th inst.

The capture of Fort McAllister, at the mouth of the Ogeechee, will enable the enemy to cooperate with his fleet in any attack on the city.

Official Despatch from Gen. Hood. Richmond, December 15.—The following was received to day:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF TENNESSEE, six miles from Nashville, December 8, 4 p.m.

On the 30th, we attacked the enemy at Franklin, drove them from their center lines and temporary works into their inner lines.

Letter from Columbia. We publish to day an interesting letter—treating of Legislative matters—from our much respected friend, Dr. W. D. JENNINGS.

Somewhat Later. Mr. M. A. RANSON of Hamburg, whom we shall always be more than happy to see, has stepped into our office and handed us an Augusta paper of Monday evening, from which we make many extracts.

Thanks. Our kindest thanks are due our obliging friend and Representative, Capt. HENRY W. ADAMS, for a batch of valuable and interesting public documents.

A Man who Remembers the Po... W. F. DURISOE, Esq., requests us to acknowledge for him the receipt of One Hundred Dollars from Mr. M. A. RANSON of Hamburg.

Note particularly the Graniteville Company berthing advertisement.

The tributes of respect to the memory of the intrepid Lieut. Jos. Buzzard, and of his gallant brother Abner Buzzard, will appear in our next issue.

Blighted Buds. The beautiful and touching verses, entitled as above, will find place in our columns next week.

Gov. Magrath and Ex-Gov. Bonham. Our new Governor is the Hon. ALEXANDER GORDON MAGRATH of Charleston.

Happy Circumstance. On Sunday afternoon last, while every man in town was stationed in the Park, waiting for the arrival of newspapers from Augusta.

Congressional. Richmond, Dec. 16.—In the House Mr. Turner offered a resolution requesting the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint thirteen Commissioners of each State to tender to the Government of the United States a conference for negotiating an honorable peace.

Gen. Gist. South Carolina again opens her bosom, and takes in his final rest another heroic son—another gallant soldier who has perished in the summer of life and in the bloom of his manhood.

The Fall of Cleburne. Major General PATRICK CLEBURNE was killed in the great battle of Franklin—or Harpers Creek—in Tennessee, at the close of the past month.

Richmond Dec. 18. Nothing of interest in the Senate in open session.

In the House, Mr. Turner's resolutions and Parksdale's substitute were taken up.

Mr. McMillen offered a substitute declaring that while it is not expedient nor compatible with the dignity of the Confederate States to send commissioners to Washington to secure a cessation of hostilities, yet it would be eminently proper that the House of Representatives should dispatch without delay to some convenient point a body of commissioners to confer with such individuals as may be appointed by the Government of the United States—possible, upon terms of a lasting and honorable peace subject to the ratification of the respective governments and sovereign states respectively represented.

Mr. McMillen addressed the House in explanation of his views. Before concluding the morning hour expired and the House resumed the consideration of the currency bill.

Mr. Poote occupied the floor until adjournment.

Another Fire in Hamburg.—About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Usher's cotton house, Hamburg, was discovered to be on fire.

The flames were put out without much damage—only some four or five bales being burned.

The men were about coming from the building just before the fire was discovered.

They were followed, but succeeded in making their escape, after quite a chase. Some hands were then procured and put on their trial. The result we have not yet learned.

This is the second time this building has been set on fire.—Chronicle, 17th.

INSURANCE BY THE YANKEE OFFICERS at DANVILLE.—Last Sunday morning the Yankee officers in the prison at Danville, Va., made an attempt to cover the guard.

They were fired on, and Colonel Rossier, of New York, was instantly killed and others wounded. This frightened the rest, and the attempt was given up. The struggle lasted but a few minutes, and all was soon quiet.

The Grand Bazaar in Columbia. Are our ladies sending anything—or going to send anything—to the forthcoming Bazaar in Columbia? This enterprise is in behalf of Wayside Homes and Hospitals—and also of Confederate Prisoners. The cause is high and holy.

The Bazaar if it is thought will take place in the course of the coming month. The Ladies of the Committee urgently solicit contributions of all useful and ornamental articles—anything that can be used in Wayside Homes and Hospitals, or that can be sold at a place of such miscellaneous collections as a Bazaar. Anything from a thousand and upwards of eorn to a quantity of pins or a full suit of Confederate gray to a plausation or a doll frock.

The News. It is currently reported, and believed, in Augusta, Mason, Montgomery, &c. that Gen. Hood has stormed and taken Nashville.

Correspondence of the Advertiser. COLUMBIA, Dec. 16th, 1864. Mr. Editor:—Thinking you would like to hear something of what the Legislature is, and has been doing, I take occasion to send you a few lines; especially as I know you will gather nothing from the Columbia newspapers.

The two most important laws passed up to this time, are the Military and Soldiers' Relief Acts. The Military Act, as you have doubtless read and published, as you have doubtless seen, places every able-bodied white male citizen, between sixteen and sixty years of age, in the service, at the call of the Governor.

The Soldiers' Relief Act increases the Tax in mind on Corn, Rice, Wheat and Sorghum from two to three per cent, and reduces the tax on manufactured goods from five to three per cent.

WILLIE KERNAGHAN died in Hamburg, S. C., on the 22d of October, 1864, aged 2 years, 6 months and 18 days.

Three gems of purest ray now sparkle in the crown of Jesus. A woman of three of each's fairest buds is blighted by the hand of death.

The Bill to extend Cotton culture from one acre to three, has been defeated in both Houses; also the Bill to alter the Distillation Laws. Both measures were defeated by large majorities.

The Bill regulating Coast Laws is still under consideration, and there is such a diversity of opinion in reference to the details of the matter, that it is hard to predict what course will be adopted.

There is likewise an important Bill pending, which has already passed two readings in the Senate, and is favorably regarded in the House, regulating charges for freight upon Rail Roads.

This is a curious sketch of the most important measures of legislation likely to engage our attention at this Session.

After a most exciting contest, the election for Governor is over. It resulted, on the sixth ballot, in the choice of the Hon. A. G. MAGRATH.

Our friend, G. D. TELMAN, is here at his post, fresh from the army; he made a most telling speech in favor of the Military Bill, which brought down the applause of both the House and the gallery.

Our entire Delegation are punctured in their seats, prompt in the discharge of their duties, and positive in their votes. Our Senator is always at his post, acting well his part for the benefit of his constituents; his general health has improved very much.

Our gallant fellow-citizen, Gen. M. W. GARY, who is now on furlough, stopped with us in our temporary manse, for a few days, during his sojourn in Columbia.

It is uncertain when the Legislature will adjourn, but I think about the 22d inst.

I have written very hastily and very carelessly; but if you think proper, you can publish these random notes. Our eight sessions commences this evening.

A prominent gentleman arrived at Bristol, Tenn., on the 9th inst., and states that Brownlow admits in his paper—having read the article—that Gen. Hood had whipped Thomas badly, and that Sherman is in a terrible strait.

MARRIED, on Thursday evening, the 15th inst., at the residence of the bride's mother, by A. Jones, Esq., Mr. LAURENS N. BLAND, of Co. A, 7th S. C. Regiment, and Miss FANNY ANN McDANIEL, all of Edgefield District.

MARRIED, at Darfield, S. C., on the evening of the 15th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, Mr. JAS. R. RANDALL and Miss KAME S. HAMMOND, eldest daughter of Gen. M. C. M. HAMMOND.

MARRIED, on the 8th inst., at Trinity Church, Columbia, by Rev. P. J. Shand, Col. JOHN M. MARTIN, 9th Florida Regiment, and Miss SALLIE B. daughter of Dr. EDGAR WILSON, of Florida.

DIED, at his Uncle's residence, in this District, on the 16th of November, JAMES H. MURPHY, in the fifteen year of his age.
