From Richmond.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 23d has the following items of intelligence:

We learned, officially, at a late hour last night that General Joseph E. Johnston was yesterday ordered by the Government to report to General Lee for duty.

There was some heavy firing on the Richmond lines yesterday at sunrise and at meridian, supposed to be an expenditure of Yankee ammunition in the way of "salutes," in joint compliment to George Washington.

The War Department has official intelligence of a successful affair of some of Mosby's men. On the 18th instant Major Richards, with thirty-eight men, attacked a party of the enemy, one hundred and twenty strong.

Admiral Buchanan, captured at Mobile, has been returned to Richmond. The flag-of-truce boat goes down again Friday.

Highly Important for the North.

A New York telegram says French papers confirm the report that the steam ram Olinda, recently off the coast of France is a Confederate cruiser.

Northern papers of the 27th received. Gen. Gilmore sends an official dispatch to Gen. Halleck, dated Charleston, 18th, announcing the capture of that city.

The capture of Fort Anderson, N. C. is also announced. The Tribune's Washington special correspondent says it is estimated the capture of Charleston, Fort Anderson, with the certain capture of Mobile, will liberate twenty-five thousand men from the navy who can be put in the army.

The British Parliament was opened by the Queen's speech says Her Majesty remains steadfastly neutral between the contending parties in America, and would rejoice at friendly reconciliation.

Cincinnati dispatches of the 2d say that the Kentucky House of Representatives rejected the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution by twenty four majority.

The New York Chamber of Commerce unanimously passed resolutions asking the Government to send General Anderson in a national ship to hoist over Fort Sumter the flag lowered in 1861.

Washington telegrams say advices from France show the reported cessation of Sonora, is without foundation, and indicate relations between France and the United States not likely to undergo disturbance.

The New Orleans Times of the 21st says it was rumored in Matamoros on the 10th that a U. S. Consul had been expelled from that city, and that no more clearances would be given for U. S. vessels from that city by Imperial authority.

A Cairo despatch to the Cincinnati Commercial says the steamer Mercury, Goswick and Dove were attacked by guerrillas on the thirteenth, near Helena. The latter was captured, with one regiment on board, Col. Dean, commanding the regiment, was killed.

A Washington special to the Philadelphia Press 23d, reports that Lee had attacked Grant, and defeated him.

From Petersburg.—The Express of the 22nd ult., says that the enemy have kept up for the past two days and nights, a most terrible uproar of horn blowing and drum beating.

A deserter of far more than ordinary intelligence, and seeming respectability, who came into our lines Tuesday night, stated that Grant had sent to City Point since the Saturday night previous from the left, not less than eight thousand men.

The New Orleans Bee denies the report that Gen. Canl had given notice of his intentions to retortiate on Mexican officers for Texas refugees returned to Confederate authorities.

A GENERAL EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS EXPECTED.—The most welcome news we get from the Northern papers is the announcement that a general exchange of prisoners has been effected between the two governments.

THE ADVERTISER.

JAMES T. BACON, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 8, 1865.

Second Session.

On Monday last, began the second session of our flourishing and well-conducted Female College. See the advertisement of the Rev. Mr. Sams.

Worthy of Christians and Gentlemen.—The liberal hearted devoted liberal "tings," The Graniteville Manufacturing Company has contributed $20,000 to the relief of the sufferers in Columbia.

Relief for Columbia.—Col. R. G. M. DENOVANT has been designated by His Excellency, the Governor, as agent for soliciting, collecting and forwarding supplies of provisions, clothing, bedding &c.

North Carolina and Richmond Papers.—Our kindest thanks are due Sergt. Major W. DELPER for the Charlotte Bulletin, of the 23d Feb.

Take ye heed for Raiment.—Every man ought to plant as much cotton as he is allowed to—or a considerable patch, at all events.

The Yankees in Fairfield.—The further the Yankees proceed in South Carolina, the more foolish and demoralized they become.

We miss them Sadly.—The number of our exchanges is becoming small by degrees, and sadly less.

Gen. Lee's Amnesty Proclamation.—This proclamation will be found in our columns to-day.

A Very Fair Opportunity.—Capt. AUGUSTUS TOMPKINS, of Co. B, Hampton Legion, has been authorized by the Enrolling Officer of Edgefield District.

Mobile Threatened.—Mobile is strongly menaced. Gen. Murray has issued a circular, advising the people to prepare for its defence.

Must Reward.—A vast and handsome reward will be paid at this office for any where else for the "ways of pleasantness" and the "paths of peace," which strayed (or rather, were stolen) from the Southern Confederacy some four years ago.

Beaten officers from Yankee prison in Savannah report the Yankees very anxious, and apprehensive of interference by France and other powers on the 4th of March.

The Spirit of the Enemy.

This is a war of extermination. The numberless and unnumbered atrocities of SHERMANN on his march through our State, perpetrated by him and his subalterns with remorseless cruelty and barbarity, were not wanting to convince us that the object of our enemy is to exterminate the inhabitants of the Confederate States, and to settle up the country with Yankees and negroes.

Abolition and Andy Johnson.—Saturday last was the 4th of March—a great day we imagine in Yankeeedom.

Constitutionalist.

The spirit of the women of South Carolina seemed to astonish the Yankees. They could not comprehend the calm, heroic endurance of those high-born ladies; and they frequently remarked that under all the outrage and insult and injury heaped upon them, they had seen no South Carolina woman in tears for the loss of property, or shaming out job or tit-bit of the determination to stand by the cause of Liberty.
