For the Advertiser.

Lines written on the death of Miss Fannie Teague, and most respectfully dedicated to her Grandmother.

BY RUTH.

Fare thee well, loved one, departed,—
We shall no more meet thee here;
Our bright home seems now deserted,
And our hearth-stone lone and drear;
Thou'rt transplanted to another,—
O how drear that home has grown
To thy worshipped more than mother,
Since her nestling dove has flown.

Thou wert lovely in thy seeming,
Peerless in thy loveliness,
With an eye all brightly beaming
And a voice to cheer and bless.
Rest thee, Fannie, peerless maiden,—
Light the turf lays on thy breast,
In the quiet dim star aiden,
Where they've laid thee down to rest.

Not for thee, but those remaining,
Would I shed the bitter tear;
They are losing—thou art gaining
All the bliss denied us here.
Farewell, darling, till we meet thee
On the Jordan's farther shore,
There with Angels we shall greet thee,
Never to be parted more.

HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, on the 5th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. A. P. Norris, Mr. B. A. MIMS, of this place, to Miss REGINA M., daughter of Mr. ELDRED MOBLEY, of this District.

☞ Two more bright and amiable beings who have launched their bark on the—what shall we say?—uncertain stream of matrimony. It will not be uncertain for them however; they deserve to be, and undoubtedly will be, very happy. To our gentle pupil of former days, the fair bride, we return our kindest thanks for the liberal basket of rich and beautifully ornamented cake; and to both these young friends, we wish many returns of the happy season. May enjoyment tell their hours, and pleasure number their days.

MARRIED, on the evening of the 12th ult., by Rev. Dr. Manly, Dr. T. W. CHILES, of Abbeville to Miss BETTIE D., eldest daughter of Dr. THOMAS LAKE, of this District.

OBITUARY.

DIED, at the residence of her father, in the town of Edgefield, on the 22d, September, 1864, in the eleventh year of her age, of an affection of the throat, EMMIE JULIA, youngest daughter of Dr. M. W. and Mrs. C. S. ABNEY.

Little EMMIE was a most dutiful and affectionate child, and the solace and idol of her parents. She had passed through some of the severest afflictions of this life, having suffered, in their most malignant forms, from almost all the contagious diseases that prevail amongst children. During her last illness, she spoke frequently of Heaven, and thought it not far off; and in the last twenty-four hours of her existence, she called on Jesus, and asked her mother "if she could see him," and, "if she called him, would he come." Two hours before her death, she told her Father that "she wanted to see Jesus." She was evidently then losing hold on Mother, Father, Brothers, and Sisters, and reaching forward to her only hope, Jesus.

"Angels up in Heaven missed her,
So they came and took her home—
Took her where the wondrous glory
Fills her happy soul with love,
Where her heart can feel no sorrow,
In her blessed home above."

SALUDA
Old Town Plantation.

THE subscriber, wishing to confine his attention to another Plantation in a different District, desires to rent, for next year, or lease for a term of years, the above place. Five miles below Chappel's Depot, on the Edgefield side of Saluda River.

It contains about 900 Acres, of which 400 are cleared upland, and 220 acres very superior and safe creek and river bottoms. Before the war, with twenty full hands, the usual crop of the place was five bales to the hand, and corn and bacon to sell.

To an approved tenant, the terms will be made advantageous. The rent will be either a fixed sum, or a proportion of the crop; and the necessary corn, bacon, &c., for next year's consumption may be had on the place. The use of stock (or its purchase) may also be arranged for.
