

The Advertiser is published regularly every Wednesday morning, at THREE DOLLARS per annum...

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of ONE DOLLAR and FIFTY CENTS per square...

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

The following article from the New York Herald will be read with interest at this time:

In the peculiar facts and circumstances of the late and sudden death of Napoleon, it is not difficult to see...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

That the Emperor of Austria, in welcoming the Emperor, tells him that fifty years ago, the Emperor Napoleon I. was received in this town with such proofs of devotion...

Death of Gen. Scott.

WEST POINT, May 29.—Lieut. Gen. Scott died at 11, this morning. He was one of our Saturday afternoon, and he showed no signs of early disease...

WASHINGTON, May 29, 1866. The President, with profound sorrow, announces to the people of the United States the death of Winfield Scott, late Lieutenant-General of the Army.

On the day which may be appointed for the funeral, the several Executive Departments of the Government will be closed. The heads of the War and Navy Departments respectively give orders for the payment of appropriate honors to the memory of the deceased.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON. WEST POINT, June 2. The funeral of Gen. Scott was a most impressive and touching scene...

They Don't Represent the State. The position taken by the Charleston Board of Trade, in relation to the Bankrupt Law...

A Very Sad Occurrence. We deeply regret to have to announce that Dr. JOHN G. WILLIAMS, one of the most respected citizens of our District, came to his death on Monday afternoon last...

Death of Still Another old Citizen. The Rev. HENRY C. HENNING, known and respected among us for so many long years, departed this life a few days back, at his residence near Mount Willing.

A Visitor from an Honored Home. Mr. WOODRUFF, a pleasant gentleman connected with the Charleston Courier, dropped upon us on Monday last, and told us of an interesting thing about the Courier, and about Charleston, and about our much-esteemed friend Maj. MERRILL.

Court of Equity. This Court is now sitting in Edgfield; its first session here for a number of years. The necessarily large amount of business on hand will probably cause the term to be extended through the entire week.

The Atlantic Yankee. This is the name of a famous Yankee monthly Magazine, published in Boston, by the famous Ticknor and Fields. It is devoted to "Literature, Science, Art, and Politics."

"Pass the Rosy." Who doesn't remember the inimitable Dick Swiveller in Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop," and how, as he and his companion drank their whiskey out of pewter mugs, sitting at a dirty pine table, Dick, in the grandiloquence of his ideas, would imagine the whiskey "rosy" wine, and the mugs, cut glass goblets?

The Report of the Brazil Commissioners. The admirably written and very engrossing Report of Messrs. MERRITT and SHAW, of our District, upon the soil, climate and advantages of Brazil, has attracted almost universal attention throughout Georgia and South Carolina.

The Sumter News. This is the title of a new weekly paper which has just appeared at Sumter. It is devoted to "Literature, Morality, and General Intelligence."

The Trial of Mr. Davis to be Postponed Until November. It is no longer a secret that James T. Brady, of New York, is engaged as counsel for Mr. Davis. He arrived in the city yesterday in the interest of his client, and to day had an interview with Mrs. Davis at the residence of Dr. Miller, where she is now stopping.

Don't Forget the Soldier Boy. We mean the crippled soldier boy who strives to make an honest living by Hair-Cutting, Shaving, and Shampooing.

Sustain the National Intelligencer. The paragraph below contains good advice. White the Radicals take care of the "Dead Duck," let us of the South do all we can to take care of the decent dignified, and friendly National Intelligencer.

A White Man Equal to Two Dogs! We most our old friend Major Geo. ANDERSON at the morning reception of Capt. Deas, Barron, Tax Collector. We pay two dollars apiece upon our own heads, and one dollar upon the heads of our respective dogs.

The Homestead Law in Mississippi. The H-homestead Law of Mississippi as adopted by the State Convention of that State, exempts from levy and execution, the homestead, with two hundred and forty acres of land attached, 50 head of hogs, 20 head cows, 20 sheep, wagon and team; a certain quantity of furniture, &c.

Be Sure That Your Letters are Prepaid. For the convenience of our readers, many of whom are unacquainted with the present Postal Rates, we extract and prepare the following from the existing regulations, as published in the "United States Mail."

Every line of the above is strongly corroborative of the reports concerning the Freedmen's Bureau now being made to the President by Gen. Steedman and Fullerton.

Our schools are doing well, as are also our night-schools in charge of Mrs. HALEY, from Mrs. and Miss C. H. Lewis from Hartford, Conn. They are doing all we can to give knowledge.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

Recently some fifteen thousand bushels wheat were shipped from Europe to America.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

The Railroad Meeting.

The Railroad Meeting, of which we gave notice in our last issue, took place on Monday the 4th inst. Owing to the rain, which fell in great violence during the forenoon of that day, the attendance of our citizens was far less numerous than it would otherwise have been; indeed no appropriations were made for the day, and no residents of distant parts of the District were able to reach the Court House.

Mr. Harrison, late private secretary to Mr. Davis, is among the arrivals at Willard's.

THE ADVERTISER.

JAMES T. BACON, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1866.

Conclusion.

This week we publish the concluding portions of the able and interesting Report of the Alien Commission, upon the resources of the proposed new District of Columbia.

Major Coleman. His numerous friends throughout the District will be glad to learn that Major WILSON COLEMAN has been unconditionally released from the arrest under which he has been held for three months past by the United States Military Authorities of South Carolina.

Four of our fellow citizens are still in jail in Charleston—Messrs. Latham, Lowry, Powell and Patrick Coleman.

A Very Sad Occurrence. We deeply regret to have to announce that Dr. JOHN G. WILLIAMS, one of the most respected citizens of our District, came to his death on Monday afternoon last, at his residence near Mount Willing.

Death of Still Another old Citizen. The Rev. HENRY C. HENNING, known and respected among us for so many long years, departed this life a few days back, at his residence near Mount Willing.

A Visitor from an Honored Home. Mr. WOODRUFF, a pleasant gentleman connected with the Charleston Courier, dropped upon us on Monday last, and told us of an interesting thing about the Courier, and about Charleston, and about our much-esteemed friend Maj. MERRILL.

Court of Equity. This Court is now sitting in Edgfield; its first session here for a number of years. The necessarily large amount of business on hand will probably cause the term to be extended through the entire week.

The Atlantic Yankee. This is the name of a famous Yankee monthly Magazine, published in Boston, by the famous Ticknor and Fields. It is devoted to "Literature, Science, Art, and Politics."

"Pass the Rosy." Who doesn't remember the inimitable Dick Swiveller in Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop," and how, as he and his companion drank their whiskey out of pewter mugs, sitting at a dirty pine table, Dick, in the grandiloquence of his ideas, would imagine the whiskey "rosy" wine, and the mugs, cut glass goblets?

The Report of the Brazil Commissioners. The admirably written and very engrossing Report of Messrs. MERRITT and SHAW, of our District, upon the soil, climate and advantages of Brazil, has attracted almost universal attention throughout Georgia and South Carolina.

The Sumter News. This is the title of a new weekly paper which has just appeared at Sumter. It is devoted to "Literature, Morality, and General Intelligence."

The Trial of Mr. Davis to be Postponed Until November. It is no longer a secret that James T. Brady, of New York, is engaged as counsel for Mr. Davis. He arrived in the city yesterday in the interest of his client, and to day had an interview with Mrs. Davis at the residence of Dr. Miller, where she is now stopping.

Don't Forget the Soldier Boy. We mean the crippled soldier boy who strives to make an honest living by Hair-Cutting, Shaving, and Shampooing.

Sustain the National Intelligencer. The paragraph below contains good advice. White the Radicals take care of the "Dead Duck," let us of the South do all we can to take care of the decent dignified, and friendly National Intelligencer.

A White Man Equal to Two Dogs! We most our old friend Major Geo. ANDERSON at the morning reception of Capt. Deas, Barron, Tax Collector. We pay two dollars apiece upon our own heads, and one dollar upon the heads of our respective dogs.

The Homestead Law in Mississippi. The H-homestead Law of Mississippi as adopted by the State Convention of that State, exempts from levy and execution, the homestead, with two hundred and forty acres of land attached, 50 head of hogs, 20 head cows, 20 sheep, wagon and team; a certain quantity of furniture, &c.

Be Sure That Your Letters are Prepaid. For the convenience of our readers, many of whom are unacquainted with the present Postal Rates, we extract and prepare the following from the existing regulations, as published in the "United States Mail."

Every line of the above is strongly corroborative of the reports concerning the Freedmen's Bureau now being made to the President by Gen. Steedman and Fullerton.

Our schools are doing well, as are also our night-schools in charge of Mrs. HALEY, from Mrs. and Miss C. H. Lewis from Hartford, Conn. They are doing all we can to give knowledge.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

On the 19th ultimo there was another bloody riot of the blacks at Quincy, Florida. A negro was arrested for some offense, and committed to jail. A large number of blacks assembled and attempted to rescue him, whereupon a fight ensued between the party and the town officers, in which the marshal was killed, and several citizens wounded.

On the 2nd, says the levee at Alexandria has given way, and the town is flooded. The entire Red River country is devastated.

The bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties, gives every soldier, without distinction of color, eight and one-third dollars per month, deducting bounties already paid, and excluding altogether deserters and those who have held or borne arms in any person their claim.

Visit of Gen. Steedman and Fullerton.

These two gentlemen, who are now attracting so large a share of public attention, arrived in our village on Friday afternoon last, and stopped at Mr. RYAN'S Hotel. Their journey in Edgfield was short. They departed, to Augusta whence they came, early on the following morning. Gen. STEEDMAN & FULLERTON, as is universally known by this time, are sent out by President JOHNSON to investigate the character, the workings, the administration, the practical effect, of the Freedmen's Bureau in the South.

Some unknown friend has sent us the South Carolina Leader of Saturday, May 5th; and when we finished reading it, we said to ourselves: Well, here are sights not to be seen in any other show: Free and foremost, Mr. HURLEY achieves a powerful and very dreadful onslaught upon our old friend Dr. FRENCH, who, it seems, is still in the low country of our State, laboring in behalf (so-called) of the freedmen.

Not long ago, the Wentworth Street Baptist Church, Charleston, was sold to the Northern Methodist. It is now a Church for colored people; and Parson French and one Parson Webster are its ministering priests. Here, according to Mr. HURLEY, himself a friend of the freedmen, and editing a paper in their interest, these two "saints" preach and teach the most dangerous, pernicious, infamous, hypocritical and outrageous stuff. Mr. HURLEY seems shocked at their going on, and is holding them up to public reprobation.

On Saturday, April 28th, Mr. HURLEY published in his paper an article under the caption: "Save us from our Friends," which article was aimed, as the editor says, "at the head center of Pharisism," which means, we suppose, Messrs. FRENCH, WEBSTER, and "the mutual admiration society of the Methodist Episcopal Church North, assembled together at Wentworth Street, Charleston," in general.

On Sunday the 29th, Parson French held a sort of "political meeting" at the Church in question; Parson Webster, and perhaps some audience or two head of niggers forming his audience and co-adjutors. Parson French mounted the pulpit, unfurled the offending Leader, and sang its folds to the tainted breeze. Mr. HURLEY describes the scene in a most ludicrous manner, and concludes his description thus:

The pit of the discourse was that, now that Leader had counselled peace and good-will among all classes of the community, and in a way, and in a spirit in an attempt to destroy this paper, by depriving it of a means of support. O you simple-minded people, could you but have perceived the wily fox pulling the wool down over your eyes, and laughing in his sleeve the while! What unshakable blunder could more easily subject you to the taunts of unfeeling self-government than your willingness to be thus led by the nose which, however those presumptuous and self-delegated apostles choose.

After this, follows a second very severe castigation of Parson French and Webster, in the course of which the feathers of those reverend birds are made to fly in every direction. Then Mr. HURLEY, very solemnly, very wisely, and at great length, warns the freedmen against the preachings, teachings and influence of "rampires who feed on the cause." We copy one or two paragraphs.

Our course is straightforward. We stand upon the safe platform of Peace and Reconciliation. We bat not one jot in our advocacy of all just claims of the colored man. As a man, and as well as those of our own color, some with the pale of our Saviour's sacrifice. But to bring about the harmony and good feeling so desirable, we must meet the whites of the South in the proper spirit. Henceforth we shall know no "rebels," henceforth we shall know no "loyalists," in the sectional sense of that term. Opprobrious epithets have been employed long enough by prejudiced fanatics, in which our people are yet to learn what good has come from their course.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

Sights Not to be Seen in Any Other Show.

We dare say our readers have never even heard of the South Carolina Leader. It is a weekly journal, in the interest of the Freedmen, published in Charleston every Saturday. Not owned or edited, however, by freedmen. It is published by T. HURLEY & Co., and edited by THOMAS HURLEY, Esq., who, we suppose, is a Northern man.

Some unknown friend has sent us the South Carolina Leader of Saturday, May 5th; and when we finished reading it, we said to ourselves: Well, here are sights not to be seen in any other show: Free and foremost, Mr. HURLEY achieves a powerful and very dreadful onslaught upon our old friend Dr. FRENCH, who, it seems, is still in the low country of our State, laboring in behalf (so-called) of the freedmen.

Not long ago, the Wentworth Street Baptist Church, Charleston, was sold to the Northern Methodist. It is now a Church for colored people; and Parson French and one Parson Webster are its ministering priests. Here, according to Mr. HURLEY, himself a friend of the freedmen, and editing a paper in their interest, these two "saints" preach and teach the most dangerous, pernicious, infamous, hypocritical and outrageous stuff. Mr. HURLEY seems shocked at their going on, and is holding them up to public reprobation.

On Saturday, April 28th, Mr. HURLEY published in his paper an article under the caption: "Save us from our Friends," which article was aimed, as the editor says, "at the head center of Pharisism," which means, we suppose, Messrs. FRENCH, WEBSTER, and "the mutual admiration society of the Methodist Episcopal Church North, assembled together at Wentworth Street, Charleston," in general.

On Sunday the 29th, Parson French held a sort of "political meeting" at the Church in question; Parson Webster, and perhaps some audience or two head of niggers forming his audience and co-adjutors. Parson French mounted the pulpit, unfurled the offending Leader, and sang its folds to the tainted breeze. Mr. HURLEY describes the scene in a most ludicrous manner, and concludes his description thus:

The pit of the discourse was that, now that Leader had counselled peace and good-will among all classes of the community, and in a way, and in a spirit in an attempt to destroy this paper, by depriving it of a means of support. O you simple-minded people, could you but have perceived the wily fox pulling the wool down over your eyes, and laughing in his sleeve the while! What unshakable blunder could more easily subject you to the taunts of unfeeling self-government than your willingness to be thus led by the nose which, however those presumptuous and self-delegated apostles choose.

After this, follows a second very severe castigation of Parson French and Webster, in the course of which the feathers of those reverend birds are made to fly in every direction. Then Mr. HURLEY, very solemnly, very wisely, and at great length, warns the freedmen against the preachings, teachings and influence of "rampires who feed on the cause." We copy one or two paragraphs.

Our course is straightforward. We stand upon the safe platform of Peace and Reconciliation. We bat not one jot in our advocacy of all just claims of the colored man. As a man, and as well as those of our own color, some with the pale of our Saviour's sacrifice. But to bring about the harmony and good feeling so desirable, we must meet the whites of the South in the proper spirit. Henceforth we shall know no "rebels," henceforth we shall know no "loyalists," in the sectional sense of that term. Opprobrious epithets have been employed long enough by prejudiced fanatics, in which our people are yet to learn what good has come from their course.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one. We believe the opposite course to be the Christian one.

On the contrary, they have tended only to keep alive ill-feelings, and alienate the races more than ever. We believe the opposite