

The Impeachment Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—After half a dozen propositions had been voted down the following was adopted:

"That as many of the managers and counsel for the President as desire to do so be permitted to file arguments or address the Senate orally."

Judge Chase ordered 100 Manuscripts to be prepared by the Chief Magistrate of the principal file in the world was on trial.

The object of these proceedings was not for the punishment of his officers, but for the safety of the State.

The President and House of Representatives are technical and limited, namely, whether the President had violated the Constitution and laws in removing Stanton and appointing Grant.

He then set forth the evils which he said would probably follow an acknowledgment of the President's power to remove officers at pleasure.

He maintained that this power was vested by the people. He argued that the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government are denied all discretionary or implied powers, and that Congress can adapt an administration to the condition of the nation.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law. The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him.

The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality. A public officer can neither plead nor prove good motives for nullifying the law.

The President has violated the law, and the Senate can impeach him. The President must administer the law as he finds it, and can make no inquiry into its constitutionality.

THE ADVERTISER.

JAMES T. BACON, EDITOR. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1868.

Our Club Rates.

We are now furnishing the Advertiser to Clubs at the following very low rates: Two Copies one Year, $5.50.

Advertiser Agents.

The following gentlemen are our authorized Agents, and will receipt for all monies for Subscriptions or Advertisements sent through them:

B. W. HAND, Mine Creek, S. C. M. M. PADGETT, Kirtley's, S. C. C. W. HAYES, Greenville, S. C.

"Deleterious Effects of Tobacco."

This is the subject "Naxo" has selected for an article for our paper, and for which we thank him. We will take pleasure in publishing his communication next week.

Granville Manufacturing Company.

At a meeting of this corporation, held on Thursday last, the following officers were elected: President—H. H. Hickman.

The Impeachment Trial.

The seven Impeachment Managers on one side and the President's lawyers on the other, are still delving and bawling in the great trial. For some time past, all the developments have been in favor of the President; and from present appearances it would seem that this trial ought to result in the conviction of the impeachers instead of the impeached.

And in Louisiana, too, it is really well given up that the Constitution has been ratified and the Radical State Officer elected.

Georgia the latest has been a hot and close one, and so flattering are the reports and dispatches from all quarters of the State, that we still harbor the hope that Gordon and the Democrats will, in the end, prove triumphant.

Clothing! Clothing! Clothing! Ready-Made, and Made-to-Order.

KEXNER & GRAY, of the Central Hotel, Augusta, Ga. KEXNER & GRAY are good advertisers; in fact it seems to us that their usefulness and virtues should, by this time, have become part and parcel of human knowledge.

Mr. William Raney.

Notifies the public, elsewhere in to-day's paper, that he has removed his Shoe Shop from Sullivan's corner to the lower corner of Park Row—where the Post Office is now kept.

New Goods at Mangle's.

That popular young merchant, Mr. MANGLE, announces, in another column, the arrival of a great variety of New and Desirable Goods; and he is, to our certain knowledge, prepared to supply the wants of the community at the most reasonable prices.

Arrest and Imprisonment of the Senator Elected from Edgefield.

The appended paragraphs from the Charleston papers will tell the tale. To be thus dealt with in the midst of his blushing honors was indeed a humiliation for the Senator from Edgefield.

Arrest of a Delegate—Frank Armin, a white delegate to the convention from Edgefield, was arrested for five days—by the United States Marshal from Charleston, last December.

A Word to the Ladies.

And upon a most refined and charming subject. Flowers! We wish to tell you where to get the lowest and levellest in creation; not to get to hold in your hands, but plants to set out in your gardens.

As They Have Done—To You, Do You.

In our traveling columns we will find an advertisement from Paris Sinks, the young bar (colored) who is so well known and well thought of in our town and vicinity.

At the Election in Trinity Church.

Through the courtesy of Captain Louis V. Vestry—Gov. F. W. PICKENS, Judge J. O. BACON, Gen. M. W. GARY, Gen. M. C. BURNETT, Wardens—Jas. T. BACON, Esq., and Thos. W. CARWILE.

Democratic Meeting at Tucker's Pond.

In pursuance of every short notice, a large number of the citizens of the vicinity of Tucker's Pond, Edgefield District, met on Saturday, the 18th of April, 1868.

One of the Greatest Ends to be Reached.

Though the fact has not yet been officially announced, still there is no doubt that the new Radical Constitution for South Carolina has been ratified by an immense majority of votes; and that, for a certain time, we will have to live under it and abide by its laws.

The Riot in Augusta.

From the Constitutionalist of Friday. Our city was intensely excited yesterday afternoon, and but for the cool courage and untiring efforts of Mr. F. C. Barber, the patience and self-possession of this city yesterday, there was a genuine scene of bloodshed that might have sufficed the insatiable thirst of the rank and file in our midst.

Newsletters, &c.

"Thou Shalt Love thy Neighbor as Thyself!" This commandment, one of those upon which "hang all the law and the prophets," is the suggestive motto of the "Christian Neighbor," a new religious paper lately started in Columbia.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party for Edgefield District, held on Monday last, on motion of M. W. GARY, Esq., it was

Resolved, That a meeting of the Democratic Party of Edgefield, on the 1st of May next, in June next, to consider the various questions of vital interest affecting said party.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of this District be requested to confer with the Central Executive Committee of the State and other Democratic Organizations, and to the best of his ability, to secure the ratification of the State on the 2nd Tuesday in June next, to ascertain the sense of the party as to the right of suffrage, and other grave questions touching the interests of the State, and report the result of the same to the said meeting in June.

For the Advertiser.

Democratic Meeting at Tucker's Pond. In pursuance of every short notice, a large number of the citizens of the vicinity of Tucker's Pond, Edgefield District, met on Saturday, the 18th of April, 1868.

One of the Greatest Ends to be Reached.

Though the fact has not yet been officially announced, still there is no doubt that the new Radical Constitution for South Carolina has been ratified by an immense majority of votes; and that, for a certain time, we will have to live under it and abide by its laws.

The Riot in Augusta.

From the Constitutionalist of Friday. Our city was intensely excited yesterday afternoon, and but for the cool courage and untiring efforts of Mr. F. C. Barber, the patience and self-possession of this city yesterday, there was a genuine scene of bloodshed that might have sufficed the insatiable thirst of the rank and file in our midst.

Newsletters, &c.

"Thou Shalt Love thy Neighbor as Thyself!" This commandment, one of those upon which "hang all the law and the prophets," is the suggestive motto of the "Christian Neighbor," a new religious paper lately started in Columbia.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party for Edgefield District, held on Monday last, on motion of M. W. GARY, Esq., it was

Resolved, That a meeting of the Democratic Party of Edgefield, on the 1st of May next, in June next, to consider the various questions of vital interest affecting said party.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of this District be requested to confer with the Central Executive Committee of the State and other Democratic Organizations, and to the best of his ability, to secure the ratification of the State on the 2nd Tuesday in June next, to ascertain the sense of the party as to the right of suffrage, and other grave questions touching the interests of the State, and report the result of the same to the said meeting in June.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the Edgefield Advertiser, and that other Democratic Papers be requested to copy the same.

B. C. DRYAN, Sec'y.

Two negroes had a fight about a "gull" on Green street, above Brook, Tuesday.

A Key West letter states that reports are current that the Indian tribes in Florida have declared war against the United States and committed the overt act by burning a white man at the stake.

General Sherman has been before the Congressional Committee on Indian Affairs to impress them with the idea that it is both cheaper and more humane to feed the Indians than to fight them.

Three negroes to one white man have thus far been registered as voters in Washington.

Radicals are colonizing negro voters in order to secure the election of a Mayor in June.

The President has nominated Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War.

His nomination causes a very singular speculation: First, that the olive branch is held out to Conservative Senators; second, a compromise between Johnson and Grant; but the affair is really more serious.

Johnson appears to have consulted the members of his Cabinet about the nomination.

An amendment to the Bankrupt Law, extending the time for such as could not pay fifty cents on the dollar to the first day of January, 1869, passed the House on the 21st.

The Arkansas Legislature has chosen two United States Senators, B. F. Rice and A. McLeod, and it is said they will try to procure admission to the Senate in time to vote in the impeachment trial.

The new Arkansas Senators are Republicans.

At the election in Atlanta Ex-Governor Joseph E. Brown marched arm in arm to the polls with a crowd of negroes and made them vote the Radical ticket.

A Public Meeting was to have been held at New York City, on Saturday last, to take into consideration the subject of sending North for laborers.

Stops have already been taken in this important matter, and it only now remains that the proper agents receive the names of those who desire laborers, and the number, that they may be sent for.

For the Advertiser.

Democratic Meeting at Tucker's Pond. In pursuance of every short notice, a large number of the citizens of the vicinity of Tucker's Pond, Edgefield District, met on Saturday, the 18th of April, 1868.

One of the Greatest Ends to be Reached.

Though the fact has not yet been officially announced, still there is no doubt that the new Radical Constitution for South Carolina has been ratified by an immense majority of votes; and that, for a certain time, we will have to live under it and abide by its laws.

The Riot in Augusta.

From the Constitutionalist of Friday. Our city was intensely excited yesterday afternoon, and but for the cool courage and untiring efforts of Mr. F. C. Barber, the patience and self-possession of this city yesterday, there was a genuine scene of bloodshed that might have sufficed the insatiable thirst of the rank and file in our midst.

Newsletters, &c.

"Thou Shalt Love thy Neighbor as Thyself!" This commandment, one of those upon which "hang all the law and the prophets," is the suggestive motto of the "Christian Neighbor," a new religious paper lately started in Columbia.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party for Edgefield District, held on Monday last, on motion of M. W. GARY, Esq., it was

Resolved, That a meeting of the Democratic Party of Edgefield, on the 1st of May next, in June next, to consider the various questions of vital interest affecting said party.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of this District be requested to confer with the Central Executive Committee of the State and other Democratic Organizations, and to the best of his ability, to secure the ratification of the State on the 2nd Tuesday in June next, to ascertain the sense of the party as to the right of suffrage, and other grave questions touching the interests of the State, and report the result of the same to the said meeting in June.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the Edgefield Advertiser, and that other Democratic Papers be requested to copy the same.

B. C. DRYAN, Sec'y.

Two negroes had a fight about a "gull" on Green street, above Brook, Tuesday.

A Key West letter states that reports are current that the Indian tribes in Florida have declared war against the United States and committed the overt act by burning a white man at the stake.

General Sherman has been before the Congressional Committee on Indian Affairs to impress them with the idea that it is both cheaper and more humane to feed the Indians than to fight them.

Three negroes to one white man have thus far been registered as voters in Washington.

Radicals are colonizing negro voters in order to secure the election of a Mayor in June.

The President has nominated Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War.

His nomination causes a very singular speculation: First, that the olive branch is held out to Conservative Senators; second, a compromise between Johnson and Grant; but the affair is really more serious.

Johnson appears to have consulted the members of his Cabinet about the nomination.

An amendment to the Bankrupt Law, extending the time for such as could not pay fifty cents on the dollar to the first day of January, 1869, passed the House on the 21st.

The Arkansas Legislature has chosen two United States Senators, B. F. Rice and A. McLeod, and it is said they will try to procure admission to the Senate in time to vote in the impeachment trial.

The new Arkansas Senators are Republicans.

At the election in Atlanta Ex-Governor Joseph E. Brown marched arm in arm to the polls with a crowd of negroes and made them vote the Radical ticket.

A Public Meeting was to have been held at New York City, on Saturday last, to take into consideration the subject of sending North for laborers.

Stops have already been taken in this important matter, and it only now remains that the proper agents receive the names of those who desire laborers, and the number, that they may be sent for.

For the Advertiser.

Democratic Meeting at Tucker's Pond. In pursuance of every short notice, a large number of the citizens of the vicinity of Tucker's Pond, Edgefield District, met on Saturday, the 18th of April, 1868.

One of the Greatest Ends to be Reached.

Though the fact has not yet been officially announced, still there is no doubt that the new Radical Constitution for South Carolina has been ratified by an immense majority of votes; and that, for a certain time, we will have to live under it and abide by its laws.

The Riot in Augusta.

From the Constitutionalist of Friday. Our city was intensely excited yesterday afternoon, and but for the cool courage and untiring efforts of Mr. F. C. Barber, the patience and self-possession of this city yesterday, there was a genuine scene of bloodshed that might have sufficed the insatiable thirst of the rank and file in our midst.

Newsletters, &c.

"Thou Shalt Love thy Neighbor as Thyself!" This commandment, one of those upon which "hang all the law and the prophets," is the suggestive motto of the "Christian Neighbor," a new religious paper lately started in Columbia.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic Party for Edgefield District, held on Monday last, on motion of M. W. GARY, Esq., it was

Resolved, That a meeting of the Democratic Party of Edgefield, on the 1st of May next, in June next, to consider the various questions of vital interest affecting said party.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of this District be requested to confer with the Central Executive Committee of the State and other Democratic Organizations, and to the best of his ability, to secure the ratification of the State on the 2nd Tuesday in June next, to ascertain the sense of the party as to the right of suffrage, and other grave questions touching the interests of the State, and report the result of the same to the said meeting in June.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the Edgefield Advertiser, and that other Democratic Papers be requested to copy the same.

B. C. DRYAN, Sec'y.

Two negroes had a fight about a "gull" on Green street, above Brook, Tuesday.

A Key West letter states that reports are current that the Indian tribes in Florida have declared war against the United States and committed the overt act by burning a white man at the stake.

General Sherman has been before the Congressional Committee on Indian Affairs to impress them with the idea that it is both cheaper and more humane to feed the Indians than to fight them.

Three negroes to one white man have thus far been registered as voters in Washington.

Radicals are colonizing negro voters in order to secure the election of a Mayor in June.

The President has nominated Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War.

His nomination causes a very singular speculation: First, that the olive branch is held out to Conservative Senators; second, a compromise between Johnson and Grant; but the affair is really more serious.

Johnson appears to have consulted the members of his Cabinet about the nomination.

An amendment to the Bankrupt Law, extending the time for such as could not pay fifty cents on the dollar to the first day of January, 1869, passed the House on the 21st.

The Arkansas Legislature has chosen two United States Senators, B. F. Rice and A. McLeod, and it is said they will try to procure admission to the Senate in time to vote in the impeachment trial.

The new Arkansas Senators are Republicans.

At the election in Atlanta Ex-Governor Joseph E. Brown marched arm in arm to the polls with a crowd of negroes and made them vote the Radical ticket.

A Public Meeting was to have been held at New York City, on Saturday last, to take into consideration the subject of sending North for laborers.

Stops have already been taken in this important matter, and it only now remains that the proper agents receive the names of those who desire laborers, and the number, that they may be sent for.

FIRST CLASS CLOTHING

AND DEALERS IN

KENNEY & GRAY,

Merchant Tailors,

READY MADE CLOTHING

Gents' Furnishing Goods,

238 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga.

ARE OFFERING FOR SALE AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER READY MADE CLOTHING,

FOR MEN AND BOYS WEAR.

A SELECT ASSORTMENT OF FURNISHING GOODS, REPLETE WITH ALL THE NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.

WE HAVE CHOICE GOODS IN FANCY COATING CASSIMERES AND VESTINGS OF THE NEWEST STYLES AND PATTERNS.

BLACK BROADCLOTHS AND DOESKIN CASSIMERES,

Which we make to order in the MOST FASHIONABLE MANNER and at the LOWEST PRICES.

All Kinds of Custom Work made in the Best Manner, and Warranted to fit.

WE HAVE GOOD BUSINESS SUITS from $6 to $30.

KENNEY & GRAY,

238 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga.

Augusta, April 27

The Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel, of the 22d, says: "We have to announce the death of an old and respected citizen, Mr. F. C. Barber, which took place at his residence in this city yesterday. He was a gentleman of sterling worth, strict business integrity, and fine social qualities. He leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss."

NOTICE.

The Sub-Committee of the 9th Regiment will meet on Friday, the 1st day of May, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The citizens generally are earnestly requested to meet with the Committee, as business demands every consideration of patriotism and duty for its immediate action.

W. L. PHIPPS, Sec'y.

NOTICE.

The Democratic Sub-Committee for the Lower Battalion, 9th Regiment, are requested to meet at Mount Willing, on Saturday, the 9th May. A full attendance is desired. The