Removal of Genl. M. C. Butler. Our distinguished and much-beloved fellow-citizen, Ganl. M. C. BUTLER, has, within the past week, removed from our midst, and taken up his residence in Co. lumbia, Whether this move of Genl. B. writers. Until next week, we hope will be absolutely permanent, we cannot just new say. He leaves behind him, with a brother, two little boys, at school

As isperhaps already generally known, it is highly probable that Genl. BUTLER will soon assume the chief conduct and editorship of a Democratic Daily Newspaper in Columbia. In South Carolina there would seem to be at present, a fine opening for such an enterprise. who knows and loves the people of Edgefield, was in Augusta at the late Fair, at-

No man living stands higher in the heart of Edgefield than Genl. BUTLER. No citizen could leave our community whose withdrawal would be more deeply felt and regretted. But for the present we will not cease to look upon him as a townsman. Happiness and success be his, wherever he may set up his rest!

The Sunday-School Festivals. The past week was marked by two Sunday-School Festivals-that of the three Churches in our midst-and that of Mt. Tibor, Harmony, Rocky Creek and Dry Creek. The village affair, on Friday last, was small, modest and unpretending-young girls and boys in wagonswithout fixings or finery-merry as larks -driving to a shady dell four miles out and more charming. She is such an accomplished and brilliant pianiste as is -with baskets of edibles-and a few sedate sheep dogs of either sex to keep up the proprieties-rambling under the green shade—playing croquet, marbles and mumble-peg-all youthful, and fresh, and unconventional. glad to see all this, and beg to offer our

But not so at Mt. Tabor on Saturday. This was the largest, handsomest, most expensive, most elaborate Celebration perhaps that has ever taken place in our section. Imagine w'at such a combination as Mt. Tabor, Harmony, Rocky Creek and Dry Creek could do if they set their heads to it! Well, they did set | iel Ramey, Trial Justice, His Honor detheir heads to it, and their hands too, and | cided that the Homestead and Exempalso their hearts. The scene was Mt. Tabor. The adherents of each Church out in full forceand full feather. Four Sunday-Schools each in procession, and each with a distinct banner. The Church beautifully decorated with flowers, evergreens and mottoes. Spirited and appropriate singing by the children, accompanied at the Melodeon by Miss Caddie Warren. Two addresses-both excellent-admirably combining instruction and entertainment -the one by Mr. J. J. McDANIEL, the other by Mr. ROBERT CANNON. Superb dinner, endless in profusion, in variety, in richness. Beautiful day, perfect order and harmony, unflagging attention, suffused eyes and animated countenancesindications of the universal interest felt on the occasion, and of the enjoyment experienced by all. The whole Celebra tion was a success and a joy. To our gracious God be rendered the grateful homage of our hearts, for these-and so many other-privileges!

Domestic Energy and Exquisite Taste.

We have to thank our honored friend, Mrs. LEWIS JONES, Sr., for the most beautiful waiter of Vegetables and Flow ers we have ever seen. As regards Vegetables, the thing is finally out. Mrs. Jones wears the crown with perfect security. Imagine a Cabbage, at this season, as large as you generally find them No. 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Phila in November, and as hard as Plymouth Rock! And Beets and Onions, one of which would fill a dish! And a Bouquet which would run BERCKMANS crazy! We have eaten, we have gazed, we have inhaled perfume; and now we bow and smile our best thanks.

A few days ago a negro by the name of John Dozier, broke into the store of Dr. J. M. RUSHTON, at Pleasant Cross, in this District, abstracted from his moneydrawer about $60 in money, and made tracks. In a short while, Dr. RUSHTON discovered the theft, pursued the theif, captured him at Mims' Depot, and recovered about $30 of the stolen money. Dozier is now in jail-and expects to be splitting rock in the Penitentiary in the course of a few weeks.
