Special Notices. CONSUMPTION.

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE. By J. H. SCHENCE, M. D.

By J. H. SCHEMUE, M. D.

Many a human being has passed sway for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmiy adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality rumains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptions. To the fath of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the claded of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the case of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disord-red liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathise" with the stomach. They respect to the morbidic action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BERHIMD."

The scaewed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimiliates with the food. Chylif-cation is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes paintess, and the care is seen to be at hand. There is no more fadinence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in. Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to sufficing has seen to be at hand. There is no more flatalence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in. Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can not be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the innus. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and io it in a very short time the mailandy is wantiched, the rotten throne that is occupied is removated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to snjoy the manison or womanhood that was

The Second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure can not be effected. fectual remedy than any other. Those who have ried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends; and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or negglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with sufety by anybod. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health,
