Where does the blame rest?

Rev. E. A. Bolles. This prominent divine, General Agent for the American Bible Society, visited our town during the present week, and on Sunday morning and night preached in the Baptist Church to large and attentive audiences. His sermons were quite entertaining and highly instructive, and his hearers were delighted. Rev. Mr. Bolles was here in the work of the Bible Society, for which he has labored so assiduously, and achieved so much, and was instrumental in giving a fresh and renewed impetus to our Bible Society, in to-day's issue, it will be seen has been re-organized, and is ready to prosecute its labors in the good cause of spreading the Bible among the destitute.

We hope Mr. Bolles will not forget Edgefield in his journeyings through the State, and that he will give us a call frequently. He will always meet with a warm welcome from our people.

Shocking Occurrences and High Excitement in Graniteville.

Shocking occurrences and great excitement have marked the past week in Graniteville. A citizen of Graniteville, Mr. James Brewer, had in his employ a here in their native District. negro girl as a nurse for his child aged three years. On Wednesday last the girl falling into a rage with the child, picked that "Judge Bacon will soon open an up a gun and deliberately shot it in the head, killing it instantly. This happened about ten o'clock in the forenoon. The girl immediately ran off, and managed to keep herself concealed until about three o'clock in the afternoon, when she was found in a certain house, and taken charge of by Mr. Geo. Sharpton, a Constable, who took her to the R. R. Depot, and placed her under guard, preparatory to bringing her to the jail in this place. After nightfall, Mr. Snarpton concluded to take her to his own house and keep home, a distance of a mile and a half, the prisoner in charge, with a heavy guard stantly killed. The Board of Commissioners for the new County of Aiken have agreed to buy from Mr. Wm. Gregg his targe Dwelling and four acre lot, situate on the South side of the railroad, and near the depot, in the Town of Aiken, and will convert the Dwelling into a Court House, which can be done by changing a few of the rooms. The property will cost about $1500, and the improvements not over $2000. The jail will be built on another let donated by the Town Council of Aiken to the Commissioners for that purpose. The tax-payers of the new County will have to pay a tag of five mills on the dollar to raise a fund to pay for the public buildings.
