Strange Thing in Connection With the Graniteville Troubles.

Six white men and one negro have been arrested in Graniteville, brought to this place, and here lodged in jail. Their arrest is based upon extremely vague suspicion, so far as we can learn, of their being connected with the killing of the negro girl who shot Mr. Brewer's child. The white men are Messrs. The negro is named Hatcher. These men are to be brought before Judge Melton this morning (Wednesday) on a writ of Habeas Corpus, and will probably be released on bail.

The strange thing about the matter is this:-that while seven men are arrested on account of the negro girl, not a soul is arrested on account of the beloved and martyred young Turner.

Admitted to Practice. Mr. John C. Sheppard, of our town, after standing a highly creditable examination in open Court, before Judge Melton, on Monday last, was admitted to practice before the Probate and Circuit creasing patronage, I have remodelled the interior of the spacious establishment to practice before the Probate and Circuit entered into copartnership with L. F. Youmans, Esq.

A Valuable Plantation at a Bargain. We direct the particular attention of parties seeking valuable farming lands at low figures, to the advertisement of Mr. R. S. Miller, Blackville, S. C., and to the very low price at which he is offering it. In fact his price is considered as almost in a measure giving the place away. But the old gentleman is too feeble to give any attention to his farming operations, and has determined to sell. Read the advertisement, take a look at this certainly desirable plantation, and close the trade without delay.

Another Big Show.

Not old John Robinson's circus this time, nor a troupe of dancing women, but a Big Potato Show. Our old friend Mr. W. F. Durisoe, sr., raised them, and he calls them the Florida Potato. They BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, are pinkish in color and huge in size. Come in and see them on our table. They are worth looking at. In fact they make an eloquent illustration of the pleasure and profit of farming. Two negroes were slightly wounded and a negro policeman killed on the night of the 11th, near the Ocean House, Portsmouth, by a crowd of drunken men from Norfolk. The wounded negroes were quietly passing down Hight street at the time they were shot. A negro policeman interfered to stop the firing, when he was shot through the head by some one in the crowd, and died almost instantly. On Wednesday morning last our citizens were surprised at finding the town picketed by United States soldiers on every road leading to it, and the Marshals engaged in making arrests.

Mc-Kissick, Jr., Edward Hawkins, Harrison Hawkins, Robert Hawkins, B. F. Bentley, Richard Perr, Daniel Black. Nor is this all the trouble our County is in. By the report of some malicious individual, our Probate Judge, T. J. Greer, has been arrested by the U. S. Marshals and lodged in Richland jail, charged with being a Ku Klux. Mr. Greer is a one legged man and has to walk on crutches. LEY, and will continue to keep What use he could be in a Ku Klux organization we cannot imagine. In addition to all this our people are in a state of terrible anxiety. It is not the guilty alone who feel in danger of the dungeon, but the innocent are not saffrom the malice of the very worst charac
