A fire occurred in our town this A. M. (one o'clock), which entirely consumed the court-house, the Marshal House, the stores of E. P. Knox, the residence of Dr. Proctor & Baggett, and Kapshin & Sklarz...

Under date of the 22d, our Columbia correspondent sends us a long and interesting letter, but owing to the crowded condition of our columns we can only give place to the following extracts:

"The Senate refused to adopt Nash's joint resolution authorizing the employment of legal counsel for the prosecution of the youngest daughter of Lewis and Rebecca M. Jones, of this village, aged sixteen years and five days."

MARRIED, on 18th inst., by Rev. J. P. Bodie, Mr. A. J. TIMMERMAN and Miss NANCY EUGENIE DORN, all of Edgefield.

The Columbia Phoenix, of Saturday morning, has published a very interesting account of the destructive fire, which occurred in the town of Abbeville, on Thursday night...

"Now, if these 'reasons' have any force at all, they prove that Mr. McFadyen should have voted, for, instead of against, the resolution. If the Attorney General is solely responsible for any and all wrongs, he is equally responsible for the wrongs he has committed."

"The undersigned respectfully offers his services to the citizens of Edgefield Village and vicinity, as a Practitioner of Medicine, in all of its branches."
