EDGEFIELD, S. C., FEBRUARY 15, 1872.

Peter used to toss me in his hands.

than had good old Peter Phipps.

Brevities and Levities.

25 Some girls are like old muskets-

Whatever Midas touched turned into gold. In these days touch a man

A California genius, having disleeping with his finger tips touching his

Josh Billings says: "If a man haz

he lives in, it ain't much trouble to be a toes, has invented a machine to hold the man in that position.

philosopher."

anxious that you and your sister should "A trap to kill fool niggers. Low ever with gold and he'll turn into anything.

VOLUME XXXVI.-No. 8.

Parents! Guardians! Note! BOARD, with TUITION in English, Bok-keeping, and Surveying in the Field, for 42 weeks, from 1st March next, can be had for Price, $45 Cash, with the Usual Ad-Only $126!

Instruction analytical, practical, thorough Government parental Climate, deligniful. Senery, beautiful. Please address, immediately.

Rev. D. McNEILLTURNER, D. D.

Rrayard, N. C.

Prices Augusta, May 2

price, which the Company is enabled to do by reason of its large facilities and the reduced cost of manufacture.

The supplies put into market this season arc, as heretofore, prepared under the personal superintendence of Dr. St. ALL DESCRIPTIONS, PLATT BROTHERS, (Formerly C. A. Platt & Co.,)

the personal superintendence of Dr. St.
Julian Ravenel, Chemist of the Company, at Charleston, S. C., hence, planters may rest assured that its QUALITY and COMPOSITION is precisely the same as that heretofore sold. At the present low price every acre planted can be fertilized with 214 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga. 200 pounds Guano at a cost not exceeding the present value of 30 pounds of cotton, while experience has shown that under favorable conditions of season and 1,000 Maple and Walnut Bedsteads, cultivation the crop is increased by the application from two to threefold the natural capacity of the soil. Hence, under no conditions could its application WE particularly call the attention of purchasers to our SOLID WAL-NUT CHAMBER SUITS for Beauty fail to compensate for the outlay. Apply to J. N. ROBSON,

Agent Pacific Guano Company, Our MANUFACTURING DEPART-MENT is still in operation. Special or-ders will be promptly attended to. Re-pairs done in all its branches. No. 68 East Bay and Nos. 1 and 2 Atlan-JNO. S. REESE & CO., Gen'l Agents Nov. 29 3m 49 UPHOLSTERING DEPARTMENT. Hair Cloth, Enameled Cloth, Reps PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S

Terry and Springs, and all articles suitable for Manufacturers, we offer at Low COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE OF LIME THE COTTON PLANT FOR

Price $25 Cash, with Usual Advance

KINGONE

SOLUBLE

vance for Time.

EXPERIENCE IN THE USE OF this Guano for the past six years in this state, for Cotton and Corn, has so far established its character for excellence as to render comment unnecessary.

In accordance with the established policy of the Company to furnish the best Concentrated Fertilizer at the lowest cost to consumers, this Guano is put into market this season at the above reduced on Time. ▲ DER the superintendence of Dr. ST.

JULIEN RAVENEL expressly for composting with cotton seed.

It was introduced by this Company two cle per acre, properly composted with the san. weight of cotton seed, furnishes the planter with a FERTILIZER of the highest excellence at the smallest cost. highest excellence at the smallest cost. A compost prepared with this article, as by printed directions furnished, contains all the elements of fertility that can enter into a first-class FERTILIZER, while Cooking Stove! SINCE the death of the late WM. HILL and closing up of his business, I have taken the Agency for the Sale of the its economy must commend its liberal per. Is gold up or down.

J. N. ROBSON. Persons wanting a good Stove, such as the "Philanthropist," "Chief Cook," or Agent Pacific Guano Company, 'Cotton Plant," can be supplied by call-

No. 68 East Bay and Nos. 1 and 2 Atlan-tic Wharf, Charleston, S. C. D. L. FULLERTON, Stove Dealer, JNO. S. REESE & CO., Gen'l Agents. Nov. 29 3m 49 AUGUSTA. GA.

No. 6 Stoves for $20,00 and $26,00. No. 7 Stoves for $25,00, $31,50, $33,00 T. J. MILLER, H. BUSSEY. JOEL J. BACON $35,00, $45,00. No. 8 Stoves for $28,00, $37,50, $40,00, MILLER, BUSSEY& BACON

. A. Brahe & Co., Gen'l Commission Merchants,

AUGUSTA, GEORGIA,

Would respectfully announce to their Friends and the Public of Edgefield Dis-RESPECTFULLY announce to their trict, that they have just received, direct from Europe, and now offer, a large and magnificent Stock of GOODS, consisting Edgefield friends that they are constant ly receiving fresh invoices of BACON, LARD,

COFFEE, SUGAR, TEA, Fine Gold and Silver WATCHES, of the best makers.
Ladies' and Gents' Solid Gold CHAINS, CHEESE BAGGING, TIES, of the latest styles.
DIAMONDS of first water, in Sets, Pins CANDLES, BUTTER. SOAP, STARCH, WHISKEY, BRANDY, WINES,

TOBACCO, Can FRUITS and VEGETABLES, Cameo, Seal and Plain Gold and in fact everything usually found in Sterling SILVER WARE of the late All of which we offer to the public a the lowest market prices.

Mr. J. B. NORRIS is with us, pleased to have his friends to

American and French CLOCKS,
A large lot of Imported FANCY
GOODS, &c.
WATCHES and JEWELRY will be repaired with the usual care.
Oct. 18 6m 43

Doors, Sashes, Blinds, &c.

P. P. TOALE

Manufacturer and feater,

No. 20 Hayne St. and Horlbeck's Wharf.

P. P. TOALE,

CAARLESTON, S

ly 31

THE GREAT

guarantees all work. He offers, also, a great variety WATCH ES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY, SILVER WARE, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, GUNS, PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, &c.,

Look out for the sign of the BIG GUN, 142 Broad Street. Augusta, Dec 20 To the Public. ON Thursdays of each week, and on and Rings.

206 Broad St.,

Superb SETS for Ladies and Misses.
Stone Cameo, Seal and Plain Go

S. COHEN,

AUGUSTA, GA.,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

JEWELRY, &C.

Triple PLATED WARE.

On Thursdays of each week, and on sale-day in each month, I will be in my room in the Advertiser office building for the purpose of taking Measures and Cutting garments for all who want Coat, Pants or Vest cut from goods furnished me. I will guarantee satisfaction to all who give me a call. JOHN COLGAN. Jan, 24, Thyg Fi Im ons why 5 Seed Potatoes.

ST received 20 Bbls, choice SEED POTATOES, for early and late plantern States, and all articles in this line The Peerless is a favorite Potato, producing from 300 to 400 bushels to the acre. They boil-mealy, and are a very fine quality.

G. L. PENN. quality. Jan. 23, Blinds, and the prices of each, will be sent free and post paid, on application to

For Rent. THE TWO STORE ROOMS and Odd Fellow's Hall in Masonic building.

SIXTY-FIVE FIRST PRIZE MEDALS AWARDED. THOS. J. ADAMS, Atty. for Owners.

and LOT to give Stock left in my care. J. P. BRYAN.

Lamps and Chimneys.

JUST received a large lot of the lates

G. L. PENN,

Druggist.

Pine House, Jan. 24,

Southern Piano Accommodation Stables. DERSONS wishing to take the Train at Pine House Depot, and leave their Horses and Vehicles at the Depot until their return, are respectfully informed that I am prepared with good STABLES and LOT to give the best attention to

WM. KNABE & CO. MANUFACTURERS OF Grand, Square and Upright Piano Fortes.

BALTIMORE, Md. These Instruments have been before the Public for nearly Thirty Years, and upon their excellence alone attained and unpurchased pre-eminence, which pronounces them unequaled, in improved LAMPS, CHIMNEYS and BURNERS,—sold lower than ever Illustrated Catalogues and Price Lists promptly for she is an angel and is worthy of all love and honor!"

Jasper, I pray you be true and latiniti: He was a cierk in my lather's store. It tween 16 and 45, and subject to perform for she is an angel and is worthy of all love and honor!"

WM. KNABE & CO., Balti'ore, Md. Or any of our regular established agencies.

Never fear, old fellow. I'll make her slough of intemperance, and it was my nor,—Anderson Intelligencer.

"Never fear, old fellow. I'll make her slough of intemperance, and it was my nor,—Anderson Intelligencer.

Tell me not that he's a poor man, That his dress is coarse and bare; Tell me not his daily pittance Is a workman's scanty fare; Tell me not his birth is humble, That is all I want to know.

Is his word to be relied on?
Has his character no stain?
Then I care not if he's low born—
Then I care not whence his name. Would he from an unjust action Turn away with scornful eye? Would he than defraud another Sooner on the scaffold die?

Would he spend his hard-gained earning On a brother in distress? Would he succor the afflicted, Then he is a man deserving Of my love and my esteem, And I care not what his birth-place In the eye of man may seem

Let it be a low, thatched hovel; Let it be a clay-built cot; Let it be the parish work-house-In my eye it matters not. And if others would disown him As inferior to their caste, Let them do so—Pll befriend him

Millie Day's Fortune.

Harry Cowper was a book-keeper in a arge commission house, and his employers rized him because, though only an employee, upon a stated salary, he made heir interests his own, and suffered nothing to interfere with his duties. He was stout, healthy, handsome youth, his clear blue eyes and purely tinted skin showing very conclusively that his habits

It was towards the close of the day and Harry was busily engaged in balancing his accounts. The only other occu-Composting with Cotton Seed. pant of the counting room was Peter Phipps, the delivery clerk. Peter was an ld man-sixty at least-and had been in the employ of the house for many years. He was broken in health, but was able to THIS ARTICLE IS PREPARED UN- keep an account of goods as they were deceived sufficient for his support.

Harry had just closed his ledger when Jasper Groome entered the office. Jasper years ago, and its use has fully attested the value. 200 to 250 pounds of this arti-

"Harry, my son, ha , you heard the news?" cried the new comer, tapping his friend upon the shoulder. "I have heard nothing wonderful, Jas-use to planters.

"A certain kind of gold is high up.
Haven't you heard of the stroke of fortune which has fallen to Millie Day?" At the mention of that name Harry Cowper caught his breath, and a quick flush was visible upon his clear cheek. "I have not heard," he said.

Don't you remember an uncle of Millie's who was sick few years ago, and

" Well," pursue! Jasper, seems, was one of the higher ones in thick go land. About two months without chick or dald has been on here to inform Miss Millie Day that she is sole heiress of his whole fortune. It is somewhere in the neighborhood of half a million. There is over two hundred thousand in bank. What d'ye think of that old fellow?" Harry Cowper shrank like one who had received a blow. He was silent and "How, my boy !-don't it please you? demanded Jasper, with a show of sur-

Harry rallied and answered, with a shake of the head :-

"No, Jasper, I am sorry for this." 'Sorry?' And wherefore? I thought you had a particular regard for the lady." Corner looked up, an I faintly smiled. t was a smile, but there was pain in it: "Jasper," he said seriously and earnesty, as one speaks in confidence to a dear have avoided the meeting, but she pres-ently rallied and greeted him with a smile. friend, "I love Millie Day, though I have never spoken to her as a lover. I have been waiting until I could insure her a home if she accepted my proffered hand. As you know, I have only a salary to depend upon, and a portion of that is set father might pray that his daughter could apart for the maintenance and education of my sister." 'Are you s ious?" asked Groome. Will the coming of this fortune deter you from pressing your suit?" "But, man alive! Is not the prize worth more than ever before? If Millie Day was worth winning when she had hardly a dollar of her own, what must she 'She can be no more to me now," replied Harry. "It was Millie Day that I loved-Millie Day that I love still-and no amount of worldly wearth can add to the price I would have set upon her love in return. But that is past. Had she remained poor I had hoped ere long to have been able to offer her a home-a home where she could help me to find joy and comfort." "And do you mean to say, Harry, that grandfather. Yet he was a well kept old you give her up?"

She is not mine to give up.' "I dare not press it. After so long a time my past silence might be misconstrued and my claim be regarded as mer-

"By Jove, old fellow! she'll make a rich catch for somebody." "No richer than before," said Harry with solemn seriousness. "I tell you, Jasper, that for the true man, seeking a true wife, Millie Day, with only her truth and her goodness for her own dower, would prices which defy competition.

23r A pamphlet with full and detailed list of all sizes of Doors, Sashes and the richest gift this side of heaven. I > should challenge the world to exceed my happiness."

> "Harry you're a fool!" "Thank you." "If you are to step out, I shall go in > think if I had her for my companion I and try to win. Harry winced, but betrayed no ill-feel-You are your own master, Jasper.

"I shan't be rivaling you?"
"No. If Millie can love you, then it s proved that she has not loved me."
"Then count me in the race for the heiress. By Jove! I will make the at-forgot that I am only a book-keeper." Yes, I remember. But you'll get gives a fellow a lift in society, but I ain't tune begins to oppress me. Mr. Corydon All else is life but flung away; vain. If you'll go with me I'll introduce you at Darwin's."

"And already," she pursued, "that for tune begins to oppress me. Mr. Corydon All else is life but flung away; holds it in charge for me, and he will do with it just as I say. It stands between into a house one of these days. You'll ing whisper.

THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

JUST received two more Barrels No. 1

KEROSENE OIL—warranted not explode.

Druggist.

Jun. 31

Seed Oats!

Missing the Plano nearer Perfection than has yet between the form of Miss dialogues and Price Lists promptly for the town of Union, n this State 112, and is propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a succeed. If such should be three and faithfull; the was a clerk in my father's store. It was not propounded to us the other day by a special arrangement propounded to us the other day by a succeed. If such should be three and faithfull; the was a clerk in my father's store. It was not propounded to us the other day by a succeed. If such should be three and faithfull; the was a clerk in my father's store. It was not propounded to us the other day by a succeed. If such should be three and faithfull; the was a clerk in my father's store. It was not propounded to us the other day by a succeed. If such should be three and faithfull; the was a clerk in make love, and taste its fruitage pour; sow same and repart is hardered by a succeed. If such should be the result a good husband if I win her. Half a father who recommended him to his presmillion! Zounds! Isn't that worth workyears. I was but a little child then, and from the office, and Harry Cowper bowed the dear old fellow has not forgotten me. his head upon the edge of his desk.

"Shall I put up the books, Mr. Cowper?" Harry looked up, and saw the old delivery clerk.

"Ah,—you here, Phipps?"

"Yes, I've been copying permits. Shall I put the books in the safe?"

"Yes,—you may, if you please. 1 must
"Yes,—you may, if you please. 1 must go round and call for my sister on my way me—how noble you were—and how blessed ful. He had loved Millie Day a long, long time; but he had not yet ventured to speak of his love for reasons already made known. But now a change had come over the spirit of his dream. He asked words for utterance. himself if he had decided rightly, and his own sense of manly honor told him yes. her. What had he, a poor clerk, with an in the cultivation of those joys that sprang be simple beggary. nome. He went nowhere else. On the not one had more reason to be grateful first of January his salary was raised five hundred dollars a year. He had looked forward to this event with high hopes. He had once thought that upon a salary of two thousand dollars he might venture to ask Millie to become his wife. But the bright dream had fled. Still he hailed the ncrease as a blessing, as he could now do

A month had passed from the time of the arrival of the attorney who had come to place Millie Day in possession of her fortune, and, as might be supposed, suitors for her hand had been plentiful and persistent. Harry Cowper was on his way home when he fell in with Jasper Groome. Friendly salutations were passed, and for a time they chatted upon various light topics. At length Jasper said:
"By the way, old fellow, it's all up with more for his sister.

Harry started and gasped for breath. "She has refused me, plump, square and flat. What d'ye think of that?" "Refused you?" repeated Harry, re-aining his breath. "Has Millie Day re-

"Yes. I guess she's after higher game. There is a perfect army of suitors in her train, but I think she looks with the most favor upon old Corydon. "Do you mean Warren Corydon, the banker? "Yes. He's worth a million and a half. Depend upon it, she has her eye upon the Harry's only response to this was-Pshaw!" And yet-

But he would not reflect upon it. He the father. went home and tried to forget all about it, honor her. I think we may count upon

Mrs. Sturgis had been a true friend to basis of fashion, but culled with appropriate care from the realm of intellectual

Harry's sister; and our hero was proceed-

he met Millie Day. She changed color

when she saw him, and for a moment it appeared to Harry as though she would

God would bless him with such a sister:

thank Heaven for bringing such a friend and the lover who might win her for his own could surely declare that earth bore

Harry saw her give her hand to Corv

don-he saw Corydon tenderly draw that Corydon? He was old enough to be her space she occupied in his hopes of the fu-earnest conversation.

under such a cloud.

Will you come with me?

joined the old banker, Corydon.

sah, some fool nigger will go to de Pulas ki House and jess set himself down by a white man, and de white man will jess both Harry and his sister, and she was a fro dat ar nigger out de winder and broke will carry with him a large proportion of worthy and estimable woman, and after a ittle consideration he said he would go. A clever writer has to say The large drawing-room of the Sturgis mansion was brilliantly lighted and the assembly was select, not selected upon the erning Dress": "To come to the conclusion of the whole matter: To be well! dressed requires, first, to be neatly dress ly alluded to Mr. Schurz's foreign birth ed; next, to be appropriately dressed; worth; Mrs. Sturgis had taken charge of last, but not least, to be dressed within one's means. The costume that is uning to join a friend whom he had discovpaid for is not a becoming costume to vered in another part of the room, when anybody; and robbing Peter to pay Paul then Mr. Nye, a native-born statesman, is poor policy at best. Just previous to starting on a journey to California, Artemus Ward received a telegram from Thomas Magnire, Her greeting was very brief, however, and with a hurried step she passed on, and of the San Francisco Opera House, inquiring "what he would take for forty nights No wonder that men gazed admiringly in California." He immediately telegraphed back-"Brandy and water. A. upon Millie Day as she moved past them. She was beautiful in every sense. The Ward." Maguire was sorely puzzled at the contents of this despatch.

be like her; the brother might pray that Come to Grief. the child of sorrow and want could but And now the two Treasury clerks who thing about it. Profane people would peached on Grant about his indebtedness | call his statesmanship damphoolishness. to the Government have come to grief. A Washington letter says:

nothing of womankind more bright and The two clerks, Hunt and Green, of the Third Auditor's office, who were so indiscreet as to disclose the fact that the records in their division showed the hand upon his arm-and then he saw President to be in arrears to the United them walk away together, engaged in States in the sum of $5,000, and the Third Harry Cowper felt faint and dizzy: but Auditor $500, have paid the penalty for telling family secrets. They have been he struggled against the load and turned summoned before the Government exe away to other scenes; and yet other scenes could not drive that painful scene cutioner, and informed that they "had from his mind. Could it be possible that Millie was about to sell herself to Warren their official duties; therefore, the Government could dispense with their services." The Third Auditor is a New man-far more manly and vigorous than were many of those pinks of fashion who | Hampshire carpet-bagger, but appointed claimed to be young men. Never before had Harry realized how deeply he had and so has the President. "Let us have loved the beautiful girl, nor how large a peace."

PENDLETON ON PASSIVISM .--- Hon. ture. Fully assured that she was lost to him forever, he turned away to a window George H. Pendleton has filed his protest, and leaned his head upon his hands. He in the shape of a letter to certain political thought it best for him to plead illness to friends in Woostor, against the disbandhis hostess, and go to his home. He knew ment of the Democratic party. He says : full well that he could not appear himself "Its powerful organization enters every

He was reflecting thus, when he felt a its adherents nearly one-half the people light touch upon his arm, and on turning he beheld Millie Day. She was gazing as intellectual, as patroitic, as unselfish wistfully up into his face, and there was a as any of their fellow-citizeus. They are wondrous sparkle in her clear azure eye. | too numerous to be cowardly. They are "Harry, I want to speak with you. too patriotic to be lukewarm. They are too sincere in their purposes and convictions to be driven to despondency by ten Without venturing to answer in words, he followed her. She led the way to a years of reverses. They have shown constancy in defeat as well as wisdom in vicsmall conservatory, where they stood by stancy an oleander in full bloom. A brief pause, tory. If I understand their feelings, they will neither disband their organization nor and an evident struggle, and then Millie, looked up and spoke. Her face was radi-ant, and the sparkle of her eyes had deep-ened to a fervid glow.

with neither disband their organization nor-flee the field before the contest commences. Either course, they believe, would yield undisputed sway to the present Administration, which could then give undivided as to bring it within range of his service-"Harry, I have a difficult task to per-form; but I have prayed for strength, and attention to the deserters from its ranks. tack this very night. I shall meet her at I think the strength has come to me. Par- An advancing army, with the enemy ei-Darwin's. Are you going?"

don me if I am brief, I seek your counsel. ther dispersed or in flight, never loses diYou know that I have lately inherited a visions or regiment, or even companies, ther dispersed or in flight, never loses diand is generally able to pick off or to pick up treacherous or thoughtless stragglers." large fortune."
"Yes—I know," said Harry, in a gasp-

He liveth long who liveth well; me and a very dear friend-a friend whose Then fill each hour with what will last

And find a narvest nome of light.

propounded to us the other day by a noted wag: "What is the difference beto either of the Undersigned.

O. SHEPPARD, tween a town bell and Gov. Scott? One P. H. ADAMS,

the Baltimore Evening Journal gives the following sketch of Judge Bond : He is never afraid to call upon me, for he As many papers in the country are knows that my heart is warm and sympathizing toward him. He came to me. making a great hue and cry about Harry, and told me the conversation be- the Ku Klux in South Carolina, and tween yourself and Jasper Groome, when | the administration of justice by Judge Jasper came and told you of my fortune. Bond, it is but just to let them know who Judge "Huge Lummux" Bond is, and some of his antecedents. He ome."

And Harry Cowper left the store. And a heart—and I—I—O, Harry! the fortune means he used to secure his present that night, when he was alone in his has put this upon me. Say that you do not appointment, and confirmation after chamber, his thoughts were sad and pain-blame me!" appointment, the latter being strong-Harry did not try to speak. He only caught the blessed being to his bosom, and held her there, with her head pillowed upon his shoulder—until he could find And so the fortune did not sever those Conference because of his strong proslavery views, which were antagonisthey use a good deal of powder but won't

He it was, while a Judge of the Criminal Court of your city, and as cordially with good and true men of all such a conservator of the peace, begged an officer of the United States army to release from his custody Major Harry Gilmor, (a prisoner of war,) in Baltimore, and send is guard overed that a man's life is prolonged by home, so that the Union men could hang him (Major Gilmor) to a lamp the European immigrant and the Northpost; and he it was who caused the got $80,000 at interest and owns the house

A frontier correspondent of the Chicago Post says: "The Indians are a confiding people. Yesterday a squad of thirteen came into our tent, and the oldest availed himself of the right of seniority by sitting down on our hot box stove, which he mistook for a valise. He was very much surprised, and the quartermaster has been issuing laudanum "Pa," said a lad to his father, "I have often read of people poor but honest; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Tut, tut, my son, nobody would believe them," answered The following notice, printed on none of these! Duplicity is his forte, colored card boards, with a nice border, and has frequently and faithfully Southern Grown Fruit Trees and who is now his chief eulogizer. I have been informed by reliable persons, that when he was Judge of two pure and loving hearts, after all. It the Criminal Court of your city, he sagacious. Our leading objects will be became a secondary thing in their lives. He felt that the maiden had been lifted became a secondary thing in their lives; compelled the crier of said court, the work of material development, and away from him, and he dared not approach and while they found their chiefest good (who was once in the dog business in the day and to advance the cause of virtue, intelli-Baltimore, also an engine house keeper, but now a postoffice detective,) to divide his salary (which was larger than that of the Judge) with him.

Baltimore, also an engine house keepcorruption in high places, against official swindling, against all Rings detrimental to the popular interests, we shall wage stern and ceaseless war.

We shall further endeavor to make orphan sister to support from his scanty earnings, to do with offering his hand to the heiress of half a million? It would adversity—shared with them in the bless-Baltimore, also an engine house keepbe simple beggary.

Time passed on, and Harry Cowper was punctual at his desk, and at his humble of the simple beggary and the fortune which Uncle Snyder than that of the Judge) with him.

He (the Judge) was the delegate to the delegate to the Methodist Episcopal Church Conthe Methodist Episcopal Church Conference at Winchester, Virginia, (just before the war) who seceded from the tic to the majority of the Conference.

While this prating Judge professes Christianity, he never was known to improve any opportunity for sowing the good seed, or of teaching, either by precept or example, the lessons which we are taught to believe as coming direct from the fountain-head, and certainly his actions do not apkindliness and gentle hearing of those who understand Christianity to signify not only faith, purity and devotion, but also, that peace and good will among men are its fundamental principles and essential elements. No,

Since the brilliant Carl Schurz has broken with Grant, and it is seen that he

the German vote, the President and his friends in the Senate cannot conceal their cropped out yesterday in the remarks of

as a convincing argument that he knew nothing of statesmanship, or the principles of Republican Government, And

(1) added his conception of "the true spirit of American institutions." He said that for his part he "would never consent to give the rebel leaders a right side till their hair grew as long as Ne-

The Pariridge the Agriculturist's

Friend.

At a meeting of horticulturists in Illi-useful this bird is, it was stated that a flock of partridges were seen running and seeing them engaged in something young plants, one of them was killed and its "crop" examined, which was found striped bugs, and over one hundred chinch bugs. Another member related that he had adopted measures to protect the bird, and that they had become so numerous and tame that hundreds of them, after snow falls, could be seen in his barnyard with the fowls, where they were fed. As a result of their presence upon his premises his wheat crop was unusually abundant, while in many other places not far off the chinch-bug and other insects had destroyed half the crop.

"While Ben bossed New Orleans,

informed a waggish but very ill Confederate officer, then sick at his home in the city, that he must take the oath or clear

Confederate demurred as much as possible, alleging that he was used up anyhow, that he didn't believe in the old government at all, and that the odds were that he would soon die and secede permanently. It was of no use; so he got Ben to administer the oath himself. Ben complied, holding the book behind the back of the neck so able orb. The officer swallowed the oath with sincere and suggestive grimaces.

he asked Butler, "Ain't I as good a union man as you now, General?" "Yes, if you live up to that oath," rejoined Ben. "And I can abuse the South as loud as the worst of you?" inquired the officer. "To your

Well, then, General," added the sick man, rising in bed, and fixing Butler's one eye, with his two, "if you and I had that d—d old rebel, Lee, in our hands, wouldn't heart's content," replied the

At the close he seemed rejuvenated, and

This order was peremptory. The on Butler, which is pretty good:

The following story is going the rounds

The Washington correspondent of SOUTH CAROLINIAN

Prospectus for 1872.

THE Undersigned in Recognition of the demand for an out-spoken and independent organ at the Capital of the honest people of South Carolina, has es-tablished

THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN. This journal will be devoted to the and Industrial interests of the State, and will also consider the questions that affect the whole country. Whilst we expect to be the unfettered representa-tive of the true interests and the Constiopposed by Chawles Augustus, of ple, we shall seek not to forget that our the Plunderer's Organ of your city, and that the sense even of wrongs and who is now his chief eulogizer. the suggestions of prudence. Our policy we shall seek to make at once bold and

> THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN such a vehicle of News and Intelligence means at our command to impart value and interest to our columns. "Democratic" though we are in ou political sympathies and views of gov-ernment, we shall be prepared to unite other parties in securing the priceless blessings of good and honest govern "Native and to the manner born." we are, nevertheless, in full accord with good and true men, whatever may be the accidents of birth and country. We advo-

The South Carolinian makes an appeal the honest masses of the State. Indearrest of many Southern sympathi-zers in your city during the late war, by means of his influence with the commanding generals and their provost marshals.

and cliques, and commanding interests, it must derive its bodily life from the people at large, whose interests in the country, and in the village, town and city, it will faithfully and zealously uphold.

> Weekly, " " (when ready ADVERTISING RATES.

TERMS:

Advertisements will be inserted at the the first, and fifty cents per square for pear to be influenced by the constant kindliness and gentle hearing of those tracts made with those wishing to advertise for three, six, or twelve months. JOB PRINTING Will be executed with fidelity and des

> JOHN P. THOMAS, Editor and Proprietor.

> > U STUKISMEN.

litivator of and Dealer

hepherds. Pointers, Setters, Retrievers, Newfoundland. St. Bernard, Fox and Deer-Hounds, Greyhounds, Blood-Hounds, Ratters, Coach-Dogs, Bull-Dogs. hatred of the entire foreign element. It Premium Chester White Hogs. Thorough-Bred Berkshire flogs.

> Fancy Poultry and Eggs. Fancy Pigeons. C. I. CALVERT, Newark, Del.

20 All orders left with Mr. John H. FAIR, Edgefield, S. C., will receive prompt attention. Choice Planting and Eating to take part in the Government. He would keep them browsing on the out-Potatoes. buchadnezzar's, and if that was not statesmanship, then he did not know any thing

100 Barrels Pure EARLY ROSE. about it." Thereupon there was mirth at 85. in the Senate. The country will agree 50 Bbls. Pure EARLY GOODRICH. with Mr. Nye that he doesn't know any-at 85. 100 Bbls, JACKSON WHITES, at $3,75 " PINK EYES, at $4,50. 100 " PEACH BLOWS, at $4,50. " WESTERN REDS, at $3,75. The above Potatoes were selected with nois strong ground was taken against the rreat care for Planting, and are Choice destruction of these birds. To show how Seed and Genuine.

JAS. G. BAILIE & BRO., 205 Bread Street, Augusta, Ga. along the rows of corn just sprouting,

Georgia Lime & Fertilizer Co which was believed to be pulling up the MANUFACTURERS of SHELL L

"ENGLISH STONEWALL COTTON
FERTILIZER" the BEST cotton fertilizer in use—and for the "ENGLISH DIS SOLVED BONE" a pure Superphosphate of lime, for composting with cotton seed

COLES, SIZER & CO., No 14, McIntosh St., Augusta, Ga. M. H. MIMS, Johnstons Depot. L. G. SWEARINGEN, Pine House

and Graniteville. Augusta, Ga., Jan. 3

1871. FALL TRADE. 1871 GUNS. GIINS. Double and Single Barrel Guns, Breechloading and Muzzleloading Guns of English, French and German

AT ALL PRICES. Single Guns at $2,50, $4,00, $6,00, $8,00, $12,00 to $20 each. Double Guns from $7,00 to $200,00 each. PISTOLS. PISTOLS. PISTOLS. nith & Wesson, Colt's, Allen's, Sharp's and all the popular and approved kin

AMMUNITION FOR GUNS,

PISTOLS AND RIFLES. SPORTSMEN'S GOODS OF GREAT VARIETY. Best Quality and at Lowest Price. Country Merchants and Sportsmen are invited to call and examine our large and well selected stock of the above Goods, which we import direct and buy from the menufacturers. We guarantee quali ty equal to, and prices as low as any res-ponsible house in this country. Orders by mail filled promptly, and sent by express C. O. D. POULTNEY, TRIMBLE & CO.,

200 W. Baltimore Street, BALTIMORE, MD.

To Rent. The following conundrum was THE STORE ROOM under Masonic

R. A. COCHRAN, J. H. YELDELL, Hall Committee SAMS & HI No. 4, Park Rows

Are Constantly Receiving Fresh Supplies

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.

BOOTS AND SHOES. LEATHER OF ALL KINDS.

RUST PROOF RED OATS.

COTTON SEED MEAL. Call and ask for what you want.

T. W. CARWILE & CO.,

GROCERS

Commission Merchants. 297 Broad St., Augusta, Ga., ESPECTFULLY announce to their Edgefield friends that they have entered into Co-Partnership for the purpose of conducting a GENERAL

GROCERY and COMMISSION BUSINESS, and will devote all their energies towards building up a First Class Grocery House, promising to make every exertion to give the most perfect satisfaction to all who may favor them with their patronage. We are now receiving full lines of

LARD, COFFEES, SUGARS, TEAS, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, MACKEREL, RICE,

BAGGING, TIES, CANDLES, BUTTER, SOAP, STARCH,

and vegerables. And in fact EVERYTHING usually found in First Class Grocery

We are also Agents for the sale of Wm. Massey & Co's. Celebrated Philadelphia ALES. Will be glad at all times to see our Edgefield friends, and will sell the Best Grade of Goods at the Lowest Market Prices. Sept 20

W. A. SANDERS.

No. 3, Park Row, EDGEFIELD, S. C.,

-- Dealer in--PURE DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS,

PAINTS, OILS, VARNISH, PUTTY, GLASS, DYE STUFFS, BITTERS, PATENT MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, FANCY ARTICLES, TOILET AND FANCY SOAPS, CONGRESS AND VERMONT WATER. ALL OF THE LATE AND POPULAR REMEDIES OF THE DAY,

SEGARS AND TOBACCO, IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC WINES. LIQUORS OF ALL KINDS, &c., Begs to announce to the public that his Stock is Full, Complete. Fresh and Genuine, and all articles sold as low as the same can be bought in any market in the State. PRESCHIPTIONS carefully prepared, day and night, and warranted from tested Medicines.

NOW IN STORE,

A CHOICE SUPPLY of FAMILY GROCERIES, embracing all articles for family purposes. My Groceries are choice, and special attention is called to them. I have also received 10 Barrels Pure RYE WHISKEY, from 6 to 10 years old, from 4 to 6 years old, 2 years old, " Copper Distilled CORN WHISKEY, " Mountain WHISKEY. Also, Pure FRENCH BRANDY, Holland GIN, Imported Jamaica RUM, WINES of all kinds, &c. My Liquors are pure and unrectified Persons wishing to purchase will please call, and I know satisfaction will be given.

Cotton and Produce WAREHOUSE.

The Planters' Loan & Savings Bank.

THE WAREHOUSE OF THIS BANK, corner of Reynolds and Campbell Streets, Augusta, Ga., is now ready to receive COT-

LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES will be made upon Cotton in Warehouse, or upon Railroad Receipts.

Parties Storing Cotton with the Bank will be furnished with receipts for same that will be available in this city or any other for borrowing money. The Bank is prepared at all times to make Loans on Produce or Provi-

Augusta, Sept 20

Subscribed Capital, $1,000,000,001

Parties would do well to apply at the Warehouse, or communicate with the Officers. CHAS. J. JENKINS, President.

JNO. P. KING, Vice-President, T. P. BRANCH, Cashier, tf