She is quite aged how-ever, and it would seem probable that her sentence will be commuted. In this case two young lawyers popular among us, Mr. John R. Abney and Mr. John C. Sheppard made, each, his first speech. And each proved himself to be not only a man of study but of 'ideas. Mr. Abney is intellectual and analytical; and as for our young friend Sheppard, his voice, manner and eye, to say nothing of good mind and clear head, are superior to those of ninety-nine men out of a hundred. And speaking of young lawyers, what a youthful bar, Sea of Glory!

We allude to the new Spring Adver fisement of our young friend, Mr. J. H. Cheatham, who is just back from New York. And next week, he assures us, among its lists are named many articles of great novelty and beauty-in fact ma ny articles unknown to the fashionable world until this Spring: Mr. Cheatham's stock is indeed superb. We have seen it with our own eyes. Indeed when you go in, the sea of glory rolls over you, and you roll over in the sea. The performance is reciprocatory and delightful A pleasant and suggestive name among

Columbia, S. C., Mar 7, 1871.

Having established the Office for the above Company in Columbia, we invite attention to one or two of the advantages offered to them who may desire to effect insurance on their lives in a safe Home Company : The Board of Managers at a recent meeting passed unanimously the fol-

owing Resolution: " Resolved, That in view of the fact that there are unusually large sums paid for Life Insurance, to the Companies of the North and East, which sums, being there invested, contribute to the enrichment of those sections, whilst our own South is greatly in need of cash capital to prosecute successfully our Agricultural and Mechanical enterprizes; it is ordered, that for the purpose of retaining these sums in our midst, hereafter a certain proportion of the net cash receipts from premiums, amounting to not more than 70 per cent, of the same be invested in such manner as may be in accordance with the regulations of the Company, in those sections from which the said premiums are attained."

WM. B. JOHNSON, Pres't. (Signed) GEORGE S. O'BEAR, Sec'ry.

The Financial strength of the Company places it in high rank. Its las Annual Statement shows that the Company possess, besides its large Guarantee, $170 for every $100 of its liability.
