BY D. R. DURISOE.

EDGEFIELD, S. C., FEBRUARY 13, 1873.

VOLUME XXXVIII.-No. 8.

STONO, FERTULIERS,

on the C. C. & A. R. R., for the reception and preservation in good order of their fertilizers, and will keep a supply on can haul at their convenience without ordering before hand, and waiting its arrival, and then perhaps having to hand on the only good days for ploughing du-

PRICES:

Stono Soluble Guano, Cash, 1st Nov., without interest, Stono Acid Phosphate, Cash, Drayage and freight, in addition, to be paid in Cash on delivery.

Haul early, before the roads get bad

PACIFIC GUANO COMPANYS SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO!

THIS GUANO is now so well known in all the Southern States for its remarkable effects as an agency for increasing the products of labor, as not to Its use for seven years past has estab-lished its character for reliable excellence. The large fixed capital invested by the Company in this trade affords the surest

J. N. ROBSON.
J. N. ROBSON.
J. N. ROBSON.
J. N. Selling Agent, Charleston'S. C.
J. No. S. REESE & CO.,
General Agents, Baltimore.

To accommodate planters, they can order now and have until the list of April to decide as to whether they will take at time or cash price. When delivered from the Factory by the carload no dray-

FERTILIZERS!

composting with Cotton Seed.
Price of Acid Phosphate in Charleston

For particulars, address Mr. JAMES A Dozier, cr myself, at Edgeneid C. H. O. F. CHEATHAM.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

nnum. For particulars, address.
TURBNULL BROTHERS, Pub'rs.
Baltimore, Md. Largest Organ Establishment in the World

7 Extensive Factories.

J. ESTEY & COMPANY. Brattleboro, Vt., U. S. A. THE CELEBRATED ESTEVI COTTAGE ORGANS

The latest and best improvements. Everything that is new and novel. The leading improvements in Organs were introduced first in this establishment.

Established 1946.

SEND FOR ILJOSTRATED CATALOGUE.

AVERILL CHEMICAL

and all the festionable shades and copers used in house and couver painting, ready for use, requires no oil, thinning, or dryers, and sold only by the Sample card of colors, and testimonials from owne of the finest, residences in the country, furnished for by dealers generally, or by the AVERILL CHEMICAL PASET CO.,

$5_to $20 per day! Agents wanted! As classrs of working people, of either sex, young or old, make more momey at work for us in their sparie moments, or all the time, then at anything else. Particulars free. Address G. STINSON & CO., Pordand, Maine.

AGENTS! A RARE CHANCE! We will pay all Agents $40 per week in cash who will ongogo with us at once. Everything furnished and exploses paid. A ddress CO., Charlotte, Mich.

PLATT - BROTHERS

LARGE AND COMPLETE STOCKS

New Furniture! LATEST STYLES AND PATTERN

Parlor, Chamber, Dining Room cottage looked neater.

OFFICE PURNITURE! FROM THE HIGHEST GRADE

Call and examine at our Ware-Rooms.

Undertaking! Always on hand, at the lowest prices, Beautiful Caskets and Cases. Of our own manufacture, MO PLATTABBOTHERS today at Palace Stables, for sale on time, maid nor wife. C. TOLER. tto purchase. Palace Stables, 150 Ellis Street.

212 and 214 Broad Street.

A LULLABY.

Blue as the azure deep of the skies, Now so regnish; now wondrous wise,

To see, in thy word,
Wondrous things;
Light them in love, With angel's wings.

Red, red,
Red as the flaming coral-tips,
Sweet as the rose the wild bee sips,
Singing and prattling all day long,
And kissing and coaxing with witel strong, What shall we ask for these little lips?

From thine altar, Lord, above, Touch these lips with fire of love Pure, pure, let them be, Speaking holy melodies, Out of a holy heart, that rise, Warm, bright, up to thee.

Two little hands, Busy busy, Busy as bird, and busy as bee, Cathering "funny things" for me. Weaving webs, and "building a house

Cunning to work for Thee,

Now here, now there, now everywhere; Running of errands, dancing in glee, Skipping and jumping merrily! What shall we ask for these little feet?

Lead them a blessed pilgrimage, From childhood through to saintly age, Dear Lord, we pray: Hold them a light in the dim, dark night And out of the narrow path of the right

Two little eyes—closed!
Two little lips—shut!
Two little hands—clasped!
Two little feet—still!

DIVORCED.

He'll go to the dogs now.' 'Of course he will cted when his wife lived with him! Aso, am Agent for the ATLANTIC Now that she's left him, and all rethe downward way in no time. Poor Nette! I wonder she stood it so

'Well, I pity him too; but I pity her more. He brought misery on Such was the gossip of half a dozen villagers, who stood in front of mer evening, while the subject of their remarks went staggering along to make a drunken man walk more crooked. Well, it proved one thing; no use trying to hide them. Besides, of shame—that he still retained a little pride, and a lingering aversion o be ridiculed and despised.

hands from her face and held them but Harry Rogers had carried on in his own, 'I thought you had blotto be ridiculed and despised. at a fearful rate for a year or two ted me out of your memory, past. He had just one vice-drink Nettie Ray, only a few years previously and such had been his conduct unhappy.' during more than a year past that she seeing no hope of his reform, had been obliged to cut him lease to purchase sue his profligate course alone; and more—that you are again manly and a legal separation had just been ef- industrious as you used to be; but upon Mr. Ingalls, with a pledged fected. It was sad, indeed, but no how lonely you must be here? and strength of sixty-two. When the other course seemed to be left her.

Harry's home was on a little farm, heart felt that her lips spoke.

House and Senate went into joint ballot to-day there was no man in the a mile from town. He owned it, but then it was heavily mortgaged, and then you may think; but I deserve much of the lurking devilment of august and honorable body of reprethen it was heavily mortgaged, and in another year forcellosure was certain. It was not likely his creditors would spare him when he made no effort to meet his obligations, and spent his time in riotous and disgraceful conduct.

then you may think; but I deserve the presiding of the lurking devilment of the lurking devilment of conspiracy as glittered in York's eyes and before the almighty Ruler of the Universe. I solemnly declare and after that very word I have and after the desired in York's eyes and before the almighty Ruler of the Universe. I solemnly declare and after that very word I have and after the truth."

You were all a wife should a month or two. What strange miste- after I knew you had left me for ginning March 4, 1873. a month or these. What strange mises after I knew you mad let me to the propher bewilder good. I was in town drunk, and I ment of the prophesying sages. Har heard some village people—they ry discontinued visiting the tavern, thought I couldn't hear them across Senator York, of Montgomery, arose and was reactly ever seen in the villing. When he said come in the marks about me, saying that now I of privilege, which was granted him.

farm. Had but one man seen this, and told it in the village, he would of whiskey in my pocket at the road-bush of whiskey in my pocket at the road-bush of whiskey in my pocket at the road-bush of strained expectancy as the side, and resolved never to touch whiskey again. I had tried it long whiskey again. I had tried it long and York walked back to his seat, enough to know that I could not consider the road-bush of strained expectancy as the speaker turned over the crisp notes, and York walked back to his seat.

Time worann, and the great change the last two years will only enhance was the more strangely remarkable; your happiness. Nettie, dear, what each day Harry's creditors called on do you say?
him and told him they would not be she could not answer; she was her young girlhood over again, as it were, under her father's roof, but factor or city acceptance.

I will take great pleasure in showing Harry since the separation, but she my Stock to Planters and those desiring heard of him occasionally; knew Mary had a little lamb; had come too late-too late! There was a wide gulf between them now. But one evening in the golden October Nettie found herself rather a round about road in going to and question, however, she had been de- a graphic picture of the transaction, tained in the village unconsciously till it was dark, and she determined of the plot which brought about the to hazard the nearest road home. It would be fully dark when she would pass his house and the chances were that he would not see her. She wouldn't have him see her for the

When she arrive i opposite to the house she perceived a light in the to hurry by; but some powerful influence prompted her to stop. She did so, and stood timidly at the further side of the road, gazing longingly at the house that had been a home for her-first of happiness, then, of misery. By-and-by, she felt and irresistible yearning to look at the interior of the room once more. He was evidently within, and there was no danger that he would see her. So she walked hurriedly across the road, opened the gate, and softly stepped into the lawn. Another moment and she was at the window, looking in. What singular behavior

But she could not help it. The little room was as neat as when she herself watched over it. A cheerful fire was burning in the grate, although it was not very cold; and a lighted lamp stood on the table. It was there that Harry was sitting. How her heart bounded as she caught sight of him! He held in his right hand a book from his scanty library.

She recognized it at once; but he was not reading now. He had allowed it to drop, with its open pages looking mutely to the ceiling-and his face was supported and half concealed by the left nand, the elbow resting on the table. Was he asleep-or was he buried in sad reverie! Nettie thought that the latter was the case and her heart was touched.

'I wish I had borne with him,' she ouched when she saw a tear roll book. The lonely man was not asleep was womanly in her heart was arousthe sitting-room and was at his side. Her voice quivered with emotion.

'Why, Nettie!' he exclaimed, tryng to hide his tears-men are ashamed of them-' Is it you?' 'Yes Harry,' holding her face in in-I saw you sitting here so lonely, happy here, andsay no more just then. 'Nettie,' he arose, and took both

'No, no, Harry,' she sobbed. but that was enough. He had could not do that. I could not help married a worthy farmer's daughter, leaving you, but I left you loving you more than ever. Oh! I have been 'Nettie you have heard that I-graceful conduct.

A week passed after that summ revening on which all agreed in predicting his early ruin—two weeks—a month octwo. What strange mister a month octwo. What strange mister is seemed impossible for me to overlonder rapped order with his gayer and announced that the Legislature of Kansas in joint convention would now proceed to ballot for United less than ever. Only a day or two States senator for the full term, belage. When he did come in the store, he speed by transacted business and then went home—sober.

But wonders never cense when they gat a start. He was next reported as actually at work on his farm. Had but one man seen this, farm. Had but one man seen this, stared me in the face. I had a bottle and tore it, and their combined testimony was worthy of all credence.

The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The little farm began to high healthier as the Sammer wore on. The weeds high healthier and the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over to the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the same let us get married over the little won the little won the same let us get married over the little won the little won the same let us get married over the little won the little won the same let us get married over the little won the little won the same let us get married over the little won th sleeker, and happier, and the little you the same, let us get married over again, and the bitter experience of

And consists of every article of FURXIown time about paying his debts and crying as if her heart would break, and her head was pillowed upon his formulation.

The Pall form of the mortgage.

were married again, and there is no divorce that will separate them now.

Downfall of Pemeroy.

The journals of the Northwest contain very full accounts of the dramaobliged to pass Harry's farm. It lay tic scenes in the Kansas Legislature between her father's house and the when Senator Pomeroy was exposed closed his speech with village, but she had heretofore taken and defeated. The following extracts from the St. Louis Republican give together with an interesting history

SETTING THE TRAP. As early as Thursday of last week one possible method of beating Pomcould be depended on to expose him. t rward by the opposition, it was dethe man most available for this purnection with several Eastern railway companies interested in Pomerov's confidence, was brought up from Kansas City to begin the negotiations. After some skirmishing and sparring eroy was brought about, at which was arrived at. Pomeroy then began to shuffle, as he always does, and tried to work it with York through third parties. York, however, refused to negotiate with the third parties limited influence extends in deed as at all, and insisted on doing the bu- well as in thought. I have an aged siness exclusively with the senator himself, averging that the old senator was a nice man to do business with, and he wanted a full, fair and personal understanding in the mat-

At last Pomerov suspended the bylaws of his caution and his piety, and entered squarely into negotia-tions with York. The latter was none of your ten cent fellows. He told Pomeroy that his constituents had threatened to hang him if he voted for the old man, and so it would enough to insure his neck. He fur-Montgomery County again, and hence he must sell out for enough to enable and to indemnify him against any sacrifice of property he might have to make in disposing of his effects in Montgomery. This recital harrowed up the old man's bowels of Christian compassion, and he offered York degradation a pure Republican govabout $5000. This York felt obliged to decline. The case was one of desperation with him, and he must have at least $8000. At this old Pomeroy | made there made him aware that some her hands, 'I was passing—I looked in—I saw you sitting here so louely, and could not help coming in. I basis, to wit, $2000 down, $5000 with—in disgraceful scenes. From Pome thought of the time when we were in forty-eight hours, and the other roy's own lips he learned that his $1000 after he was elected. Well, spies and emissaries were working in York took his $2000 and attended the causes of the opposition to sell be repressed no longer. There was the Pomeroy caucus, where he made out the candidates who had been the speech of a proselyte, and was brought against Pomeroy. He closed among the humblest of the late and his nervous, impassioned address with contrite converts. The next day he these damning accountry words went and got his $5000, which he "These disclosures I will not now roy's promise to pay an additional mous betrayer of the solemn trust re-1 $1000 after he was elected. That posed in him by the will of the peolast $1000 York will probably lose.

MISCHIEF IN THE AIR. Things went on lovely till after Tue day's separate ballots, and then which a concentration was effected 'Yes, I'm lonely, Nettie-more so entire hall whose face had in it so have stated in the presence of this and claimed the floor on a question deafening as he at down. tailed the circumstances of his bri-INTENSE EXCITEMENT.

As he proceeded the excitement became intense, and finally whenever

AN IMPASSIONED PERGRATION At the following passage, explainof which attempt the evidences were then in the hands of the speaker, the excitement was intense. "I visited Mr. Pomeroy's roomsin the dark and secret recesses of the Taft House on it became evident that there was but my vote was bargained for a consideration of $8000 $2000 of which Senate. His preliminary examina-$5000 the next aftermoon, and a prom- row under the criminal statute of this ise of the additiona $1000 when my State, and there is a league formed vote was cast in his favor. I now, in which will prosecute the case to the At a council of war held shortly at? the presence of this honorable body, last court and with the last dollar. hand over the amount of $7000, just Pomeroy has published a letter in as I received it, and ask that it be which he says: "I only ask a sushis denunciations of Pomeroy, the The verdict will decide who has comexcitement increased to a dramatic mitted crime; and the measure of the name was received with emphatic expressions of indignation. The scene of legislation-one that is hoped may never be seen again under the same

> "I ask, Mr. President," he said. that that money be used to defray the expenses of prosecuting the inbery and corruption, as far as my and makes a bargain for my soul, and it is offered, will make my children take measures to thoroughly examine contest, and that the alleged corruption money then in the speaker's justice. He stated that in the hour or two he had passed in "the den of tivity. Tha neighbors ate and drank infamy, the Tafft House"-Pomerny's | and danced to their heart's content.

of his could express. ple is S. C. Pemeroy. I have been actuated by no motive, personal or vindictive, in my action here to-day. I have not made the fight on Mr. Pomeroy in Mr. Ingall's interest, in Mr. Lowe's or Mr. Harvey's interest, but in behalf of the betraved and long-suffering people of this Com-mong-saith, and in justificance of the solemn oath I took when I entered these halls as a representative of the Expired two divides a herd of Texas steers breaking for timber when a norther omest othem. Oring in marconaprie who had sounded his praises prepatory to their votes for him on Tuesay's ballot, shrupk down in their last till you could have hid them selind a gopher hill or a stand of unch grass. When the in manes we, called they feebly voted for Ingal and subsided. It was a rout an a slaughter. The battalions had gone for it in all the popper and prig and panonly of the strength of the surrence, and a universal wish present of the battalions had gone for it in all the popper and prig and panonly of the surrence, and a universal wish present the surrence of the water of the battalions had gone for it in all the popper and prig and panonly of the surrence, and a universal wish present the surrence of the battalions had gone for it in all the popper and prig and panonly of the surrence, and a universal wish present the surrence and prosperation and Physical Incapacitation of the cousidered heavy when contained the popper of the wound, and proved the the gording on the route, and seven this will not be cousidered heavy when compared with the grading of the cousidered heavy when compared with the grading of the two units will not be cousidered heavy when coupared with the grading of the the upper parts of Georgia and Carolina. We crossed the Savannah river just below the mouth of Uohy creek. This point was the most practicable or the most subjects peace and prosperity, and fail to was a fail to the successful, should secure to its subjects peace and prosperity, and fail to was a fail to the successful, should secure to its subjects peace and prosperity of the called Hepabhean, but in called Hepabhea presiding officer ould restore order, pomp and prie and panoply of Pomerovism and patronage in the morning; they were shirking, suave, and his money."] I ask you if I am The excitement in the city to-hight in your minds a disgraced man? takes the shape in some quarters of [I ask you if the end did not justify threats to lynch Pomeroy, but these the means? [Cries of "Yes, yes," are merely temporary ebullitions of a and loud cheers.] Then Mr. York transient passion. The law will take its course, and from present appearances Pomeroy will be prosecuted to the full penalty, which is seven years in the Penitentiary. From the Unit-

HIS EXPULSION DEMANDED. To-morrow Senator Moonlight, of Leavenworth, will introduce a reso-Monday night, and at that interview lution demanding the expulsion of Mr. Pomeroy from the United States the road. were paid to me on that evening, tion will take place day after to-morcounted by the secretary." As Mr. pension of public judgment until a York continued hisdevelopments and fair hearing can be had in the courts.

A Bride Murdered.

Correspondence New York Herald. RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 3, 1873. I am in receipt of a dispatch from Fayette County, West Virginia, which states that a most shocking outrage and terrible tragedy occurred in the neighborhood of Mountain Cave, in that county, a few nights since. Nearly eighteen months ago the people of the same county were shocked by a named John O'Coleman and Madison It is unfortunately my duty now to record the murder of a sister of Madison Neal, not more than one-half mile from the spot where her brother was sent, without warning, to an un-It appears that the lady, who was buxom and charming mountain maid, was wooed and won by a Mr. Potter, a very respectable, industrious and worthy man. Thursday; the 23d ult, was the day set apart for not always run smooth, and so it was of the detestable practices of the Kansas politician—of the depth of by the hideous sounds of a charivari ernment has reached—that no words that were waited towards them by a residence of the married pair the discordant sounds of the blowing horns and the beating of the tin-pan tambourines were occasionally inter-

OMINOUS CRACK OF MUSKETS, so disguised, however, that they could not be recognized from any point of consequence of the route being on a by and by." observation within the house. Just ridge between the waters of Savanbride, who fearing that their inten-tion might be more hostile than com-the route from Granwood to the rivtake some refreshments, and thus appears any animosity they might entertain. She accordingly advanced to the door, accompanied by her step-drains or gullies.

The speech at he close was received. With a shriek and acry of agony the ed with loud chers and with fierre unfortunate bride of a few hours fell epithets hurled a Pomeroy, and with to the ground, from which she was exclamations from the members which shortly afterwards removed by her showed that his ation was vindicated husband and daughter to the wedby the body, and that he was ex- ding bed. The villians who perpeonerated from allblame. The shouts trated this cowardly and barbarous in the hall and in the galleries were outrage disappeared in the darkness, but in a more sudden manner than its predecessor of the same nature, higher by embankment. This bank from the fact that the State governing the same nature, higher by embankment. This bank from the fact that the State governing the same nature, higher by embankment. With all his power and his money both as to the time each occupied and also has a rocky foundation. Our him and told him they would not be she could not answer; she was hard on him, and he might have his count ime about paying his debts and consequently there is two local and his prestig of yesterday, to-day the skill displayed in the prosecution and his prestig of yesterday, to-day the skill displayed in the prosecution and defence, is hardly equalled in the prosecution route across the river passes over an example of pomeroy foundation. Our the skill displayed in the prosecution and defence, is hardly equalled in the prosecution of the prosecution of the prosecution and defence, is hardly equalled in the prosecution of the prosecuti tion. It was a revolution. York ter so poor as too him honor. The history of criminal law in this countries of water. The following are the string his farm of the mortgage.

The Fall came, and the farm yielded an abundance of golden corn and fruits; such a crop indeed as it had never produced before, and Harry found himself beginning to drift along with the tide of prosperity.

And Nettie Ray had begun to live her young girlhood over again, as it her young girlhood over again, as it her cannot be reading in the string in the fact of the state against the stand and chanter of the mortgage.

The Fall came, and the farm yield than she could have spoken with the fact of golden corn and fruits; such a crop indeed as it had never looked so happy as it did while of my malice aforethought betrayed fathers.

And Nettie Ray had begun to live her young girlhood over again, as it was a more eloquent west. The following are the state against the cannot be with the face of the State against the true of the state against the state against the state against the state of the state against the st the consequences; but I did it be- House, and sested Pomeroy on a ses—not a precedent calculated to very zarely overflowed by the water. lawless acts would abate, if suitable cause I though it was a sacrifice re- charge of brity. His examination guide future investigations to actual The route on this side of the river is punishment were meted out to those AUGUSTA, GA.

July 2

Two journalists, one at Baltimore sober and quiet practical and the other at Chicago, have discoverand the other at Chicago, and the the same than the chicago, and the other at Chicago, and the other at Chicago, and th certain thought,—she was neather mometer; that cold weather freezes upon aid nor wife.

She avoided the vicinity of her late home, nor had she once seen in gup North about now.

Harry since the separation, but she heard of him occasionally; knew the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is, there is more humbug in the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is, there is more humbug in the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is, there is more humbug in the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is, there is more humbug in the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is, there is more humbug in the same facts of scientific men.

The truth is,

. [From the Chronicle & Sentinel.] Greenwood and Augusta Railroad, route, which we intend to do as soon

the Augusta and Greenwood Railroad, held in Augusta, on Wednesday, 5th inst., the following business

On motion of P. H. Bradley, R. H. May was called to the Chair, and Jno. M. Clark requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman stated that owing to other engagements, Major George T. Jackson declined the Presidency of After fully discussing the propriety of selecting a Chairman to fill temporarily the position of President, J. A. Tolbert moved that P. H. Bradley be elected to fill the place: which was carried unanimously.

The report of the engineers was read and unanimously, approved, as was also the proposition to assess three per cent, of stock subscriptions to defray expenses already incurred, complete estimates (the road-bed to be twelve feet wide) and map out the

Jno. M. Clark was elected Treasurer, who will receive the assessment. .The Chairman was authorized, to elect agents to solicit subscriptions

.H. K. Bradley moved that the press friendly to the enterprise be requested to publish the engineers' report, which was approved, when the meeting adjourned, subject to the REPORT OF THE ENGINEERS. AUGUSTA, GA., Feb. 4, 1873.

We; the undersigned, having been ppointed to make a survey of the route of the anticipated railroad leadng from Augusta, Ga., to Greenwood, C., beg liberty to make the followng report:

The survey was commenced on the 9th of November last, at Greenwood, but by reason of the inclemeny of the weather and the want of sufficient number of axe men, our all. The men, angered at his looks of progress was much retarded, so that triumph, returned to the battle, but mere ourselves no farther on the route than Dorn's Mines, which is about 24 on the first Monday in January. At the fever and ague all the time in these resent time. The whole route, with the exception of about one and a half erally admired, sought after and valued; miles near or within the vicinity of yet more abused, trampled upon, kicked ly retired when they were disturbed carefully made or filled out, with all the necessary data for constructing a foot because her lover's kinfolks dresse correct profile and a legible map of that way, and she did not wish to seen the same, by which a correct estimate proud.
can and will be made of the entire Mrs. Snidkins says her husband cost of the grading and all other me. is a three-handed man-right hand, left chancal work of said road. We have hand, and a little behind hand, admeasured and leveled sixty-one rect estimate of the cost of grading, but by a careful inspection of our when Adam, and Eve partook of field book and our careful observashot guns and rifles. Soon the party | tions all along the route, we can ap- | the higher branches? arrived at the house, and then the proximate very nearly to the entire noise of their horrible instruments, cost of the whole road on the entire plimentary, to ask the party in to er. 'fas restles will be few and of

to the door, accompanied by her step-danghter, and opening it, she stood and the threshold with a lighted can-that there is design in all, the works dle in her hand. Almost simultane- of nature : the are induced ously with her appearance there was a the hence that the topography of the ridge all the way from Greenwood to the river points out and has a design than a railway. We do not think that any route of the same length of this and of the same distance from the sea coast can be found which could be turned into a railroad for required to build this. by demonstration to the contrary. About six mues from the river, on the THE BLLOTING.

that which they came. Mrs. Potter, Garofina side, and half mile over after suffering the most accrutiating Rae's creek, and one mile at Green-yalls for the prompt and severe punis composed mostly of large solid is in the rocks, and it is elevated thirty-eight the rage of vice and crime in the feet from the surface of the water. On this side the bank is not so high; The Wharton-Van Ness case and but we think can easily be made force Shapines as related to the one hope you to the eventual to the edge. There is a military to the executive to to make out any profile or map of the At a meeting of the Directors of ss we finish the field work; and n submitting this report we tender ou holders of the said road for the friend ly and courteons treatment which we have received from them since w have been on the survey.

T. P. ASHMORE. Chief Engineer. J. J. CARTLEDGE, B. F. REYNOLDS. Assistants.

Brevities and Levities."

"When the Vendome column is stored." said a Frenchman to a German. the top." "Right," said the German, that is a place of safety '

The most striking difference between a fool and a looking glass is, that the fool speaks without reflecting, and and took it into his head to crawl after it. When he had got inside, the log began to roll down hill. On arriving at bottom he was considerably bruised, and

A Lafayette (Ind.) street car conductor has got rich enough to buy out the company, and now proposes to extend the road and run two trips a day the late storm in Minnesota, according to a Western paper, was the freezing e A seven foot kangaroo in Austrahorses and four dogs, and whipped then miles from Greenwood. We then ad- was unhealthy. "Wal, no," replied the ourned for Christmas, to meet again royal native, "taint unhealthy, we have which time and place we resumed the parts but then we enjoy a powerful un

An Omaha bride was married bare and a quarter miles of said road, but says he has read lately in a Northern we have not had time to make a cor- journal, is the thermometer record for Those little brothers! will we coupled with the intermittent dis- route from Greenwood to Augusta, summation of a recent marriage in an charges of the firearms, produced a We are induced to believe, from all up-town family, a visitor unwisely obmost alarming effect on the bride and | the facts before us, that the grading, | served to the youngster, "You'rea brothbridegroom. It was found that the with the exception of about six miles er-in-law now, Tommy." "Yes," said serenaders numbered eight persons, from the river, on the Carolina side, Tommy, puffing out his cheeks offen-

An Indiana woman threw a burat this juncture it occurred to the nah river and those of Stephen's glar down stairs and broke his neck, un-have blown out gas stopped at a hotel at were from the rural districts. The late retiring guests, smelling it, notified the router, who woke up the couple, telling em that the gas was leaking. "Is it?" asked the swain; "I thought I blew it to accuse a citizen of lying, said he used truth with penurious frugality. Logical Conclusions.

Visible effects are traceable to direct causes, and the presence of cerdouble of the money which will be of certain causes. Upon this princi-This is saying a great deal for our accounted for. The present condienterprise. Nevertheless we will still tion of society, and, of the country believe and say it till we are confused at large, is due to certain direct caus es, some remote, some tangible. The misfortunes that now surround our unhappy State one their origin entirely, from our stand-point, to the wood, will comprise all of the difficult corrupt system of government under or heavy grading on the route, and which we new live, a government price 50 cents. Address the Publishers, CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., State is one among the legitimate fruits that Radicalism has given birth 127 Bowery, New York, Post Office Box 4,586, to. This conclusion is deducible ment, and the Radical party in this State, have encouraged the commission of every species of crime by sion of every species of crime by do ALL KINDS OF TIN WORK, at either failing to provide adequate punishment for offenders against the n 1868, and any fair minded reasonr must accept our conclusions not nly as just but in every sense logical .- Fairfield Herald.

New Law Firm.

JOHN E. BACON. THOS. J. ADAMS. BACON & ADAMS

Attorneys at Law, Will Practice in the Courts of the State,

LEROY F. YOUMANS. ATTORNEY AT LAW. Columbia; S. C.

W. H. SHAFFER,

Dentist,

HAVING located at Edgeneld offers his Professional services to the citizens and surrounding country. Office at the late residence of S. S. Tompkins, Esq. Feb 28

F. A. Brahe & Co 206 Broad Street.

HAS just opened a MAGNIFICENT STOCK of GOODS, composed of every hing to be found in a First Class Jewelry Store To the inspection of which they re-pectfully invite the citizens of Edgefield.

WATCHES and JEWELRY repaired

ROGERS

147 Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GEORGIA.

HAVE now in Store a very large and FURNITURE, Of All Grades Comprising an elegant assortment of .Fine Walnut and Mahogany CHAM-ER SUITES.

in Plush, Hair Cloth and Reps. Library, Bining Rooms Office & Pall MATTRASSES. &c. And all other articles usually found in a E. G. ROGERS.

147 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga. Nov 27 3m 49 CAROLINA NATIONAL BANK

Columbia, S. C. Capital Stock Paid in $300,000.

Board of Directors.

L. D. Childs, Pres., Jno. T. Darby, J. W. Parker, Vice-Pres., R. M. Wallace, C. D. Melton, Solicitor, Jno S. Wiley, R. O'Neale, Jr., E. Hope.

W. B. GULICK. Cashier. C. J. IREDELL, Ass't Cashier. In addition to the ordinary and usual business of Banking, the Carolina National Bank of Columbia, S. C., issues Interest-bearing Certificates for any

Depositors have all the advantage A SAVINGS BANK, and the safety of their deposits is guar anteed by a paid-up capital of Three Hun profitable investment offer.

Remitances may be made y Express, and Certificates will be returned by mail without delay. Columbia, S. C., Nov. 14, 1872. 3m4$

A LECTURE To Young Men.

Just Published, in a Scaled Envelope. Price Six Cents. LECTURE on the Nature, Treat

Roofing, Guttering, &c. Old Roofs, Outters, TIN WARE, &c., PANS at the shortest notice.

All work warranted. Shop in rear of Post Office, where he

Jan. 8, 1873.