FERTILIZERS!

composting with Cotton Seed.

Price of Acid Phosphate in Charleston,

Excellenza.

THE QUEEN OF ARTIFICIAL MA

Excellenza Soluble Phosphate

Prepared by Dugdale & Co., -a Ferti.irior.

If the farmers and planters of Edgefield will call on me and examine certain strong and unquestionable testimonials, in my possession, of the value of the EXCELLENZA, I feel assured they Price-Cash, $60,00; Time $68,-with freight and drayage from Augusta.

J. H. CHEATHAM. WATSON & CLARK'S

SUPERPHOSPHATE!

WE as General Agents offer for sale in New Socks, fresh from the Manufac-tory, the above Fertilizer at Sixty Dollars per Ton.

It can be had also of John Kennerly, at Ridge Spring, S. C.

J. J. PEARCE, BUTLER & CO.,

Simpson's Prolific

New Furniture! Comprising all the LATEST STYLES AND PATTERN

Parlor, Chamber, Dining Room

OFFICE FURNITURE

FROM THE HIGHEST GRADE TO THE LOWEST.

And consists of every article of FURNI-TURE required to furnish a House or Undertaking! Always on hand, at the lowest prices, Beautiful Caskets and Cases.

Of one own manufacture. 212 and 214 Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GA.

HORSES AND MULES.

100 Houses and MULES arrive

my Stock to Planters and those desiring

Home Shuttle Sewing Machine.

Any person making up a Glub for five achines, will be presented the Sixth ments diered. Liberal deductions made to Ministers of the Gospel. Send Stamp for Circular, and samples of Sewing. Address Rev. C. H. BERN-HEIM, General Agent, Concord, N. C.

STONO!

TO THE LADIES:

It is your secret and mine, love!

Ah me! how the dreary rain,
With a slow persistence all day long,
Dripped on the window pane! Where you in your royal woman Lay waiting for the tomb!

They had robed you all in white, love,
In your hair was a single rose;
A marble rose it might well have bee
In its cold and still repose;
O, paler than you carven saint,
And calm as the angels are,
You seemed so near me, my beloved,

I do not know if I went lote,
But my sour rose up and said:
"My heart shall speak unto her heart.
Though here she is lying—dead!
I will give her a last love-token
That shall be to her a sign
In the dark grave—or beyond it!—
Of this deathless love of mine."

And thereon in eager haste,
Lest another's eye should read them,
Some mystic words I traced.
Then close in your clasped fingers,
Close in your waxen hand,
Tplaced the scroll as an amulet,
Two you wand understand!

Of your grave so green and low. But if, when we meet bereafter, In the dawn of a fairer day, You whisper those mystical words, lov

WHO IS GUILTY?

Mr. Spencer Fenton's servant, as he stepped in front of the low office table, piled with books and law papers. Mr. Fenton's servant was a man of penetration, and knew where to draw. he dividing line between the commonnlace " man" and the higher order of being known as the gentle-ton, quietly, as he took a pistol from drawer, laid it on the table and dropped a newspaper over it. Mr. Fenton was a lawyer, in good practice in a large city, and was mown as widely among the class of customers for whom he practiced as a celebrated lawyer of "Great Exectation" and fame. The man was admitted, and proved sullen looking, brutish personage, in a suit of slops, which looked as it slime of the river for months. He hat if it was not held tightly it. would elude his grasp and escapea mangy fur cap without a frontpiece, and with one ragged "ear-lap," hang-Mr Fenton looked once at this square-jawed, savage face, and gaug- ed the cal. "You may go, John," he said to his servant. "Take these papers down to Mr. Frisbee, at No.—, old city hall, and wait for a message. Take an hour or two for yourself, i arose, turned the key in the lock and out it in his pocket, while the man watched him furtively. The lawyer then took a seat at the table opposite his client, looking at him sternly.

"Now, my man," he said quietly, we are together, and I want to know exactly how this matter stands." "I'm going to tell you how it stands, honest Injun, I am." "You don't mean to try to cheat me, I hope, Senter; because, if you start with that idea, I shall turn you out immediately, and seek information elsewhere. I can get along without you-understand that!" love you, the idea or trying to pull not appearing to belong to them. He ulars of a fire at Rolling Fork and my head.' Very well. Now, as to this ive information for a consideration "For five hundred dollars : don't forgit that." git that."

'Silence! Judas had his price and "Then I'll tell you. The man that put up the job is. Seth Amity, the Fenton started to his feet, and for a moment, lost his self-possession.

"Seth Amity! Man, you are either drunk or crazy!"
"Be I? Then you take me somers and git me swore to it. I'll take my affydavy and swears that he's the one as put up the job. I a'int a going to swear a lie."

"I believe you'd swear to anything for a dollar, Senter; but that don't matter. Of course, if you can prove what you say, the man must be punished. But Seth Amity! knowing the weakness of human nature as I bling was in full blast.

Rolling Fork Landing is on Sundo and having been witness to all The proprietor and Senter exchange flower river, at the mouth of a short word to unlock the safe by. this matter it seems to me.' "Course I know about it. I ain't for n thin. See here, they are go- at different times, and the name was to arouse all sections of the country ing to make another haul on the bank. and they are going to meet to arrange it to-night. Would you dure to go with me and listen?"

"Can you lead the way?" "I kin, and you'll see what yer recious Sath Amity amounts to." " What time will you come?"

"Nine o'clock."
"Shall I bring a policeman?" "I don't like the cops; but bring men arose were these: ne if you like. He can't hurt me.' Very good; you can leave me He arose and unlocked the door. and Senter shuffled out in his sullen to induce him to hurry up the mar- Charles Church yesterday afternoon manner. As he passed down the riage with his daughter. There is wide staircase a voung man brushed over forty the manner and bring stonally."

ing, Se h," he said. " How do mat- you shall have a thousand. Go on to ters go at the bank?" They are in trouble.

for there is absolutely no clue to the .. Twice during the next day Seth scoundrels who robbed the safe. They passed Mr Fenton in the street, with were outning enough not to take any-thing except gold-actually leav- face, and the lawyer found it hard to ing a large quantity of notes, which they might have, had as well as not." Do you suspect any one connect-

"I own I have my suspicions, Mr. F nton, but I have no proofs; and as drawn over their blows, crawled my part if I spoke of it." which was opened by a key, and they the safe was opened with the entered. A man lay sleeping on the key and word," Yes; that is the puzzle, for only if the directors did not have the ut table. He was disposed of as easily most confidence in me, I might have as the other, and left upon the floor ing to the house ?"

will go no further than myself." "Henry Dana, the assistant cashier," replied Seth slowly. "You know that he has not been friendly I were engaged, for he hoped to suc-

"Umph! You are going to the of danger. "Yes; I thought perhaps you were out anything, let us know at once."

He hurried out, and Fenton remained with his head upon his hands, ed him as the affianced husband of rage.

given him trustworthy information one to break the daughter's heart, and consign Seth Amiry to a prison up this most audacious robbery, and down to the cars and stepped up to Dana.

his name by the servant who answe with a care, upon which was written for an hour. in a delicate female hand : "Not at home, to Mr. Amity. I will never see you again. "MARY FENTON." Seth looked wildly at the servant and then tearing the card in pieces he stamped upon them furiously, and hurried out into the street, his heart full of doubt and fears. Mary has refused to see him again. Who has poisoned her mind against him, and how-should he unravel the dark wel which fate seemed weaving around

Senter was on hand at the appointed time and met Fenton at his office where they were joined by a police man "in muft." Fenton had armed himself, and after a stern command to be careful what he did, the infor-"I'll play fair, Mr. Fenton. Lord spaces in advance of the others, and terday, and her officers bring particwood over your eyes never came into took a cab at a corner stand, and loss of life. The store of Messes. bank robbery. You say that you can other cab in sight, they drove away morning the charred remains of Jesse mining, and stock-raising and a di morning the charred remains of Jesse mining, and stock-raising and a di morning the charred remains of Jesse mining, and stock-raising and a di morning the charred remains of Jesse mining, and stock-raising and a di the houses were of the class known from the debris. The skull of Mr. as su picious. The cabmen had their Moore had been broken in across the joined the party.

the policeman.

'You have got the office." "Tom keeps a little game of fato, liceman. "This way then."

sorts of duplicity, I would yet under- ed a few words, and then Senter led stream which connects Sunflower with take to swear that you are lying, the way up stairs to a small room Deer Creek. The store of Ring & among us the greater part of the proain't. He's the man as done it; he's their footsteps gave no sound. Sening, and was used as a storing depot agricultural pursuits year by year, the fastenings, and give them the inch across, and motioned to Fenton supposed there were a good many inopening and saw three men seated at the fire, and ar explosion of powder of industry in our section, and foster hand, conversing in low tones. All The murdering of four or five persons the country. snaked and crawled there hull nights two of them called the third by name, ceal the crime, is enough, of course, he had trusted, and to whom he had characters had been seen previous to with robbers. All compunction, was at an end, and the last words he heard as the covered at this, they probably mnr-look of silent scorn. Senter stop- heavily to-morrow. This will make ected sorrow had driven to despair. At night three men with hats which was opened by a key, and they floor, who was quickly over-powered, 'No; but you must give the name ed it easily enough. The floor was of the man you suspect; of course it quickly strewn with small canvass will go no further than myself." days, each of which represented a large sum in gold. cured before they had time to think said Fenton, showing himself. "You going down. I can't stop a mo-cannot hope for mercy at my hand, ment; so good-sye, and if you find Take off his hat; let me see the vil-

Dana, his dark face distorted by woman I loved. I have used his before, and it looked bad for Seth. name through all, and doubtless your If it proved true, he would be the spy heard it. A thousand curses on Senter. "I wish it was Amity in-"Take me to prison; let me hide he would do his duty. Seth hurried myself from all the world," said the Fenton residence. As he went | So the three robbers went to prison, will spring up in her path up the steps the door opened and a and Seth Amity was cleared in the young man stepped out, who cast a eyes of all men, and what he cared savage glance at him and passed by for most, in those of Mary Fenton. Dana had told her that Le had robglance he gave me! I must under- was strong enough to cast off the was strong enough to east on the as rapidly as they can. Thave often highly favored section, shaking off Directly after the girl came back tor because she sinned against him birds from his fields in February.

> he was found dead in his cell six time to go to work in the morning months after the prison door closed of his own heart, no man knows.

Senter was guity of an amiable without his consent, and Fenton was counsel against him. Thanks to knowledge of a man's character, that Sing Sing for a term of years.

Burglary, Murder and Arson. MEMPHIS, March 12 .- The Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald, of the 8th, says they followed his example, and after Ring & Moore was destroyed by fire after alighted in a side street, where and a child, Billy Jones, were taken ently also with an axe. The bodies "Gentleman Tom's," replied Sen- of Mrs. Moore and the child showed no evidence of any wounds. Mr. Joe Tyng is missing, and it is feared practicable, and to manufacturing. that be also has been foully dealt and a good many rough cust mers with. It was supposed at Rolling hang around him," said the police- Fork that Mr. Ring had gone to Vicks-He opened a gate in a board fence seven or eight years old, and the son side of the houses, in which the gam- country.

dered the inmates of the house and

Letter From the Mountains.

WALHALLA, S. C., Mar. 6, 173. MR. EDITOR: The duties of my a wild, excited look in his handsome believe the evidence of his own ear. for some time past, that it has not thing for your excellent paper. But Moreton's bank and reached a door, vertiser, and its numerous readers.

We are having one of the coldest snaps here at the present time that We have experienced this winter. For two of us had the word. The key appeared to be leader showed them several weeks past the weather has lence for whole days and nights in been suspected myself. Are you go- helpless, and then the leader pro- succession, and at such times it is no duced the key to the yault, and open- exaggeration to say that it whistles around the corners of some of the tall wooden houses in Walhalla like a stage-horn of the olden times. My As they were gloating over the quarters are at Dr. Yarbrough's, about prize, which far exceeded expecta- the centre of the town, and during with me since he knew that Mary and tions, there came a sudden rush of these blustering days and nights, I have of en mistaken the loarse music of the wind for the blowing of the "Taken in the act Seth Amity," engine of the train at West Union, a mile and a half away!

.I am now writing from a stand the weather is moderating somewhat saw, not Seth Amity, but Henry now, and I hope it will not be very blow his windy horn over these oth-"but he sure of this. I did not do it erwise pleasant and beautiful valleys will be tapped and brought into marand bluster, of frozen hands and red old Winter will relax his icy grip and "That's what fooled me," grumbled prepare to depart, and Spring, gentle and beautiful, with balmy breath, and emerald robes will come gently down upon us, and ring, better draining, and more imthe green grass and pretty flowers proved agricultural implements and

I imagine that down in your secpleted their preparations for planting Some have no doubt planted corn, villages, towns and cities will spring and are getting ready for the cotton up in every direction. In short, our heard of a stirring old farmer down the evils of the present and the errors The stolen property was nearly all that he might plant corn. That was recovered and returned to the bank. before the war, when the darkey had Dana was sent to ing Sing, where a master and did not take his own own hand, or conflicting passions tleman to whom I allude is now liv-amiable py is serving the State in ious, like Horace Greeley, to tell yah! No squeeze so muchce!" One yell, "what I know about farming," but I have some notions in regard to Southordering their driver to keep the during Tuesday night. Wednesday neglect of commerce, manufactures versified husbandry,-by pursuing which policy no country can ever become permanently rich-I do not orders and drove away, and Senter forehead, evidently with an axe, and think we should now go to the other the head of Mr. Goodhue had been extreme, quit cotton, and our other "Where is the place, you?" said almost severed from the body, appar- great staples, and turn our attention altogether to the growing of the grasses and stock-raising, wherever it is My notion is that we should plant a less area or acreage of land in cotburg on a steamer a day or two pre- ton and our other staple products. "Of course," said Fenton quietly, vious to the occurrence, but nothing fertilize it more highly and cultivate "You are game," muttered to po- has been heard of him by his friends it better, and devote more attention here. Billy Jones, the shild, was to those other pursuits and industries He opened a gate in a board tence seven or eight years old, and the son between two houses and passed in, of a well known raftsman, who had and by the talismanic power of certain left Billy with Mr. Moore while he of our domestic supplies, and furnish words and knocks they were soon in- was engaged in other sections of the the greater part of the manufactured articles that we need, and which we now purchase from abroad. By pursuing this policy we would retain 'I ain't, Mr. Fenton; so help me, I which was carpeted so thickly that Moore was the only house at the land-ceeds or net profits of our leading the man as put the others up to ter moved a small panel, scarcely an for all the goods put off there. It is and it would distribute itself in acimpression to the safe key and the to look in. He applied his eye to the flammable goods there at the time of "You know a great, deal about a table, almost within reach of his was heard for several miles around, and build up every other interest of destined to be the great wealth-pro- one of the Ohio papers tells about adjacent, and intense excitement pre- ducing agricultural staples of the Fenton listened and heard the vails. No clue had at last accounts South for years to come in the future, whole plan of the proposed robbery, been obtained of the perpetrators of as they have been in the past. The would be placed if it should come dashand he knew that the man to whom the horrible crime. Two suspicious country is adapted to their growth, ing past without warning, sat out on the been about to give his daughter in the occurrence in the neighborhood, and the people will and should plant fence for five long hours in the bitter marriage, was a villain and a partner and they have disappeared. Rob- them; but that is no reason why the first news of the accident to his fathbery was doubtless the principal ob- they should be planted to the exclu- er, who is local aditor of a paper publishject in view, but the fiends being dission or neglect of other products, ed in the neighboring village, "I have invested the proceeds of then fired it, hoping to hide all tra- der the staples most remunerative "I have invested the proceeds of their first indication in the first industries of a lasked, "Do you wish to have my bill our last haul in Chicago in such a ces of their bloody work. The body and profitable. The industries of a sworn to?" "No," replied the executor, way that it will give me influence of Mr. Goodhue was brought to the enough with that old shark, Fenton, to induce him to hurry up the marwide staircase, a young man brushed past him rapidly, and gave him a look of silent scorn. Senter stop- heavily to-morrow. This will make ped on the stairway and looked after us rich enough to retire and live the death, and several of his contemporaries and consequently contributes mo t to at night bounced into bed and bounced A nation may fall into the hands of pn. Hoopen's Frank Pirts, a posttive cure for Suppression, or Irregularty arising from any cause whatever they are perfectly harmless.

From Larg should keep a box of the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits or hand for use in care of many
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many
the Pits of the County—the small
the Pits of hand for use in care of many the Pits of the Pits of hand for use in care of many the Pits of the Pits of hand for use in care of the time death, and several of his contemporaries to corrupt class as into the hands of a rectantly hand and one curve in many the County—the small the Pits of hand for use in care of which are death, and several of his contemporaries to corrupt class as into the hands of a rectantly hand "The State of the County—the small the Pits is of the pits of the country—the small
the Pits is of the pits of the country—the small
the Pits is of the pits of the country—the small the pits of the co

bacon, flour, work-animals, and in fact almost everything that he needs with his cotton money? The expe.

telligent and sensible farmer in our country will answer this question I can readily foresee the time,sun-kissed Southern Land of ours will be the most prosperous and richest part of these United States. It has corrected by an impression that the houses dated not face heir constituevery natural advantage of climate, soil and productions. The only drawback and hindrance to its rapid ma- State legislatures; it, was filled by election of his adversary, and his terial development and advancement men of a different stamp from the own arrest on a criminal information. unpromising condition of our public tradition of honor. Tits members mons there has been no hesitation to affairs. But that is only a temporary obstacle that must and will soon be removed. The present corrupt and after all some one must recommend rotten State government of South for local appointments; but there convicted member will be re-elected. Carolina, and some of the other Southern commonwealths, will inevitably cramble and give way to more intel- Credit Mobilier case and the Pomeroy seats in the House of Commons; but ligence and public virtue, and be case show, however, that this belief it is evidently felt that the electors supplanted by a better state of things. Then more capital, enterprise, and skilled labor from the North and from the rapid development of our mag-

Europe will flow into our section, and tures which elect the Senate may be of the "lobbying". Rings. While. nificent agricultural, mineral, and itself there exist men whose votes they will bear with them, partly bemanufacturing resources will begin in earnest. More direct trade with Europe through our principal seaports long before ald Boreas will cease to will be established. Our great sup- certar managers of the Pacific Railroad plies and many varieties of timber formed a Ring; that under the title of classes in America, as among the rill be tenned and brought into more the Credit Mobilier they sold to them; whole lower classes in England, has ket. Quarries will be opened in our to the Pacific Railroad; that they immense masses of granite and other resold these concessions at enormous noses, and the snow will begin to building stones, and the treasures of profit witnesses talk of dividends melt upon the distant mountain tops, our great coal and lime beils will be of 1500 per cent; that they were dragged into light. A more diversified system of husbandry will be smiling face, adopted. We will have better farm- for protection, How many senators ing, deeper plowing, heavier manu. are implicated it is impossible to say. labor-saving machines. More railroads will be built, a market opened can make a full defence, but who for the teeming products of every has only escaped impeachment by their country; and even to see that fruitful valley of the interior, and

> Now, our true policy is to labor, witch, wait and pray for that auspi-

Brevities and Levities. about to go off in the cars stepped into lay of prosperity and advancement such as we have never before enjoyed.

cious day.

gentleman approached and was appealed What is the use of trying to be day of a friend. "Oh, you ought to try and the step from furnishing boots t once and see," was the reply. And printed in 12mo?" "Wfly, my dear," eplied the mother, "it means that the ook will be published in twelve months." ly. The girls' grievances are summed them to a reporter: "We hate him; he

Mrs. Partington awakes from a ong stumber to say that she thinks this ington Pantagraph to give this advice: Marry a warm hearted girl, whether cold heard no more in the land. An ingenia brave little box out there who found a THE FALL OF THE MIGHTY AMERICAN stantly talking of meeting "my Rowhich are absolutely essential to ren- . A physician on presenting his selves as Others See Us.

Nothing can be more disheartehing tray their trust for money.

was ill-founded; that the position of do not intend moderate sum of money. Without care—remember the debt is being regoing into unproved scandals, there duced by £25,000,000 a year—and seems to be no doubt whatever that selves concessions made by Congress arraigned in Congress, and that they gave sharer—that is, money—in amounts of about £1000 to enators but it is certain that three at least Vice-President, who avers that he three votes. It is certain also that THE PRACTICE OF CARRYING BILLS BY anything like it, they do cover names to draw that the reverence for rank heretofore generally respected. Anything more disheartening could scarcely be conceived. If a democracy itself uncorrupt cannot find or these stories in American papers, and does not care to find representatives French papers, and German papers, kiss her friend Sarah good-bye. Owing who, after a double winnowing are that the English guarantee against a to the darkness, she didn't hit Sarah, but commonly "law honest," will abstain from actual bribes or actual plunder- not caste pride, the trongest arguing of the State till, Democracy is ment for aristocracy in some sense or dead before it has well been born, other it would be possible to suggest. No State can long survive pecuniary It is a disheartening thought from corruption in its rulers. They may our point of view, but we never deny urge, as we believe Americans do a fact, and there the fact is that any urge, that they do not sell their man who offered £1200 or £12,000 countrymen; that an anti-national to any English peer or county memonly receive gratifications for votes ejected from the room. There are on indifferent matters, or that at lobbyers among us, too, but they reworst they only traffic in concessions, frain from putting temptation into but all that is delusive. The men that crude form, and they are powwho sell concessions will sell contracts. tormed, upon ship pivets, and soldiers, onest?" asked a young man the other boots, and the quality of powder; the young man wanted to put a head on is very short indeed—how short we mer, on Jefferson street, near Johnmay discover from any life of the son, yesterday morning. The circum-"Mamma," said a little girl, first Duke of Marlborough, When what's the meaning of a book being once such a practice becomes general, the work of legislation is sure to fall to men who make a trade of it; who, profiting by their work, attend to it and make a monopoly of it; and the girl of 16. They went to Bancor. control of a great country may be great City of New York was abandoned to a regular Ring, whose almost avowed object is the plunder of mate interest being not only high prices, but scamped work; and a Ring, if it obtained control of the Union, would not govern well either.

but as badly as France was governed in the later years of Napoleon. We do not hesitate to say that, immensely powerful as the Union is. and splendid fighters as the Americans are, if her resources fell into Ring, she would in her next cam-The plaint of the bachelor will be paign be defeated by ea and land.

at night bounced into bed and bounced a corrupt class as into the hands of a rie Taglion, probably the greatest cure himself cheaply privately and radically This Lecture Will Provide the corrupt king, and yet remain itself danseuse hat ever live i, returns to a BOON TO THOUSANDS AND the revelations of corruption recently resentatives corrupt; The moment hers are now-a-days, she exclaims reported from the United States, and that by any accident the evidence with a sigh. "Nobody knows how one gleam of light. A belief in the trust, there is an end of bribe takings ladies please me best," she ac corruptibility of American politicians In his very Pomerov affair, the mohas of late years been very widely ment Colonel York had preduced in and are naturally g. aceful, ... spread in Europe, perhaps unduly disputable proofs the contest was at Senate, at all events, was pure. That ents' indignation; and with Pomerov's body was not elected by a Democracy, money in many of their pockers, but by the elite of the people, the unanimously voted his dismissal, the can office might account for that, and except by the combrens method of was a belief that they would not be- There is much lenty about pun-The revelations in the American land, and indeed still is about buying senator, the highest in the Union that although, they may choose men bought and sold; that the Legisla- will not knowingly choose the agents corrupted : and that in the Senate they think them merely extravagant cannot deny that each of these reve-meanness" which among certain

Grant the electorate innocent, and we must still concede that it is excesslavery is an evil, cannot be trusted to discern the character of their representatives: They select in ordinary niving his seat, in order, as every they may have been speculating in one admits, to sell its powers. The stocks We do not like the outlook revelations are of the most frank tor Englishmen and Americans are character, and though they do not essentially the same—any more than cover a majority of the Genate, or we like the deduction we are forced acts as an antiseptic on the reverence for money. . repetition of them in this country is erless against the caste.

A Young Man Dies With His Dead Wife's Clothing in His Arms.

22 years, was found dead in his bed at the residence of Mr. Martin Crastances of his death are peculiar. Walkley was a barber by trade, and about three months ago was working with a daughter of Mr. Lampbell, a were married, thence to Tole lo, where Walkley secured work. Very soon. however, the young wife sickened and died of diptheria, and young Washley brought the body here for barial. He spirited, and took a times to strong constant tak was of his wife, and at BER SUITES, numerous times he has acted in such . Beautiful Parlor SUITES, Upholstered a way as to convince his acquaintan - in Plush, Hair Cloth and Reps. commit snieide by cutting his throng if only through corruption among purpose. A week or two ago he her contractors. The vice is fatal, sterted from the shop at 11 o'clock at and if it spreads only a little more, night, went to the cemetery and brought back a quantity of earth sa," this being his wife's name. When and of the brightest hopes of the he was found dead yesterday, he was race now covering the globe. There in bed, and in his arms were nightly is no conceivable reason why Austra- clasped a dress, a shawl, and numercans, or why Englishmen under the all of which belonged to his wife. A men would give up the Democratic left it when he took out the clothing. Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and a paper which had contained morphine was lying on the floor. It resulting from Self-Abuse etc. By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D. cause as a hopeless fallacy.

However, as we said, with the intelligence comes also a gleam of light:

The real difficulty in studying this problem of corruption is to underground problem of corruption is to underground problem. The sought forgetfulness in this own experience that the swill consequences of Self Abuse may be effectually removed without medicines, and withstand why the people hear it, to decide whether the electors acquiesce in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but If they do, the struggle is over; but (Mich.) Enterprise.

| Application of the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. If they do, the struggle is over; but in their sale by their r presentatives. In the restriction of the restric At the age of sixty five Mme. Ma- matter what his condition may be may be big crops of cotton, and buys his corn, What is Said in England .- Our - jecting bribes which tailors would goes to work after years of peaceful reason to believe that this is the case woman of forty, with an exceedingly also in America, and that the ulti- pretty foot, the great ex-danseuse

THE Undersigned have formed a

New Law Firm.

BACON & ADAMS: Attorneys at Law.

Will Practice in the Courts of the State, and United States Courts for South Caro Former Office of Carroll & Bacon, and LEROY F. YOUMANS. ATTORNEY AT LAW. Columbia, S. C.

> W. H. SHAFFE, Dentist.

F. A. Brahe & Co 206 Broad Street, · Augusta, Ga.

HAS just opened a MAGNIFICENT STOCK of GOODS, composed of ever First Class Jewelry Story spectfully invite the citizens of Edge

HEALING SYRUP

To the inspection of which they re-

DISEASES OF THE LIVER,

who has a sewing-machine can continue working it for years unless she occasion-This valuable Syraip has but recently been introduced in this vicinity, but Mr. R. W. Cannon has already tested its merits in his family and certifies as iol-

I hereby certify that my wife has suf-fered severely for the last two years from Indigestion, and she had tried almost every remedy known, and I can obser-ally recommend Mother Noble's Heal-

GEO, J. TONEY. Johnston's Depot, Feb 19, 1m 9

147 Broad Street.

Of All Grades

Comprising as elegant assortment of Fine Wainut and Mahocany CHAM-

Library, Hining Room, Office & Hall FURNITURE. CHAIRS, TABLES, BUREAUS, BED. STEADS, WASH STANDS, LOOKING OLASSES, ...

MATTRASSES &co. And all other articles usually found in & E. G. ROGERS.

To Young Men.

BY orders received from Mr. J. D. Al-ken, Agent of the Stone Phosphate company, I have sent to him in Charles-ton all notes given for Guano purchased. of me last season. Persons ewning the Notes will please remit to him and save