Death of a Former Citizen.

Mr. Andrew P. Jones, a brother of our honored fellow-citizens, Maj. Abram and Capt. Lewis Jones, died in Columbus, Ga., on Thursday last, in the 70th year of his age. He was the oldest of the brothers, and moved to Columbus more than thirty-five years ago, where he has lived ever since, in honor and esteem.

The Latest Pine House Sensation.

The latest Pine House sensation is the manner in which Mr. Munro Wise, the Merchant, is spreading out and hauling in. Our friend "Mun" is evidently getting ready to contend with the problem of the rich man, the camel and the needle's eye. If you do not believe us, look at his advertisement over in another column. What is the man't got? Everything that men wear! Everything that women wear! Everything that children wear! And certainly everything that men, women and children eat or drink! And also everything that beasts eat; that is horses and cows. And also—but "Mun" is too much for us. From present prospects he will soon be one of those camels that cannot pass through.

Turley's Alluring Paragraphs.

This week, James Turley, the more than-popular Dry Goods Merchant of Augusta, makes the Advertiser doubly attractive by his alluring paragraphs. Doubly attractive to our ladies, at all events. And after several weeks in New York, picking, and choosing, and rummaging, why should Turley's paragraphs not be attractive? Just read them! What woman of taste and ambition could cast her eye over them without panting with excitement and longing? We know it is beautiful at Turley's now!

Mrs. Webber—The Dressmaker.

Mrs. Webber, well known among our ladies as one of the most accomplished and fashionable dress makers in Augusta, announces in our columns to day that she has moved her locale. Let her friends here make a note of her new place—over Barrett, Land & Co's. Drug Store.

How a Close Buyer May Save Money.

By inspecting the new Spring and Summer Stock of Whitman & Benson, of Augusta. So say Whitman & Benson themselves, as will be seen by reference to their new card in another column. Of course every body knows who Whitman & Benson are—the fashionable Merchant Tailors, who make three fourth of the handsome and stylish gentlemens' clothing that one now sees here and in Augusta. To Whitman & Benson, then for lavender pants, and white vests, and irreproachable frocks—and all that!

Still Another New Feature at Johnston's.

A Millinery Establishment! Presided over by Mrs. J. W. Calhoun, a lady who has not only fine taste in dress matters, but who (as we have good cause to remember) knows how to do a graceful deed in a manner becoming a true Southern lady. We take pleasure in pointng the public to Mrs. Calhoun's announcement in another column, and in assuring our people that with Mrs. Calhoun's Millinery and Mr. Calhoun's Dry Goods they cannot fail to be pleased.

Local Items.

Tremendous wind and rain on Tuesday afternoon, with fearfully black clouds and hurricanes of dust.

Monday next—sale day in April—promises to be a crowded and exciting occasion. All our citizens are coming out to attend the Investigation Meeting—to say nothing of property sales, and the meeting of the Doctors.

The dedication of Ebenezer, the new Pine House Church, is postponed until some time in May. Consequently the Rev. Mr. Broaddus will preach here as usual on Sunday next.

We learn that our young friend, Mr. R. G. Bonham, has gone on a visit to Baltimore, with a view of making it ultimately his home. We are sorry to see our young men leaving the State, but whenever and wherever they go, we wish them the fullest measure of happiness and success.

Mr. Whitfield's school—the Male Academy—is slowly, but surely growing, in numbers and in the confidence of the public.

The farmers in our section are now making rapid headway in ploughing their lands. Go ahead, farmers, and make as much money this year as you did last. After all, cotton is money; and money we must all have.

The Pine House must certainly be the greatest Guano-receiving depot in South Carolina. Wagonloads upon wagonloads pass through our streets daily; and many of these wagons will stop for hours upon our public square. Dreadful! We suppose the whole country South of the Potomac, and as far West as the Modocs, is now smelling awfully.

Saturday last was an unusually animated sabre Club day. Careful drill, with a spirited tilt in Main Street, which enjoyed by the ladies. In the afternoon, races! Frank Bettis's tournament horse against that long-bodied brown of Mr. Charles Cheatham—the brown winning. And Jimmie Mobley's horse against Otley Miller's, the latter coming out just sufficiently ahead to decide the thing. At these races, the "boodums," of all ages and colors, are in their especial glory.

The Augusta tiger was captured on Monday, and escaped again on Tuesday. As he was being galloped into the city, but before he had reached the suburbs, the terrible storm of Tuesday afternoon came on, and in the panic and confusion, he broke his bonds, plunged into the river, and landed in Hamburg. What fun! He is on his way to Columbia, as we suggested.

The finest cabbage and beet plants we have seen this season were sent us by our stalwart colored friend, Moses Eidson, who has since, with five or six head of freedmen, gone to cut Cypress logs in the Waterce swamps—a contract for the famous shingle and stave factory of Monteith and Somebody.

We hear that the Poor House is badly kept—that it has neither money nor credit—that its inmates are not comfortable. An infernal shame!

"Consulting His Taste and Exemplifying His Devotion.

One of the best practical illustrations of the doctrine of social equality that has yet occurred was made at the recent inauguration ball by Judge Samuel D. Melton (Melton) of South Carolina, who was seen promenading the ball room for an hour with the wife of the Hon. R B. Elliott, M. C., from that State, on one arm, and one of the celebrated Misses Rollins on the other. Each of these ladies is a bright mulatto, fair to look upon, and the Judge undoubtedly consulted his taste as well as exemplified his devotion to the cause of equal rights in paying them such courteous attentions. After his promenade he returned to a group of colored ladies, whom he made almost the sole recipients of his attentions during the entire evening. It is interesting to know that a South Carolina gentleman so far ignores the prejudices of his class, as to serve as Attorney-General of the State under such an Administration as the present, also to fraternize socially with the class so lately regarded as chattels hardly possessed of souls.—N. Y. Sun, Mar. 19.

RAPE.—A rape was committed on the plantation of Mr. John S. Moore, near this place, last Wednesday morning, by Nelson Webb, upon the person of Jackey Ellen Jacobs, a little girl aged about eleven years. The child is Webb's step-daughter. Webb was arrested on the same day, on a warrant issued by Trial Justice Knight, and committed to jail to await his trial. Many of our citizens will remember Webb's conviction on manslaughter in our County some years ago, and his serving out a term in the State penitentiary in consequence thereof.—Marlboro Times.

☞ A number of returned emigrants have arrived in New York from Brazil. They found, according to their statements, that they had been deluded into settling in Brazil by assertions that were totally false. Something of the same kind recently occurred in England, where charges were preferred against the Brazilian agents at Liverpool, when the emigrants again reached that port. Upon the whole, it may be stated as highly probable that Brazil is not a favorable country for English or American colonists.

☞ Brigham Young is now commencing to realize something tangible from his matrimonial investments. The anniversaries of those marriages are commencing to occur with astounding frequency. First there is a silver wedding, then a wooden wedding, and a tin wedding, and then another silver wedding, and, adjoining, a glass wedding, and then a tin wedding again, and next night still another silver wedding, and then a linen wedding, followed by a wooden wedding, which is succeeded by a glass wedding, and so on through the chapter. The effect on the Mormons—the rank and file of the faithful—can well be imagined, but the brush of a ten-acre lot of marrowfat peas couldn't paint it. The treasury is depleted. The Temple itself is warmed with three mortgages, and even the Revelation bids fair to ascend the spout. It is no uncommon thing to see a healthy Mormon skimming toward headquarters, with a silver pitcher under one arm and a coal scuttle under the other, with a pleasing assortment of glass and wooden ware concealed about him. Our Government has concluded to withdraw its troops.

☞ A bill has been introduced into the Indiana Legislature giving ministers fees of from $5 to $10 for preaching funeral sermons, and more if the estate exceeds $100,000, the same to be a lien on the estate of the deceased.

☞ Some of the papers are trying to make the Hon. John J. Patterson of South Carolina, who has lately bought into the United States Senate; unhappy, by twitting him with paying $80,000 for his seat when Doekery of Florida got in for $800.

WHOSE HANDSOME HOUSE IS THAT?—Such was the inquiry of the traveller, as he passed an unusually well finished residence not many miles from here. The style of the sashes, the clearness of the glass, the beauty of the blinds and doors, the neatness of the columns and balusters around the piazza, the perfect proportion of the brackets and mouldings, all struck the traveller with pleasure and admiration. All the above were furnished by Mr P. P. Toale, of Charleston, S. C. Prices sent free on application.

The object of this Third Gift Concert, like the two heretofore given with such universal approval, is the enlargement and endowment of the Public Library of Kentucky, which, by the special act authorizing the enterprise for its benefit, is to be forever free to all citizens of every State. The drawing will be under the supervision of the Trustees of the most eminent citizens of the United States. The sale of tickets has already progressed so far that complete success is assured, and all are therefore notified that they must order at once if they desire to participate in the drawing.

The management of this undertaking has been committed by the trustees to Hon. Thos. E. Bramlette, late Governor of Kentucky, to whom communications pertaining to the Gift Concert can be addressed. R. T. DURRETT, Pres't.
W. N. HALDEMAN, Vice Pres't.
JOHN S. CAIN, Sec'ry Public Library of Ky.
FARMERS' AND TRAVELERS' BANK, Treasurer.

As the time for the Concert is close at hand (April 8th), parties wanting tickets should send in their orders immediately if they would avoid the rush and delay absolutely unavoidable in the few days preceding the drawing. All orders and applications for agencies, circulars and information will meet with prompt attention. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Agt. Public Library Kentucky, Louisville, Kentucky.
