grows, But Heaven has placed it there. At early dawn there's not a gale
Across the landscape driven,
And not a breeze that sweeps the vale,
That is not sent from heaven.

There's not of grass a single blade,
Or leaf of lowest mien,
Where Heavenly skill is not display'd
And Heavenly wisdom seen. There's not a tempest dark and dread, Or storm that rends the air, Or blast that sweeps o'er ocean's bed, But Heaven's own voice is there.

There's not a star whose twinkling light Illumes the distant earth, And cheers the solemn gloom of night, But Mercy gave it birth.

There's not a cloud whose dews distill
Upon the parching clod,
And clothe with verdure vale and hill,
That is not sent by God.

There's not a place in earth's vast round, The ocean deep, or air, Where skill and wisdom are not found, For God is everywhere.

Around, beneath, below, above, Wherever space extends, There Heaven displays its boundles love, And power with mercy blends.
