world With you and yours to day? I note your hat-brim upward cur'ed

Your shirt looks white, your boots look black.

The ante-bellum wav.

And you-you roll in fat, by Jack!" "Just so, Gld Tape, I thrive, thank God! Through grace of Granger Times; I drive my plow deep down the sod, And turn out honest dimes. ent to some quiet family hotel? I've put some licks in hard and brash,

And bought and sold, of late, for eash. "Now, by the Piper, Stumps, you're grand! I never saw such change:

And this-all this-I understand Comes through your County Grange. You plow and sow and reap the same, But buy and sell for-what's its name? "Cash! that's its name. I sell my truck

At ruling market rates, And get the Cash—and through such luck Keep off your cussed slates. I have no the for banks, in fine, And want no July-bills in mine."

"Excuse me, Stumps; I don't yet know Isn't there a work house, or some such age? I am Precisely what you mean; I'm somewhat stupid now and slow-Mayhap a little green. I can't quite comprehend, you see,

Exactly what this Cash may be." Why money, man, good money down, A real quid pro quo-I would not trust a man in town

For anything I grow; But make him draw his weasel-skin And plank me down the cold, hard 'tin.' "I 'smoke' you now-you sell for geld

Your corn and rye and oats: I somehow thought you bought and sold For common, current notes-That worthless, filthy greenback trash,

SENT BY EXPRESS.

I might have known that was not CASH.'

Marian Harlan was alone in the world-her mother just buried.

She was a beautiful, brown-haired girl, with soft, shy eyes of violet gray and rosy lips compressed to a firmness beyond her years. For after all she was scarcely seventeen, and so Deacon Gray was telling her, as she sat by the fire, spreading his huge hands over the tardy blaze, and "But what are you goin' to do to earn your bread and butter, child?' "I don't know-I haven't thought. Mamma had an uncle in New York, "Yes, yes-I've heard about him

-he was mad because your mother didn't marry just exactly to suit him, wasn't it?" Marian was silent. Deacon Gray waited a few minutes, hoping she would admit him into her secret meditations; but she did not, and the deacon went away home, + tell his wife that "the Harlan gal was the very queerest creature he ever had

In the meanwhile Marian was busy packing her few scanty things into a little carpet-bag, by the weird flickering light of the dying wood

"I will go to New York, she said to herself, setting her small pearly teeth firmly together. "My mother's uncle shall hear my cause pleaded through my own lips. Oh, I wish my heart would not throb so wildly! I am no longer meek Marian Harlan, I am an orphan, all alone in the world, who must fight life's battles with her own single hands."

Lower Broadway, at 7 o'clock in the evening! What a Babel of crashing wheels, hurrying humanity, and conglomerate noises it was! Marian Harlan sat in the corner of an express office under the flare of gaslight, surrounded by boxes, and wondered whether people ever went crazed in this perpetual din and tumult. Her dress was very plain-gray pop. lin, with a shabby, old-fashioned little straw bonnet tied with black ribbons, and a blue veil, with her only article of baggage, the carpetbag, lay in her lap. She had sat there two hours, and . was very, very "Poor little thing!" thought the dark-haired young clerk nearest her, who inhabited a sort of wire care under a circlet of gaslights. And then he took up his pen and plunged into a perfect Atlantic ocean of accounts.

"Mr. Evans."

"Sir."

The dark-haired clerk emerged from his cage with his pen behind his ear, in obedience to the beckoning finger of his superior.

I have noticed that young woman sitting here for sometime-how came thing of great value lately, and I she here ?"

"Expressed on sir, from Millington, Iowa-arrived this afternoon."

As though poor Marian Harlan were a box or a paper parcel.

"Who for?" "Consigned to Walter Harring- am quite sure the article is in your ton, Esq.

" The article !' "And why hasn't she been called "I sent up to Mr. Harrington's look here—I know I am very young way. Covered with oil and smoke I ly eyed the stranger. His gaze was address to notify him some time ago; I expect an answer every moment." "Very odd," said the gray-haired So Marian Harlan, instead of gentleman taking up his newspaper. "Yes, sir, rather.' Some three-quarters of an hour afterward, Frank Evans came to the pale girl's side with indescribable press office, New York. pity in his hazel eyes. "Miss Harlan, we have sent to Mr. rian home to his mother, and then Harrington's residence-"

Marian looked up with a feverish | went calmly about his business in the red upon her cheek, and her hands wire cage, under the circlet of gasclasped tightly on the handle of the lights. faded carpet-bag.

"And we regret to inform you that he sailed for Europe at twelve o'clock this day."

A sudder blur came over Marian's hests of the gray headed official. eyes-she trembled like a leaf. In "Do you remember the young woall her calculations she had made man who was expressed on from no allowance for an exigency like Millington, Iowa, two months since?"

this. Yeasir; A.temember."

" Yes, sir."

Frank, with his pen behind his ear

a of yore, quietly obeyed the be-politely. " Nothing-no one can do anything

"Shall I send to any other of your

"Perhaps I can have your things

Marian opened her little leather pieces, with a smile that was almost

So young, so beautiful and so des olate! Frank Evans had been a New this. He bit the end of his pen in

"I must go -- somewhere."

r two, if you can trust me."

"Trust vou?" Marian looked a tears. "Oh sir, I should be so thank-give me your overcoat-it is all

But Frank interrupted his bust-ng, cherry-cheeked little mother, as

"Hush, mother; there is a young

"Come up stairs, my dear-you're arnest about leaving us to-morrow erness is very advantageous."

mined to leave us to-morrow!"

"No right, eh? Marian, do you know that the old house has been a lifferent house since you came to it?

Do you suppose we want to lose our

She shook her head determinedly.

"Then you must be made to stay," said Frank. "I've missed some-

Marian rose, turned red and white

"Oh, Frank, you can never sus-little sunbeam.

warm grasp.

" You'll stay, Marian?"

" Missed something?'

how obstinate you are."

Please keep my secret.'

owdered with snow and-"

"Ayoung lady, Frank?"

ady down stairs."

omething to do."

wavs do.

alled cheerfully out:

"I have no friends."

the world, sir !"

something to do?"

"Where is she? I am her uncle somely mounted on a blue sating Walter Harrington. I have just re-Frank Evans had been turning turned from Paris, where the news massive rosewood and gold frame. away, but something in the piteous of her arrival reached me. I want tones of her voice appeared to arouse her, she is the only living relative every maply instinct within him.

me." can't have her.'

mean? Has anything happened? "Yes, sir, something has happened: Miss Harlan was married to me ourse and showed him two ten-cent this morning."

Walter Harrington started. " Take me to her," he said, hoarse-"This is all the money I have in Iy; "I can't be parted from my only living relative for a mere whim." I wonder if he calls the marriage service and wedding ring mere whims, Yorker all his life but he had never thought honest Frank, but he obeyed met with an exactly parallel case to in silence. "Marian," said the old man, dire perplexity. "But what are you faltering acq going to do?" "I don't know sir. me and b i, and you are place I can go to until I could find all I have in But Marian stole her hand through Hardly, Frank Evans could scarce. her husband's arm. y help smiling at poor Marian's sim "Dearest uncle, he was kind to me when I was most-desolate and alone

They are putting out the lights I cannot leave my husband, Uncle and preparing to close the office, said | Walter; I love him!" "Then you must both of you come Marian, starting nervously to her and be my children," said the old man, doggedly; "and you must come "Miss Harlan," said Frank, quiet- now, for the great house is as lonely

ly, my home is a very poor one-I as a tomb. Frank Evans is an express clerk am only a five hundred dollar clerk no longer, and pretty Marian moves -but I am sure my mother will receive you under her roof for a day in velvet and diamonds; but they are quite as happy as they were in im through violet eyes obscured in Uncle Walter Harrington grows older and feebler every day, and his two children are the sunshine of his "How late you are, Frank! Here

> A Steamboat Engineer Inherits a Million and is to be Married.

From the Detroit Free Press. During the late rebellion a father he stood tip-toe to take off his outer and two sons entered the Third Pennsylvania Cavalry and served until the father and one son were killed and the surviving son was sent home disabled. The father left an estate val-"Yes, mother; expressed on from owa to Harrington, the rich mer- ued at that time at about $800,000, hant, he sailed for Europe this and from the time of his death until morning, and she is left entirely alone. about a month ago the estate has been Mother, she looks like poor Blanche, in litigation. During this time the and I knew you wouldn't refuse her survivor, James Shay by name, decorner here until she could find termining to fit himself out for life, with commendable perseverance has Mrs. Evans, went to the door and learned the trade of stone cutter, machinist, and engineer, and during last winter worked at Dundee in this s welcome as the flowers in May! State as engineer in a mill. Previous Frank, you did quite right; you al- to his leaving his home at Philadelphia, however, he placed the secur-The days and weeks passed on, ing of his portion of his father's esnd still Marian Harlan remained tate, as his heir, in the hands of a in inmate of Mrs. Evans' dwelling, lodge of Knights Temple which "It seems just as though she had his father belonged, aken our dead Blanche's place," Miner of Philad said the cozy little widow : "and she While at n s so useful about the house. I don't know how I ever managed without dee Mr. Shay be add the experience think-I have been here two months "Very well. I shall tell Frank he had proved himself worthy a li- was born the grandmother was there cense as second engineer on a high pressure engine or first engineer on a "Dearest Mrs. Evans, please don't. tug boat, and that if he could secure such a position they would issue his "What secret is that that is to be license. The cost of a license is five so religiously 'kept?" asked Mr. dollars, which Mr. Shay did not have, Frank Evans, cooly walking into the midst of the discussion, with his dark and he so informed the inspectors, hair tossed about by the wind and promising to send the amount within arrival was a loud call for Tommy, his hazel brown eyes sparkling archly. thirty days. The inspectors told and Tommy was forthcoming. He "Secret!" repeated Mrs. Evans, him they would issue his license and was kissed and hugged, and praised, energetically wiping her dim specta- trust him for its cost, and he depart- and petted, and grandma just lugged cle glasses. "Why, Marian is deter- ed for Toledo and in less than a week him about till finally, old-lady like, R. Hand. The coveted license was had grown. Then came a shrick. further to tresspass on your kind-

The tug Hand was engaged at Todredges at work on the harbor improvements at that port, and Shay was in good spirits, working faithfully, his license paid for, and for the Marian smiled sadly, but her hand time being, as he says, had given

During the forenoon of Tuesday, June 1, Mr. Shay was at work in the hold of the tug Hand tightening the brasses on the- connecting rod, when the hatchway above was darkened, hereby arrest you on suspicion of the and looking up he saw a smiling countenance peering down at him and a hand encased reaching toward him. "James, I think you may stop work for a while," said the intruder, and the voice was recognized as Charles Miner, his counsel. "But I do suspect you. In fact, I "I got stuck on the centre," said Shay, "when I saw Mr. Miner, but both hands and told me that the case that all I had to do was to draw the ng out to be a governess, according to the programme, married the dark money. You should have seen those Carolinian asked him if he was no haired young clerk in Ellison's ex- ove. Als come off, and the way that in the late war. "Yes," was the re-They were quietly married, early on deck was a caution. I couldn't say anything, so I seated myself on in the morning, and Frank took Mathe bulwarks and looked at Mr. Mi-

> The result was that Mr. Shay went found out that he was in reality a millionaire, property valued at over And so then and there they decora-Knights Templar, who managed his case, ready for such disposition as he should see fit to order.

you?" questioned the young clerk, here interposed with eager quick- Cook & Saunders, carrying under his arm his license as engineer, handbackground and surrounded with a > ment at Toledo, and together they have been working and wooing in The Largest Farm In the World, valves of the instrument. Such an Mr. George Grant, the enlightened founder of Victoria colony, in Kansas, who has been spending a couple of days in this city, left for Kansas last evening. The owner of 576,000 acres of land, embracing the County of Ellis, which is larger than any dukedom in Europe, he is entitled to the credit of a public benefactor, by the introduction of the best blooded or parallelograms. The reading instock, and showing, by example the strument, which is about as large as best manner of rearing, feeding and improving the foreign and domestic breeds of horses, cattle and sheep in this country. He has just wintered rates. The roll of music is fed in 7,000 sheep with a loss of less than one per cent. He wintered 537,000 cows without feeding them, except on non-conductor; but whenever they several cold nights with hay, with fall into the holes cut in it they touch cow. His success in this respect is due mainly to good shelter. The secret of saving feed and preserving stock is shelter. During the past year, Mr. Grant expended $6,200 in constructing shelter, and he has such faith in its advantages that he will the old days, and that is saying expend double the amount during the coming season. He has $250,000 invested in stock, and is the owner of the thorough-bred English stallion Flodden, valued at $25,000, the father of which won the race in 1860 at Derby, in which half a million dollars changed hands. Mr. Grant has just returned from the East, and has on the way to his farm thirty odd brood mares, purchased in Ohio, Virginia combined into a chord can be brought and Kentucky. Mr. Grant is dis- out together. The overtures to "Semiposing of his land to actual settlers, and sells only to such as can afford to purchase a mile square or upwards. Among the large number of resident colonists and stock raisers who have purchased land of him, and are now raising in Victoria colony, are many young men of prominence, both in ken for the performance of a wellthis country and England. The Hon. drilled, but rather spiritless orches-Walter Maxwell younger son of Lord tra. The inventors hope soon to ap-Herries, of Everingham park York- ply their device to a piano .- Corres shire England, owns two sections, and is comfortably settled down to the healthful life of the ranchers. Then there are three bachelor sons of a Derbyshire clergyman, and the nephew of the Earl of Winchelsea, England to take up his home there.

Shields, of Boston, are also among Sumber -St. Louis Republican. The Mether of the Period. One year ago to a fashionable mother was born a baby boy. She her six months, and then, as the child liked the bottle best, the wet nurse examined by them and was told that was discharged. When the baby from her distant western home, and shortly after returned, to come no more till this summer. In the mean- over again. time the young mother has seen her child scinetimes once a day, sometimes once a week, as the case might had secured a position on the tug G. she stripped him to see how much he "I must, Frank; I have no right made out at this port and sent to "Where was Tommy's extra toe?" Tommy was born with six toes; Grand- nati Times. ma knew it. The family doctor was ledo in towing scows, tenders to the sent for, and when an examination of tatingly pronounced it not the Simo: pure Tommy by any means. There might or might not get from Phila- speculations were in order. But one music in it. servant had anything to do with the baby, and she had been six months away, no one knows in what direc-

Two nephews of Mayor Guthrie, of

New York city, and two young position. If he ain't Tommy, who is he ?-N. Y. Cor. St. Louis Republi-How they Buried the HATCHET -The day following our centennial put another turf on the buried hatch- she come back-aren't the ferry boats et. While standing at the bar a told him I would be on deck imme- stranger came in. The Carolinian "My heart, Miss Marian. Now diately if he would get out of the suddenly dropped his glass and closeand very poor, but I love you Marian | climbed out, and, just as I was, not | so steady and peculiar that the friend Harlan, and I will be a good and even giving me time to wipe my began to be alarmed and to fear that true husband to you. Stay and be hands. Mr. Miner seized me by the hatchet was about to be dug up again. Directly the Carolinian asked had been decided in my favor, and the stranger if he knew him. There was no recognition, whereupon the wrench and my old cap spun around ply. "And you were once stationed at such a place? "Yes." "And took part in such a skirmish?" "Yes." Well, I thought so," replied the Carolinian, and, raising his hat, show-The result was that Mr. Shay went to Philadelphia with Mr. Miner, ing, "There is your sabre mark, my boy; come up and take a drink."

$1,000,000 being in the hands of the ted the grave of the buried hatchet. advantages, Letter, Files, each one the best; Envelopes of size and qualities infinite. It is almost bewildering to enter the large Proad Street Store of Walker, Gir Governer Wakker, of Virginia, See the number of these attractions. Here

Music Without Hands.

been attained in an ingenious invention just perfected by Messrs. Schmo Happily Mr. Shay's good fortune ele of this city, which was exhibited does not end here, as he expects to last evening in Horticultural Hall to a few invited guests. The apparatus be married on or about the 4th of reads notes and plays upon an organ "Ah! but, sir," said Frank, "you July to a young lady, the daughter with absolute correctness of time and of a farmer who lives near Dundee, touch, the only assistance given it by "Can't have her! What do you and who, when he went to Toledo to the operator being to feed in the end work last spring, secured employ, of a roll of music and start the ma chinery. Organs have been played by electricity before, but the only part performed by the electric fluid has been to transmit the power from a distant bank of keys to open the electrical organ has been exhibited in London for some time past. In the Schmoele instrument the electric current is endued with a seeming intelligence, and distinguishes the notes in the same way that a blind man does -by feeling. Marvellous as this at pears at first thought, it is simple enough. The score is written on a long roll of stout paper by cutting holes through it in the form of squares a sewing-machine, is provided with a multitude of small brass fingers, each of which is connected by a wire with the pipe of the organ which it opeover a brass tube. When the fingers rest on the celectric current is transmitted, because paper is a

> only a loss of four calves and one the brass below, the current is transmitted and the sound produced. The length of the note is governed by the length of the slit in the paper. A noiseless bellows-machine, run by wind conducted through a pipe from the organ, works the feeding apparatus. To aid in producing orches tral effects, drums, cymbals, bells, &c., are added to the ordinary pipe-organ and operated by electricity in the same manner as the pipes. A greatly increased volume of sound and much richer harmonic combinations can be made by this instrument than it is possible for a single performer to prcduce upon an organ, in consequence of the fact that the perfermer hasonly his ten fingers, while . . electrical many notes at once a. sired. All the notes on the organ that can be performed last evening with pleasing effect. As the reading instrument i correctly written, there were, o course, no false notes. It was obviously machine music, however, but and might readily have been mistapondence N. Y. Tribune

> > Brevities and Levilles.

578 A bad sign-To sign another man's name to a note. 23- A woman in Dawson, Ga, acciy son?" "Oh! nothing, only trying to hit Frank on the fingers with the $2º Said Pat: "Faix, where wild ye #3" A Minnesota Judge, in pro be. The first thing on grandma's have turned up what he sat down in use the off one for an extra cuilt-Cincia anything that will reconcile a man to married life, it is the knowledge that Tommy was made, the M. D. unhesi- steal; over him like a dream as he bursts inal Tom's feet that time would not Swede to turn an ice-cream freezer for felt very cold and passive in Frank's mighty little thought to what he have remedied. Then all sorts of an hour under the impression that there's 23" I feel set back a year in my re-tion. Thomas sets up in a dubious fellow who lived in the neighborhood. all returning from a circus on exhibition running?" was the surprised query. The eye, read this, and murmured, as he 29- "Yes, sir," yelled a preacher in a eyes—she trembled like a leaf. In the calculations she had made and who was expressed on from allowance for an exigency like this.

"Can we do anything further for the calculations are in to order.

"Do you remember the young wond the young won and see in to order.

Returning. Mr. Shay stopped at man who was expressed on from the first two many things offered, each equally arrived in this city. In the afternoon the winter who was expressed on from Millington, Iowa, two months since?"

A tall, silver-haired gentleman to order.

Returning. Mr. Shay stopped at many thing the first two many things offered, each equally some and many things offered, each equally suitable to your wants.

See the number of these attractions. Here you find, the largest Stationery. Stock and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; said the office of the number of these attractions. Here you find, the largest Stationery. Stock and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for black on the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and you offit have two for the cash; and MACHINE WORKS, AUGUS-south of Baltingre, and MACHINE

GREAT INDUCEMENTS

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The acme of machine-music appears to have All Articles Warranted in Quality, and not to be Surpassed in Prices.

> AVING discontinued business at Pine House, I am now offering at Edge-field C. H., one of the Best Stocks of DIEY GOODS, HATS, SHOES, HOOTS, FANCY and FAMILY GROCE-RIES, PLANTATION SUPPLIES, & PROVISIONS that has been in this market for many years.

> Will also receive, this week, a superior Stock of BRANDIES. WHISKEY, WINES, GIN, ALE, PORTER, BEER. I intend to keep the above articles as good as the market can afford, and olicit again the trade of my former customers. All of my Liquors are warranted pure, old and fine.

Give me a call and get goods at a bargain. W. A. SANDERS.

CASH GETS ALL THE BARGAINS!

KERNAGHAN.

GROCER AND MERCHANT,

JOHNSTON, S. C.,

S always prepared to establish this fact by keeping in Store, and on the way from Market.

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, MATS, CAPS, SHOES, BOOTS, HARD WARE, CUTLERY, TIN VESSELS, And everything else useful or ornamental on a plantation.

Liquors and Wines The Finest LIQUORS, and the best of WINES,-all low for ready W. G. KERNAGHAN,

April 6, 9m16]

G. ROGERS. 147 & 149 Broad St., Augusta, Ga.

FUHIVITH AT REDUCED PRICES! AM now offering my large Stock of FURNITUNE at such Low Figures, for Cash, as will make it an inducement to all in want of goods in my line, to buy at once. My Stock is large and well selected. It comprises all grades, -common, medium and fine. Call and see. UNDERTAKING!

METALLIC CASES and CASKETS. A large assortment of WOOD COFFINS, CASES and CASKETS. Calls attended to at all hours. E. G. MOGERS.

147 & 149 BROAD ST., AUGUSTA, GA. Augusta, Mar. 29, 1875.

Piano and Organ Emporium!

265 BROAD STREET

ROBINSON PUBLICATIONS .-- Songs, Sheet Man-

The finest Italian Strings for Violin and Guitar rec from European manufacturers ANY Musical Instrument, Song or Sheet of Mus strings of the finest quality can be had promptly by ordering from us.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 23, GOODS!

The Best Always the Cheapest!

194 AND 196 BROAD STREET,

OULD respectfully inform the public that he is how receiving one of the best SPRING STOCKS of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS which he has ever offered in Augusta. NOT ONLY THE BEST, BUT THE CHEAPEST. He would request SPECIAL ITTENTION to a few of the leading articles, which will indicate prices. 100 pieces Black ALPACA at 25c, worth 40. 100 pieces VERY SUPERIOR do. do., 50c, worth 5 300 pieces PACIFIC: 1,400 LAWN, 12 1-2c, wo 1 16 1-2 in New York

100 pieces 4-4 PERCALES, 12 1-2c; worth 19. 5 cases 4-4 PRINTS, 12 1-2c. 50 cases best AMERICAN STANDARD PRINT

200 dozen LINEN DAMASK DOYLIES, 50c perdozen. 1 case Black GRENADINE, 40c, worth 75. New and Elegant DRESS GOODS of all the late style

200 bales of DOMESTIC GOODS, in SHIRTING SHEETING, DRILL INGS, OSNABURGS, STRIPES, DENIMS, TICKINGS, PLAIDS, HOME-SPUNS, SEA ISLANDS and all the leading domenics made in this country, at unusually low prices. To all of which he would respectfully invite the attention of the public.

JAMES A. GRAY. 194 & 196 Broad St., Augusta, Ga. Apr. 1, 1875.

W. T. GARY, FITS CURED FREE!

No. 213, Broad Street, AUGUSTA, GA. Will Practice in all of the Courts outh Carolina and Courts of Georgia. May 12, 1875. ly 21 JNO. R. ABNEY, Attorney at Law, EDGEFIELD, S. C. Will Bractice in the State and Federal Sparkling Ale!

Attorney at Law,

JUST received one Cask YOUNGER'S SPARKLING EDINBURGHALE a healthy, pleasant, summer beverage. For sale at low figures by the Bottle, or

BUY YOUK Gin and Mill Gearing

Any person suffering from the above disease is requested to address Dr. PRICE, and a trial botte of medicine will be for-warded by Express, FREE! The only cos being the Express charg-

Dr. Price ha made the treatment of FIT OR EPILEPSY a study for years, and he will warrant a ure by the use of his remedy.

Do not fail to send to him for a trial give

WILL CURE YOU, no matter of ow long standing your case may be, or low many other remedies Circulars and testimonials sent with FREATRIA BOTTLE,

Be particular to give your Express, as well as your Po t Office direction, and Dr. CHAS. T. FRICE. 67 William Street, New York. April 19, 1875. 1y

Lemons!

Lemons!

Drug Store.

A LWANS on hand—as cheap as the cheapest—at G, L, PENN & SONS

CALHOUN & MOBLEY,

JOHNSTON, S. C.,

NNOUNCE their determination to keep always in Store, at the LOW-EST FIGURES, a most desirable assortment of

DRY GOODS,

All the best brands of FERTILIZERS for sale on the most accom-particulars apply to Parties indebted to us must settle at once, or find their Notes and Accounts in the hands of a Trial Justice for collection.

CALHOUN & MOBLEY,

JOHNSTON, S. C.

PINE HOUSE, S. C.,

DEALERS IN

LIVERY STABLE!

Our LIVERY STABLE is in good repair. HORSES and VEHICLES to hire The best attention will be given to Horses left in our care.

23 Parties indebted to us will please settle at once.

WISE & HUGHES, PINE HOUSE, S. C.

ESTABLISHED IN 1850.

WATCH-MAKERS AND JEWELLERS. The subscribers would respectfully inform the citizens of Edgefield, and surrounding country, that they keep a special establishment for the Repair of Watches and Jewelry. Also, HAIR WORK, in every design, made to order. All work entrusted to their care will be executed Promptly, Neatly, and warranted for one year.

Of the best European and American Manufacture in the Southern States, with a select assortment of Rich and New Styles of ETRUSCAN GOLD JEWELRY, set with Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Oriental Garnets, Coral, &c.

Also, SOLAD SILVER WARE, consisting of Tea Sets, Waiters, Ice and Water Pitchers, Castars, Goblets, Cups, Forks, and everything in the Silverware line.

FINE CUTLERY, SPECTACLES, WALKING CANES, and FANCY GOODS of every variety to be found in a first-class Jewelry establishment.

A. PRONTAUT & SON,

Between the Central and Globe Hotel, Augusts, Ga.

Jan. 19.

"THE GOLDEN RULE!"

DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

At Ridge Spring, S. C.,

GROCERIES,

READY MADE CLOTHING,

20 Call, "many a time and oft," if you want genuine bargains. M. H. COGBURN & CO. RIDGE SPRING, S. C.

AVING furnished my Factory with NEW and MOST IMPROVE MACHINERY, I will be enabled to offer a large stock of Farm WAGON CARTS, HARNESS, &c., &c. I can now offer greater inducements in my Factory, Corner Campbell and Ellis Streets, and for yourselves. _

THE GREAT SOUTHERN

Augusta, Ga., Oct.6, 1874.

275 King Street, Charleston, So. Ca. The Cheapest. ORY GOODS, NOTIONS,

OIL CLOTHS, CARPETS, MATTINGS,

To the Editor of Advertiser.

ESTEEMED FRIEND: Will you please inform your readers that I have a posi-CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, and all disorders of the Throat and Lungs, and that, by its use in my practice, I have cured hundreds of cases, and will

$1,000 00 for a case it will not benefit. Indeed, so strong is my faith, I will send a Sample, free, to any sufferer addressing me.

Please show this letter to any one you may know who is suffering from these discovery and obliga-

cases, and oblige,
Faithfully yours,
Dr. T. F. BURT,
60 William Street, New York.

Safe Deposit Boxes.

THE NATIONAL BANK of Angusta is prepared to lease small Sad ES inside its Fire Proof Vault, at moderate rates, for the recombine of Bonds, Securities, Deeds, Leval Documents, Plate, Coin, Jewelry, and valuables of every description.

G. M. THEW,
Cashier.

Sept. 9

17

38

Scap.

TROWELLS' Pride of the Kitch SOAP—far superior to any oth cleaning and scouring—for sale by G. L. PENN & S.

TRADE! Dealers in all Articles Pretty and Useful,

HARDWARE, CROCKERY.

GROCERIES.

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS,

And many other things too tedious to enumerate.

For sale a TWO STORY DWELLING in cur Village. For further

March 2, 1875, WISE & HUGHES

DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET OUTPITS, FANCY GROCERIES FINE LIQUORS, CIGARS, TOBACCO, and STATIONERY,

HAVE removed to the commodious Store formerly occupied by Sams & Carwile, where the best of articles are sold for the very lowest cash prices.

A. Prontaut & Son,

At their Store will be found one of the largest Stocks of Gold and Silver Watches

DRY GOODS. NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS,

And all other Articles usually kept in a Village Store.

THE LOWREY WAGON

line than ever offered before. Send for a Price List; and if you come to Augusta, be sure to call

J. H. LOWREY.

G. P. CURRY'S EXCHANGE BANK, 191 Broad St., Augusta, Ga. HAVING purchased the building upwards received, and interest allow on the same by special agreement. Bo and Stocks bought and sold. Loans gotiated. Sight Exchange on New Yo England, Ireland, Scotland, Germa France and other European countr sold at lowest rates. Country Mercha can be supplied with Exchange at hours of the day. By permission. I refer to Mes

By permission, I refer to Mes Wright & Norris, and to Col. Jno. Hu KINARD & WILE

Gents' Furnishing Good CLOTHING. HATS, UMBRELLAS, CAN

MAIN STREET, COLUMBIA, June 4, 1874 TILMAN WATSO TRIAL JUSTICE

Edgefield County, S. C.

&c., &c.

TILMAN WATSO